THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Ohio's defense has been among the nation's best from a statistical standpoint and the national numbers bear that out. The Bobcats lead the nation in turnovers forced (35) are tied for third in fumble recoveries (16), fifth in kickoff return yardage defense (17.72), sixth in turnover margin (1.17) and tied for seventh in passes intercepted (19). Senior safety Patrick Tafua is tied for first nationally in fumbles recovered per game (0.36).

CAREER DAYS

A few Bobcats had career-highs in the 35-17 win over Temple. Offensively, quarterback Theo Scott had 324 passing yards and two rushing touchdowns, while wide receiver Steven Goulet had five catches for 65 yards. Defensively, linebacker Lee Renfro had nine solo tackles and 14 total tackles, while Noah Keller had a pair of forced fumbles.

TV TIME

The Ohio-Central Michigan game will be the 22nd appearance for the Bobcats on the ESPN "Family of Networks" since the beginning of the 2005 season. The Bobcats are 7-14 in those games.

BALL SECURITY

The Bobcats have made tremendous strides in taking care of the football this season. Dating back to the 2008 season finale at Miami, Ohio had as many or fewer turnovers as the opposition in nine straight contests before that streak was snapped in the 20-17 win at Ball State. Ohio's zero turnovers against Temple marked the first time the program had a turnover-less game since the 48-37 loss at Akron on Nov. 7, 2007.

GREAT SCOTT

Ohio's Theo Scott was a one-man wrecking crew against Temple, giving Ohio a berth in the MAC Championship. In addition to the career-highs, Scott's .810 completion percentage, 15.4 yard-per-attempt average, 393 yards of total offense and touchdown responsibility (five) ranked in the top five of Ohio's single-game records. For his efforts, Scott was named MAC East Offensive Player of the Week.

EYEING FOURTH

Ohio head coach Frank Solich (32 wins) is now fifth on the program's all-time victories list with the win over Temple. Next up is Jim Grobe who won 33 from 1995-2000. Solich will look to equal Grobe's win mark in his 62nd game in Athens, while Grobe reached win 33 in game #67. Don Peden tops the list with 121 wins from 1924-46.

IMMOVABLE FORCE, IRRESISTIBLE OBJECT

Friday's game will put both teams' strengths to the test. Central Michigan leads the league in quite a few categories, but special attention should be paid to pass efficiency and third down conversions. The Chippewas lead the league with a 151.7 pass efficiency mark, but the Bobcats are also first in pass efficiency defense at 104.8. CMU also tops the list with an even 50.0 percent (76-152) clip on third down. However, the Bobcat defensive corps yields a league-low 35.3 success rate (65-184) on that down.

OF NOTE

The Chippewas have yet to allow a successful onside kick attempt in five tries this season, but surrendered all three they saw a year ago.

TRACKING SCHULTE

Ohio redshirt junior punter Matt Schulte is steadily climbing through the school's record book. He is currently sixth all-time in career punts (157) and career yardage (5,890). Next up in both categories is Mike Green (1973-75) with 176 punts and and 7,026 yards.

TWO ON THIRD

Ohio converted just twice on third down in the 35-17 win over Temple, the fewest for the program since recording two in a 27-20 win over Western Michigan on Oct. 7, 2006.

TACKLING MACHINE

With 13 tackles against Temple, junior captain Noah Keller has amassed more than 100 tackles for the second consecutive season. Keller, who has 122 tackles so far in 2009, finished 2008 as Ohio's leading tackler with 104 tackles. Keller currently has 263 career tackles.

STRUM SHOWS STRENGTH TOO

It should come as no surprise that redshirt sophomore left guard A.J. Strum threw crucial blocks on both of Ohio's touchdown runs in the 27-24 win at Buffalo. The Delmont, Pa. native has yet to allow a sack in 443 snaps and has yielded just one quarterback pressure.

FINISHING STRONG

While the third quarter hasn't always been kind to Ohio, the fourth quarter (and overtime) has. Not only has Ohio outscored the opposition in the fourth/overtime (108-78), it has converted 35.8 percent (19-53) on third down during that time, while the opposition has been held to a 26.0 percent (13-50) clip. Ohio has also held nearly a two-minute edge in time of possession during that period as well. That is in contrast to a third quarter where Ohio has posted a 23.5 percent (8-34) mark on third down compared to the opposition's 44.2 percent mark (19-43). Not surprisingly, the opposition has turned the tables in time of possession there, holding nearly a 90 second edge.

IN THE ZONE

The Bobcats have had their fair share of struggles in the red zone this season, including a national ranking of 106th in red zone percentage (73 percent) and 114th in red zone touchdown percentage (41.46 percent).

RARIFIED AIR

The Bobcats' nine wins have put them in some distinguished company this season as only 24 other schools can boast as many. Of those, just nine are from non-BCS conferences.

MOORE, WELLER TURNING HEADS

The play of redshirt freshmen Gerald Moore and Matt Weller could garner Freshman All-America consideration at season's end. Currently, Weller's 19 field goals are the most of any freshman kicker in the nation, while Moore's six picks are tied with Mississippi State's Corey Broomfield, Central Florida's Josh Robinson and Clemson's Rashard Hall for tops nationally among freshmen.

MILESTONES

Quarterback Theo Scott's three touchdown passes vs. Temple gave him 25 for his career, which puts him second all-time in Ohio's career records. He needs four more to tie Cleve Bryant (1967-69) for Ohio's all-time mark.

ON PACE

Ohio freshman kicker Matt Weller has 19 field goals through 12 games, which is within striking distance of Michael Braunstein's single-season school record of 20 set during the 2007 season. Against Ball State, Weller booted four field goals, which tied Michael Braunstein's (vs. Wyoming in 2007) and Barrett Way's (at Kent State) single-game record. For his tremendous efforts this season, Weller has been named MAC East Special Teams Player of the Week three times. The Ohio defense has 19 picks thus far, which is currently fourth in the school's all-time single-season records. The 1953 team had 20, the 1960 team had 21 and the 1952 team hawked 26 passes.

THE AIR UP THERE...

Through 12 games, Ohio has passed for 2,496 yards, a total that is currently third in the school's single-season records. It also boasts 21 touchdown passes so far, which ties the school's all-time record set last season.

IN NEED OF THE BIG PLAY

Much has been made of Ohio's quick-strike ability this season and with good reason. Despite piling up 320 points and 26.7 points per game this season, both of which are totals that are on pace to land in or near the school's all-time top 10 at season's end, the Bobcats are also tied for 112th nationally in first downs per game (16.08).

THE DAK ATTACK

Junior defensive lineman Dak Notestine had three sacks at Bowling Green, which tied Mario Daniel (vs. Ball State), Bobby Holloway (vs. Hawaii) and Andre Jackson (vs. Toledo), for the single-game school record. For his efforts, Notestine was named MAC East Defensive Player of the Week. Daniel, Holloway and Jackson all posted their records during the 1996 season.

KEEPING AN EYE ON THE RECORD BOOK

Ohio wideout Taylor Price needs two touchdown catches to become Ohio's all-time leader in TD receptions and one catch to become the school's all-time leader in receptions.

AIR ATTACK

Quarterback Theo Scott's numbers at Tennessee not only set personal marks, it dented the Bobcat record book as well. The 30 completions tied for fourth in the school's single-game records, while the pass attempts were fifth and the passing yardage was eighth (at the time). Scott currently has 19 touchdown passes this season, which ties him for the single-season school record with Boo Jackson, who set the mark last season.

TURNING THEM OVER

Ohio has forced 35 turnovers in its first 12 games this season, the best mark in the nation. Senior safety Patrick Tafua has four fumble recoveries, which is tied for the most in the nation.

FINDING PAYDIRT

The Bobcats had been held without a rushing touchdown in each of 2009's first four games, the only program in the nation that failed to do so. Ohio corrected that issue in dramatic fashion in the 44-37 win at Bowling Green, with three rushing scores and then again versus Miami, Buffalo and Temple with two more. Only New Mexico, San Jose State, San Diego State, Duke and Washington State have fewer this season.

GETTING NON-OFFENSIVE

The Bobcats have continued a trend that has been growing for the past five seasons. Ohio got a pair of non-offensive touchdowns, courtesy of Kenny Jackson's 69-yard interception return for a touchdown at North Texas, helping an 11-point comeback by the Bobcats. The 26th touchdown since the beginning of the 2004 season came when Errik Ejike's 23-yard interception return gave the Bobcats an early lead against Cal Poly. The 27th score came on Garrett's 95-yard kickoff return for touchdown and the 28th came when LaVon Brazill raced 72 yards on a punt return at Bowling Green. Ohio made it five straight games with a non-offensive score when linebacker Melvin Payne blocked a rugby-style punt at Akron and fell on it in the end zone for a touchdown. That TD was Ohio's first blocked punt returned for a touchdown since Jordan Meyers duplicated the feat on Oct. 8, 2005. For his efforts, Payne was named MAC East Special Teams Player of the Week. Brazill struck again for the 30th non-offensive score, when he dashed 87 yards on a punt return against Kent State. Scores 31 and 32 came against Northern Illinois when Brazill raced 91 yards on a punt return and Julian Posey trotted 41 yards into the end zone on an interception return. Ohio is second nationally in non-offensive touchdowns this season, three behind Texas.

HALFTIME LEADS

With the Bobcats' 13-10 lead going into the locker room against Temple, Ohio has now led 32 times at intermission under Solich. With the win, the Bobcats are now 26-6 when taking a lead into intermission since the beginning of the 2005 season.

SCORING FIRST UNDER SOLICH

Ohio has enjoyed good success when putting the first points of the game on the board under Frank Solich. Since the beginning of the 2005 season, the Bobcats are now 18-8 when scoring first.

LOVING THE LEAGUE

The Bobcats love it when the Mid-American Conference television package appears on the schedule as they are 4-0 over the last three seasons when they appear on the conference's network. The wins are: 38-21 over Ball State (10/22/05), 27-20 over Western Michigan (10/7/06), 17-7 at Kent State (10/28/06) and 48-42 over Eastern Michigan (10/13/07).

BOBCATS WIN WHEN SCORING 28

Since the 1998 season, Ohio is 42-14 (.750) when reaching the 28-point plateau.

- In that same span, Ohio has had 17 victories when scoring less than 28 points, including five contests during the 2006 season (vs. Western Michigan 27-20; at Illinois 20-17; at Kent State 17-7; at Eastern Michigan 16-10; vs. Akron 17-7).

- Ohio is 33-9 (.786) since 1998 when scoring at least 30 points, 15-2 (.882) when putting up at least 40 points and 5-0 (1.000) when scoring at least 50 points.

BRAZILL RUNS INTO HISTORY

LaVon Brazill's punt return for touchdown against Northern Illinois was the fourth of his career, setting the school's career mark for punt return TDs. It was also the longest punt return in school history, eclipsing Chris Garrett's 88-yard return for touchdown against Western Michigan in 2006.

ROAD WARRIORS

Ohio's 27-24 win at Buffalo was the program's fifth-straight MAC road win, dating back to last season's finale at Miami, the longest streak for the program since a seven-game stretch from 1959-61 (Marshall, Kent State, Western Michigan, Bowling Green, Toledo, Miami and Marshall).

ELEVEN?

Ohio's 11 points against Kent State marked the first time since...1911 that the Bobcats (or their opponents for that matter) finished a game with that total. Ohio tied Otterbein 11-11 that season.

TOUGH SLEDDING

The Bobcat defense yielded just seven points in the 28-7 win over Miami. That was the fewest points allowed against the RedHawks since a 20-0 blanking in 1982. Ohio also yielded just 52 yards rushing against Miami, the fewest for the program since yielding 48 in a 23-7 win over Temple in 2007.

JUST ELEVEN

Ohio's 11 completions at Akron are the fewest in a game for the program since it posted just nine in a 38-29 win over Miami on Nov. 24, 2007.

NEGATIVES AGAINST KENT

Ohio's rushing total of -9 against Kent State was the lowest rushing output in a game for the program in at least the last five-plus seasons, topping the -6 yard output against Rutgers on Sept. 16, 2006. Ohio's 2.8 yards per play and 164 total yards were the fewest since Sept. 15, 2007 when it posted 2.0 per play and 114 total yards at #18 Virginia Tech.

INCOMING!

The Ohio defense allowed 390 yards passing in the 44-37 win at Bowling Green, the most for the program since yielding 405 to the Falcons in a 41-16 BG win in Peden Stadium. The Bobcats also allowed 26 first downs, the most since Miami posted 28 in Ohio's 38-29 win on 2007's Senior Day in Peden.

WELLER ON FIRE IN FIRST TWO

Ohio kicker Matt Weller bombed a 50-yard field goal in the 23-16 loss to Connecticut, which helped propel him to MAC East Special Teams Player of the Week honors. That kick tied him for 10th all-time with Gary Homer (twice) and Mike Fultz for the longest field goal in school history. The freshman from Twinsburg, Ohio also averaged 65.0 yards on his three kickoffs. He followed that performance with a 3-3 effort at North Texas, connecting on kicks of 47, 44 and 35 yards.

DEADLY ACCURATE

Quarterback Boo Jackson is currently Ohio's career leader in completion percentage and pass efficiency (min. 200 attempts) with his 60.1 completion percentage (202-336).

CROWD PLEASERS

Last season's matchup with Ohio State was the largest audience (105,002) for the Bobcats in school history. The previous record was 93,222 when Ohio last traveled to Columbus on Sept. 18, 1999. Official capacity for Ohio Stadium, also known as The Horseshoe, is listed as 102,329. Ohio has played in front of five of its eight largest crowds since Sept. 2002, including a crowd of 66,233 at Virginia Tech during the 2007 season. The Bobcats set a program record when they drew 24,617 fans to Peden Stadium in the season-opening loss to UConn. The program played in front of its second-largest crowd (95,535) in the Sept. 26th's loss at Tennessee.

NO FLY ZONE

Ohio held Cal Poly to just one completion and 12 yards passing, by far a low for an Ohio opponent since Coach Solich became head coach in 2005.

THIRD DOWN D

The Bobcats held North Texas to a 2-for-14 clip on third down, the best for the program since it posted the exact same number against Tennessee-Martin in the 2006 season opener.

OVERTIME

Ohio's game against North Texas was the first double overtime game in school history.

ROAD OPENER SUCCESS

With the win at North Texas, Ohio has won three of its last four road openers. The Bobcats defeated Louisiana-Lafayette 31-23 in 2007 and Northern Illinois 35-23 in 2006.

BOBCATS NAME CAPTAINS

The program has announced that senior quarterback Brandon Jones, senior center David White, senior linebacker Lee Renfro and junior linebacker Noah Keller have been named captains for the 2009 campaign.

PRICE NAMED TO BILETNIKOFF LIST

Ohio senior wide receiver Taylor Price (Columbus, Ohio) has been named to the Fred Biletnikoff Award watch list. Price nabbed 51 passes for 694 yards and five touchdowns last season, all of which were team-highs for the Bobcats. Fourteen of those catches came in the season opener at Wyoming, which set a school record. He also tied a school record with three touchdown receptions in the 49-42 win over Akron. Price is one of 37 players nationwide named to the watch list for the award, presented annually by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club to the top receiver in college football. The winner of the Biletnikoff Award will be announced as part of ESPN's College Football Awards Show on Dec. 10. The award will be officially presented to the winner at the annual Biletnikoff Award dinner, hosted by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club, on Feb. 12, 2010.

CHRIS GARRETT: BY THE NUMBERS

- Against Wyoming during the 2007 season, Garrett had his first career kickoff return for a touchdown. The 94-yard return tied then for the second-longest all-time in school history, matching a mark set in 1964 by Jerry France against Bowling Green.
- Garrett was one of several players in school history to return one kickoff for a touchdown and became the first to repeat the feat when he returned a kick 97 yards against Akron on Nov. 22, 2008. Garrett returned a punt for a touchdown during his freshman season, an 88-yarder against Western Michigan. Powered by his 95-yard kickoff return for touchdown at Tennessee, Garrett set the single-game school record with 221 kick return yards and became the school's all-time leader in kick return yardage.
