WEEKLY WILDCAT NOTES

CLIFTON NEARS 50-WIN MARK: In the midst of her fifth season at Villanova, head coach Ann Clifton owns a 48-35-5 record at the school. In her first four seasons on the Main Line, Clifton has helped the Wildcats to three Big East Tournament appearances. In 1999, Villanova had possibly the finest season in Wildcat women's soccer history. The 'Cats set a new school record with 14 wins (14-8-0 record) and went on to win the first ECAC Tournament Championship in Villanova history. Last season, Clifton's Wildcats finished the year with an 11-8-0 record - their second straight season with double digit victories. She is currently second in the Villanova women's soccer record books with 48 wins.

BIEHL HONORED BY BIG EAST, SOCCER BUZZ: On Monday, Sept. 24, Villanova's Michelle Biehl was named the Big East Conference Defensive player of the Week as well as to the Soccer Buzz Elite Team of the Week, after leading the Wildcats to two shutout victories in three games. Biehl helped the 'Cats shutout Virginia Tech 2-0 on Sept. 17, and blank Butler University 1-0 on Sept. 23. In addition, she assisted on the game-winning goal against the Bulldogs on Sunday. A redshirt freshman, Biehl returned to the Wildcats this season after having to sit out the entire 2000 season with a torn anterior cruciate ligament in her knee. She has not skipped a beat, as she has been one of the anchors of a strong Villanova defense. Through games of Sept. 23, the Wildcat defense was tied for first in the Big East with four shutouts. Biehl has been a contributor on the offensive side of the ball as well, posting one goal and three assists.

GAME-BY-GAME

Game One Villanova 6, St. Bonaventure 0 August 31, 2001 Villanova, Pa.

VILLANOVA, PA. - In the 2001 season opener for the Villanova University women's soccer team on Friday, Aug. 31, at the Villanova Soccer Complex, the Wildcats used a well balanced attack and got three goals and three assists from their freshman class to cruise past St. Bonaventure by the score of 6-0. The win improved Villanova's record to 1-0-0 on the season, while the Bonnies fell to 0-1-0.

The Wildcats broke open the scoring just 2:24 into regulation when junior Quinn Sellers took a cross from fellow junior Kristen Dunst and beat St. Bonaventure goalkeeper Karen Cunningham to the left to give Villanova an early 1-0 lead. At the 24 minute mark the Wildcats looked to increase their lead, but a blast off the foot of senior Dyane Noonan found the cross bar and a rebound from Sellers was saved by Cunningham.

Villanova would increase its advantage just under two minutes later, as sophomore Candice MacDonald received a pass from freshman Erica Stewart, found an opening, and beat Cunningham from 20 yards out to pad the Wildcat lead to 2-0.

With just under seven minutes left in the first half, Villanova claimed a commanding 3-0 advantage. Freshman Laurie Johnson got a hold of a loose ball and beat Cunningham in the right corner. Senior Jessica Painchaud and junior transfer Alison Bimba were credited with assists on Johnson's goal.

The Wildcat defense was stellar in the first half of play, led by senior Dyane Noonan, junior Jill DiBerardino and redshirt freshman Michelle Biehl. The Villanova backs held the Bonnies to just one shot on goal in the first half as the 'Cats went into the half with a 3-0 lead.

The second half began much like the first, as Villanova scored under 10 minutes into the half. Johnson found Stewart with a touch pass, and Stewart fed freshman Regina Villari who drilled a shot past Cunningham from 10 yards out to increase the Wildcat advantage to four goals.

Five minutes later Villanova capitalized on a corner kick, as Johnson took junior Julie Battista's corner and headed it into the net to make it a 5-0 game. The Wildcats put the finishing touches on St. Bonaventure at the 80:15 mark, as Dunst passed the ball to an open Angela Scialdone right in front of the goal on the left side. Scialdone snuck the ball past Cunningham for her first goal of the season, giving Villanova a 6-0 victory.

Sophomore Chrissy Dolan got the shutout in goal for the Wildcats, saving three shots on the afternoon. Thanks to a tremendous defensive showing by the 'Cats, Villanova outshot the Bonnies by a 28-3 margin.

On the offensive front, Johnson left the Wildcats with two goals and one assist. Stewart and Dunst each tallied a game-high two assists in the contest. In goal for St. Bonaventure in the loss, Cunningham saved a game-high 12 shots.

Game Two Villanova 1, Manhattan 1 (2OT) September 4, 2001 Riverdale, N.Y.

RIVERDALE, N.Y. - On Tuesday, Sept. 4, on a warm rainy afternoon in Riverdale, N.Y., the Villanova women's soccer team played Manhattan College to a 1-1 tie as junior forward Quinn Sellers scored the game-tying goal with less than 10 minutes remaining in regulation. With Tuesday's tie, the Wildcats own a 1-0-1 overall record, while the Jaspers of Manhattan stand at 0-2-1.

The two teams were only able to combine for eight first half shots, with Villanova outshooting Manhattan 7-1.

Neither squad was able to find the back of the net, however, as the game with into the half scoreless.

At the 69:10 mark of the second half, the Jaspers were finally able to get on the scoreboard. Midfielder Kristin Stroppel fed forward Tina Liedl, who beat Wildcat goalkeeper Chrissy Dolan from 10 yards out to give Manhattan the 1-0 lead.

Refusing to let the game slip away, Villanova staged a rally with just under 10 minutes left in the contest. Sellers sent a looping shot over the head of Jasper goalkeeper Jeanne Gilbert to tie the game at 1-1. Senior Jessica Painchaud and redshirt freshman Michelle Biehl assisted on the Sellers' goal for the 'Cats.

Thanks to an outstanding performance in goal by Gilbert, Manhattan was able to keep the Wildcats from scoring throughout the remainder of regulation despite a decisive lead in total shots by Villanova.

In overtime, both the Wildcats and Jaspers staged off several scoring chances by the opposition to end the contest in a 1-1 tie.

Dolan totaled two saves in goal for Villanova, while Gilbert recorded a game-high nine saves. The Wildcats outshot the Jaspers 28-8 in the game, but were unable to capitalize on Gilbert.

VILLANOVA WOMEN'S SOCCER

GAME-BY-GAME

Game Three Villanova 4, Marist 0 September 7, 2001 Villanova, Pa.

VILLANOVA, PA. - On Friday, Sept. 7, at the Villanova Soccer Complex, the Villanova University women's soccer team scored four second half goals to break open a scoreless game as the Wildcats went on for a 4-0 victory over Marist College. Two of Villanova's four second half goals came on penalty kicks, including the first collegiate goal by redshirt freshman Michelle Biehl. With Friday's win, the Wildcats improve to 2-0-1 overall on the season, while the Red Foxes fall to 0-3-0.

Villanova dominated play in the first half outshooting Marist 12-2. The Wildcats were unable to get on the scoreboard, however, as Red Fox goalkeeper Mellanie Nai saved seven first half shots.

With the game still scoreless in the second half, Wildcat senior Jessica Painchaud was taken down in front of the net on a scoring chance at the 66:17 mark. Villanova was awarded a penalty kick, which Biehl blasted past Nai for her first Wildcat goal. Less than a minute later, Painchaud was again taken down in front of the net. Given a penalty kick once again, Villanova added to their lead as freshman Erica Stewart beat Nai to the right to increase the Wildcat lead to 2-0.

At the 85:44 mark, the Villanova offense kept plugging away at sophomore Candice MacDonald found fellow sophomore Janessa Jeltema who beat the goalkeeper one-on-one from five yards away. The Wildcats put the game away with 2:08 to go in regulation. Junior forward Quinn Sellers took advantage of a Marist turnover, taking a shot from 10 yards out and beating Nai to her right to cap off a 4-0 victory for the 'Cats.

Getting the shutout in goal for Villanova was sophomore Chrissy Dolan, who saved two shots on the afternoon. Nai took the loss in net for the Red Foxes, despite saving a game-high 16 shots.

Game Four Villanova 5, UMBC 2 September 9, 2001 Villanova, Pa.

VILLANOVA, PA. - In front of 400-plus fans at the Villanova Soccer Complex on Sunday, Sept. 9, the Villanova University women's soccer team rallied from a 2-0 halftime deficit, scoring five unanswered goals in the second half to defeat the University of Maryland Baltimore County by the score of 5-2. With the victory, the Wildcats' record improves to 3-0-1 overall on the season, while the Retrievers of UMBC falls to 1-2-0.

UMBC scored the game's first goal just 3:01 into regulation, as Jessa Karko knocked in a direct kick from teammate

Viviana Saraceno. At the 17:05 mark of the first half, the Retrievers added to their lead as Laura Motley deflected in a shot by Missy Moore to give UMBC a 2-0 lead. Despite outshooting the Retrievers 9-6 in the first half, Villanova went into intermission down by two goals. UMBC goalkeeper Becky Hicock had four saves in the first half.

Just over six minutes into the second half, the Wildcats finally got on the scoreboard. Sophomore Candice MacDonald took a shot that struck the crossbar. MacDonald got the rebound off her own shot and took a second attempt at the net that was deflected into the goal by teammate Kristin Dunst for Villanova's first goal.

The Wildcats tied the contest at 2-2 just 5:33 later, as Dunst sent a cross to the left of the goal which junior Quinn Sellers knocked past Hicock. Villanova took its first lead of the game at the 61:24 mark. Dunst sent a crossing pass into the front of the crease. There was a scramble for the ball in front of the net which sophomore Janessa Jeltema got a hold of and put into the goal for her second goal of the season.

The Wildcat offense was not done. Villanova would add two more goals on tallies by freshman Regina Villari and senior Jessica Painchaud, as the Wildcats went on for the 5-2 victory.

Coming into the game at the half in place of sophomore Chrissy Dolan, who started the game in goal, senior Janel Schillig recorded the win making one save. Hicock got the loss in net for UMBC, despite making a game-high 10 saves.

VILLANOVA WOMEN'S SOCCER

GAME-BY-GAME

Game Five Villanova 2, Virginia Tech 0 September 17, 2001 Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, VA. - On Monday, Sept. 17, in Blacksburg, Va., the Villanova women's soccer team spoiled what was the first-ever Big East Conference game for Virginia Tech, blanking the Hokies by the score of 2-0. The contest had a number of highlights for the Wildcats, including a shutout in net from senior goalkeeper Janel Schillig, and one goal apiece compliments of freshmen Laura Johnson and Erica Stewart. With the win, Villanova remained unbeaten at 4-0-1 overall, and improved to 1-0-0 in the Big East.

With the game still scoreless and less than 10 minutes remaining in the first half, the Wildcat offense finally broke open the scoring. Johnson scored her third goal of the season for Villanova at the 36:06 mark, giving the 'Cats a 1-0 advantage heading into intermission.

The Villanova defense kept up its tremendous work in the second half, as Dyane Noonan, Jill DiBerardino, Michelle Biehl and company held Virginia Tech (2-2-1) to just three shots after intermission.

The Wildccats put the game away at the 76:22 mark as Stewart scored her second goal of her freshman campaign - a scoring strike that was assisted by fellow freshman Patricia Misciagna and junior Kristin Dunst.

In net for Villanova, Schillig notched her first shutout of the season saving three shots. Katie Hancock took the loss in goal for the Hokies, despite saving a game-high five shots.

Thanks to another strong performance by the Wildcats defense, Villanova out-shot Virginia Tech by a 14-8 margin. For the season, the 'Cats hold a 130-29 advantage over opponents in the shot column.

Game Six No. 4 Notre Dame 2, Villanova 1 (2OT) September 21, 2001 Notre Dame, Ind.

NOTRE DAME, IND. - On Friday, Sept. 21, at Alumni Field in Notre Dame, Ind., the Villanova University women's soccer team lost a heartbreaker to the No. 4 nationally ranked Notre Dame Fighting Irish, 2-1, in double overtime. The loss was the Wildcats' second one-goal defeat to the Irish in as many years, as Villanova fell to Notre Dame, 1-0, on the Main Line one season ago. Friday night's defeat was the Wildcats first loss of the season, dropping them to 4-1-1 overall and 1-1-0 in Big East Conference play. The Fighting Irish improve to 4-0-1 overall and 1-0-0 in conference action with the win.

The two teams combined for only eight shots in the first half, as the game went into intermission scoreless. Villanova senior goalkeeper Janel Schillig stopped two shots in the first half for the 'Cats.

With the contest still scoreless at the 76:24 mark, Notre Dame put the game's first goal on the scoreboard. Taking a pass from Amanda Guertin, Amy Warner faked out Schillig and found the back of the net to give the Irish a 1-0 lead.

Trailing 1-0 with just over three minutes left in the contest, the Wildcats found some late game magic. Villanova freshman Laura Johnson sent a crossing pass to junior Quinn Sellers in the middle of the field. Finding an opening, Sellers blasted a shot past Notre Dame goalkeeper Elizabeth Wagner to tie the game at 1-1. Sellers' score, her fifth goal of the season, sent the game into its first overtime period.

Schillig was masterful in the first extra session for the 'Cats, saving four shots to send the game into a second overtime period. At the 114:11 mark, 9:49 into the second overtime, the Irish put the game away. Warner scored her second goal of the game off assists from Randi Scheller and Monica Gonzalez to give Notre Dame the 2-1 victory.

Schillig saved 10 shots for Villanova in the loss, while Wagner stopped one shot to get the win for the Irish.

Schillig saved 10 shots for Villanova in the loss, while Wagner stopped one shot to get the win for the Irish.

GAME-BY-GAME

Game Seven
Villanova 1, Butler 0
September 23, 2001
Indianapolis, Ind.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. - In the second and final game of a two-game Midwest swing for the Villanova University women's soccer team on Sunday, Sept. 23, in Indianapolis, Ind., the Wildcats got back on the winning track with a 1-0 victory over Butler University. In the trip's first game on Friday night, Villanova came out on the short end of a heartbreaking 2-1 double overtime defeat to the No. 14 nationally ranked Notre Dame Fighting Irish. Sunday was a different story for the 'Cats, however, as a Julie Battista goal and a shutout by goalkeeper Janel Schillig in net gave Villanova (5-1-1) its fifth victory of the season. The Bulldogs' three-game winning streak came to an end with Sunday's loss at the hands of the Wildcats, as they now fall to 5-2-0 overall on the season.

Battista's goal at the 74:33 mark of the second half, her first of the season, would be all that Villanova needed on Sunday. The Wildcats' lone goal was assisted by redshirt freshman Michelle Biehl and junior Kristin Dunst.

Another tremendous defensive effort by the 'Cats led to Villanova's fourth shutout of the season and second in the team's last three games.

Earning her second shutout of the season in goal for the 'Cats was Schillig, who saved three shots on the afternoon. In three starts thus far in 2001, she has a 0.53 goals against average.

Game Eight
Georgetown 2, Villanova 1 (OT)
September 26, 2001
Washington D.C.

Washington, D.C. - On Wednesday, Sept. 26, in the nation's capital, the Villanova University women's soccer team lost its second overtime game in a week, falling 2-1 to the Georgetown Hoyas. It was the Hoyas first-ever victory against Villanova, as the 'Cats took each of the first seven meetings. With Wednesday's loss, the Wildcats fell to 5-2-1 overall on the season, and 0-2-0 in Big East Mid Atlantic Division play.

Georgetown (5-3-0, 1-2-0) struck first, scoring 26:27 into the game, as Alyssa Conlow knocked a crossing pass by Karin Ostrander past Villanova goalkeeper Janel Schillig to give the Hoyas a 1-0 advantage. The Wildcats were unable to retaliate before intermission, as Georgetown keeper Shereena Chang saved four shots to preserve the Hoyas' 1-0 lead.

Villanova's hustle helped the 'Cats tied the game in the second half. At the 58:57 mark, a shot by the Wildcats' Patricia Misciagna was saved by Chang, who was unable to hold onto the ball giving Villanova a rebound opportunity. Wildcat forward Quinn Sellers gained control of the loose ball and found the back of the net to tie the game at 1-1. Sellers' scoring strike was her sixth goal of the season for Villanova.

With the score tied at the end of regulation, the game went into its first overtime period. At the 101:21 mark, 11:21 into the first overtime, Georgetown put the game away. Hoya forward Courtney Shaub faked out three Wildcat defenders and fed Jen Choiniere with a touch pass to the right side of the net. Choiniere took the Shaub pass and scored the game-winning goal to give Georgetown a 2-1 victory.

Taking the loss in net was Schillig, who saved three shots on the afternoon. Chang got the win for the Hoyas, saving a game-high seven shots.

GAME-BY-GAME

Game Nine
Villanova 3, Robert Morris
September 28, 2001
Villanova, Pa.

VILLANOVA, PA. - Junior forward Quinn Sellers scored her seventh goal of the season and freshman Laura Johnson and senior Angela Scialdone each added a goal to seal the victory as the Villanova women's soccer team cruised to a 3-0 victory over Robert Morris College on Friday, Sept. 28, at the Villanova Soccer Complex. It was the Wildcats' fifth shutout of the season, as they improved their overall record to 6-2-1. The Colonials of Robert Morris fell to 4-4-0 with Friday's defeat.

Despite several Villanova shots early in the contest, the game went scoreless until the 32:07 mark when the Wildcat offense got on track. Redshirt freshman Michelle Biehl fed the ball to senior Jessica Painchaud off a restart. Painchaud used her head to flick the ball to Sellers on the right side of the net. Sellers knocked the ball past a diving Shana Berardi for her seventh goal of the 2001 season, to give Villanova an early 1-0 advantage.

With less than four minutes remaining in the first half, the Wildcats increased their lead. Johnson took a pass from fellow freshman Erica Stewart in the center of the field, and blasted a shot from 25 yards out into the top of the net to give the 'Cats a 2-0 lead going into intermission.

Villanova put the game away at the 60:44 mark of the second half. Junior defender Jill DiBerardino sent a high crossing pass towards the net, which was batted down in front of the goal by Berardi. Scialdone got the rebound and beat Berardi to seal the 3-0 win for the Wildcats.

Sophomore goalkeeper Chrissy Dolan got the shutout win in net for Villanova, saving one shot on the afternoon. Berardi took the loss despite saving a game-high five shots.

The Wildcat defense led by Biehl and DiBerardino dominated the contest, as they helped the Villanova offense outshoot the Robert Morris offense by a 27-4 margin.
