CINCINNATI REPORT: On Saturday afternoon at St. John's, the Bearcats trailed by as many as 16 points before falling by a 72-66 margin. Cincinnati had overcome the entire deficit and led by five before falling to the Red Storm on the road. The Bearcats enter tonight's game with a 13-12 record overall and are 4-9 in the conference.

Sophomore guard Shelly Bellman scored a team-high 16 points and had eight rebounds for Cincinnati, while senior guard Karen Twehues added 11 points. The Bearcats bench scored 40 of the team's 66 points in the game as no starter reached double figures.

On the season, senior guard Treasure Humphries leads the team with 12.0 points per game. Bellman (11.1) and sophomore forward Michelle Jones (11.0) also average in double figures. The top eight Cincinnati scorers all average between 6.0 and 12.0 points per contest. Bellman is one of five players that pull down at least 4.8 rebounds per game, leading the squad with 6.3 boards per contest. As a team, the Bearcats average 40.2 rebounds per outing.

Cincinnati owns a +3.0 scoring margin and +8.2 rebound margin for the season. The team scores 69.6 points per game while allowing 66.7 points to the opposition. The Bearcats shoot .424 from the field, .292 from three-point range and .658 from the foul line.

BEARCAT HEAD COACH LAURIE PIRTLE: In her 25-year career, Laurie Pirtle has led her teams to 10 postseason appearances, including six berths in the NCAA Tournament and four trips to the WNIT. She has been honored as a Coach of the Year eight times and has 391 career victories entering tonight's game. Earlier this season, she posted her 300th win at Cincinnati in a victory over Murray State.

Pirtle is in her 22nd season at Cincinnati and has helped the Bearcats to seven winning seasons, five seasons of at least 20 victories and seven consecutive postseason appearances.

Prior to beginning her stint at Cincinnati, Pirtle was the head coach for four seasons at Capital University from 1982-86. She led her teams to an 83-16 record and a trip to the Division III Final Four. Pirtle was a three-year starter during her playing days at Ohio State and got her start as a coach as an assistant at Fisher Catholic High School before taking the reigns at Capital University.

Pirtle enters today's game with a career record of 391-315 in her 25th year as a collegiate head coach. Her record at Cincinnati, in her 22nd season, is 308-299.

VILLANOVA WILDCATS

2006-07 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

After 28 years as head coach of the Villanova women's basketball program, Harry Perretta has established himself as one of the most respected and knowledgeable coaches in the country. A true teacher both on and off the court, Perretta strives to have a positive influence on his student-athletes not only as basketball players, but also as people.

In his 29-year Villanova career, Perretta has tallied a career record of 535-311. His 535 wins place him 21st on the winningest active collegiate coaching list, and ranks him as the all-time winningest coach in the history of Villanova basketball for both men and women. Over the past six seasons Perretta has compiled an impressive 134-57 record.

Perretta registered his 14th career 20-win season in 2005-06 by leading the Wildcats to a 21-11 record. This was the fifth time in the last six years that Perretta led his team to a 20-win campaign. Villanova earned a WNIT berth, giving the Wildcats their seventh-straight postseason appearance. After playing in the 2000 WNIT, Villanova went to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments from 2001-2004 before playing in the WNIT the last two seasons. Also, in 2005-06, Perretta coached senior forward Liad Suez-Karni to first team All-Big East accolades.

In 2004-05, Perretta became the 26th Division I women's basketball head coach to win 500 games when the Wildcats defeated Pittsburgh, 70-49, on February 2. Villanova finished the season with a 19-12 overall record and qualified for the postseason for the sixth-straight season with a WNIT berth.

One year earlier, Perretta led his team to a fourth-straight 20-win campaign and a fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament berth where the Wildcats advanced to the second round. Perretta also coached his squad to a second-straight Philadelphia Big Five title in 2003-04. For his efforts, he was named Big Five Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season.

The 2002-03 season was a special one for Perretta and the Wildcats. In addition to an impressive 28-6 overall record and a 12-4 Big East Conference mark, Perretta led the Wildcats to their third Big East Conference Tournament championship and first since 1987 with an improbable 52-48 upset over previously unbeaten Connecticut. The win snapped Connecticut's NCAA Division I women's basketball record of 70-straight victories and ended Connecticut's streak of nine-straight conference tournament championships.

The 28 wins recorded in 2002-03 is the second most victories in school history. Villanova was rewarded for its season by earning a No. 2 seed in the 2002-03 NCAA Tournament which is the highest seed ever for a Philadelphia area women's basketball team. In the NCAA Tournament, the Wildcats recorded wins over St. Francis (Pa.), George Washington and Colorado and advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in the program's history. Also, during the 2002-03 season, Villanova went 4-0 in the Philadelphia Big Five to capture the City Series championship and he was named the Big Five Coach of the Year for the fourth time in his career. Under Perretta's guidance, senior guard Trish Juhline led the Big East in scoring and garnered first team All-Big East acclaim for the second-straight year, while senior forward Katie Davis was named second team All-Big East and junior guard/forward Courtney Mix was a Big East Honorable Mention Team selection. In addition, Juhline was named the Big East Tournament's Most Outstanding Player.

In 2001-02, Perretta guided Villanova to a 20-11 mark and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. In the NCAA's, Villanova received the No. 9 seed in the west region where they defeated Pepperdine in the first round before losing to No. 1 seed Oklahoma in the second round. Under Perretta's tutelage, junior guard Trish Juhline became the first Wildcat since 1994-95 to be named first team All-Big East. Perretta also helped senior point guard Mimi Riley earn Big East Honorable Mention acclaim in 2001-02.

The 2000-01 season was a memorable one for Perretta, as he led his team to a 22-9 overall record and a berth in the NCAA Tournament where they advanced to the second round. In a 60-55 win over Temple on Dec. 2, 2000, Perretta won his 400th career game and with the 61-45 victory over Providence on Feb. 24, 2001, He became the all-time winningest coach in the history of Villanova basketball for both men and women with career win number 414. For his efforts in 2000-01, Perretta was named the Philadelphia Big Five Co-Coach of the Year. Also that season, Perretta helped senior center Brandi Barnes earn third team All-Big East distinction and sophomore guard Trish Juhline garner Big East Honorable Mention acclaim. In the Philadelphia Big Five, freshman forward Courtney Mix was named Rookie of the Year.

In 1995-96, Perretta led his team to a 21-7 record and added to his already impressive resume when he earned Big East Coach of the Year honors along with the Philadelphia Big Five Coach-of-the-Year award. Already the winningest coach in Villanova women's basketball history, on January 8, 1995 against the Georgetown Hoyas, Perretta earned his 300th career win at the age of 39. At the end of the 1994-95 season, he was named the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year.

The dean of the Big East and Big 5 coaches, Perretta has brought the Wildcats national respect and success during his tenure at Villanova. Always a crowd favorite wherever he goes, he is one of the most animated and vocal coaches in the country, continually instructing his players during the course of a game. Year-in and year-out, his teams are feared for their aggressive play, disciplined style, defensive prowess and pre-game preparations of an opponent.

VILLANOVA WILDCATS

A teacher of basketball, Perretta also realizes the importance of the overall college experience. He and his staff follow closely each player's academic progress, and in his 28 years at Villanova, 99 percent of the student-athletes who has stayed all four years has received her degree. Perretta is also a firm believer of using the basketball experience to teach his players lessons on life. Upon graduation, it is a sure bet that Perretta's players will leave Villanova as better basketball players and, in addition to being prepared to be a success in whatever career avenue they choose.

During his career on the Main Line, he has led the Wildcats to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, national rankings in the Associated Press poll, Big East regular season and tournament championships in both 1985-86 and 1986-87, the 2003 Big East Tournament title, seven outright and four shared Big 5 titles, and fourteen 20-win or better seasons. In addition, one of his players, Shelly Pennefather, was recognized in 1987 as the nation's top women's basketball player, winning the Margaret Wade Trophy and earning Kodak All-America honors.

"This program is something I feel is my own, my own personal project," stated Perretta. "When I got here, there wasn't much to start with. Yet, all the players we have brought in have graduated, we've had an All-American and gone to the Final Four (1982). The fact that we are considered one of the better teams in the country over the last 28 years makes me proud. I can honestly say that I wouldn't want to coach anywhere but Villanova."

Perretta began his career on the Main Line in 1978 at the age of 21, the youngest coach ever to head a women's program at Villanova. In his first season, he led the 'Cats to a 17-8 record and was a finalist for the AIAW small college coach of the year. During his career, Perretta and the Wildcats have had many highlights, including reaching the Final Four of the AIAW in 1982. The 1982-83 season saw Villanova begin play in NCAA Division I and in the Big East Conference. Since joining the Big East in 1982, Perretta has compiled a 190-137 conference record.

"It is hard to believe that I have been at Villanova for 28 years. It seems like yesterday that I was just beginning my career here," said Perretta. "When I think back over the years, it is amazing to me how many special people I have come in contact with. I have been very fortunate to have some great people play for me here at Villanova. I consider myself lucky that I have been able to coach at one place my entire career."

Perretta attended Lycoming College after earning All-Catholic League honors at Monsignor Bonner High School in Upper Darby, Pa. His playing career was cut short, however, by an ankle injury during his freshman year at Lycoming. Perretta spent the remainder of his college years assisting Lycoming's varsity and junior varsity programs as a coach, and he also aided the women's program. He received his bachelor's degree in social studies and a secondary teaching certificate in 1978. In 1995, he earned his Master's Degree in Education from Villanova.

Perretta is married to the former Helen Koskinen and they are the parents of a seven-year old son, Stephen William and a five-year old son Michael John. Together, they reside in Drexel Hill, Pa.

VILLANOVA WILDCATS

2006-07 WOMEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

LAST TIME OUT: Villanova is coming off a 62-32 loss to No. 23 Rutgers on Saturday, Feb. 17. The Wildcats led 11-10 with 11:15 to play in the first half, before the Scarlet Knights finished the half on a 16-5 run to lead 27-15 at intermission. Leading 31-20 at the 16:22 mark, Rutgers went on a 16-2 run to take a commanding 47-22 advantage with 9:52 to play. The Knights would cruise the rest of the way following the 16-2 spurt. In the loss, Villanova was paced by junior Stacie Witman who scored a team-best 14 points. Rutgers was led by Essence Carson with 16 points and Heather Zurich with 13 points. For the game, Villanova shot 21.8 percent from the floor (12-of-55), 19.4 percent from three-point range (6-of-31) and 40.0 percent from the foul line (2-of-5), while Rutgers was 25-of-61 from the floor (41.0%), 5-of-17 from three-point range (29.4%) and 7-of-13 from the charity stripe (53.8%). Rutgers out-rebounded Villanova, 47-38. The Wildcats had 13 turnovers and Rutgers had seven.

FIRST TIME VISITORS: The Wildcats will be making their first-ever trip to Cincinnati when the team travels to take on the Bearcats on Tuesday, Feb. 20. Villanova and Cincinnati have met just once before and that meeting took place last February at Villanova when the Wildcats registered a 64-40 victory.

OFFENSIVE STRUGGLES: Villanova is coming off its worst offensive performance of the season. In Saturday's 62-32 loss to Rutgers, the Wildcats scored a season-low 32 points, shot a season-low 21.8 percent from the field and made a season-worst 12 field goals. For the year, Villanova is averaging 55.9 points per game and shooting 36.8 percent from the field.

LOSING WAYS: Entering play at Cincinnati on Tuesday, Feb. 20, the Villanova Wildcats are riding an 11-game losing streak. This losing streak is the longest in the program's history. The previous longest streak was eight consecutive losses during the 1989-90 season. The Wildcats last win came in a 70-64 double overtime victory against West Virginia on Jan. 6.

DOWN YEAR: The 1-12 Big East record for the Wildcats is the worst conference mark since the 1989-90 squad was also 1-12 after 13 league games. That year, the team started 0-7 before winning its first conference contest, and then lost eight straight Big East games to finish 1-15 in the league.

STACIE'S STORY: Over the last eight games, Villanova's top performer has been junior forward Stacie Witman. During the eight-game stretch, Witman has averaged 16.4 points per game and she has scored double figures in points in six consecutive contests. Witman has played in 16 games this season and is averaging 12.4 points per game and 5.6 rebounds per contest. In just Big East Conference games, Witman leads the Wildcats in scoring with a 14.3 points per game average.

TRIPLE THREAT: Entering play at Cincinnati on Feb. 20, Villanova has outscored its opponents by a 600-240 margin from three-point range. The Wildcats are currently 200-of-604 (33.1%) from three-point range, while their opponents are 80-of-281 (28.5%) from long distance. Lisa Karcic leads the team in three-point field goals with 50.

AMONG THE BEST: Villanova averages 7.7 three-point field goals made per game this season, a figure that ranks as seventh best in the nation among 310 Division I programs. The Wildcats are second in the BIG EAST to the 8.0 three-pointers made per contest by DePaul. Sophomore Lisa Karcic leads Villanova with 1.92 made shots from long range per outing.

THE GOOD HANDS PEOPLE: In the most recent NCAA statistics, through games this past weekend, the Wildcats rank second in the country in fewest turnovers per game with an average of just 12.2. The national leader in the category is Marist, which averages 11.6 turnovers per contest. Villanova has ranked near the top of the national statistics in fewest turnovers per game five times in the last six years.

UNUSUAL TREND: In recent years, Villanova has honed its reputation as a team which does not have very many turnovers. However, this has been true of the Wildcats opposition in the most recent four games. Villanova's last four opponents have combined for just 23 turnovers, an average of 5.8 per game. In the same stretch of time, the Wildcats have turned the ball over 55 times, averaging 13.8 giveaways per game. For the season, the Wildcats are averaging only 12.2 turnovers per game, but the opposition has committed just 10.5 turnovers per contest. Villanova manages just 4.6 steals per game.

ACADEMICALLY SPEAKING: Senior Jackie Adamshick has been named to the ESPN The Magazine first team Academic All-District II Team. By earning first team All-District honors, Adamshick will appear on the national ballot for Academic All-American distinction. Adamshick earned a finance degree last May and is currently enrolled in Villanova's MBA program.

HITTING THE BOOKS: Of the 24 varsity sports at Villanova University, the Villanova women's basketball team finished with the highest grade point average of any Wildcat team with an impressive 3.447 gpa. 14 of the 15 players on the roster posted a 3.00 grade point average or better during the fall semester. This past summer, Villanova ranked 22nd among all Division I women's basketball schools for the 2005-06 season with a 3.300 team grade point average.

EXPERIENCING THE REAL WORLD: The second semester will be a busy one for junior forward Stacie Witman. In addition to her basketball schedule, Witman will also be fulfilling her student teaching requirement this semester. Witman, who will be teaching high school math at nearby Archbishop Carroll High School, began her student teaching on Tuesday, Jan. 16. Since returning to action on Dec. 28 versus Loyola (Md.) after missing 10 games due to a stress fracture in her lower left fibula, Witman has scored in double figures in 10 of the 15 games, including four games of 20+ points, and is averaging 12.4 points per contest.

PLAYING TOGETHER: One of the trademarks of a Harry Perretta coached team is the concept of playing team basketball. Judging by the stats, this year's team is no different than Perretta's other Villanova squads when it comes to playing team basketball. After 26 games, Villanova has had an assist on 63.5 percent of its field goals (333 of 524). Villanova currently has seven players with 20 or more assists led by senior forward Jackie Adamshick who has a team-best 68.

YOUTHFUL GROUP: Of the nine players who make up Villanova's rotation, seven are freshmen and sophomores. The only senior in the rotation is forward Jackie Adamshick who leads the team in minutes played (34.4 mpg.), scoring (13.5 ppg.) and rebounding (8.0 rpg.). Four of the nine players made their collegiate debut this season, including redshirt freshmen Kyle Dougherty, Maria Getty and Tia Grant and true freshman Heather Scanlon.

WEARING RED: Two members of the Villanova freshmen class will redshirt the 2006-07 season. Shannon Elliott, a 6-2 forward/center from Wilmington, Del., and Amanda Swiezynski, a 6-0 forward from Exeter, N.H., will have four years of eligibility beginning in 2007-08. Villanova also has a transfer sitting out the season. Laura Kurz, a 6-2 forward from Lower Gwynedd, Pa., transferred to Villanova from Duke University. Kurz will sit out this season and have two years of eligibility remaining.

PHILLY'S FINEST: Now in his 29th season as the head coach of the Wildcats, Harry Perretta has amassed 535 victories and a career .635 winning percentage. He is the winningest head coach in the history of Philadelphia Big Five basketball for both men and women. Perretta ranks ahead of former Temple men's basketball coach John Chaney (516 wins), former Villanova men's mentor Al Severance (417), former Temple men's coach Harry Litwack (373) and former Villanova men's coach Rollie Massimino (357).

Note: The win totals only represent victories at a Big Five school.

2006-2007 Villanova Box Scores

A RUN OF SUCCESS: The Wildcats have had one of the most successful stretches in program history over the past six seasons. From 2000-06, Villanova averaged 22.1 wins per season and tallied a record of 136-59 (.697). The highlight of the six seasons came in 2002-03 when the team went 28-6, captured the Big East championship and advanced to the NCAA Elite 8 for the first time ever. The Wildcats have played in the postseason each year during the six-year stretch, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament and two appearances in the WNIT.
