FIRST AND 10

- Ohio faces off against Miami on Tuesday, Nov. 25 at 7 p.m. at Yager Stadium.
- Ohio's matchup with the RedHawks marks the 91st meeting between the two teams.
- Tuesday night's game will air on ESPN2. Ohio had all of its games aired on national television for the first time ever last season. Since 2006, Ohio has made 74 appearances on the ESPN Family of Networks.
- The game also can be heard live on the Ohio IMG Sports Radio Network. "Voice of the Bobcats" Russ Eisenstein and Rob Cornelius will have the call. Network coverage begins at 6:00 p.m.
- Ohio enters its matchup with Miami following a 21-14 loss to Northern Illinois on Nov. 18.
- On Oct. 11 against Bowling Green, the Bobcat offense tallied a school-record 110 plays. The previous record was 104 plays in a game in 1968 against Marshall.
- Ohio has not lost under Solich when leading at the end of the third quarter since 2011; they are 5-0 this season.
- Against Bowling Green on Oct. 11, redshirt sophomore quarterbacks JD Sprague and Greg Windham combined for 64 total pass attempts, which ranks second in Ohio history.
- On Sept. 20 against Idaho, the attendance of 25, 211 marked the third-largest crowd in Peden Stadium history.

-The Bobcats trail the all-time series against Miami, 36-52-2.

A WIN OVER MIAMI WOULD...

- Hand head coach Frank Solich his 130th career victory. It would also hand him his 72nd career win at Ohio.
- Give the Bobcats their 37th win over the RedHawks.
- Improve the Bobcats' record to 24-21 against Miami when they play in Athens.
- Give Ohio its second-straight victory over the RedHawks and eight victories in the last nine meetings
- Move the Bobcats to 4-4 in MAC play and 6-6 overall.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK - FRANK SOLICH

"There's a combination of reasons why we want to always play hard in this program. There's a lot of reasons to play this game and to play it hard and to play it well. We really focus in on all those reasons."

OHIO FOOTBALL MEDIA RELATIONS CONTACTS

Football Contact.....Sara Legarsky
 Cell Phone..... 724-464-4376
 E-mail legarsky@ohio.edu

INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES

1. Phone Interviews – For out-of-town media that wish to request a phone interview with Coach Solich, please contact the Ohio Media Relations Office. Interviews will be scheduled based on Coach Solich's availability.
2. Post-Game Press Conference – Coach Solich will be available to members of the media following each game, both at home and on the road. Check with the Ohio Media Relations Office for specific details.

ASSISTANT COACHES

Interviews with requested assistant coaches will take place after practice on Wednesdays of game weeks. Please be advised that during weeks when games are not played on Saturday, the day of assistant coach interviews may change based on the team's schedule. Please contact the media relations office to confirm. Coaches should not be contacted at their residences or cell phones. All interview requests must go through the media relations office.

STUDENT-ATHLETES

Interviews with requested players will take place following practice on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Please contact the Ohio Media Relations Office to confirm practice times and request players. Please be advised that during weeks when games are not played on Saturday, interview days may change based on the team's schedule. Players should not be contacted for interviews at their residences, on their cell phones, via email, Facebook, Twitter and all other social networking entities. All interview requests must go through the media relations office. Please keep in mind there may be class conflicts on certain days. Requested players will be also available following each game. The Ohio locker room is closed to the media at all times. Phone interviews with out-of-town media can also be arranged.

COVERING PRACTICE

Practice is open to members of the media. However, still photographers and videographers will be allowed to shoot only during pre-practice individual drills, which usually last approximately 10 minutes at the beginning of practice.

Media members covering practices or scrimmages will not be permitted to report any scouting information (formations, personnel groupings, etc.) without first speaking with a member of the Ohio coaching staff or the media relations office. Failure to adhere to this guideline could result in the closing of all practices and scrimmages to the media.

E-MAIL SERVICE

Football releases and information can be obtained electronically by e-mailing Sara Legarsky at legarsky@ohio.edu. Please include all contact information for your media outlet. Please note this service is for media only.

OHIOBOBCATS.COM

The official web site of Ohio Athletics is OhioBobcats.com. It is one of the many means of information dissemination utilized by the athletics department. In addition to releases, specific team information (rosters, schedules, statistics, bios, etc.) for all 16 varsity sports is available. Statistics, a game recap, notes and quotes will be available on-line as soon as possible following each game.

Poling led the defense for the Bobcats on Sept. 20 against Idaho. He snagged three interceptions for 77 yards. It was the first time a Bobcat player recorded three interceptions in a game since Tevell Jones did so in 1997 against Bowling Green. Poling also recorded six solo tackles and assisted on eight more, giving him 14 total.

POLING NAMED TO BRONKO NAGURSKI TROPHY WATCH LIST

On Sept. 23, Ohio linebacker Quentin Poling was named the Football Writers Association of America/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week. The honor automatically placed him on the Bronko Nagurski Trophy Watch List.

TWO NAMED TO PHIL STEELE'S MIDSEASON ALL-MAC TEAM

Junior Daz'mond Patterson was named to Phil Steele's 2014 Midseason All-Mid American Conference Special Teams First Team, while redshirt junior Mike Lucas was named to the Offense Second Team.

This season, Patterson has 15 kick returns for 385 yards. He averages 25.7 yards a return, with his longest of the season being a return of 45 yards.

Meanwhile, Lucas has started every game at left guard for the Bobcats this season.

CONSISTENCY AT THE TOP

Head coach Frank Solich begins his 10th season at Ohio University this fall. Solich's nine-year reign as head coach has become a rarity in today's college football landscape. Only nine football bowl sub-division coaches have longer tenures with their current team.

Ohio is the only team in the country that has kept its head coach, offensive coordinator and defensive coordinator in place for the past nine seasons.

AN IMPRESSIVE COACHING TREE

Ohio head coach Frank Solich sports an impressive coaching tree of former assistants, who are now head coaches in Division I College Football.

Head Coach (Current School)	Assistant	Years Under Solich
Craig Bohl (Wyoming)		(1998-2002)
Turner Gill (Liberty)		(2003)
Derek Mason (Vanderbilt)		(2005-06)
Bo Pelini (Nebraska)		(2003)

A TURNAROUND FOR THE AGES

In the last 40 years, Ohio University football has been to just eight bowl games, however six of those bowl appearances have come during head coach Frank Solich's nine years in Athens.

A WINNING MARK

The Ohio University football team entered the 2014 season with an all-time record of 533-535-48. As a program, Ohio has not had an all-time program winning mark since the start of the 1995 campaign.

AMONG THE BEST IN THE MAC

Ohio's 67 wins since 2006 are the second-most victories by any school in the Mid-American Conference during that period. Northern Illinois is the only school that has more wins in that stretch.

EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

This season, the Bobcats have had 42 explosive plays, resulting in three touchdowns. Meanwhile, Ohio opponents have produced 41 explosive plays, resulting in 14 touchdowns.

GETTING DEFENSIVE

Ohio's defensive unit features one of the youngest units in 2014. Listed below are some of the highlights from this year's defensive unit.

- The Bobcats' tallied 5.0 sacks against Kentucky.
- Ohio notched a pair of sacks and 8.0 tackles for loss in its season-opener at Kent State.
- The Bobcats held the Golden Flashes to just 31 yards rushing in the game. In the first half, Ohio held KSU to minus four yards on the ground.
- Buffalo's 134 total yards, 106 passing yards and 28 rushing yards were all the fewest allowed this season by the Ohio defense.
- The Bobcats had three interceptions against Idaho.
- The defense held Bowling Green to 95 total rushing yards. It is the third time this season that the Bobcats have held an opponent to under 100 rushing yards (31 at Kent State and 65 vs. Idaho).
- Against Akron, defensive lineman Tarell Basham recorded a season-high 1.5 sacks and a career-high 2.5 tackles for loss.
- Cornerback Brett Layton recorded Ohio's longest interception return of -the season with a 43-yard return in the first quarter, setting Ohio up on WMU's three-yard line on Oct. 25.
- Ohio has forced at least one turnover in six straight games.

BASHAM NAMED TO THE HENDRICKS AWARD MID SEASON WATCH LIST

Ohio University football sophomore defensive end Tarell Basham was named to the 2014 Midseason Watch List for the 13th Annual Ted Hendricks Award. Basham was the only player from the Mid-American Conference to be named to the preseason watch list. He also was one of just 32 players nationally to earn the preseason recognition. Basham was selected to the watch list following an incredible 2013 campaign where he led the team with 7.5 sacks as a true freshman en route to being named to the 13th annual Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Freshman All-America Team.

YAZDANI NAMED TO THE GROZA WATCH LIST

Ohio University junior place kicker Josiah Yazdani was among 30 players named to the Watch List for the 2014 Lou Groza College Place-Kicker Award. Yazdani becomes the second Ohio place kicker in three years selected to the Groza Preseason Watch List. In 2012, former Bobcat Matt Weller was named to the Groza Preseason Watch List.

KRISTOFF NAMED WILLIAM V. CAMPBELL TROPHY SEMIFINALIST

Senior safety Josh Kristoff was named a semifinalist for the 2014 William V. Campbell Trophy, The National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame announced on Sept. 25.

TEN BOBCATS EARN PHIL STEELE PRESEASON ALL-MAC HONORS

The Ohio University football team earned 10 spots on the 2014 Phil Steele Preseason All-Mid-American Conference team. The teams will be published in the Phil Steele 2014 College Football Preview, which will hit newsstands June 24.

Junior Devin Bass and sophomore Tarell Basham highlighted the Bobcats' preseason All-MAC honoree list as both were named First Team.

Senior Antwan Crutcher and junior Josiah Yazdani each earned Second Team honors. Seniors Chase Cochran and Josh Kristoff and sophomore defensive lineman Brandon Purdum each were selected to the Third Team.

Rounding out the Bobcats' presence on this year's squad were junior offensive lineman Mike Lucas, sophomore defensive lineman Kurt Laseak and junior Ben Russell as each were selected to the Fourth team.

OHIO FOOTBALL'S KRISTOFF NOMINATED FOR ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS TEAM®

Ohio University senior safety Josh Kristoff (Pickerington, Ohio) has been named one of a record-breaking 182 nominees for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team®, as announced by Allstate Insurance Company and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® has served as one of the most coveted and prestigious off-the-field honors in college football. The award recognizes players whose charitable involvement and community service contributions stand out among all other student-athletes participating in the sport.

Kristoff is one of 90 NCAA Division I FBS student-athletes nominated for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® -- including one of eight from the Mid-American Conference.

CARRIE SELECTED ON DAY THREE OF THE NFL DRAFT

Former Ohio University cornerback Travis Carrie was selected by the Oakland Raiders during the third day of the 2014 NFL Draft, which was held at Radio City Music Hall in New York City. Carrie was picked fourth (219th overall) in the seventh round. The Antioch, Calif. native becomes the 32nd player in school history to be selected in the NFL Draft and the sixth to be taken in the Frank Solich Era. No current Mid-American Conference institution has had more players drafted over the past seven years. Ohio has now had a player selected in the NFL Draft in six of the last seven years.

10 FORMER BOBCATS OPEN TRAINING CAMP ON NFL ROSTERS

At the start of NFL training camp there were 10 former Bobcats listed on NFL rosters. Listed below is breakdown of past Ohio football players on NFL squads.

Arizona Cardinals - Dave Zastudil
Buffalo Bills - Landon Cohen
Detroit Lions - Jordan Thompson
Minnesota Vikings - Donte Foster
Minnesota Vikings - Julian Posey
New York Giants - Eric Herman
Oakland Raiders - Travis Carrie
Pittsburgh Steelers - Mike Mitchell
Seattle Seahawks - Phil Bates
Seattle Seahawks - Taylor Price

BOBCATS UNVEIL NEW LOCKER ROOM

As the Ohio University Football team reported to preseason camp this August, the squad was greeted to the look of a newly renovated locker room thanks to the support of former players and current alumni.

Over 200 individuals donated to the locker room project to provide the Bobcats with a state-of-the-art facility, which features new carpet, wall graphics, media center and an enhanced lounge area for players to gather in-between practice.

The team also increased its locker count from 105 to 120 to effectively accommodate the entire squad. Among the 200-plus contributors to this year's project, 112 of those individuals are former players, who sponsored their locker. The 112 former players ranged from individuals from the 1949 to the 2012 class.

OHIO UNIVERSITY WINS ENTERPRISE RENT-A-CAR'S "BEST UNDER-THE-RADAR NCAA FOOTBALL ATMOSPHERE" COMPETITION

The Ohio Bobcats were voted as having the "Best Under-the-Radar NCAA Football Atmosphere" in a nationwide fan vote. After winning the competition, Ohio University's football gameday atmosphere was featured on a hour-long special entitled "Best of College Football 2013". The feature was televised in front of a national audience on CBS, which aired Nov. 29, 2013.

LAST MEETING: OHIO 41, MIAMI 16

ATHENS, Ohio -The Ohio University football team (6-2, 3-1 MAC) soared over rival Miami University (0-8, 0-4 MAC), 41-16, Saturday in the 90th annual Battle of the Bricks at Peden Stadium, making the Bobcats bowl eligible for the fifth consecutive season.

The victory pushed Ohio to the .500 mark all-time at 531-531-48, marking the first time the program has reached the milestone since the start of the 1995 campaign. The Bobcats beat the RedHawks for the seventh time in the last eight years and have won 21 of their last 28 games dating back to the 2011 season.

Redshirt senior wide receiver Donte Foster (Guthrie, Okla.) hauled in three touchdown passes from redshirt senior quarterback Tyler Tettleton (Norman, Okla.) to break the program's career touchdown receptions record with 20. The previous standard of 19 was held by Terrence McCrae (2007-2010). Foster led all receivers with eight catches for 122 yards.

Tettleton finished 22-of-32, throwing for 306 yards and tossed three scoring strikes and no interceptions. He has thrown 300 or more yards eight times in his career and improved to 24-10 since taking over as the Bobcats' starting quarterback in 2011.

Redshirt senior running back Beau Blankenship (Norman, Okla.) rumbled for a season-high 173 yards on 20 carries - his first 100-yard rushing effort of the 2013 season.

Ohio got after it on the defensive end, recording seven sacks.

The Bobcats set the tone quickly, scoring on their first offensive series for the sixth time in their last seven games. Blankenship took his first handoff of the contest 53 yards to the Miami 16, setting the stage for Tettleton's two-yard touchdown pass to Foster four plays later.

Ohio increased its lead to 14-0 on its second drive as Tettleton found Foster for a 33-yard scoring strike.

The RedHawks cut the Ohio lead to 11 points courtesy of a 45-yard field goal by sophomore kicker Kaleb Patterson with 1:53 to play in the first quarter.

Miami made it a four-point game with 6:56 to play in the first half when redshirt senior quarterback Austin Boucher hit senior tight end Dustin White for a 22-yard touchdown.

Ohio struck back when Foster hauled in his third touchdown catch of the day - a five-yard strike from Tettleton that gave the Bobcats a 21-10 lead with just over three minutes to play in the half.

The Bobcats made it a 14-point contest again with just 18 seconds to play before halftime when redshirt sophomore kicker Josiah Yazdani (Albany, Ohio) connected on a 24-yard field goal attempt.

Yazdani added three more points to Ohio's total when he successfully booted a 33-yard field with 8:38 to play in the third quarter, making the score 27-10.

Ohio added two more touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Redshirt senior running back Ryan Boykin (Woodstock, Ga.) scored on a seven-yard scamper with 13:06 to play. Redshirt sophomore quarterback Derrius Vick (Lincoln, Neb.) took a keeper six yards into the end zone with 3:37 left on the clock.

OHIO VS. MIAMI - NOTES

FRANK SOLICH

HEAD COACH, 10TH SEASON

Nebraska '66

10th Season at Ohio (71-56, 46-32 MAC)

16th Season Overall (129-75)

-Led Ohio to back-to-back bowl wins and its first ever bowl win in 2011, winning the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

-Directed Ohio to 62 wins since the start of the 2006 season.

-Led Ohio to five straight bowl games.

-Coached 63 All-MAC Players.

-Have appeared on the ESPN Family of Networks 62 times since 2005.

-2006 Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year.

-Served as the head coach of the Aina Team at the 2005 Hula Bowl.

-1999 and 2001 Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Head Coach Frank Solich has continued a storybook turnaround during his tenure at Ohio University. Now in his 10th season (16th overall), the Bobcats have been bowl-eligible in seven of the last nine years, having won 62 games since 2006 - the most among any team in the Mid-American Conference East Division - and have had student-athletes selected in the NFL Draft in five of the past six seasons.

This past season, Solich guided the Bobcats to their fifth-consecutive bowl appearance. In addition, Ohio picked up its third straight win in its Battle of the Bell rivalry over Marshall, which would go on to play in the 2013 Conference USA Championship game.

Under Solich's leadership in 2013, the Bobcats scored 336 points, which currently ranks eighth on Ohio's all-time Top 10 list. Defensively, Ohio held five of its opponents to fewer than 300 yards of total offense. The Bobcat defensive unit also tallied 34 sacks, which is currently tied for second all-time in a single season.

Following the year, Ohio earned six slots on the 2013 MAC All-Conference with Devin Bass (kick returner) and Travis Carrie (punt returner) both earning spots on the All-MAC First Team.

In 2012, Solich directed Ohio to its best start to a season since the 1968 campaign as the Bobcats opened the year 7-0. The Bobcats' 7-0 start included a thrilling 24-14 victory over Penn State in front of a nationally-televised audience.

After opening the year 7-0, Ohio earned a spot in all three major college football polls for the first time in school history - Associated Press, USA Today and the Bowl Championship Series standings.

Following the 2012 campaign, Ohio placed six individuals on the 2012 MAC All-Conference teams and earned a bid to the 2012 Advocare V100 Independence Bowl to punch its ticket to a fourth-consecutive bowl trip.

In the Independence Bowl, Ohio did not disappoint as it defeated Louisiana-Monroe 45-14 to pick up its second-straight bowl victory. The Bobcats also set or tied 11 bowl records in the win, including the mark for total yards as they finished with 556.

The 2012 season also saw the emergence of running back Beau Blankenship. In his first season as a starter, Blankenship set the single season rushing record of 1,604 yards under Solich's watch. He also rushed for 15 touchdowns as he averaged just over five yards per carry.

In his seven previous seasons as Ohio's head coach, Solich guided the Bobcats to an impressive 50-40 record. In 2011, Solich led the Bobcats to their first-ever bowl win as Ohio defeated Utah State 24-23 in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl to finish the year 10-4.

Ohio's win over the Aggies gave the Bobcats their first 10-win season since 1968. The Bobcats' 10 wins were also the most among division I-A teams from the state of Ohio. The Bobcats four losses came by a combined total of just 19 points (4.75 points per game).

Solich's 2011 Bobcat squad set 47 school records, won six of the team's last seven games and had a league-best 11 players on the MAC All-Conference teams. In addition, Solich picked up his 100th career victory following a convincing 30-3 victory over Gardner-Webb on Sept. 10.

Among the 11 players selected All-MAC, place kicker Matt Weller was named Special Teams Player of the Year, offensive lineman Joe Flading was named First Team and quarterback Tyler Tettleton became the first Ohio signal-caller to be named all-league since 1985. Under Solich's watchful eye, Tettleton re-wrote Ohio's single season record book as he set 12 records and became the first quarterback in school history to pass for 3,000 yards in one year, while in the process throwing a program-best 28 touchdowns.

The 2011 campaign also saw Ohio defeat arch-rival Miami for the sixth-consecutive season - the program's longest winning streak since it won six straight from 1937-1942. Since Solich took over in 2005, Ohio has only suffered two losses to Miami.

In 2010, the Bobcats went to the New Orleans Bowl, making the program's fifth bowl appearance and third in the past five seasons.

Following the season, seven student-athletes were named All-MAC and quarterback Boo

OHIO VS. MIAMI - NOTES

Jackson finished his career as Ohio's career leader in completion percentage (.604), pass efficiency (136.3), total offense per play (6.18), passing yards per attempt (7.7) and touchdown passes (38). He also finished the season with 26 total touchdowns, 48 in his career, which is fourth all-time. He also accumulated 18 passing touchdowns in 2010 (fourth all-time on the single-season list).

The 2009 season was equally successful as the senior class compiled 28 victories during its four years on campus. In addition, Ohio boasted a school-record 12 All-MAC selections with four capturing All-America honors en route to a second MAC East title in the squad's last four years. Solich was named the conference coach of the year by Phil Steele.

Following back-to-back seasons of bowl eligibility, the Bobcats followed it up with an offensive outburst that rewrote many of Ohio's all-time team and individual records in Frank Solich's fourth year at the helm. In 2008, the Bobcats' aerial attack set three school single-season passing records, including passing yards, passing yards per game and touchdown passes all of which stood until the conclusion of the 2011 season.

Overall, Ohio also totaled 4,337 yards of total offense, which at the time was the third-highest total in school history. Following the year, six players garnered All-MAC recognition, while in the classroom, five picked up Academic All-MAC awards.

Perhaps the best individual honor under Solich came with safety Mike Mitchell being drafted by the Oakland Raiders in the second round of the NFL Draft (47th overall), becoming the highest drafted Bobcat since 1948 and the highest under Solich.

With Solich as coach in 2007, Calvin McRae became the first Ohio player in history to rush for 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. Other players achieved success for the offense as well, with tight end Andrew Mooney setting the single-season Bobcat touchdown reception record and quarterback Brad Bower tying the career record for most yards per pass.

In 2006, Solich guided Ohio to its first MAC East Division championship, the program's first MAC title of any kind since 1968, earning the Bobcats a spot in the GMAC Bowl, which marked the Bobcats' first bowl game since that same 1968 season.

Following the year, Solich was rewarded with MAC Coach of the Year honors, marking the third time in eight seasons in which he had won his league's coach of the year award. Ohio's five-win improvement from 2005 (4-7) to 2006 (9-5) tied for the sixth-best turnaround in the nation.

In his first three seasons, Solich guided the Bobcats to 19 victories in his first three campaigns after the squad had won 11 games in the previous four seasons. Since his arrival, Solich has coached 63 All-MAC players.

His players have also gained national recognition. At the conclusion of the 2011 season, Joe Flading earned SI.com All-America honors. In 2009, LaVon Brazill and Noah Keller were named to various All-America teams, while Matt Weller and Gerald Moore were tabbed as Freshman All-Americans. In 2005, Dion Byrum became Ohio's first non-special teams All-American since 1968, and three rookies have been honored on The Sporting News Freshman All-America squads.

Ohio has also seen an increase of national television exposure since Solich's arrival in 2005 as the Bobcats have played on the ESPN Family of Networks 62 times. This past season, Ohio had all 12 of its games televised on the ESPN Family of Networks and for the first time in school history, the Bobcats had all of their home games televised. The program has also seen an increased level of exposure in the media as it was featured in Sports Illustrated, USA Today, The New York Times and Boston Globe.

Since Solich arrived in Athens, Bobcat players have been named to watch lists for such prestigious honors as the Maxwell Award, the Butkus Award, the Lombardi Trophy, the Lott Trophy, the Davey O'Brien Award, Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, Manning Award, the Biletnikoff Award and the Nagurski Trophy. Byrum was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented to the nation's top defensive back, in 2005.

Off the field, Solich is equally proud of his player's accomplishments in the classroom. In the past three seasons, the Bobcats have had 18 Academic All-MAC selections. He has also had two seasons where an Ohio player has been named a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy, one of the most prestigious academic honors in college football. Academic success is nothing new for Solich's teams. While head coach at Nebraska, almost 90 percent of his student-athletes earned their degree. Seven times Huskers earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and on four other occasions, second-team honors were bestowed.

Solich was named the Bobcats' head coach on Dec. 17, 2004. In short order he assembled a talented and tested coaching staff, coordinated recruiting efforts to assure a steady stream of outstanding student-athletes to the program, supervised a highly productive off-season weight program producing dozens of personal bests and concluded all-business spring drills introducing his players to tried and true offensive and defensive schemes.

Solich's arrival brought a renewed enthusiasm to the Bobcat football program. Ohio used that spark to begin a massive renovation of Peden Tower to better serve its student-athletes.

The momentum carried over into Solich's first season on the sidelines at Peden Stadium. Solich's first win at Ohio came against defending Big East champion Pittsburgh in his home debut. Dion Byrum's two interception returns for touchdown on national television in an overtime victory put the Bobcats on the national stage. The win was one of only two victories for MAC teams against BCS-conference opponents during that season.

Solich arrived in Athens after six seasons as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. Solich spent nearly 30 years as part of the Nebraska program as a player, assistant coach and head coach. A Big 12 Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2001, Solich produced nine-win seasons in five of his six years as head coach of the Huskers. In 1999, 2000 and 2001, he generated 12, 10 and 11 win seasons, respectively. He also generated six-consecutive bowl appearances including a 2001 run at the national championship against Miami in the Rose Bowl.

Under Solich's leadership, Nebraska spent 54 consecutive weeks in the Associated Press Top 10. In his first five seasons as Husker head coach, Solich won 49 games, more than both his storied predecessors, Bob Devaney and Dr. Tom Osborne, in their first five years at Nebraska.

Moving on from Nebraska following a 2003 season in which his Huskers went 10-3, Solich was nevertheless determined to stay as close as possible to the college game until just the right opportunity came along. In a unique professional development opportunity all too often ignored by colleagues, Solich chose to travel the college and professional ranks to update his knowledge of the game, broaden his perspectives on its nuances and challenges and ready himself for the next great challenge.

Stepping back from the sideline included wide-ranging visits to some of Division I-A's top programs as well and the schedule included much more than a courtesy call. His ambitious fact-finding odyssey included stops at Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin, Miami and Southern California.

Coming from his native Cleveland to Lincoln back in 1962, he was recruited to play fullback for the Cornhuskers as a part of Bob Devaney's first class of freshmen. During his time in the Husker program, Nebraska went 9-2, 10-1, 9-2 and 10-1. He earned All-Big Eight honors in 1965 and was the first Husker to rush for 200 yards in a game. His place in the Nebraska tradition was formalized with his induction into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

While his accomplishments as a player were impressive, his work as a gifted teacher and assistant coach perhaps had as much to do with his arrival in the shrine as anything. Nine of the 15 seasons he served as running backs coach, Nebraska led the nation in rushing. He recruited and coached 1983 Heisman winner Mike Rozier and produced at least one all-conference running back in thirteen of the fifteen years he mentored that position. As a head coach, Solich mentored Eric Crouch to the 2001 Heisman Trophy.
