THIS WEEK IN PANTHER BASEBALL

The University of Northern Iowa baseball team will head north to face Cal, New Mexico and Minnesota in the Metrodome Tournament this Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The Panthers are coming off a 3-1 series win at Arkansas-Little Rock where the Panthers hit .318 as a team while allowing just 10 earned runs over four games.

Dane Embury led the Panthers with a .545 average in the series. The senior outfielder was 6-of-11 from the plate, and drew seven walks in the series.

Chris Lopez hit .412 in the series. The senior was 7-of-17 from the plate, and six of his seven hits were for extra-bases. Lopez tallied four doubles and two home runs in the series to have a 1.000 slugging percentage on the week.

Nick Kirk, Taylor Sinclair and Guido Fonseca each collected wins in the series. Tim Flattery earned his first save of the year with a three-inning hitless effort in the third game of the series.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE

LEADING OFF...

- Dane Embury hit .545 against UALR, collecting six hits in 11 at-bats. The senior also drew seven walks in the four-game series, tallying an .818 on-base percentage for the weekend. Embury has collected a hit in each of the Panthers' last seven games, the longest current hit streak on the team.

- Chris Lopez had a break-out weekend at UALR, tallying seven hits, six of them for extra bases. Lopez hit six doubles in the series and two home runs, finishing the weekend with a 1.000 slugging percentage.

- The Panther bullpen has been solid for the Panthers this season, especially seniors Nick Lauver, Mike O'Leary and Tim Flattery. The trio has combined to pitch 20.1 innings of relief, allowing just two earned runs for a combined 0.89 ERA. That group has allowed just 11 hits while striking out 12.

Head Coach Rick Heller

9th Season
221-232-1 UNI Record
512-426-4 Career Record
Upper Iowa, 1986

Rick Heller is in his ninth season as the head baseball coach at the University of Northern Iowa. During his tenure, he has recorded more than 200 victories, one MVC championship and an NCAA Regional berth. Heller has developed the program into a conference contender while coaching two MVC Most Valuable Players and one MVC Pitcher of the Year.

Since Heller's arrival in 2000, the school record books virtually have been rewritten. Fifty team and individual records have been set in the past eight years. The Panthers have acquired a strong tradition as one of the best offensive teams in the conference as well as the country since Heller signed on. In Heller's eight years, UNI has led the league in hitting three times, including being ranked 10th nationally in 2001 with a .333 average. The Panthers were sixth in the nation in stolen bases with 130 in 2003. The team has averaged more than seven runs per game in three of the eight years he has been at the helm. In 2003, Adam Boeve led the league in RBI and home runs and finished second in batting en route to becoming the second MVC Player of the Year during Heller's tenure.

Team hitting is not the only thing that has improved since Heller's arrival. UNI's earned run average has lowered in five of Heller's years with the 2006 ERA being the best in school history. The club's strikeout to walk ratio has improved nearly every season since 2000. The 2003 and 2004 Panther squads also put together the top two defensive teams in school history with an overall fielding percentage of .964 both seasons.

HELLER'S HIGHLIGHTS

- 2000 23-33 (9-22) 2-2 against #15 Creighton
- 2001 35-28 (17-15) MVC Tournament Champion
- 2002 30-25-1 (14-18) 10-2 record to close the season
- 2003 27-28 (16-15) 4-0 against Creighton
- 2004 25-31 (12-20) 2-0 against Iowa
- 2005 26-28 (9-15) 2-1 series win over #29 Creighton
- 2006 28-27 (10-14) Five batters over .300 avg.
- 2007 Earned 500th career and 200th UNI victory

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN BEARS

The Bears enter the weekend with a 6-1-1 record and a No. 18 national ranking from Baseball America. Cal's only loss of the season came at the hands of No. 5 Missouri, and the Bears have won three games against top-25 teams, including a 5-0 win over No. 12 San Diego on March 2.

The Bears have a potent offense, hitting .324 as a team and combining for 11 home runs through their first eight games of the season. The Bears are averaging 7.75 runs a game, while holding their opponents to just 3.4 runs per contest. Seven regular players for Cal are hitting .324 or better, and Josh Satin (.459) and Mark Canha (.455) are both hitting better than .400.

The Panthers are schedule to face sophomore left-hander Chris Petrini on Friday. Petrini allowed four hits and four earned runs in 5.2 innings of work to earn a win over No. 24 Fresno State on Feb. 28.

SCOUTING THE LOBOS

New Mexico is 7-3 entering the weekend and is looking to end a three-game losing streak after winning the first seven games of the season.

The Lobos are coming off a pair of losses at the hands of No. 1 Arizona State.

New Mexico is hitting .335 as a team, and the eight regular starters each hit .289 or better. Rafael Neda leads UNM with a .419 average. He also has five doubles and two home runs on the season.

The Panthers are scheduled to face junior right-hander Willy Kesler on Saturday. Kesler has a 2-0 record on the season and has allowed just three earned runs in 11.2 innings to hold a team-low 2.31 ERA.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN GOPHERS

Minnesota enters the weekend with a 2-4 record on the year. The Golden Gophers are coming off two straight wins, which helped them win the Dairy Queen Classic in the Metrodome last weekend.

The Gophers picked up a pair of wins over ranked teams in the Dairy Queen Classic, topping No. 18 Tulane 7-5 and No. 29 Pepperdine 5-2.

Freshman Phil Isaksson pitched a perfect 3.2 innings in relief for the Gophers against Pepperdine on Sunday, helping her earn Big Ten Co-Pitcher of the Week honors.

Minnesota has been led this season by Matt Nohelty, who is hitting .385 on the season. The Gophers average 4.3 runs per game, while giving up 9.3.

FAST START

Brandon Douglas got his junior season off to a blistering start. The preseason All-Valley short-stop went 11-of-16 in the series against Centenary, including four doubles. Douglas collected three three-hit games in that series.

OFF ON THE WRONG FOOT

The first play of the season proved to be a costly one for the Panthers. Preseason All-MVC selection Deric Manrique was able to run out an infield single, but he turned his ankle in the process. Manrique sat out the remainder of the Centenary series and will likely be out of action this weekend.

FILLING IN

After the injury to Manrique, redshirt freshman Levi Ferguson moved into center field and the leadoff spot for UNI. In his first game as the leadoff man, Ferguson went 3-of-4 from the plate and scored three runs. He hit .375 in the opening series for UNI, and he collected a hit in each of the Panthers' four games.

WHAT A RELIEF

Closer Nick Lauver made a good impression in his first series with the Panthers. The senior transfer from Grundy Center, Iowa, pitched 1.2 innings in two appearances without allowing a hit. He picked up a save in the Panthers' win on Feb. 23.

ROAD WARRIORS

Once again, the Panthers' early schedule has them traveling. UNI will play its first 20 games away from Riverfront Stadium. UNI will play in four-game series at Centenary and Arkansas-Little Rock, along with a three-game tournament in the Metrodome and the annual nine-game spring trip to Bradenton, Fla. The Panthers will play its first home game on March 26 when they host UW-Platteville.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

The Panthers' opening series against Centenary was the first time the team had been able to play or practice outside since October 13. The team has been training in its indoor facility, the UNI-Dome.

PRESEASON HONORS

UNI's Deric Manrique and Brandon Douglas were each tabbed to the preseason All-Missouri Valley Conference team. Manrique and Douglas were each named to the All-MVC first team last season. In 2007, Manrique led the Panthers with a .351 average, and he stole a league-high 30 bases. Douglas is a two-time All-Valley first-team selection. He led the Panthers with 19 doubles a year ago.
