

Dear Bobcat Fans:

Building relationships. It is the foundation of success in all areas of life. Ohio University Athletics wants to continue our focus on building relationships as we strive for excellence.

In an effort to further build relationships, we would like to meet you, if we have not already had the pleasure to do so. Additionally, there may be other people that you might recommend we try to get to know and involve further in our athletic program and university.

During this April and May, we will be making Bobcat Caravan visits with selected Ohio head coaches and staff to 11 different Ohio locations. We would like to invite you to a nearby event. Please see the attached Bobcat Caravan event schedule. These are fun events to visit with Bobcat Club members, ticketholders, alumni and other friends of the program and institution.

We would also enjoy visiting with you or others that you might recommend during the day of our Caravan visit in your area. Enclosed is a form which you can return or e-mail to us to let us know if someone from Ohio Athletics can arrange a brief visit with you or contact any others that you might suggest.

Thanks for your support of Ohio University Athletics. Go Bobcats!!

Sincerely yours,
