NEW MEXICO NOTES

* New Mexico is off to a 6-2 start in 2012-13. That is the best start since the 2008-09 season, which saw the Lobos start the year off with an 11-1 record. Their six wins in eight games puts them ahead of their pace of last season. The 2011-12 Lobos took 14 games to win six.

* The Lobos have been sharing the scoring load through eight games this season. Five different players have led the team in scoring in those eight games. Furthermore, four Lobos (Durbin, Halasz, Owens and Vaughn) are all in the top 20 in scoring in the conference.

* A part of UNM's early success this season has been winning "the battle of the three-point line". New Mexico is second in the conference in three-point shooting at 34.3%. Caroline Durbin's scorching 51.5% has contributed to the Lobos' strong shooting from beyond the arc. As good as they have been at shooting from deep, the Lobos have tightened down on opponent shooting from beyond the arc. They're second in the conference in defensive three-point shooting with opponents shooting a lowly 23.1% from long range. They've held half of their opponents to less than 20% shooting from three-point range.

NEW MEXICO GAME NOTES

- * After shooting just about 50% from the free throw line in their first six games, Coach Sanchez and company have been steadily improving their percentages at the charity stripe. Their 76.9% against Weber State and 71.4% versus Houston were season highs. Individually, Deeva Vaughn has played a major role in the turnaround. The junior is shooting 11-13 (84.6%) in those last two games.
- * Caroline Durbin continues her play that earned her First Team All-Mountain West a year ago. She's currently tenth in the conference in scoring and has scored ten or more points in all but one game this season. Going back to the beginning of the 2011-12 season, Durbin has scored in double digits in 34 of her last 39 regular season games.
- * Freshman point guard Bryce Owens has been an immediate force this season. The Texan leads all conference freshmen in scoring, field goal percentage, assists, steals and minutes played.
- * New Mexico is 6-1 at home this season with this week's two games (Cal State Fullerton and Arizona) being the final home non-conference games. Those six wins, with two more games to go, are the most home non-conference wins since the 2009-10 season. The 2008-09 Lobos recorded ten non-conference wins inside The Pit.
- * Tuesday night's match-up against the Titans will be a landmark of sorts for Deeva Vaughn. The game will be her ninth appearance this season, which matches her total number of games played in her injury-shortened 2011-12 season.
- * Redshirt sophomore Antiesha Brown transferred from Texas Tech last season. After redshirting she will be eligible to play after the fall semester. That means she will be eligible to play beginning with the game at New Mexico State on December 18, 2012.
- * The Lobos are no strangers to teams hailing from the great state of California. Since the 2000-01 season, UNM has played 51 games against teams from The Golden State. New Mexico is 35-16 in those games, which includes a 14-7 record against non-conference opponents from California.
- * Caroline Durbin has been named a candidate for the 2012-13 Senior CLASS award. She is one of 30 NCAA Division I women's basketball players to receive an official nomination. The award is an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School. It focuses on the total student-athlete experience and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. She is UNM's first candidate since Amy Beggin in the 2009-10 season and is the only player from the Mountain West represented among the nominees. The candidates will be narrowed down to ten finalists mid-season before this year's award winner is announced during the NCAA Women's Final Four® in New Orleans in early April.
- * You know an arena is special when six letters is all one needs to identify it. "The Pit" is nationally recognized as one of the top basketball venues. Need more evidence? How about Sports Illustrated ranking it as one of the top 20 sporting venues, of any sport, in the world for the 20th century. The Pit is truly a special place, and it has created an unparalleled environment for the New Mexico women's basketball program. The Lobos have led the Mountain West in attendance every year of the conference's existence since the 1999-2000 season. During that same timespan, the program has ranked in the top 10 nationally in attendance in each of those years.
- * The women's basketball program at the University of New Mexico held its inaugural season back in 1974-75. Despite the program taking a hiatus from 1987-1991, the Lobos have played 976 games in the program's history. Its 1,000th game will be played on February 16, 2013 at Boise State University.
- * Don't forget! You can join Coach Sanchez and Joe Behrend for Lobo Talk on Monday nights from 7-8 p.m. at Kelly's Brew Pub in Nob Hill.

ON COACH SANCHEZ

"Yvonne Sanchez is one of the hardest working coaches in our game. She's also one of the most invested. I've had the privilege of working with her on various committees and boards through the WBCA, and her commitment to both our game and young people is extraordinary. Yvonne is known across the country as a tireless, energetic recruiter. Now that same energy and passion will undoubtedly be breathed into every aspect of the New Mexico program."

- Sherri Coale, head women's basketball coach, Oklahoma Sooners

"Yvonne Sanchez has worked every job in basketball except the job that required an 18-inch seat change. She has studied, recruited and marketed the UNM basketball program with passion and patience as she prepared for an opportunity to be Head Coach. Her work ethic and desire to provide the total student athlete experience will make 'The Pit' a better place for fans and tougher for opponents. Yvonne's integrity and resourcefulness will allow New Mexico basketball to return to the dominant power in the Mountain West." - Debbie Antonelli, ESPN/Westwood One Women's Basketball Analyst
