Tim O'Shea, the Ohio Bobcats Head Coach, has 26 years of Division I experience as a player at Boston College and as an assistant coach at Yale, Rhode Island, Boston College and as head coach at Ohio University. Working camps with Coach O'Shea will be his assistant coaches, John Rhodes, Kevin Kuwik, and Brian Townsend, as well as the Bobcat players.

Dear Basketball Friend,

I hope this season has been a successful one and that you are looking forward to an even better one next year. We all know how important the summer is in preparing your team for the upcoming season. To that end, we offer our 2007 Team Camps and Shootout. Besides the tremendous, air-conditioned facilities that Ohio University has to offer, coaches have repeatedly said that they like the fact that our camps attract teams from all over Ohio and West Virginia - a chance for your team to play against some teams you wouldn't ordinarily face. Last year, we had teams from Cleveland, Akron, Toledo, Columbus, Cincinnati and everywhere in between, as well as some very competitive and well-coached teams from West Virginia. I really believe that our camps will be an excellent experience for you and your team both on and off the court.

*I look forward to the opportunity to work with each and every one of you – hope to see you at camp this summer. GO BOBCATS!
