1997 WALTER PAYTON AWARD WINNER

At the 11th Annual Division I-AA National Football Awards Banquet held on Dec. 1, 1997, at the Official All Star Cafe in New York City, Villanova University senior wide receiver Brian Finneran (Mission Viejo, Calif.) won the Walter Payton Award given to the top offensive player in I-AA.

Finneran had a storybook career on the Main line from 1994-97, and was one of the nation's finest players throughout his four years. During his storied career, he caught 265 passes for 3,872 yards and 34 touchdowns. Finneran currently holds 14 Villanova school records including the career marks for receptions, yards and touchdowns.

Arriving on the Main Line in 1994 from Mission Viejo, Calif., along with twin brother and fellow Wildcat football standout Brad, Brian Finneran himself was on a mission. He immediately began to turn heads as a freshman in 1994, catching 56 passes for 805 yards and seven scores. Finneran set Wildcat class records for most catches and yards receiving in a season by a freshman. For his performance, he was named to the All-Yankee Conference second team.

Missing the first two games of his sophomore season due to a separated shoulder, Finneran returned slowly but still caught 32 passes for 471 yards on the year.

Finneran's real breakout season came in 1996, when as a junior, he posted 81 receptions for 1,207 yards and eight touchdowns. The honors came from everywhere, as he received first All-Atlantic 10, All-ECAC and All-American honors.

His top campaign would come one year later, in the form of season, which took both him and the Wildcats to the status of one of the nation's best. With a perfect 11-0 regular season, Villanova was No. 1 in the country and posted the first-ever undefeated, untied full regular season in school history. Despite losing a 37-34 heartbreaker to Youngstown State in the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs, the season was a memorable one for Finneran and the 'Cats. Finneran finished the year with 96 catches for 1,389 yards and 19 touchdowns. He capped off his career by earning the Walter Payton Award, given to the nation's top Division I-AA player.

What made Finneran's collegiate career so impressive was not just what he did on the field, but what he did off the field as well. After going to class and football practice, most players would go to the campus dining hall or back to their dorm room to do more work or take a power nap. Finneran, however, went home where he had his wife Erin, son Conor and daughter Brynn waiting for him.

2001 WALTER PAYTON AWARD WINNER

Villanova University senior running back Brian Westbrook closed out his illustrious collegiate career in fine fashion on Thursday evening December 20 as he was awarded the Walter Payton Award given annually to the National Offensive Player of the Year in NCAA I-AA football. Westbrook received the award at a banquet held in Chattanooga, Tennessee. The other two finalists for the award included Rocky Butler of Hofstra University and Adrian Peterson of Georgia Southern.

Westbrook received 31 first-place votes and 320 points from the panel of 103 I-AA sports information directors and selected media. Following Westbrook in the voting were Hofstra's Rocky Butler, who earned 22 first-place votes and 267 total points, and Georgia Southern's Adrian Peterson, who finished in the top three of the voting for the fourth consecutive year. Furman's Louis Ivory finished fifth in this year's voting.

Westbrook becomes the second player from Villanova to win the award. In 1997, former Wildcat and current Atlanta Falcon wide receiver Brian Finneran garnered the award. Villanova joins the University of Idaho (John Friesz-1989, Doug Nussmeier-1993) as the only schools to have two Walter Payton Award winners.

In 11 games in 2001, Westbrook led all of NCAA I-AA in both All-purpose yards with 2,823 and scoring with 176 points (29 TDs). The 5-9, 205 pound Westbrook rushed 249 times for 1,603 yards and 22 scores, caught 59 passes for 658 yards and six touchdowns, returned 17 kickoffs for 440 yards and a score, in addition to returning 12 punts for 90 yards during the 2001 campaign. In Villanova's season finale at William & Mary on Nov. 24, Westbrook set the NCAA All-Divisions career all-purpose yards record with 9,512 yards in 44 regular season games.

As a junior in 2000, Westbrook finished third in the Walter Payton Award voting behind Louis Ivory of Furman University who won the award and Peterson who finished second.

The most decorated player in school history, Westbrook finishes his Wildcat career with 41 school records, 19 Atlantic 10 Conference marks and five NCAA records. Earlier this week, Westbrook became the first player in the history of Villanova football to earn first team All-American honors in three different seasons, when he earned first team All-American acclaim from both The Sports Network and the AFCA. As a sophomore in 1998, Westbrook became the only player in the history of college football at any level to rush for 1,000 yards and receive for 1,000 yards in the same season.

1937 BACARDI BOWL Havana, Cuba • January 1, 1937 Villanova 7, Auburn 7

Villanova's history in bowl games began in 1937, when the Wildcats were invited to participate in the 1937 contest which eventually became known as the Bacardi Bowl.

Not only was it Villanova's first football bowl game appearance, but it was also the first bowl game to be played outside the United States. The 'Cats opponent, Auburn University, had rolled up an impressive 7-2-2 record and had closed out the regular season with impressive wins over Loyola, 44-0, and Florida, 13-0, their fifth and sixth shutout wins of the season. Villanova, under coaching great Maurice "Clipper" Smith, piled up a sterling 7-2 record, and had earned victories over the likes of Penn State, Boston University, Detroit and South Carolina. Like Auburn, Villanova boasted of an outstanding defense, one that had recorded four shutouts and had not allowed any opponent more than seven points.

Played in Havana, Cuba, as the climactic event of Cuba's National Sports Festival, the game almost never came to be because of a bloodless revolution led by Fulgencio Batista, who, over 20 years later, would be overthrown by Fidel Castro.

Yet the game went on, and it was Auburn which flexed its muscles first in the contest. The Tigers mounted an offensive attack that saw the ball pushed to the Villanova 10-yard line. But the 'Cats defense stiffened and took over the ball on downs. Unable to do much offensively, Villanova punted the ball away, and on the ensuing possession, Auburn put together its only scoring drive of the day. The Tigers broke the scoreless tie when halfback Billy Hitchcock broke through the Wildcat defense and rambled 40 yards for a touchdown. The extra point was good, and Auburn had a 7-0 lead.

As expected, the defense of both squads continued to dominate play, and at halftime Auburn still held their lead. Midway through the third period, however, Villanova's offense, behind the direction of Anthony Stopper, drove to Auburn's 12-yard line, but came away scoreless after Auburn's defense rallied to stymie the 'Cats. Late in the fourth quarter, with time running out for the Wildcats, Auburn had possession of the ball inside its own 15-yard line. Facing second down and eight yards to go for a first down, Auburn mentor Jack Meagher called for a quick kick, a play Auburn had used successfully on a couple occasions in the first half. Shifting into the quick kick position at the Auburn goal line, Villanova's John Wysocki and Valentine Rizzo blocked the kick, and lineman Matthew Kuber grabbed the ball at the two-yard line and went in for the touchdown. William Christopher kicked the all-important point after, and the Wildcats had gained a 7-7 tie.

1949 HARBOR BOWL Balboa Stadium, San Diego, Calif. • January 1, 1949 Nevada 27, Villanova 7

For a second consecutive season, Villanova head coach Jordan Olivar led the Wildcats to a post-season football bowl game. Recording a 7-2-1 regular season, with impressive wins over Texas A&M, Miami, North Carolina State, and a tie with Kentucky, the 'Cats headed west for the Harbor Bowl. Their opponent was Nevada, who was 8-1 and had recorded lopsided wins over Tulsa, Wichita, Fresno State and San Jose during 1948.

A crowd of over 20,000 on an overcast and rainy New Year's Day witnessed a dominating Villanova defense, and a fast-paced Wildcat offense, overwhelm Nevada, 27-7. The Wildcats got on the scoreboard early, scoring 13 first quarter points. First, Peter D'Alonzo dove the final three yards of a Wildcat drive for the day's first score. Robert Polidor won the final four yards on Villanova's second touchdown in the first quarter, giving the 'Cats a 13-0 advantage.

Neither team managed a score in the second period, but Nevada opened the second half by serving notice they were not about to quit. Tommy Kalmanir raced 66 yards for a touchdown, cutting the Wildcat lead to 13-7. Later in the third quarter, Wildcat end John Geppi drove another nail into Nevada's coffin when he raced 80 yards for another Wildcat touchdown. Geppi would finish the game with 114 yards on six carries. Any remaining Nevada hopes for a comeback ended when D'Alonzo scored his second touchdown of the day on an eight-yard jaunt, giving Villanova a 27-7 lead, and their first bowl game victory.

1947 GREAT LAKES BOWL Municipal Stadium, Cleveland, Ohio • December 6, 1947 Kentucky 24, Villanova 14

Under the direction of Wildcat head coach Jordan Olivar, in 1947 the Villanova College football team ventured to Cleveland, Ohio for the inaugural Great Lakes Bowl. Their opponent was the Kentucky Wildcats.

Paul "Bear" Bryant coached the Kentucky squad, who were led on the field by legendary quarterback Jack "George" Blanda.

Villanova missed a golden opportunity to strike early when on the opening kickoff, Villanova's kick rolled around on the Kentucky two-yard line and no Kentucky player seemed eager to grab the loose pigskin. As three Villanova players converged on the ball, Kentucky's Blanda realized just in time that the ball was up for grabs, and quickly dove on the ball. Later in the first quarter, Kentucky moved the ball from Villanova's 46 to the 16, and settled for a 27-yard field goal by Blanda on the last play of the first quarter, giving Kentucky a 3-0 advantage.

The score remained the same through the second quarter, but midway through the third quarter Kentucky's Jim Howe took a pitch from Blanda and stormed past Villanova's defenders for a 29-yard touchdown. Blanda added the extra point, and Kentucky took a 10-0 advantage.

Yet Villanova, behind the accurate throws of highly touted quarterback Andy Gordon, marched back. Two plays into the fourth period, Villanova's Ralph Pasquariello, carrying several Kentucky defenders on his back, rambled 11 yards into the end zone. John Siano's conversion pulled Villanova within a field goal, 10-7.

Later in the fourth quarter, Kentucky's Jack Griffin broke through the Villanova line to partially block a punt, giving Kentucky excellent field position at the 25-yard line. Several plays later, Kentucky's Bill Boller raced 25 yards for a touchdown, and after the Blanda extra-point, Kentucky had cushioned its lead to 17-7. With time now against them, Villanova went to the air, but Kentucky's Boller intercepted a Gordon pass and returned it 49 yards for another touchdown. Now trailing 24-7, Gordon returned to the air. First hitting Zip Zehler with a 38-yard strike, Gordon then connected with John Sheehan for a 13-yard touchdown pass. Yet in the end, this battle of the Wildcats was won by Kentucky.

1961 SUN BOWL

*Kidd Stadium, El Paso, Texas • December 30, 1961
Villanova 17, Wichita 9*

Villanova University returned to post-season competition under head coach Alex Bell. Before what was then claimed to be the largest national television audience to ever view a football bowl game, Villanova put on an impressive display of rugged defense and potent offense en route to a 17-9 victory over Wichita in the 28th Annual Sun Bowl.

The confidence of the Wildcats was evident from the start. Winning the coin toss, Villanova elected to kickoff, putting its defense, which finished the year ranked seventh in the nation, on the spot. Both teams' defenses dominated the early play, and neither team could mount any kind of offensive threat. Taking control of the ball on Wichita's 43-yard line late in the first quarter, Villanova quarterback Ted Aceto recorded the game's first first down, and four plays later gave the ball to the 'Cats overpowering fullback, Billy Joe. Joe rumbled into the endzone from 19-yards out to cap a seven play touchdown drive. Sam Gruneisen kicked the extra point, giving Villanova a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Wildcat defense continued to stymie Wichita, as the Shockers were kept deep in their own territory. But with five seconds remaining in the first half, Wichita finally got on the scoreboard on a 36-yard field goal. Gaining a 7-3 halftime lead, the Wildcat defense had held Wichita to just 87 total offensive yards.

Kicking off to start the second half, Villanova got a big break when Richie Ross recovered the fumbled kickoff on Wichita's 22-yard line. Seven plays later, Louis Rettino dove over from the two-yard line. Gruneisen kicked the extra point, and Villanova had expanded their lead to 14-3.

The Wildcats weren't through yet. Villanova's defense continued its tough play, and the 'Cats offense, after Wichita was forced to punt four plays later, drove the ball from its own 38 to the Shockers' six-yard line and finally settled for a 26-yard field goal by Gruneisen. Wichita added a touchdown with 45 seconds left, but the two point conversion failed, giving the 'Cats a 17-9 win. Villanova captain Rich Ross was the recipient of the Sun Bowl's Linemen's Trophy Award, while teammate Billy Joe was given the Outstanding Player Award.

1962 LIBERTY BOWL

*Municipal Stadium, Philadelphia, Pa. • December 15, 1962
Oregon State 6, Villanova 0*

For Wildcat coach Alex Bell, Villanova University's participation in the fourth annual Liberty Bowl marked the second consecutive year his 'Cat team was invited to a major bowl. Although the game was played in Villanova's backyard, the 'Cats were definitely underdogs.

Oregon State was famed for its passing attack, which was headed by All-American and 1962 Heisman Trophy winner Terry Baker. While not as heralded as the Oregon State squad, Villanova had also enjoyed an outstanding season, compiling a 7-2 record.

The game, telecast nationally in color by NBC to an estimated 27 million viewers, became a defensive struggle, and to the surprise of many, the Wildcats dominated. Villanova seemingly got a big break midway through the first quarter when William Sherlock's 52-yard punt was downed by Larry Glueck on the one-foot line. One play later, disaster struck as Oregon State's Baker got loose around end, and raced to a 99-yard touchdown with 9:24 left in the opening period. Baker tried a two-point conversion, but the Wildcats regrouped to break up his pass, leaving the score 6-0 in Oregon State's favor.

Another tough break doomed Villanova. Taking the ensuing kickoff down to the Beavers' 12-yard line, Villanova seemingly deadlocked the contest when Billy Joe made his way around the left end and romped 12-yards into the endzone. But a holding call nullified the play, and two plays later a Villanova pass was intercepted. The second and third quarters were scoreless, as both teams' defenses remained unbending. In the closing minutes of the fourth quarter, Villanova made one last effort.

Starting on their own 30-yard line, the Wildcats drove to Oregon State's 11-yard line before fumbling away a chance to win the game. For the day, Villanova outgained the Beavers on the ground 246-176, and had nine more first downs, 20-11. However, Oregon State's one big play, coupled with the 'Cats six turnovers, added up to a disappointing loss for Villanova.

1989 FIRST ROUND

*Allen Paulson Stadium, Statesboro, Ga. • November 25, 1989
Georgia Southern 52, Villanova 36*

Villanova University's football team made their first appearance in post-season play since the program was reinstated in 1985, and were faced with the realization that they would have to play the top ranked team in the nation, Georgia Southern, on the Eagles' home field in Statesboro, Georgia. Though Villanova put up a gallant battle, the Eagles proved to be too much for the Wildcats, and won the first round of the 1989 NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs, 52-36. Georgia Southern went on to win the 1989 NCAA Division I-AA Championship.

The two teams spent the first half trading scores. Following a Georgia Southern touchdown early in the contest, Villanova got on the board with seconds remaining in the first quarter on a 64-yard touchdown pass from Kirk Schulz to Harold Hart, tying the score 7-7. The Eagles scored a field goal in the second quarter, before Villanova went ahead 14-10 on a 15-yard pass from Schulz to Jeff Johnson. Minutes later, following an 83-yard Schulz to Bob Brady pass play, Schulz ran a quarterback sneak up the middle for a 21-10 Wildcat lead. Georgia Southern kicked a field goal with 30 seconds remaining in the half, sending the teams to the locker rooms with the 'Cats leading, 21-13.

The third quarter proved to be Villanova's downfall, however, as Georgia Southern shutout the 'Cats just as they had shutout all their opponents in the third quarter during 1989. The Eagles scored three touchdowns and a field goal to retake the lead and open the margin 38-21. Villanova got back on the scoreboard in the fourth quarter, narrowing the deficit to 10 points on a five-yard pass from Schulz to wide receiver Scott Thompson.

The Eagles scored two touchdowns in a span of 44 seconds midway through the fourth period to put the game out of Villanova's reach. With a little over two minutes remaining in the contest, Villanova completed the scoring with a one-yard pass from Schulz to Scott Donald. Reserve quarterback Mike Reilly passed to Pat Kennedy for the two point conversion, which made the final score Georgia Southern 52, Villanova 36.

1991 FIRST ROUND - I-AA PLAYOFFS

*Stambaugh Stadium, Youngstown, Ohio • November 30, 1991
Youngstown State 17, Villanova 16*

A cold, windy day in Youngstown, Ohio brought a cold end to Villanova's 1991 football season. Playing in only their second NCAA Division I-AA Playoff game in Villanova gridiron history, the No. 7-ranked Wildcats suffered a season-ending 17-16 loss to eventual National Champion Youngstown State University.

An exciting game to watch, it was a heartbreaking game to be a part of. The Wildcats led from the start, after Tom Colombo lofted a 42-yard touchdown strike to Harold Hart to put Villanova on the scoreboard with 8:32 left in the first quarter.

The Penguins evened the tally with their first touchdown, with 14:14 left in the second quarter. Quarterback Ray Isaac connected on a 28-yard pass to Dave Roberts for Youngstown. But the Wildcats marched right back, led by senior tailback Pat Kennedy.

Kennedy, Villanova's leading rusher in 1991, had missed the prior four games with an elbow injury, but made up for lost time quickly. He scored on a three-yard touchdown with 7:14 left in the second period, but Villanova's extra-point attempt by kicker Bill Hoffman was no good.

Hoffman tried again later in the quarter, however, when he connected on a 28-yard field goal with only three seconds left in the half. The Wildcats led at halftime, 16-7.

That's the way it was until the 6:40 mark of the third quarter, when Youngstown's Leo Hawkins scored on a one-yard touchdown run, and the Penguins closed to within two of the Wildcats.

Villanova's vaunted defense stymied Youngstown for much of the fourth quarter, batting away passes and holding the line, but the offense couldn't advance despite two long drives in the final frame.

A tipped pass by Villanova's defense with Youngstown facing fourth and 11 turned into a 41-yard gain for the Penguins with under a minute remaining.

Suddenly Youngstown was in scoring position, and after two quick one-yard gains, Youngstown kicker Jeff Wilkins hit a 33-yard field goal with six seconds remaining to give the Penguins a 17-16 victory, en route to their first National Championship.

1996 FIRST ROUND I-AA PLAYOFFS

*Johnson City, Tenn. • November 30, 1996
East Tennessee State 35, Villanova 29*

In the first round of the I-AA playoffs, the Villanova Wildcats lost at East Tennessee State by a score of 35-29. With the loss, the Cats finish the season at 8-4, while East Tennessee State improves to 10-2. ETSU will now advance to the second round and play at No. 1 seeded Montana.

The first half was all ETSU as the Bucs were dominant in taking a 28-6 lead at halftime. ETSU quarterback Greg Ryan was spectacular in the first half as he threw for three first-half scores. Villanova's six points came from two Mark Kiefer field goals (27-yards, 42-yards).

Villanova came out in the second half and completely took over the game. Senior running back Anthony Cowsette scored three straight touchdowns on runs of one yard, seven yards and two yards. Following Cowsette's third score, Villanova went for two and failed. However, the 'Cats were back in the game and trailed by just two points at 28-26.

After ETSU scored on Ryan's fourth touchdown throw of the afternoon making the score 35-26, Villanova quickly responded with a 14 play drive that ended in a 38-yard Mark Kiefer field goal. Kiefer had a big day as he connected on three field goals.

Villanova's comeback bid came up a bit short when they were stopped just inches from the first down marker on a fourth and 10 at the ETSU 40-yard line. ETSU took over on downs and the Bucs were able to run the clock out and escape with a victory.

Besides Cowsette's three touchdowns and Kiefer three field goals, the Villanova offense also got great play from junior running back Curtis Sifford who gained 120 yards on 24 carries. Defensively, linebacker Stephen Curry and free safety Deon Jackson led the way with 13 tackles each.

1992 FIRST ROUND - I-AA PLAYOFFS

*Stambaugh Stadium, Youngstown, Ohio • November 28, 1992
Youngstown State 23, Villanova 20*

Villanova Football made their second-straight visit to the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs, and third in four years, but had to go back to Youngstown, Ohio for a rematch with the defending National Champion. A cold, rainy afternoon in Stambaugh Stadium found the Wildcats once again battling down to the wire with the Penguins, only to lose in the final moments, 23-20.

The 'Cats scored first, taking a 6-0 lead on a two-yard run by tailback Kevin Mosley with 6:48 left in the first quarter. Bill Hoffman kicked the extra point to give Villanova a 7-0 margin, but Youngstown State marched right back and scored with 12:41 left in the second period to tie the game.

Hoffman was called upon to kick a 22-yard field goal with 8:56 left in the first half, regaining a 10-7 lead for Villanova. The Penguins scored yet again, however, with 5:43 left when Tamron Smith ran for one yard. Youngstown State's point-after kick failed, so the home squad had a 13-10 lead as they went into the locker room at halftime.

The second half began with Villanova's offense stymied on their first possession. But the second time the 'Cats got the ball, they scored. Hoffman trotted out on to the field once more, with 5:38 left in the third period, to nail a 26-yard field goal and tie the game, 13-13. On their very next possession, however, Youngstown State's Jeff Wilkins got into the act, as he kicked a 23-yard field goal to give the Penguins a 16-13 lead.

That's how the scoreboard looked when the fourth quarter began. The Penguins altered it when Tamron Smith scored his second touchdown of the day, with 11:39 remaining, and Wilkins hit the extra point to give Youngstown State a 23-13 lead. Yet the Wildcats wouldn't die, as they marched right back on the ensuing kickoff. Villanova ran 13 plays and marched 59 yards in a drive which culminated in a nine-yard touchdown pass from Tom Colombo to Harold Hart, and a Hoffman PAT. Now it was 23-20, with 7:24 left in the game.

Yet a Villanova victory was not in the cards on this day. The 'Cats fumble on their next possession, then didn't regain possession until there were 27 seconds left in the game. A valiant effort by Colombo, who hit passes for 11 yards (to Mosley) and Scott Donald (8 yards) got the 'Cats to their own 40 yard line. Then Colombo nailed Straughn Lumpkin with a 47-yard completion as the clock wound down. Villanova players, coaches, and fans thought their was still time left; Youngstown's players, coaches and fans were celebrating victory. The officials walked off the field, the contest, and Villanova's season, was over. Colombo was 16-of-19 for 177 yards in the fourth quarter (23-of-41 for 263 yards on the day), while Mosley had 33 carries for a career-high 133 yards and a touchdown, and Curtis Eller had 22 total tackles, but it was Youngstown State that once again went on to play in the National Championship contest.

1997 FIRST ROUND - I-AA PLAYOFFS

Villanova, Pa. • November 29, 1997
Villanova 49, Colgate 28

The Villanova Wildcats made history, as they won the school's first-ever playoff game with a 49-28 win over Colgate. Trailing 28-27 entering the fourth quarter, Villanova tallied 24 last quarter points to win the game going away. Sophomore quarterback Chris Boden had a strong game, as he completed 21-of-31 for 305 yards and two touchdowns. Boden also ran for two scores.

After Corey Hill caught an 11-yard touchdown pass from Ryan Vena with 30 seconds left in the third quarter, No. 16 seed Colgate owned a 28-27 lead over top seeded Villanova. The Wildcats quickly responded by scoring three touchdowns in 11 minutes to take a commanding 49-28 advantage with 4:03 remaining in regulation. Boden ran in twice from one-yard out and freshman running back Brian Westbrook scored on a four-yard run to account for the three scores.

Westbrook was sensational for the Wildcats, carrying 17 times for 104 yards and a touchdown for his first-ever 100+ yard rushing game. Westbrook would score three touchdowns on the day, as he made a 38-yard scoring catch and he returned an 89-yard kickoff for a score. He would finish the day with 271 yards of all-purpose offense. Senior wide receivers Brad Finneran (six receptions for 107 yards) and Josh Dolbin (six receptions for 92 yards) led the receiving attack, while senior place kicker Mark Kiefer connected on two field goals. On defense, junior Chris Machovina registered a team-high 11 tackles, while junior cornerback Ademole Turner recorded two interceptions.

Villanova received a scare in the first quarter when All-American wide receiver Brian Finneran went down with a sprained ankle. Finneran managed to play half of the second quarter before being forced to leave the game.

1997 SECOND ROUND I-AA PLAYOFFS

Villanova, Pa. • December 6, 1997
Youngstown St. 37, Villanova 34

Villanova saw its dream season come to a close on Saturday, Dec. 6, as the Wildcats were eliminated from the playoffs with a 37-34 loss to visiting Youngstown State. With the setback, Villanova finishes the 1997 season with a 12-1 mark. Youngstown State went on to capture the NCAA I-AA National Championship.

The Wildcats started the game in fine fashion, scoring the first three touchdowns of the game to take a 21-0 lead just two minutes into the second quarter. On their first possession, Villanova drove straight down the field and scored on a 19-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Chris Boden to senior wide receiver Brian Finneran. Freshman running back Brian Westbrook scored Villanova's second touchdown on an eight-yard scamper. Senior Josh Dolbin registered Villanova's third touchdown when he caught an 11-yard pass from Boden.

Youngstown State battle right back. Adrian Brown ran in from 23-yards for a score, giving the Penguins their first score of the day. Two minutes later, Youngstown State blocked Mark Kiefer's punt and recovered it in the end zone. The teams went to halftime, with Villanova holding a 21-14 lead.

The 'Cats started the second half as they did in the first, driving 80-yards on the first possession and scoring on a 10-yard pass from Boden to Finneran.

However, at this point, Youngstown State took control of the game, recording 23 unanswered points. The big play of the Penguin comeback, occurred at 2:55 of the third quarter when Jauron Dailey returned a Boden fumble nine yards for a score to tie the game at 28-28.

Trailing 37-28 with 2:25 to play in regulation, Westbrook kept Villanova's hopes alive, by catching a seven-yard pass from Boden, to cut the Penguin lead to 37-34. Following a Wildcat defensive stop, Villanova got the ball back with 1:25 on the clock. After an incomplete pass and a sack, Boden's desperation pass on third down was intercepted and Villanova's dreams of a perfect season came to a close.

Despite playing on a sprained ankle, Brian Finneran tied a school record with 16 receptions for 180 yards and two scores. Boden finished the afternoon 29-of-43 for 323 yards and four touchdowns, while Westbrook gained 97 yards on 17 carries and scored one touchdown. Defensively, sophomore linebackers Shaun Lyons and Dave Heckard led the charge with Lyons making 13 stops and Heckard recording 11 total tackles.

Villanova Stadium, home to Wildcat football, field hockey, lacrosse, and track and field teams, has a long and successful tradition. The Wildcats begin their 75th season of conducting intercollegiate athletic events inside the distinguished on-campus stadium in 2002.

Officially dedicated on October 8, 1927, the Wildcats wasted no time establishing a winning tradition inside their new stadium, winning the opening football contest against Lebanon Valley 32-7. The 'Cats went on to extend their home win streak to 14 games before finally suffering its first football defeat in Villanova Stadium in 1930.

Because this historic site includes two memorials to former Wildcats, alumni and fans often forget that the official name of this complex is Villanova Stadium, as it was originally dedicated back in 1927. The first memorial came soon after Villanova Stadium opened. On October 2, 1928, Leo J. Goodreau, a sophomore on the football team, died as a result of injuries received during football practice. On May 7, 1930, his classmates dedicated the playing field to his memory, with a plaque located at the main entrance to the stadium. On September 27, 1980, the track encircling Goodreau Field was dedicated to longtime Villanova running coach James "Jumbo" Elliott. Therefore, the 'Cats play football, lacrosse, and field hockey on Goodreau Field, while the track team runs on the Elliott Track, all within Villanova Stadium.

The stadium was originally completed at a cost of $500,000 in 1927. Able to seat approximately 5,500 spectators, the stadium was recognized as one of the finest on-campus collegiate stadiums in the country. In 1930, the stadium had its first addition as concrete stands on the north side were added, increasing the Villanova Stadium seating capacity to 12,000. While the Wildcats continued to expand on their success inside Villanova Stadium, the stadium itself remained relatively unchanged until 1958 when the seating capacity was again increased. Extending the seating in both the north and south seating areas, Villanova Stadium capacity was increased to 13,400. A re-configuring of seats, and replacement of the entire seating with new aluminum bleachers in the summer of 1990 reduced the seating capacity of Villanova Stadium to its current 12,000.

In 1980, Villanova undertook a $1.3 million renovation of the playing surfaces inside the stadium. The old grass playing field and the 'Cats' legendary cinder track were torn up and removed and replaced by an AstroTurf playing field and an eight-lane, Rubaturf 400-meter track. Completed in August 1980, Villanova's new track was officially dedicated the Jumbo Elliott Track on September 27, 1980 in honor of the Wildcat's legendary track and field coach. Twenty-two former track Olympians from Villanova and a score of other Wildcat track and field greats gathered for the official track dedication during halftime of the sold out Villanova - Boston College homecoming football game, a contest the Wildcats won with an impressive 20-9 showing.

In November of 1980, six 100-foot light towers, three on the north and three on the south sides of Villanova Stadium, were installed giving Villanova's historic stadium the capability of evening and night time use. Prior to 1980, there had been one night football game in Villanova Stadium, a 20-20 tie with the Parris Island Marines on October 31, 1952. It wasn't until November 19, 1987, in front of a national ESPN cable television audience, Villanova faced NCAA I-AA No. 1 ranked Holy Cross in the stadium's first ever intercollegiate night football game. In the 1990 season, the Wildcat football team hosted two Friday-night games, beating Maine on September 7, 31-7, and winning against Richmond on October 19, 24-10. On September 9, 1994 the Wildcats won their sixth night game in Villanova Stadium, beating Liberty 16-13 to open the 1994 home campaign. On September 8, 1995, Villanova lost the season opener under the lights by a score of 21-16. In 1997, the Wildcats started the season with a night game on August 28 against Division II West Chester. In that game, Villanova set a school record for points in a half with 64 in the first stanza. The game ended 64-0 after a severe thunderstorm forced the game to be called just two plays into the third quarter. Last year, Villanova played two home night contests. The Wildcats defeated Colgate, 38-14, in the season opener before losing to New Haven, 17-14, in a Thursday night game in October.

New to Villanova Stadium in the fall of 1992 was a fresh AstroTurf-8 playing field, and Rekortan-S track. Installed in the summer of 1992, the $1.25 million project began after Villanova's commencement exercises were concluded in the Stadium on Sunday, May 10. The next day, work began on the refurbishment of the playing field and track. The original AstroTurf and Rubaturf surfaces, installed during the summer of 1980, were torn up, and the new surfaces installed over the course of three months.

Each year, Villanova Stadium plays host to a wide assortment of athletic contests ranging from CYO and club levels to high school and international events. The Stadium is also home to the Wildcat women's field hockey, and men's and women's lacrosse varsity teams. Hosting all-star athletic events as well as high school championships, the Jumbo Elliott Track annually hosts some of the East's top collegiate track and field meets, including 19 of the last 22 Big East Conference outdoor track and field championships. In November, 1991, the Stadium hosted the NCAA Field Hockey National Championship, won by Old Dominion University. In July, 1993, Villanova Stadium was the site of the fourth Intercontinental Field Hockey Cup, which included 12 teams from 12 nations in a 12 day women's field hockey festival. In the fall of 1998, Villanova Stadium was the site of the 1998 Big East Field Hockey Championship. Beginning in 2001, the Philadelphia Charge of the WUSA play its home games at Villanova Stadium.

In the fall of 1999, the Stadium underwent yet another face-lift with the Stadium Renovation Project. Included in this project was a state of the art press box that included a first class facility for both print and radio media to use, in addition to housing an 80-person meeting room for all Villanova Athletic Department personnel to use.

Yet most of all, Villanova Stadium is known for Wildcat Football. Since making their debut in Villanova Stadium back in 1927, the Wildcats have compiled an impressive 178-74-5 overall won-loss-tie record on their home field, for a .703 winning percentage. Since the revival of Wildcat Football in 1985, Villanova under head coach Andy Talley is 69-26-0 at Villanova Stadium, and 34-19 in home conference contests.

There is a new look to Villanova Stadium in 2002, as the former Astro-turf playing field was replaced during the spring of 2002 with a synthetic grass sur-
