THE TIP-OFF

Ohio is set to face Bucknell on Saturday in its final contest before the start of MAC play ... A win over the Bison would give Ohio a 5-0 start at home for the fifth season in a row ... The Bobcats have won 25-straight non-conference home games, and 18 of their last 20 overall outings at The Convo ... Ohio's defense has been stout at home this season, allowing an average of just 56.0 points and forcing its opponents into 81 turnovers - an average of 20.3 per contest - compared to just 39 assists.

WHO'S HOT

Senior forward Jerome Tillman recorded his fifth double-double of the season, and the 23rd of his career, with 19 points and a game-high 12 boards against St. Francis ... Freshman guard Steven Coleman is tied for the MAC lead with an average of 2.00 steals per game ... He has tallied at least two thefts in five of Ohio's last seven games ... Senior guard Michael Allen has reeled off a 2.7-1 assist-to-turnover ratio in the Bobcats' last three games, improving his overall season mark to a MAC-best 1.91-1 ... Senior forward Justin Orr has connected on 6-of-13 shots (46.2) from long distance in Ohio's last three game.

NOTABLES FROM THE ST. FRANCIS GAME

With the victory, the Bobcats extended their non-conference home winning streak to 25 games ... Ohio made five its first six three-point attempts on the night en route to shooting 71.4 percent from long distance in the first half ... The Bobcats forced 18 St. Francis turnovers on the night, marking the fourth time in as many home games this season that Ohio has induced 17 or more turnovers from its opponent ... Ohio shot better than 40 percent from the field for the seventh time this season, and the third time in the last four games.

UP NEXT

The Bobcats will kick off MAC action on Sunday, Jan. 11, when defending league regular-season and tournament champion Kent State comes to town ... Ohio holds an 84-40 lead in the all-time series after splitting two games a year ago ... The Bobcats have won four-straight MAC home openers.

TILLMAN SCORCHING THE TWINE IN OHIO'S LAST THREE OUTINGS

If senior forward Jerome Tillman has felt any lingering effects from a 4-of-14 day from the floor at Delaware on Dec. 13, they haven't shown on the court. The MAC's second-leading scorer has hit 17-of-21 field goal attempts on Ohio's last three games, an eye-popping shooting performance of 81.0 percent.

Tillman hasn't missed more than two field goal attempts in any of the last three games, going 7-of-9 at Marshall, 4-of-4 against Holy Cross and 6-of-8 versus St. Francis (N.Y.).

He has also been locked in from the line during that stretch, converting on 15-of-17 attempts - a smoldering clip of 88.2 percent.

WASHINGTON EMERGING AS DUAL THREAT

After chipping in with nine points on 4-of-7 shooting in the victory over St. Francis, sophomore forward DeVaughn Washington is averaging 13.0 per game over Ohio's last four games, while shooting 59.0 percent (23-of-39) from the floor.

He has also been active on the glass at both ends of the floor, averaging a team-high 7.0 rebounds per game during that stretch, leading the team in three of the four outings. Thirteen of Washington's 28 boards (46.4 percent) in that stretch have come on the offensive end.

BOBCATS MUDDYING THE WATERS AT HOME

One of the key factors in Ohio's 4-0 start at home is the fact that the Bobcats are turning their opponents over at a rate of 20.3 times per game at The Convo this season. The Green & White forced Holy Cross into a season-high 27 miscues on Dec. 22, while none of four teams to visit Athens this season has been able to escape The Convo with fewer than 17 turnovers.

Visiting teams have also seen their efficiency numbers decline after meeting the Bobcats on their home court, collecting a combined 39 assists in response to the 81 turnovers - an assist-to-turnover ratio of just 0.35-1.

GETTING IT DONE AT HOME

With their 70-53 win over St. Francis (N.Y.) on Dec. 30, the Bobcats extended their non-conference home winning streak to 25 games, a run that dates back to Nov. 29, 2004. During that time, Ohio has registered victories over the likes of Butler, George Mason, New Mexico State and Tulsa at The Convo.

TILLMAN IN MIDST OF LENGTHY DOUBLE-FIGURE STREAK

Dating back to last season, senior forward Jerome Tillman has scored in double figures in 17-straight games, and 20 of his last 21 outings overall.

The last time Tillman was held below 10 points was March 1, 2008 at Miami, when he netted a half dozen on just six shots attempts.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES STACKING UP FOR TILLMAN

Ohio's leader in both points and rebounds per game, senior forward Jerome Tillman has registered a double-double in five of the Bobcats' 12 contests this season.

MAC TELECONFERENCE

The conference will hold four "full participation" teleconferences this season. The dates for those calls are: Jan. 8, Jan. 26, Feb. 16 and March 9. More information will be released at a later date.

THE JOHN GROCE SHOW

The John Groce Show is broadcast live Monday evenings from 7-8 p.m. at Donatos Pizza in Athens. Fans can listen in the Citizens Bank Ohio ISP Sports Network, or over the Internet at www.ohiobobcats.com. Host Russ Eisenstein, Coach Groce and featured guests will recap the previous week's action and look ahead to upcoming opponents. Show dates are as follows: Dec. 1, Dec. 15, Dec. 29, Jan. 5, Jan. 12, Jan. 19, Jan. 26, Feb. 2, Feb. 9, Feb. 23, March 2

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

A pass list will determine access through the pass gate and credentials are not required for press row seating. A credential is required for photographers and television crews who need access to the floor. A 24-hour notice is appreciated for media members to have their name added to the pass list.

PARKING

A parking pass will be made available to approved members of the media upon request. The pass will grant the holder access to Lot P, located west of The Convo.

PRACTICES

Ohio practices are closed, but interested members of the media are invited to view the final 15 minutes of each practice session.

INTERVIEWS

Please arrange all interviews with Cory Walton. In-person interviews will be conducted at the conclusion of practice. Telephone interviews may be arranged with advanced notice. A 24-hour notice is appreciated for all interview requests.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Ohio locker room is closed to all media. Postgame interviews with the head coaches and selected players from both teams will be held in the Phillips Auditorium at the conclusion of the contest. The Phillips Auditorium is located on floor level of The Convo, in the northeast corner of the facility. Media should enter through the northeast portal on floor level.

Interviews at away games should be arranged with Cory Walton. If scheduled in advance, phone interviews will also be available.

Since notching his first-career double-double in the 2005-06 season opener, Tillman has accomplished the feat 23 times in 77 outings, or roughly one time in every three contests.

TILLMAN CLIMBING OHIO'S CAREER SCORING LIST

With a team-high 19 points against St. Francis (N.Y.) on Dec. 30, senior forward Jerome Tillman moved past former teammate Sonny Troutman for 18th place on Ohio's career scoring list with 1,291 points.

Already one of just 21 players in school history with 1,200-career points, Tillman will look to gain ground on Kirk Lehman against Bucknell on Saturday. The following is a snapshot of where Tillman currently stands on the program's all-time chart:

- 16. Gerald McKee (1966-69)..... 1,310
- 17. Kirk Lehman (1978-82) 1,297
- 18. Jerome Tillman (2005-Pres.) 1,291
- 19. Sonny Troutman (2003-07) 1,272
- 20. Don Hilt (1962-65) 1,252
- 21. Jerry Jackson (1961-64) 1,205

TILLMAN KEEPING ELITE COMPANY IN OHIO RECORD BOOKS

During his ascent up Ohio's career scoring chart this season, senior forward Jerome Tillman has moved past six members of the Ohio Athletics Hall of Fame on the program's all-time ledger.

Tillman began to make his move when he passed both Lewis Geter and Frankie Baumholtz - Ohio's first All-American - in the win over Austin Peay. He proceeded to surpass John Canine, Bunk Adams and Jerry Jackson before his 14 points against Marshall on Dec. 17 propelled him ahead of Don Hilt and into 19th place on the program's career list.

With 1,291 points to his credit, the next Ohio Hall of Fame member on Tillman's radar is Robert Tatum, who currently stands in 14th place with 1,348-career points.

TILLMAN CLOSING IN ON ANOTHER TOP-10 LIST

Already in 17th place on the program's career scoring chart, senior forward Jerome Tillman has his eyes on Ohio's career rebounding chart, as well.

With a game-high 12 against St. Francis (N.Y.) on Dec. 30, Tillman increased his career total to 712 boards, and needs 71 more to tie Don Hilt's total of 783 for 10th place in program annals.

SECOND VERSE DIFFERENT THAN THE FIRST

Despite trailing at the half in eight of their 12 contests this season, Ohio is +34 in the second half this season, outscoring its opponents, 444-410, after the break.

Tied at 26-26 with Holy Cross on Dec. 22, the Bobcats battled to a 32-27 advantage after the break to extend its non-conference home winning streak to 24 games.

The 17-point second-half cushion Ohio enjoyed against William & Mary in the season opener was its largest since doubling up George Mason, 50-25, on Feb. 23, 2008.

BOBCATS SEEING BALANCE FROM BALLHANDLERS

Through 12 games this season, Ohio's primary ballhandlers have each taken a prominent role in directing the offense. Senior Michael Allen has led the Bobcats or shared the team lead in assists seven times, while freshman Steven Coleman has paced the squad five times and fellow rookie Frankie Dobbs has done so on three occasions.

Prior to the Xavier game, when sophomore forward DeVaughn Washington handed out a team-leading four assists, at least one member of the triumvirate had led or shared the team high in seven-straight games to open the campaign.

OHIO TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS FROM THE LINE LATE IN GAMES

Ohio is shooting is 73.2 percent from the line as a team in the last five minutes of games this season, knocking down 41-of-56 attempts. Senior guard Michael Allen has been the catalyst for that late-game success, hitting all nine of his shots from the charity stripe with five minutes or less on the clock.

The Bobcats' home victory over Tulsa on Dec. 3 was secured at the line in the latter stages of the game, as Ohio knocked down 9-of-11 attempts in the last 2:25 of regulation to capture a 12-point win.

TOMMY THREE-MAN

Sophomore guard Tommy Freeman has taken well to his new role as one of the Bobcats' sharpshooters this season, as evidenced by the fact that 20 of his 26 field goals (76.9 percent) and 47 of his 68 field goal attempts (69.1) have come from beyond the arc.

Freeman also displayed his knack for knocking down trifectas in limited playing time as a freshman last year. In 42 career games, Freeman has made 75.0 percent (33-of-44) of his field goals and taken 73.9 percent (82-of-111) of his shots from long distance.

ORR NAMED OHIO'S THIRD TEAM CAPTAIN

Senior forward Justin Orr was named a team captain by head coach John Groce in early December, joining fellow seniors Michael Allen and Jerome Tillman in that role. Orr and Allen are both first-time team captains, while Tillman is reprising the duty he held a year ago, making him Ohio's first two-time captain since the 1972-73 and 1973-74 seasons.

TILLMAN NAMED TO MARQUES MAYBIN CLASSIC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

After turning in two 20-point scoring games and a double-double in his three outings in Louisville, senior forward Jerome Tillman was named to the Marques Maybin Classic All-Tournament Team.

Tillman averaged 21.3 points and 9.7 rebounds per game at the tournament, while also shooting 85.7 percent (24-of-28) from the free throw line in the three games.

COLEMAN DOUBLES UP ON AUSTIN PEAY

Nearly three years had passed since Leon Williams scored 29 points and grabbed 15 rebounds in the 2005 MAC title game on March 12, 2005, marking the last time an Ohio freshman posted a double-double.

Freshman guard Steven Coleman put an end to that drought at Austin Peay on Nov. 22, finishing with 21 points and 10 boards in a 79-

OHIO SIGNS TOUTED FOUR-PLAYER CLASS

Ohio University head men's basketball coach John Groce has announced the signing of D.J. Cooper, Marquis Horne, Reggie Keely and James Kinney to National Letters of Intent.

D.J. COOPER - CHICAGO, ILL.

A three-star recruit out of Seton Academy, Cooper was ranked 21st nationally among point guards by Scout.com, and also placed 30th on ESPN.com's rating. He is also the second-ranked point guard prospect in Illinois, as well as the state's No. 12 overall recruit, according to ChicagoHoops.com, and has been named a candidate for the 2009 McDonald's All-America Game.

MARQUIS HORNE - CINCINNATI, OHIO

Horne, a 6-6, 185-pound three-star prospect from Princeton High School, averaged 12 points and seven rebounds per game as a small forward in 2007-08. For his efforts as a junior, Horne was recognized with Cincinnati Enquirer honorable mention All-Division I and first-team All-Greater Miami Conference honors. He is rated the 10th-best overall prospect in Ohio by Rivals.com, and All-Ohio Basketball listed him at No. 14 on its ranking of Class of 2009 recruits.

REGGIE KEELY - UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS, OHIO

Keely, a two-star prospect out of Cleveland Heights High School, averaged 18 points, eight rebounds and two blocks per game as a junior en route to earning Division I honorable mention and Hoop Scoop Online all-state honors. Named a top-100 power forward prospect, the 6-8, 230-pound Keely was also ranked the No. 8 prospect in Ohio by Rivals.com, as well as the ninth-best player in the state by both All-Ohio Basketball and Hoop Scoop Online.

JAMES KINNEY - CHAMPAIGN, ILL.

A two-star guard, the 6-1, 150-pound Kinney posted averages of 16 points and more than six assists per game as a junior at Centennial High School in 2007-08, earning honorable mention all-state accolades from the Champaign News-Gazette. The same publication has also included Kinney on its first-team all-area and All-Big 12 Conference squads in each of the last two seasons. Prior to the beginning of his senior year, he was also selected to the 6-3 Club for elite high school guards by MidStateHoops.com.

68 Ohio victory. Not only was Coleman's effort the first double-double by a Bobcat frosh since the day Williams carried Ohio to its last NCAA Tournament berth, but it also marked the most points scored by an Ohio freshman since that day.

BOBCATS EARN HIGHEST TEAM GPA IN A HALF DOZEN QUARTERS

Ohio recorded a team grade-point average of 2.53 during the fall quarter, its highest team mark since the spring term of the 2006-07 academic year. The academic performance was also the fourth-highest single-quarter output in records dating back to the 2004-05 school year, a span of 13 quarters.

In addition to the team academic success, four Ohio players - senior guard Michael Allen, senior forward Jerome Tillman, junior center Kenneth van Kempen and freshman guard Frankie Dobbs - all earned GPA's of 3.00 or better during the fall term.

GROCE CONTINUES TRADITION OF STRONG DEBUTS BY OHIO HEAD COACHES

With the Bobcats' season-opening win over William & Mary on Nov. 16, John Groce became the fourth-straight Ohio head coach, and ninth overall, to win his first game on the sidelines.

The victory also improved first-year Ohio head coaches' record to 8-5 when leading the team for the first time at home, and 3-1 when doing so at The Convo.

TILLMAN LEADS ACTIVE MAC PLAYERS IN POINTS AND REBOUNDS

Senior forward Jerome Tillman is the MAC's active leader in both points and rebounds, with 1,291 and 712, respectively, to his credit.

He is also the top returning rebounder in the conference, averaging 7.6 boards per game last season, and the league's sixth-leading returning scorer.

This season, he will look to become just the third Ohio player since 1946 to lead the team in scoring for a second time with a year in between those two seasons.

OHIO TAKES ITS FIRST-CLASS SCHEDULE TO ANOTHER LEVEL

The Bobcats recently squared off with Louisville and Xavier, ranked 11th and 10th, respectively, at the time of the games, in a four-day period from Dec. 7-10.

Prior to that stretch, the last time Ohio had faced two top-11 teams in the same regular season was the 1962-63 season, when it played two games against a Loyola-Chicago team that was ranked in the top-five on both occasions.

The Louisville and Xavier games also marked just the third time in program history that the Green & White had met two top-11 teams in the same regular season.

BOBCATS PICKED FIFTH IN MAC EAST

Ohio was selected to finish in the MAC East this season, as voted upon by the league's coaches, media and sports information directors. The race in the East was a tight one, as only four votes separated third-place Bowling Green from the Bobcats in the fifth position. Akron is sandwiched by BGSU and Ohio in fourth place.

Kent State was picked to win the East, and led all vote-getters in the preseason poll for MAC Tournament champion with 11 votes.

TILLMAN EARNS SECOND-STRAIGHT PRESEASON ALL-MAC NOD

Senior forward Jerome Tillman was one of 10 players named to the preseason All-MAC team in October by a vote of the league's coaches and media. The selection marked the second-straight season in which the two-time all-conference pick graced the preseason squad.

Tillman is the only two-time preseason honoree on the East squad, while he and Eastern Michigan's Carlos Medlock were the only repeat honorees from a year ago.

TILLMAN TABBED PRESEASON MAC PLAYER OF THE YEAR BY BLUE RIBBON

The leading returning rebounder and sixth-leading returning scorer in the MAC this season, senior forward Jerome Tillman was named the league's Preseason Player of the Year by Blue Ribbon when the publication released its annual conference forecast on Sept. 24.

Tillman was also named to the five-player preseason all-conference squad, along with David Kool of Western Michigan, Al Fisher of Kent State, Carlos Medlock of Eastern Michigan and Miami's Michael Bramos.

BLUE RIBBON TOUTS BOBCATS' FRONT COURT AS LEAGUE'S BEST

With two returning starters and five letterwinners back in the fold this season, Blue Ribbon selected Ohio's frontcourt as the top unit in the MAC heading into the 2008-09 campaign. The Bobcats edged Miami and Eastern Michigan, respectively, to earn the billing.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES

Since opening the doors to the Convocation Center for the 1968-69 season, Ohio has posted a 386-120 (.763) mark on its home floor. The Bobcats' home tradition is very much alive, as they've posted a 53-6 (.898) record at The Convo since the 2004-05 campaign.

GROCE LOOKING TO JOIN SELECT GROUP OF OHIO HEAD COACHES

The 16th head men's basketball coach in the history of Ohio University, the John Groce Era officially dawned on June 27, 2008. The Danville, Ind., native will enter the 2008-09 season looking to become the sixth Ohio leader, and fourth in a row, to guide the Bobcats to a winning season in his first campaign.

Groce will have history on his side as he strives to accomplish that feat, as four of the previous five Ohio head coaches who took over after a winning season went on to post a record of .500 or better in their first year on the bench. The Bobcats went 20-13 a season ago.

BOBCATS CONTINUE HISTORY OF EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Data recently released by the NCAA showed that student-athletes who entered the Ohio men's basketball program between 1998 and 2001 boasted a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 80 percent, a mark that stands 18 points higher than the Division I national average.

The release also indicated that student-athletes who entered Ohio University for the 2001-02 school year posted a graduation rate of 74 percent, while overall Ohio student body checked in at 71 percent.

JOHN GROCE

HEAD COACH » FIRST SEASON » TAYLOR '94

In more than a decade as an assistant or associate head coach for some of the titans of the college basketball coaching world, John Groce has earned a reputation that includes words like passionate, knowledgeable, tireless, bright and thorough. On June 27, 2008, those qualities were bestowed upon the Ohio University men's basketball program when Director of Athletics Jim Schaus introduced Groce as the 16th head coach in school history.

Recognized in the last year by both Fox Sports and Rivals.com as one of the nation's top assistants, Groce (pronounced Gross) has reached the postseason 13 times in his 14 years on the collegiate sidelines. He has helped guide teams to a Final Four, two Elite Eights, a National Invitation Tournament championship and multiple conference titles.

Prior to his arrival in Athens, Groce spent four seasons on staff at Ohio State, the final two as associate head coach. During his tenure, he helped the Buckeyes to 105 victories, including a school-record 35 wins in 2006-07, a pair of outright Big Ten regular-season titles, two NCAA Tournament appearances, a berth in the 2007 NCAA National Championship game and the 2008 NIT title.

"I am very grateful for the opportunity to be the head coach at Ohio University," Groce said at his introductory press conference. "I appreciate the board of trustees, Dr. McDavis and Jim Schaus affording me and my family the chance to be part of the Bobcat community. We look forward to the transition and are very excited about the opportunity we have to positively impact the basketball program, the University and the Athens community at large."

Groce was also heavily involved in recruiting at Ohio State and played a vital role in bringing future first-round NBA draft picks Greg Oden, Mike Conley, Jr., and Daequan Cook to Columbus, earning him the title of Rivals.com Recruiter of the Year in 2006. His 2007 class at OSU, which featured a five-star prospect and two four-star recruits, was also ranked sixth in the nation.

The Danville, Ind., native began his coaching career in 1993 as an assistant at his alma mater, Taylor University, in Upland, Ind. During that time, Taylor posted a 71-28 record and earned a pair of trips to the NAIA national tournament. He helped the Trojans to a 29-5 record and a No. 1 national ranking in 1994.

Groce broke into Division I basketball as a member of Herb Sendek's staff at NC State in 1996, ultimately serving as an assistant with the Wolfpack from 1996-00. NCSU earned postseason bids in each of his four years on the sidelines, including a trip to the 2000 NIT semifinals.

With his hiring at Ohio, Groce became the eighth former Sendek assistant to ascend to the Division I head coaching ranks.

In 2000-01, Groce moved on to Butler, where he joined Thad Matta's staff for the first of his eight years working with the current Ohio State head coach. With Groce on the bench, the Bulldogs captured both the Midwestern College Conference regular-season and tournament crowns, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Groce accompanied Matta to Xavier in 2001, helping lead the Musketeers to a 78-23 overall record and an appearance in the NCAA Tournament in each of his three seasons on staff. The crown jewel of Groce's time in Cincinnati was a berth in the 2004 NCAA Elite Eight.

After starring for current Iowa head coach Todd Lickliter at Danville High School, Groce played basketball for three years at Taylor, helping the Trojans to a composite 86-18 record and three trips to the NAIA Tournament, including an NAIA Final Four bid in 1991. He earned a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Taylor in 1994.

Born on Sept. 7, 1971, in Muncie, Ind., Groce and his wife, Allison, have a son named Conner.

MARSHALL 73, OHIO 68 Cam Henderson Center - Huntington, W.Va.

Despite a game-high 18 points from DeVaughn Washington and a scorching 62.2 field goal percentage for the game, Ohio's late rally fell short at Marshall when the Bobcats were called for traveling while attempting to produce a game-tying three-point bucket in the closing seconds.
