Tough Ending Doesn't Diminish Gains That Were Made

As he peers back over his shoulder to 2002-03, Villanova head coach Jay Wright acknowledges that it was a ride no one could have envisioned. Along the way there were some significant highs and a late season dip exacerbated by injuries and suspensions resulting from the misuse of a university telephone access code.

"It was tough at times," concedes the Wildcats head coach, "and certainly the ending was not what we had hoped for. But I think there are a lot of good lessons we took from it that will benefit us in the future."

The campaign began at New York's Madison Square Garden in the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic. Villanova faced eventual Final Four participant Marquette. The Golden Eagles rode the 17 points of All-American Dwyane Wade to a 73-61 victory. Freshmen Jason Fraser (13 points and 13 rebounds) and Allan Ray (16 points) prospered in their collegiate debuts in their hometown.

Villanova earned its first victory in its second outing, a 64-41 triumph over Drexel. Ray scored 15 points and senior forward Ricky Wright tied a career high with 16 caroms before the customary sellout crowd of 6,500 at the Pavilion.

Next, the Wildcats journeyed north to Alaska for the Carrs/Safeway Great Alaska Shootout in Anchorage. Fraser was the story in an 87-71 opening round victory over Loyola Marymount on Thanksgiving night as the Amityville, N.Y. native scored 24 points and collected 15 rebounds.

The following night Villanova scored a major upset over ninth ranked Michigan State on the strength of strong efforts from Ricky Wright and Gary Buchanan. Buchanan, just two weeks removed from arthroscopic knee surgery, scored 29 points off the bench while Ricky Wright added 18 points in the 81-73 win.

"What Gary did was really remarkable," said Jay Wright following the win. "We really didn't know what he could give us but he was sensational."

In the championship game, Villanova, playing its third game in three nights, began sluggishly against the College of Charleston. The 'Cats trailed 29-22 at halftime after shooting just 33 percent in that period.

But Villanova fought back and when guard Derrick Snowden drained a three with 46 seconds left in regulation, the game was knotted at 69. However, A.J. Harris drove the lane and converted a basket with 11 seconds to go, which lifted Charleston to the tournament title.

Upon its return to Pennsylvania, Villanova encountered a feisty young La Salle club in the Philadelphia Big Five Classic on Dec. 7. The Wildcats built a second half advantage and then held off the Explorers for a 74-71 win. Ricky Wright's 21 points and 12 rebounds were the difference.

In its next outing against a Big Five foe, the 'Cats were not nearly as fortunate. Pennsylvania built a comfortable margin in the first half and then weathered several Wildcat surges to post a 72-58 win. The Wildcats rebounded with a 72-60 win over UMBC three nights later at the Pavilion as Randy Foye led the way with 16 points, all of which came in the decisive second half.

A nine day break for exams came next. The 'Cats then took a trip to Dayton to face the Flyers on its Ohio homecourt for the first time since the 1985 NCAA Tournament. Dayton connected on 54 percent of its first half field goal attempts and owned a 42-31 advantage at intermission. Yet the 'Cats dug in and rallied behind Foye and Buchanan. The game was tied at 78-78 before a

Gary Buchanan

VU turnover gave the Flyers the final shot of regulation. Brooks Hall banked a shot as the horn sounded to give Dayton a hard-fought 80-78 win.

The Wildcats used another strong second half to defeat Binghamton 68-53 at the Pavilion on Dec. 27. Snowden's 15 points paced four Wildcats in double figures.

On New Year's Eve, Temple and Villanova staged their annual Big Five battle at the Pavilion. Fraser's eight points and eight rebounds were only a part of his value as he helped spark the Wildcats to a 70-62 win. Ray and Curtis Sumpter came off the bench to combine for 26 points.

A visit to Memphis kicked off the 2003 portion of the campaign. Another tight battle went down to the final minute before 19,000 partisan Tiger fans at the Pyramid. A fadeaway jumper by Billy Richmond with 12 seconds left broke a 68-68 tie and Memphis picked up a 72-68 win.

Villanova dived into Big East Conference play with a pair of homecourt victories over Virginia Tech and Providence. The Wildcats had to work overtime to down the Hokies 92-83 before dealing the Friars an 81-67 loss on Jan. 11.

St. John's posed a formidable challenge in VU's first Big East road foray. Although the 'Cats had pushed opponents on the road, they had gone 365 days between wins on an opponent's home floor. Villanova's four freshmen saw to it that the streak would go no further. Foye, Fraser, Ray and Sumpter all made key plays in the waning minutes as the 'Cats pulled away from the Red Storm for a 82-73 win, Villanova's first win at SJU since 1996.

In its next outing, the Wildcats journeyed to another difficult venue for road teams at Rutgers. But Buchanan keyed a 10-0 spurt to start the game and Villanova never looked back as it rolled to a 110-89 triumph. Buchanan scored 27 points to lead six Wildcats in double figures. The 110 points were the most ever scored by a Scarlet Knight opponent at the Louis Brown Athletic Center.

Next came a duel with Boston College at the Pavilion. In one of the most entertaining games of the campaign, Villanova exploded for 56 second half points on the way to a 94-83 victory. Buchanan scored 27 points and Ray added 18 points in a win that lifted VU to its first 5-0 start in the Big East since 1982-83.

Connecticut halted that perfect mark on Jan. 25. Snowden's 3-point goal from halfcourt before the halftime horn sounded cut the Huskies' halftime advantage to 38-34. When Ray sank a 3-point field goal with 14:53 to go in the second half, the contest was tied at 44. However, UConn rode the efforts of freshman Rashad Anderson and Ben Gordon to a 74-65 win.

A one week layoff seemed to affect Villanova adversely. West Virginia connected on 64 percent of its field goal attempts to upend the 'Cats 91-83 on Feb. 1 at the Pavilion. Two nights later Saint Joseph's extracted revenge for a 2001-02 drubbing at the Pavilion as Jameer Nelson sparked the Hawks to a 40-9 first half edge. The final score was 92-75 in favor of the Hawks at the Palestra.

On Feb. 8, the Wildcats got back on track with a 72-67 overtime win at Miami, the school's first win in South Florida since 1995. Buchanan delivered 23 points, including 6-of-7 from beyond the 3-point arc, and Ricky Wright made some key plays in the extra session to boost VU.

The following week found Villanova at its home away from home, the First Union Center and the results were mixed. A shaky first half doomed VU in what became a 52-50 loss to St. John's on Feb. 11. Four days later, the 'Cats rebounded as Buchanan scored 28 points in a 79-70 win over Connecticut.

A February blizzard forced postponement of Villanova's scheduled meeting at Seton Hall, setting up a daunting gauntlet of games to close the regular season.

It was a tough stretch and was made more difficult by the fact that Fraser went to the sidelines after trying to play through pain on Feb. 22 at Providence. Fraser would not return and suddenly the 'Cats were without their best interior defender and rebounder. A 70-60 loss to the Friars gave a hint of what was to come.

Andrew Sullivan sparked a rousing 75-56 victory over Miami on Senior Night at the Pavilion. The London native scored eight points and grabbed 11 rebounds and chased Darius Rice into a 4-of-13 shooting night from the field.

John Allen's jumper in the lane as the clock expired gave Seton Hall a 57-56 win over the 'Cats at the Continental Airlines Arena on Feb. 27. Less than 48 hours later, the Wildcats legs betrayed them in a 88-63 loss. VU played well at Boston College but succumbed to a great show by Troy Bell in a 92-84 loss on March 4.

Three days later, Villanova announced that a total of 12 Wildcats would face suspensions for the misuse of a university telephone access code. VU could only dress seven players, including two walk-ons, but battled No. 8 Pittsburgh to the wire. The Panthers barely survived, 56-54.

With the same lineup, the 'Cats hung tough with Georgetown before fading late in a 46-41 loss in the Big East Tournament. The season came to a close in a 74-59 loss at Siena.

"In the long run," states Jay Wright, "our young guys will benefit from all that we endured."
