

For Players and Coaches

The Big 5 Girls Basketball Clinic is for both players and coaches. Both clinics will run from 9:30 am to 12:00 noon. While the players are running through skill stations in the four court "red gym," the coaches will hear coaching strategies from Big 5 coaches in the Fieldhouse.

Big 5 Girls Player Clinic

Learn from the best as the Philadelphia Big 5 Coaches and Players conduct a basketball skills clinic at Saint Joseph's University on Saturday, October 29, 2005. Players ages 6-16 will work through skill stations with Cindy Griffin of Saint Joseph's, Pat Knapp of Penn, Tom Lochner of La Salle, Harry Perretta of Villanova, Dawn Staley of Temple, and Denise Dillon of Drexel and their players.

Meet your favorite Philadelphia Big 5 players as they help you to improve your basketball skills! The clinic will be held from 9:30 am to 12 noon and we are asking participants to bring some sort of non-perishable item (household items, toiletries, blankets, towels, clothing, shoes, etc...) to aid in the relief efforts of Hurricane Katrina. So, grab your friends and come on out to support a great cause while working on your game!

All players and coaches are invited to stick around after the clinic and watch as some of the Philadelphia Big 5 greats of the past compete in a Big 5 Women's Alumni Game.

Big 5 Coaches:

Cindy Griffin - Saint Joseph's University
Griffin enters her fifth season as the coach of the Hawks. The 2003 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year, Griffin has led her team to the post season for four straight seasons advancing to the Elite 8 of the WNIT in 2003-04. A graduate of SJU, Cindy was the starting point guard for the Hawks and is a member of the Saint Joseph's University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Pat Knapp - University of Pennsylvania
Knapp enters his second season at the helm of the Quakers. Knapp led Penn to a 15-12 mark in his first season with the Red and Blue. The 2004-05 campaign was highlighted by back-to-back Big 5 wins at the outset of the season, his 300th career victory and a seven-game winning streak to close out the non-conference schedule and open the Ivy League season.

Tom Lochner - La Salle University
Lochner is also entering his second season as head coach of the Explorers, but is well rounded in the Big 5 as he served as an assistant coach for 17 years at La Salle. His first season as head coach was highlighted by a 65-53 victory over George Washington, just the second win over the Colonials in program history and the first in 24 seasons.

Harry Perretta - Villanova University
Perretta enters his 28th season with the Wildcats and has earned Big 5 Coach of the Year honors twice in the last three seasons. The Wildcats have been in four of the last five NCAA tournaments and made an appearance in the WNIT tournament last season.

Dawn Staley - Temple University
Staley had an outstanding 2004-05 season as her team won the Big 5 title, the A-10 title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament. Staley was named the Big 5, A-10 and Regional Coach of the Year among several honors. In the off-season Staley is also a guard for the WNBA's Houston Comets.

Denise Dillon - Drexel University
Dillon enters her third season as head coach. Dillon led her 2004-05 team to its best ever finish in conference play and was named the CAA Co-Coach of the Year. A Villanova graduate, Dillon is a member of the Big 5 Hall of Fame.
