current players in bold

MADELYN MENEGHETTI: A member of the 1985 U.S. National Team, Meneghetti is one of the most decorated players in the history of Northwestern volleyball. She was named to the Big Ten All-Decade Team, was All-America and All-Big Ten in 1984, and participated at the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1982 and 1983. Meneghetti put together an outstanding season in 1984, leaving her at the top of NU's single-season records in kills per game (4.45), kills (596) and second in hitting percentage (.285). Her four-year career statistics have kept her in the top 10 among Northwestern players for nearly two decades. Meneghetti is also a member of the elite 1,000-kill club, ranking third all-time with 1,490.

PATTY WALSH: Shown here at her 2000 induction into the Northwestern Athletic Hall of Fame, Walsh was a three-time All-America, was honored as a member of the Big Ten All-Decade team and participated in the U.S. Olympic Festival in 1979 and 1981. She is third on the career service aces list (230). Following her playing days in the early 1980s, Walsh returned to the Wildcats as an assistant coach and was on staff when Northwestern won the Big Ten Championship in 1984.
