WILDCAT ALMANAC

The following is a look at the 16 wrestlers who have been enshrined in the Northwestern Athletic Hall of Fame.

ART KRAFT 1990

Art Kraft won the 1960 NCAA championship at 157 pounds and was a two-time All-American in a time when only the top four finishers at each weight class were deemed All-Americans. Following his wrestling career, Kraft was a high school coach. He started as the wrestling coach at Triton College in the mid-1960s and stayed for almost 20 years. There, Kraft was named Coach of the Year three times; he also coached a national championship team and many individual champions.

MARK MASSERY 1991

In 1973, Mark Massery captured the NCAA championship at 126 pounds after claiming his second-career Big Ten Championship earlier that year. Massery twice reached NCAA All-American status.

He continued his wrestling career after college by competing in several international meets and preparing for the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal. He won the Amateur Athletic Union title in 1975 at Bloomington, Ind., and also earned the World Cup championship in 1975. As the country's top 125-pounder, Massery represented the United States in the 1975 Pan American Games in Mexico City where he placed third and the '75 World Championships in Minsk, U.S.S.R. where he finished fourth.

"The Northwestern campus environment in the early 1970's had an incredible mixture of personal and cultural styles and values that is hard to match. I think that's still true today, which makes NU such a great place to be a student-athlete."

—MARK MASSERY '73

PIONEER ERA INDUCTEES

Year Inducted	Name	Years of Competition
1984	Timothy G. Lowry	1923-25
1984	John H. Riley	1929-31 (wrestler) 1948-57 (coach)
1987	Stanley "Jack" Hathaway	1918-21
1990	Dewitt C. Gibson	1935-37
1991	Ralph Lupton	1928-29
1996	Justin Dart	1926-29
1996	Brian Hines	1922-24
2000	Wesley Brown Jr.	1931-33

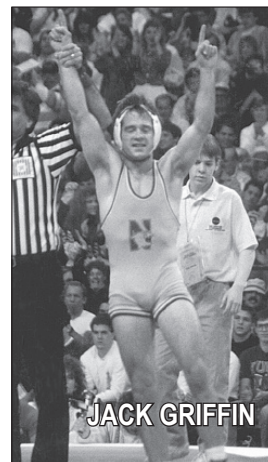

RORY WEBER 2001

Rory Weber concluded his illustrious Wildcat wrestling career with an all-time record of 58-8. That .881 winning percentage presently ranks second all-time at Northwestern. He garnered All-America honors three years (1960-62) in the heavyweight division, making him one of the Wildcats' most decorated wrestlers. Weber captured the Big Ten championship in 1960 and was the squad's Stuteville Award (most points) recipient in 1961.

JACK GRIFFIN 2002

In 1990, Jack Griffin became Northwestern's first individual NCAA champion since 1973 and helped NU to a fourth-place team finish. A two-time All-American and four-time finalist at the Big Ten Championships, Griffin is NU's all-time leader in wins with 159 and lost only one dual-meet match in his entire career.

Following his wrestling career at NU, Griffin was named an alternate for the 1992 Olympic team and served six seasons as an assistant coach for the Wildcats under Tim Cysewski. Griffin is currently an assistant athletic director for development at Northwestern.

"My Northwestern experience was second to none. It had everything I had hoped for: great teammates, an awesome coaching staff, a plan in place to not only excel in collegiate wrestling but the classroom and in life. I am not where I am today without the Northwestern experience and all the people who gave me the resources to succeed."

KEN KRAFT

2003

It would be hard to match the dedication and service that Ken Kraft has provided Northwestern University. After compiling a 38-7-2 record on the wrestling mat Kraft became Northwestern's head wrestling coach in 1957, a position he held until 1979. At the time of his induction, he was the program's winningest coach. Following the conclusion of his coaching career, Kraft was named an associate athletic director and he served in an administrative capacity for 24 years. As an athlete, he won the 167-pound Big Ten championship his senior year.

Perhaps his most significant contribution to the wrestling program was the founding of the Midlands Championships, the nation's top amateur wrestling event, which has been held every year since 1966 between Christmas and New Year's Day at NU's Welsh-Ryan Arena. For his contributions to Northwestern, and specifically the wrestling program, a new wrestling facility was built, which bears his name, the "Ken Kraft Wrestling Complex."

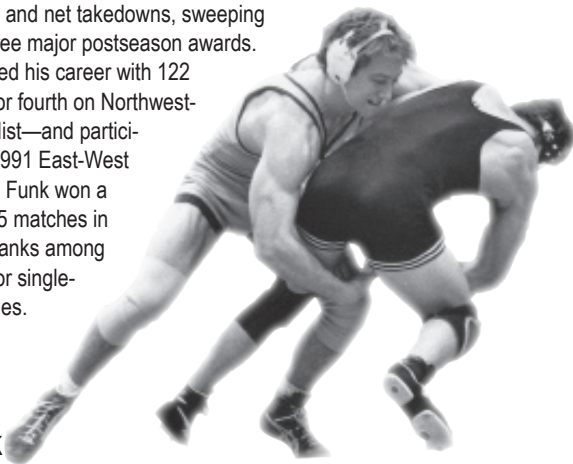

A founding member of the United States Wrestling Federation and its president from 1972-76, Kraft was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame in 1997.

MIKE FUNK

2004

Northwestern's first four-time All-American, Mike Funk also was named NU's Male Athlete of the Year for 1990-91. In 1991, he won the Big Ten championship in the 190-pound weight class and finished seventh at the NCAA Championships. That same year, he led NU in points, falls and net takedowns, sweeping the team's three major postseason awards.

Funk finished his career with 122 wins—good for fourth on Northwestern's all-time list—and participated in the 1991 East-West All-Star meet. Funk won a career-best 35 matches in 1990, which ranks among NU's top 10 for single-season victories.

MIKE FUNK

"What can I say? Northwestern was the place for me and continues to be. We have an approach to athletics that makes sense for our institution. I am entering my 56th year as a member of the Purple Pride. Who could have predicted that when I took that one-year job in the spring of 1957? Go 'Cats."

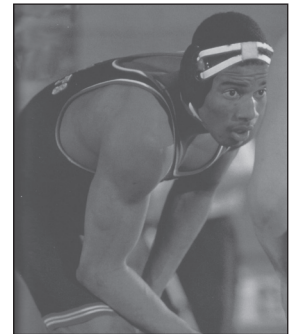

—KEN KRAFT '57

ROHAN GARDNER

2006

Rohan Gardner began his career at Northwestern as a walk-on student-athlete and left as a two-time All-American. He capped a stellar career with a scholarship and a 108-29 overall record.

A 1996 National Wrestling Coaches Association All-Academic first-team member (one of 10 wrestlers to earn the honor), Gardner won the 1996 Big Ten crown at 177 pounds, edging Michigan State's Erich Harvey, 9-8. He went on to finish third at the 1996 NCAA Championships. In 1995, he won a career-most 30 matches (30-5) and placed fifth at the NCAA Championships. He was the Wildcats' Stuteville (point leader) and Lupton (net takedowns) Award recipient in 1995 and 1996 and won the Jack Riley Fall Trophy in 1994.

Two-time All-American, DePetro ranks second all-time on Northwestern's all-time wins list (146-30-4), just 10 shy of NU Hall-of-Famer Jack Griffin. He remains the Wildcats' single-season record holder with 44 wins in 1986, the year he placed third at the NCAA Championships, second at the Midlands Championships and second at the Big Ten Championships. DePetro concluded his senior season with a 44-4-1 record, one of the best single-season marks in NU history, and a 16-1-1 dual meet record. He went 8-0-1 during the Big Ten regular season.

Three times during his Northwestern career, DePetro received the Stuteville Award, given to the wrestler who accumulates the most points. He also earned the Lupton Award (net takedowns) all four years of his career. DePetro's 37 wins his sophomore year and the 35 wins his junior year also rank among Northwestern's all-time top-10 for season victories. He placed fifth at the NCAA Championships in 1985.

"It was truly an honor to be inducted into Northwestern's Hall of Fame because as a former walk-on, I never expected to be recognized along with that caliber of athletes already inducted in the Hall of Fame. The challenges I face in my day-to-day life are nothing compared to what I endured during my last two years at Northwestern. The experiences I had while a student and wrestler at Northwestern are unparalleled in the impact they had on my development into the person I am today."

JESSE OWENS AWARD
BIG TEN MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

Each year, the Big Ten Conference honors just one male athlete with the prestigious Jesse Owens Award, presented to the top male performer in the league from any sport. The 2009 award went to NU's Jake Herbert (pictured above with Northwestern director of athletics and recreation Jim Phillips) following his undefeated senior season during which he won his second NCAA title and the Hodge Trophy as college wrestling's most dominant performer. He is the second Wildcat ever to win the award (Luke Donald, men's golf, 1999).

WILDCAT ALMANAC

2009

DAN HODGE TROPHY
MOST DOMINANT COLLEGE WRESTLER

Jake Herbert was the 2009 recipient of the Dan Hodge Trophy, presented annually to the nation's most dominant college wrestler. It is named for the undefeated, three-time NCAA champion from Oklahoma in the mid 1950s. Hodge has the highest pinning percentage in collegiate history, and was known for his dominating style of wrestling. The award is co-sponsored by W.I.N. Magazine and the Dan Gable International Wrestling Institute and Museum in Waterloo, Iowa. Herbert became the fourth representative from the Big Ten Conference to win the award, first presented in 1995.
