NCAA TOURNAMENT STORYLINES

Special Seed

Villanova enters the NCAA Tournament with a No. 1 seed this season for the first time ever. The Wildcats are making their 27th overall appearance in the field, including their 16th appearance since teams began to be seeded in 1979. Villanova's previous highest seed had been No. 3, which they received four times. The Wildcats are 39-26 (.600) in the tournament in their first 26 appearances, including the school's lone national championship in 1985.

Ray Cleared to Practice without Restrictions

Senior guard Allan Ray was cleared to return to all basketball activities and was expected to participate in the team's practice session on Wednesday afternoon. After suffering a soft tissue injury to his right eye in the team's loss to Pittsburgh in the semifinals of the Big East Tournament, Ray visited an eye specialist in Philadelphia and was cleared to practice and play earlier this week.

All-American Announcement

Senior guards Randy Foye and Allan Ray have each been rewarded for their outstanding seasons by the NABC and Sporting News. Both organizations selected Foye as a first team All-American, while Ray was a second-team pick. In December, the two guards were named the best backcourt tandem in the country by SI.com, and they combine to average 39 points per game for the Wildcats.

Polling Places

Villanova began this season ranked No. 4 in the preseason polls of both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today. The Wildcats have remained in the top 10 throughout the entire season, dropping no lower than No. 8 in either poll. Villanova has been ranked as high as No. 2 in each poll on two occasions. In the final regular season polls released this week, the Wildcats are No. 3 in the AP Poll and No. 4 in ESPN/USA Today.

UPDATED SEASON AND CAREER STATISTICS
PLAYER AND TEAM NOTES

- Villanova currently has 264 three-pointers this season through its first 29 games. The Wildcats need two more triples to tie the school record of 266 for a single-season. That record was set in 1994-95 when the team played 33 games. In Big East games, Villanova made 145 three-pointers this season. That total ranks as the second-highest in school history and the third-most in league history. Notre Dame made a conference-record 155 three-pointers in league games last season. The team has attempted a school-record 683 three-pointers thus far on the season.
- The Wildcats finished the regular season with a 24-3 overall record and .889 winning percentage. The winning percentage of .889 is the best in the regular season in the post-World War II era for Villanova. In shortened seasons during wartime, the Wildcats turned in a 19-2 record (.905) in 1942-43.
- Senior guard Allan Ray currently has 95 three-pointers on the season. He needs six more to tie the school record of 101 triples in a season, set by Gary Buchanan in 2001-02. Ray's current tally of 251 three-point attempts is a new school record for a single season. Ray joined Buchanan as the only players in Villanova history to make 300 career triples when he connected from long range against Pittsburgh in the semifinals of the Big East Tournament on March 10.
- Sophomore guard Kyle Lowry enters the NCAA Tournament with a total of 68 steals for the season. He has had at least four steals in a game on 10 occasions this season, and his current season total ranks as the sixth-most in a season in Wildcat history. Villanova's single-season record is 87 steals by Kerry Kittles in 1993-94. Lowry is up to 99 career steals and is ranked 25th among all Villanova players.
- Senior guard Randy Foye had two assists against Pittsburgh in the semifinals of the Big East Tournament, enabling him to move into the school's top 10 in the category. He has 408 career assists and is tied with Kerry Kittles (1992-96) for 10th place. Jonathan Haynes (1992-95) had 446 assists and is ninth all-time.
- Randy Foye also had a steal against Pittsburgh to boost his career total to 187. In career steals he ranks seventh all-time for the Wildcats. He needs three more steals to tie Lance Miller (1989-93) for sixth place and with 13 more swipes could become the fifth player in school history with 200 career steals.
- Allan Ray continues to move up among the school's all-time scoring leaders. Currently, he has scored 1,961 points and needs just 39 more to become the seventh Wildcat player to reach 2,000 career points. Ray ranks seventh in school history in scoring and will be looking to match these six players with 2,000 career points: Kerry Kittles, Keith Herron, Bob Schafer, Doug West, Howart Porter and John Pinone.

The Notebook

Meeting Monmouth

The Wildcats first round NCAA Tournament opponent on Friday will be somewhat of a familiar one. Villanova is 4-0 all-time against the Hawks, with the most recent meeting coming last season. The Wildcats defeated Monmouth 70-50 at the Pavilion on December 7, 2004. Villanova shot 54 percent from the field in that game and received a game-high 14 points from both Curtis Sumpter and Allan Ray. Mike Nardi and Randy Foye also scored in double figures, and the Wildcats owned a 36-22 rebounding edge in the game.

A-Ray Cleared to Practice

Senior guard Allan Ray has been cleared to return to practice without restrictions after visiting an eye specialist upon the team's return to Philadelphia from the Big East Tournament. Ray suffered a soft tissue injury to his right eye in the team's semifinal loss to Pittsburgh. He was scheduled to return to practice on Wednesday and is expected to be in the starting lineup on Friday.

Prior to sustaining the injury against Pittsburgh, Ray had made a three-pointer in the first half. That triple was the 300th of his career, making him only the second Villanova player (Gary Buchanan) to reach that mark. Ray also needs just six more triples this season to tie Buchanan's single-season record of 101.

Ray is second on the team in scoring this season with 18.8 points per game. He has scored at least 20 points in a game 15 times this season and on 40 occasions throughout his career. Ray needs just 39 more points to become the seventh Villanova player to have 2,000 in his career.

Ray was named first team All-Big East this season and is also a second team All-America selection by the NABC and Sporting News.

Turning Over a New Leaf

In Jay Wright's first season at Villanova, the 'Cats set a school record and finished at the bottom of the Big East by committing 581 turnovers..

This season has been a different story, as Villanova has turned the ball over just 327 times while forcing 456 turnovers by the opposition. The Wildcats have a +4.4 turnover margin for the season and a 1.1 assist-to-turnover ratio. The team averages just 11.3 turnovers per game.

Season Notes

- Villanova owns victories over five ranked teams thus far in 2005-06, including Connecticut (No. 1), Oklahoma (No. 5), Louisville (No. 9), Georgetown (No. 17) and Syracuse (No. 20). All four of its losses have come against ranked foes, including Connecticut (No. 4), Texas (No. 8), Pittsburgh (No. 16) and West Virginia (No. 24).
- The win over No. 1 Connecticut on February 13 at the Wachovia Center was the program's fifth-ever win against the nation's top-ranked team. It was also the first-ever win against a top-ranked opponent in a home game. Villanova had previously defeated the No. 1 team four times, including three times on the road and once at a neutral site (1985 championship game against Georgetown).
- The Wildcats own an 12-3 (.800) record this season in games shown on national television. Over the last two seasons, Villanova is 21-5 (.808) in these kinds of games. Each of the team's possible NCAA Tournament games will be nationally televised.
- Villanova has reached the 25-win plateau for the seventh time in their history. The Wildcats need just one more win to tie the school record of 26 in a season, set during the 1995-96 season.
- The regular season winning percentage of .889 (24-3 entering Big East Tournament) is the second-best in school history, and the top mark in the postwar era. The only time Villanova had a better regular season winning percentage came in 1942-43 when the team went 19-2 (.905) in a season shortened due to World War II.
- Villanova enters the postseason ranked No. 3 in the nation in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. It is the highest ranking the team has ever carried into the postseason.

Kyle's Contribution

When Kyle Lowry made his collegiate debut in December 2004, after needing just three months to recover from an ACL injury, the excitement he brought to the team was immediate. However, his full impact may not have been known until he averaged 13.7 points, 5.7 rebounds and 2.0 assists per game in the NCAA Tournament. Getting a start against North Carolina in the Sweet 16 due to Curtis Sumpter's knee injury, Lowry scored 18 points, pulled down seven rebounds and had three assists while shooting 7-of-10 from the floor.

This season, Lowry has continued his success, ranking third on the team in scoring and rebounding with averages of 11.6 points and 4.6 boards per contest. He also leads the squad with 3.9 assists per game and 2.3 steals per outing. Lowry was a second team All-Big East selection this season.

The addition of Lowry has helped lift the Wildcats to new heights. Four weeks after he joined the lineup in 2004-05, in the wake of surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee, VU moved into the national rankings and has remained there since. Villanova is 43-11 (.796) since Lowry donned a Villanova uniform.

Sheridan's Been Strong

Will Sheridan is the only non-guard in Villanova's standard starting lineup and his efforts are sometimes overlooked. Yet this 6-8 junior is an integral component in the Wildcats attack.

In the Big East Quarterfinals against Rutgers, Sheridan poured in a season-high 17 points while also registering a season-best 13 rebounds, including nine on the offensive end. Over the course of his last 10 games, the product of Bear, Del., has averaged 7.1 ppg, 7.7 rpg and 2.4 bpg, while pulling down at least 10 rebounds four times in that span. Sheridan leads the 'Cats in rebounding at 6.2 rpg on the season. He also contributes 5.3 ppg and leads the squad in blocked shots with 44 (1.5 bpg).

Nardi Notes

Prior to coming down with tonsillitis on Feb. 4 against Marquette, Mike Nardi was playing some of the best basketball of his career on the Main Line (21.0 ppg average in the two games before that). Since missing one full game and parts of two others, Nardi has worked to regain the form he was in prior to the illness.

All six of his field goals in the Big East Tournament were three-pointers, and he averaged 9.0 points per game in two contests. Nardi ranks fourth on the team this season with 11.4 ppg and has scored in double figures on 16 occasions.

Foye Story

If the Wildcats receive a big lift from senior guard Randy Foye in the NCAA Tournament, it should come as no surprise. The 2006 Big East Player of the Year and a first team All-American selection by the NABC and the Sporting News, Foye has filled his season with extraordinary efforts.

In addition to his exploits this season, Foye excelled on the big stage in the NCAA Tournament last season. He averaged 20.0 points per game in the NCAA Tournament last season, including a then-career high 28 points against North Carolina in the Sweet 16.

In January SI.com named Foye and Allan Ray the nation's top backcourt tandem. The two combine to average 39.0 points, 9.5 rebounds and 4.6 assists per game. Earlier this month, the pair was included among the 30 finalists for the John R. Wooden national player of the year award.

To date in 2005-06 the 6-4 senior has topped the 20 point plateau 18 times. One reason he has been more explosive than in previous seasons is his improvement from beyond the 3-point arc. Entering his senior year, Foye was a .316 shooter from deep. This season he is connecting on .360 of his attempts from long range.

Notes: Villanova is making its 27th all-time appearance in the NCAA Tournament, and has a 39-26 (.600) overall record in the tournament. The Wildcats are seeded No. 1 for the first time ever, as their previous highest seed was No. 3. Villanova is in the Minneapolis Region bracket and will play up to two games at the Wachovia Center in Philadelphia to try and advance to next weekend's regional. In their first 26 NCAA appearances, the Wildcats have reached the regional semifinals (Sweet 16) on 13 occasions, the regional final (Elite 8) 10 times, the Final Four three times and the national championship game twice. Villanova won its only title in 1985 despite being seeded No. 8. That is the lowest seed to ever win the national championship.

- Villanova is 20-6 (.769) all-time in its first game in the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats received a first-round bye in both the 1981 and 1982 tournaments.
- This season will mark the eighth time that the Wildcats are playing NCAA Tournament games in Philadelphia, and their first NCAA appearance in the city since 1978. In all, Villanova has played nine NCAA Tournament games in Philadelphia, with a 7-2 record in those games. Each of the nine games was played in the Palestra.
- The Wildcats have played their 65 NCAA Tournament games in a total of 23 cities in 16 different states. Villanova has played more NCAA games (9) in Philadelphia than in any other city, and has played more tournament games (12) in North Carolina than in any other state. The Wildcats are 7-2 in games played in Philadelphia and 6-6 in games played in North Carolina, including 4-4 in Raleigh.
- Below are Villanova's records against the other teams in the Minneapolis Region bracket.

Great Guards

For much of the 2005-06 season the Wildcats have started a four-guard lineup that includes seniors Allan Ray and Randy Foye, junior Mike Nardi and sophomore Kyle Lowry. The four guards each average at least 29 minutes per game and all have double-figure scoring averages. For the season the four starting guards have totaled 1,752 points (80.1% of team total), 297 assists (81.1%) and 159 steals (72.3%).

Board Committee

Although its traditional four-guard lineup this season tends to leave Villanova undersized on the court at times, it hasn't mattered when it comes to rebounding. The Wildcats outrebound their opponents by a +1.4 margin (36.2-34.8) this season and have pulled down more rebounds than the opposition 17 times in 29 games. The team has grabbed at least 40 rebounds in a game nine times, and is a force on the offensive glass, managing better than 13 offensive caroms per game.

Grabbing rebounds has been a group effort by Villanova throughout the season. Junior forward Will Sheridan leads the team with 6.2 rebounds per game, but there are a total of six players who average at least 3.6 boards per contest. Senior guard Randy Foye grabs 5.6 rebounds per game, while sophomore Kyle Lowry contributes 4.6 rebounds per game. The other "board" members are senior Allan Ray (3.9 rpg), freshman Dante Cunningham (3.7 rpg) and senior Jason Fraser (3.6 rpg).

Catching Up With Curtis

Forward Curtis Sumpter announced on Feb. 28 that he will return to the Wildcats as a medical redshirt in 2006-07, and will not play in any games this season. Sumpter was cleared to begin individual basketball activities on Feb. 27 and is a part of practice each day.

Sumpter underwent successful surgery to repair a torn ACL in his left knee on Nov. 15. The operation was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, Ala.

In January of 2005, Sumpter sprained his right knee at Notre Dame on Jan. 7. He missed two games but returned to action as Villanova charged towards the NCAA Tournament. However, his season ended abruptly when he tore his ACL on March 20 against Florida in the NCAA Tournament. He underwent surgery on April 15 but re-injured the knee in a practice session on Oct. 19, necessitating the most recent procedure.

Sumpter can be expected to be a major force for the Wildcats next season. In 29 games last season, he averaged team-highs of 15.3 points and 7.2 rebounds per game while shooting .467 from the field, .433 from three-point range and .810 from the foul line.

Big Five Title

In the Big Five's 50th anniversary season, Villanova claimed the historic City Series title. The Wildcats wrapped up the honor with a 71-58 win over Saint Joseph's on Feb. 7 before a sellout crowd at the Palestra. It marked only the fourth time in the 50 year history of the alliance that two 3-0 squads had met for the undisputed crown.

Villanova defeated Penn, 62-55, on Dec. 13 at the Palestra; La Salle 98-57 on Dec. 22, and Temple on Dec. 31, 75-53. Allan Ray averaged 18.5 points and 5.0 rebounds in the four games of round-robin competition among the five schools.

New Faces Headed This Way

Five newcomers signed letters of intent on Nov. 16. The group includes:

Casiem Drummond, 6-10, Bloomfield (N.J.) Tech.

2004-05: 15.5 ppg; 9.0 rpg

"Casiem has outstanding skills, combined with size and strength," stated Jay Wright. "He has played in a very successful high school program under Nick Mariniello at Bloomfield Tech."

Andrew Ott, 6-10, Germantown (Pa.) Academy.

2004-05: 14 ppg, 11 rpg

"Andrew is a very unique basketball player," Wright stated. "He has the skills of a guard and size of a forward. He also comes from an extremely successful program, having learned from Jim Fenerty at Germantown Academy."

Antonio Pena, 6-8, St. Thomas More (Conn.)

2004-05: 21 ppg, 11 rpg

"Antonio has size, skill and athleticism," notes Wright. "He has Brooklyn toughness with prep school savvy. He's been well schooled by Tiny Morton at Lincoln High School and Jere Quinn at St. Thomas More."

Reggie Redding, 6-4, Saint Joseph's (Pa.) Prep

2004-05: 22 ppg, 9.4 rpg, 4.0 apg

"We're thrilled to have a classic Philadelphia guard join us in Reggie Redding," says Wright. "He is as prepared for college basketball as any player, having played for the legendary Speedy Morris at Saint Joseph's Prep."

Kraidon Woods, 6-8, Pocono East H.S.

"Kraidon has size, length and skills," Wright states. "As he adds bulk, he can become a very effective frontcourt player. He's got a great feel for Philadelphia basketball, having played for Bron Holland and Al Callejas."
