

2005-06 OHIO WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

-- Season Wrap-Up --

Ohio Bobcats
(9-20, 5-11 MAC)

Tip-Off

Final Wrap: With a quarterfinal loss to Eastern Michigan in the MAC Tournament at Quicken Loans Arena, the 2005-06 Ohio women's basketball came to a close. The Bobcats finished up with a 9-20 mark overall, including a 5-11 record in league play. Rachel Frederick was named MAC Freshman of the Year, also being selected as an honorable mention All-MAC pick and earning a spot on the All-Freshman Team. Sophomore Simone Redd, a one-time MAC Player of the Week, was chosen as an honorable mention All-MAC selection. The Cats lose one senior, guard Ciara Iglehart, who finished her career after averaging 9.6 points and 4.8 boards per game in the 2005-06 campaign.

Looking Back

Last Time Out: After jumping out to a slow start and trailing at the break, Ohio fired back to tie the score down the stretch, only to be edged in the closing minutes, 76-66, by West Division champ Eastern Michigan in the quarterfinals of the MAC Tournament in Quicken Loans Arena.

The Bobcats dug themselves into a 14-0 hole to kick-off the game, but Ohio slowly chipped away at the deficit and went to the break down seven. The Cats started the second half on a 10-2 run, pulled within a single possession around the 10-minute mark and tied the score at 59 with 5:27 left. From there, Eastern Michigan, the top seed in the West, scored 10-straight points to open up the game and seal the quarterfinal victory.

Rachel Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.), the 2006 Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year, paced four Bobcats in double figures with 17 points. Frederick eclipsed the 400-point plateau on the season with the help of an 11-for-11 effort from the free throw line.

Quintana Ward (Park Forest, Ill.) scored 13, as did Ohio's lone senior Ciara Iglehart (Mission Viejo, Calif.). Off the bench, Lauren Revesz (Bridgeville, Pa.) kicked in 12 with a team-high five rebounds.

Ryan Coleman led three Eagles in double figures with 24 points. Patrice McKinney and Sarah VanMetre chipped in 14 apiece.

IN-GAME INFORMATION

For all 2005-06 home games, official statistics will be distributed at each media timeout and during halftime. Full statistical books will be available during the postgame press conference. Box scores, quote transcripts, updated season statistics and game stories are available immediately following the game at www.ohiobobcats.com.

Media Information

Ohio Media Relations

Located on the floor level of the Convocation Center in Room N117, the office of Ohio Athletics Broadcasting and Media Relations can be reached 24 hours a day via FAX (740-597-1838) or e-mail (sports.media@ohio.edu).

Press Row

Press row in the Convocation Center is located on the west side concourse level. On game days, enter The Convo through the pass gate on the southwest side (off the parking area on the athletics mall) and take the elevator to the concourse level. Print media and radio broadcasters will be seated on press row. Courtesy phones are available on press row for making local, toll-free or collect calls. Wireless Internet and Ethernet ports are also available for Internet access.

Working Media Admission

Media members can be added to a season pass list. Members are encouraged, however, to notify T.J. Lasita no less than 48 hours before each game of their planned attendance. Access to the arena can be gained at the pass gate near the athletics mall where a media list will be available. Proper ID is required to sign in.

Photography Credentials

Credentials for photographers are obtained by following the same policies listed above for working media. Floor access is limited to the baseline areas behind the dark green line above the OHIO BOBCATS. Freelance photography requests will be filled as space permits on a first-come, first-served basis. Should the baselines become overcrowded for a particular game, Ohio Athletics reserves the right to restrict access and assign spaces.

Postgame Interviews

The Ohio basketball locker room is closed to all media. Postgame interviews with the head coaches and selected players from both teams will be held in the Phillips Auditorium at the conclusion of the game. The Phillips Auditorium is located on the floor level of The Convo in the northeast corner of the facility. Media should enter from the northeast portal on the floor level.

Other Interviews

Please arrange all coach or player interviews through T.J. Lasita, women's basketball contact. In-person interviews will be conducted at the conclusion of practice. Telephone interviews may be arranged around practice times with advance preparation encouraged. A 24-hour notice is appreciated. All phone calls will be returned collect. Most team practices are open to the media. Please contact T.J. Lasita for updates on the team's practice schedule and availability for access. Practice is held in the Convocation Center during the 8 a.m.-12 p.m. time slot.

BOBCAT PLAYER JOURNALS

The Ohio women's basketball program is participating in a new feature this season on the official Web site of Ohio athletics. Bobcat players submit a weekly journal each Monday of the season. Fans also have the opportunity to ask questions via e-mail to Ohio players and coaches. The journals can be seen at www.ohiobobcats.com

Award Show

True freshman Rachel Frederick has been named MAC Freshman of the Year ... She was also an honorable mention All-MAC selection and a member of the MAC All-Freshman Team ... At the conclusion of the regular season, Frederick led all MAC freshmen in scoring (14.2 ppg, 10th overall), rebouncing (7.6 rpg, 4th overall), steals per game (2.1 spg, 7th overall), defensive rebounds (160, 1st overall), free-throw percentage (81.1%, 4th overall) and double-doubles (7, 3rd overall) ... Frederick was second in three-point percentage (31.4%, 10th overall) and three-point field goals made per game (1.63 3pg, 9th overall) ... She enters today's game with 395 points this season ... The school record for single-season points scored by a freshman is 488 (Caroline Mast, 1982-83) ... The MAC record is 559 (Kristin Koestsier, Western Michigan, 1999-2000) ... Ohio has had one other player named MAC Freshman of the Year ... Mast won the first Freshman of the Year Award that the conference awarded (1983) ... Ohio has now had a player win a specialty award in back-to-back seasons (2004-05, Simone Redd, MAC Sixth Man of the Year).

League Recognition

A pair of Bobcats earned honorable mention All-MAC selections, with Simone Redd and Rachel Frederick taking a spot ... It was Redd's second-straight season as an honorable mention pick ... Frederick was also a member of the All-Freshman Team ... Redd was an All-Freshman Team member last season.

Club Membership

After pulling down her eighth board of the afternoon last week vs. Bowling Green, true freshman Rachel Frederick became the first Ohio player to reach 300 points, 200 rebounds and 50 steals in a single season in more than a decade ... The last player to reach the 300-200-50 plateau was Nicki Smith, who finished the 1991-92 season with 569 points, 266 boards and 54 steals ... The freshman finished the season with 412 points, 211 rebounds and 59 steals ... If those numbers projected out over a four-year career, Frederick would rank second all-time in school history for career points, third all-time for career rebounds, and she'd rank first all-time in steals ... No Ohio player has ever finished a career with 1,000 points, 800 rebounds and 200 steals.

2005-06 OHIO BASKETBALL MEDIA NOTES

Dime Dropper

Quintana Ward finished with 120 assists, putting her with one of the best single-season totals in school history ... Ward's 120 assists on the season vaulted her into a tie for 8th place all-time on the school's single-season assist list ... Ward registered an assist in all 29 games this season, with a season-best eight vs. Western Illinois (12/3) ... Ward recorded 87 helpers as a true freshman last season ... She finishes her sophomore season with 196 career assists and would need 45 more total assists to enter the top-ten in Ohio's career list ... Marti Heckman holds the school record for assists in a game (14), season (254) and career (810).

Bria Climbs the Charts

With a win over Northern Illinois, Lynn Bria passed Amy Prichard and is now in sole possession of second place all-time in school history for wins as a head coach (77)... A win on Tuesday over Akron put her in sole possession of second place on Ohio's all-time MAC wins list (44) ... Bria is the second-longest tenured Bobcat head coach in program history ... Only Marsha Reall has spent more time on the Bobcat bench (9 seasons, 1990-99) ... Reall is the all-time winningest coach in school history (122-127).

Lineup Shuffle

Now that freshman Lauren Hmiel has earned her first-career start, all 11 members of Ohio's squad have made the start in at least one game ... Rachel Frederick is the only player to start all 28 games ... Four players--Frederick, Ciara Iglehart and Quintana Ward--have appeared in all 28 ... Simone Redd started 17 games before being sidelined with an injury ... Redd came off the bench in three-straight and has now been reinserted into the starting lineup, since being re-activated ... Ohio used 12 lineups in the 2005-06 season.

East Division Honors

Simone Redd was named MAC East Division Player of the Week on Dec. 27 ... The selection was the first of Redd's career ... The last Ohio player to earn P.O.W. honors was Erin Isbell (3/2/05) ... Redd becomes the 32nd Bobcat to win the award all-time ... She had a career-day in the week's over Cleveland State ... Playing in her hometown, Redd tied then-career-highs in points (26) and rebounds (8).

Orange to Green

Among Ohio's newcomers in the 2005-06 season is Lauren Kohn, who transferred after spending two seasons at Syracuse ... Per NCAA transfer regulations, Kohn will be permitted to practice with Ohio this season, but she will not be eligible to play until 2006-07 ... Kohn was named to the Big East All-Freshman team and was a Big East Academic All-Star ... Last season, she averaged 7.3 points per game and tied for ninth in the conference with 1.55 three-pointers per game.

Sign 'Em Up

Three high school standouts have signed National Letters of Intent to join the Bobcat program next season ... Jennifer Bushby (Gahanna Lincoln HS) averaged 12.9 points and 4.2 rebounds per game last season ... Brittany Holestine (George Washington HS (W. Va.)) scored 22.2 points per game last season ... Kayla Smith (Elkins HS (W. Va.)) posted 24 points and 15 boards per game last year.

International Flavor

The 2005-06 Bobcat roster includes a pair of junior college transfers that were born outside the United States ... Prior to spending a pair of seasons at Seminole Oklahoma Junior College, Vicky Hashivon began her playing career in Ramat Hasharon, Israel ... Hashivon averaged 15 points and eight boards at Rothberg as a prep player ... Domenica Silva spent the last two seasons at Cowley County Community College, but she is originally from Sao Paulo, Brazil ... Silva played for the Cadet Club national team and the Vasco de Gama club team ... She was a member of the 2000 national championship squad.

Huntington, W. Va. - Rachel Frederick scored 22 points in her Bobcat debut and sparked a furious second-half comeback, but a sharp-shooting South Carolina State squad downed the Ohio women's basketball team 80-68 Friday in the opening game of the Fifth-Third Marshall University Classic.

After posting just two points in the first half, Frederick, a true freshman, scored 20 points in the second half and helped the Bobcats (0-1) close in on a late Bulldog lead. For the game, Frederick hit three three-pointers, went 9-for-10 from the free-throw line and fell just one rebound short of a double-double.

South Carolina State (1-0) built a 14-point lead into halftime and increased its edge in the second half. As the second frame neared a close, though, the Bobcats clawed back and began to carve into the lead. A Frederick three-pointer from the top of the key with 2:35 remaining in the game brought Ohio to within 10. After a couple South Carolina State free throws, Ciara Iglehart hit a three of her own to make the score 70-61 at 2:18. Another pair of free throws followed for the Bulldogs, but once again it was Frederick, this time from well beyond the three-point arc, pushing the score to 72-64 with 1:57 left. Down the stretch, though, the Bulldogs were consistent from the free-throw line and held on for the victory.

The Bulldogs shot 44.4 percent from behind the arc for the game, hitting 8-of-18 attempts. South Carolina State led by 14 points at the half and used 18 second-half points from Fallon Tucker to come away with the win.

Sophomore guard Simone Redd led the charge in the first half for the Bobcats, scoring Ohio's first seven points and nine of the team's first 11 to open the game. Redd finished the half with nine points, three boards and three assists. Six other Bobcats entered the scoring column in the first frame, including five points from point guard Quintana Ward. Lauren Revezs picked up four of Ohio's 19 rebounds--all on the offensive end. Redd, Ward and Iglehart were all perfect from the charity stripe in the first half, leading the Bobcats to a 90.9 percentage (10-11).

Out of the break, South Carolina State continued to build on its lead. Twice the Bulldogs went up by 24, but Ohio relentlessly shot back and threatened the lead. After going 9-of-10 from the free-throw line in the first half, South Carolina State went 11-for-19 in the second frame to hold on to the win.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. - Four of the five starters reached double figures, and the Bobcats shot 49 percent from the floor, as the Ohio women's basketball team defeated Tennessee State 74-69 Saturday for its first win of the season at the Fifth-Third MU Classic.

The Bobcats (1-1) were once again led by true freshman Rachel Frederick, who followed up a 22-point, nine-rebound performance on Friday with an 18-point, eight-rebound showing on Saturday in the win. She was Ohio's representative in the Fifth-Third Classic's All-Tournament Team.

Ohio took a seven-point lead into the break and held on to move to .500 on the young season. The Bobcats jumped out to the lead via a 15-for-26 performance from the floor in the first half, including an 8-for-9 mark from the charity stripe. Frederick led the way with 18 points, but three other starters--KeyAuna Jenkins (12), Quintana Ward (12) and Simone Redd (14)--all reached double figures. The lone starter that fell short, senior Ciara Iglehart, scored eight points with five boards and four steals.

Jenkins, inserted into the starting lineup for the first time in her career, carried the Cats in the first frame. Jenkins shot 5-for-7 from the floor and 2-for-2 from the free-throw line to post 12 points. Redd, the reigning Mid-American Conference Sixth Man of the Year, had four assists by the break, helping Ohio to a 39-32 edge.

Out of the locker room, Frederick came to life, just like she did less than 24 hours earlier. Frederick hit for 11 points and nabbed five rebounds with three steals in the frame. The Bobcats led by as many as 17 with 9:15 remaining in the contest, but a Tennessee State rally threatened the lead. The Bobcats were able to keep their composure, though, and hold on. Ohio hit 13 of its 19 second-half free-throw tries to hold onto its lead and capture the first win of the 2005-06 campaign.

The Bobcats forced 22 Tiger turnovers and scored 15 points off Tennessee State miscues. The Bobcats were outrebounded 40-27, but were superior on the defensive end, making three blocks and 14 steals.

HOME TEAM: Tennessee State 0-2

ATHENS, Ohio – Simone Redd scored a game-high 17 points, and Lauren Hmiel pulled down a career-best seven boards, but Youngstown State hung on to defeat the Ohio women's basketball team, 69-59, Tuesday in the Convocation Center.

The Penguins (1-1) used a three-point goal with 3:36 remaining in the first half to take a two-point lead, and they'd never trail again, fighting off several comeback efforts by the Bobcats (1-2). Ohio trailed by a possession as late as the 9:45 mark in the second half, but Youngstown State pushed its lead to double digits down the stretch and picked up its first win of the season.

Redd picked up three fouls in the first half and was limited to two points in nine minutes of play. The sophomore came to life in the second half, though, hitting for 15 points in the frame. Hmiel came off the bench and saw 31 minutes of action, scoring six points with three assists, a block and two steals in addition to her seven boards.

Both teams struggled on the offensive end, but the Penguins were able to take a four-point lead into the break and hold on in the final 20 minutes.

A defense-dominated first half went the way of the Penguins, as Youngstown State hopped out to a 27-23 lead at the break. Ohio shot under 24 percent from the floor, and the Penguins made just two of 15 attempts from behind the arc. Youngstown State held onto a slight edge through most of the half, but the Bobcats continued to climb back and keep the game close.

The Bobcats made just four field goals—one by four different players—in the first half, but Ohio was able to hang close with a proficient performance from the charity stripe. The Bobcats made 15 of their 18 free-throw attempts in the first frame, with six players going to the line and three finishing the half perfect from the stripe. Ciara Iglehart was the most productive, hitting all four of her free-throw attempts. Iglehart led a balanced first-half scoring attack with six points. Six players entered the scoring column for the Cats in the half.

Hmiel paced the Bobcats with five boards—all on the defensive end—in the first frame. Rachel Frederick and Quintana Ward each recorded two steals.

Ohio shot 23.5 percent (4-17) in the half, while the Penguins connected on 31.3 percent (10-32) of their field-goal attempts. Youngstown State edged Ohio in rebounding, 19-18.

The Penguins were led by Michelle Holmes in the first half. The senior center scored seven points and collected five boards.

In the second half, Ohio clawed back and carved into the deficit during several spans. The Bobcats cut the lead to a basket three times in the half, but couldn't even the game.

Both teams heated up significantly on the offensive end in the second half. Youngstown State shot 50 percent (12-24) from the floor and 68 percent (17-25) from the stripe in the half, while the Cats nearly doubled their first-half efficiency, hitting 44.8 percent (13-29) from the floor.

Jessica Schloemp recorded a double-double for the Penguins, posting 17 points and 10 boards. Ashlee Russo finished with 10 points and Lauren Branson scored 12.

KeyAuna Jenkins scored 17 points, and Iglehart notched 11 points. Three Bobcats—Frederick, Ward and Hmiel—recorded two steals.

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Rachel Frederick posted her first-career double-double with 27 points and 12 boards, but the Ohio women's basketball team was defeated in overtime, 71-68, by East Carolina Friday in the first game of the UNC-Greensboro Thanksgiving Tournament.

Ohio (1-3) matched the Pirates (1-1) shot-for-shot through the first two halves of regulation, going to the half tied at 30 and into overtime knotted at 63. East Carolina used a pair of free throws to go up by three with 17 seconds remaining in overtime. The Bobcats had two more possessions in the closing seconds, but couldn't tie the score.

Frederick, who scored 22 points in her Bobcat debut, had a breakout game Friday, recording 27 points and 12 boards, both career-highs. The true freshman shot 8-of-11 from the floor, 4-of-5 from behind the arc and 7-for-8 from the charity stripe. She also chipped in four steals and four assists.

Katie Reihmann provided a big spark off the bench for the Cats. Reihmann converted four of her six attempts from three-point range, kicking in 12 points in 23 minutes. Lauren Revesz, inserted back into the starting lineup, scored 11 points before fouling out.

The Bobcats led by a bucket with less than a minute left in regulation, 63-61. East Carolina's Jessica Slack responded, knocking down a jumper to tie the score and send it into overtime. Both teams traded five-point runs in overtime and the score was again tied, this time 68-68, with under 60 seconds left. Impris Manning put the Pirates up by one with a free throw, then made a steal and was fouled, converting both free throws to put her club up 71-68.

Ohio shot 50 percent from the floor, 40 percent from behind the arc and 72.7 percent from the stripe in the first half, while limiting the Pirates to 28.6 percent shooting in the frame. Frederick had 11 points by the break, and the Bobcats outrebounded East Carolina 26-17 in a back-and-forth struggle.

For the game, Ohio outrebounded East Carolina 49-41, hit 45.5 percent of its shots from the floor and 47.1 of its attempts from behind the arc. The Pirates took advantage of 32 Ohio turnovers, though, scoring 24 points off Ohio miscues. The Pirates scored twice as many points as Ohio in the paint (32-16) and got 10 more points from its bench (30-20).

Cherie Mills led East Carolina with 21 points.

Quintana Ward pulled down nine

GREENSBORO, N.C. - Ohio matched UNC-Greensboro shot-for-shot in the second half, but a 17-point first-half deficit was the difference Saturday, as the Bobcat women's basketball team was defeated 69-52 by UNC-Greensboro in the second day of the UNC-Greensboro Thanksgiving Tournament.

Katie Reihmann earned her first start of the season for Ohio (1-4) and responded by posting her second-straight 12-point game. She hit all three of Ohio's three-point goals on the afternoon.

Reihmann was one of three double-digit scorers for the Cats, as Simone Redd chipped in 10 and Ciara Iglehart kicked in 11 off the bench.

The Bobcats started off slow on the offensive end and the Spartans (1-2) took advantage. Ohio shot 30.4 percent (7-23) in the first half and came up empty from behind the arc, falling behind 34-17 at the break. UNC-Greensboro was more productive on the offensive end, hitting 40 percent (14-35) from the floor and 83.3 percent (5-6) from the charity stripe. Redd led seven Bobcat scorers with four points at the half.

Out of the locker room, Ohio heated up on the offensive end, but the effort wasn't enough to get the Bobcats out of the hole it built in the first frame. Reihmann and sophomore Lauren Reeves each scored nine points in the second half, and as a team the Bobcats shot 35.5 percent (11-31) from the floor and 42.9 percent (3-7) from behind the arc.

UNC-Greensboro hit just eight field goals--one three-pointer--in the second half, but the Spartans made up the difference at the foul line. UNC-Greensboro hit 18 free-throws in the second half (72 percent), including a six-for-six second-half effort from Kemena Brooks. Scoring in the second half was tied, 35-35.

For the game, the Spartans edged the Bobcats in rebounds--44-37--and outscored Ohio 28-16 in the paint. UNC-Greensboro got 41 points from its bench, including 21 combined from Brooks and KaLeah Latham. Brittany Frazier led the Spartans with a game-high 14 points and seven boards.

ATHENS, Ohio - Despite clawing back to take a lead in the second half, the Ohio women's basketball team was tripped up Saturday in the Convocation Center, 69-59, by Western Illinois in non-conference action.

Simone Redd scored 15 of her game-high 18 points in the second half, leading a Bobcat (1-5) charge that resulted in a one-point advantage, 42-41, with 13:07 remaining in the game. The Westerwinds (5-1) took the lead back one minute later and never lost it again. Western Illinois outscored the Bobcats 16-7 down the stretch and held on to pick up the road victory.

Ohio went scoreless on its first five possessions, but the Bobcats picked up the slack and took their first lead of the game, 17-15, on the strength of a Katie Reihmann jumper at the 8:23 mark. Ohio took its largest lead of the game--four points--with 7:49 left in the half. A back-and-forth affair went Western Illinois' way in the first half, as the Westerwinds carried a slim one-point margin, 25-24, into the locker room.

Rachel Frederick scored six of Ohio's first 11 points and led the Cats with six points at the break. Redd had five boards in the first half, and Quintana Ward recorded four assists. The Bobcats shot 35.7 percent (10-28) from the floor in the half and outrebounded the Westerwinds 24-18.

Western Illinois was paced by six first-half points from Laura Reeves.

Out of intermission, Redd came to life on the offensive end. The sophomore scored seven of Ohio's first 10 points to start the half and lifted the Bobcats to a two-point lead, 34-34, with a three-pointer at the 16:56 mark. After that, Frederick took her turn on the offensive end, scoring eight-straight Bobcat points between the 14:09 and 13:07 marks in the half.

Both teams traded shots throughout the half, with the game tied for the last time with 13:41 left to play. The Westerwinds used a 10-2 run from 12:01 to 5:47 to extend its largest lead of the game at 53-44.

It wasn't until closing minutes that Western Illinois finally pulled away, converting eight free throws in the final 57 seconds to hold on for the win.

Redd finished with a season-high 18 points and Ward topped a career best with eight assists. Frederick dropped 14 with four boards and two assists.

Ohio shot 37 percent (20-54) from the floor for the game and 29.4 percent (5-17) from behind the arc. The Bobcats converted 14-of-21 free-throw attempts. Ohio committed just 12 turnovers and won the rebound battle, 37-34.

Western Illinois was paced by three players in double figures. Reeves led with 14, while Samantha Greer and Zane Teilane chipped in 13 apiece. Teilane recorded a double-double with 10 boards to go with four assists and four blocks.

ATHENS, Ohio—After leading for the first 24 minutes of the game, the Ohio women's basketball team fought off a second-half Chicago State rally and held on down the stretch to claim a 65-57 win Monday in non-conference action in the Convocation Center.

Lauren Revezs hit for a career-high 20 points, and Simone Redd kicked in 19 for a Bobcat team that led by as much as eight and trailed by as many as seven. Ohio trailed by two with just less than four minutes remaining, then went on to score the final 10 points of the game to pick up its first home win of the season.

The Bobcats (2-5) went to the break with a six-point lead and didn't trail for the first time until the 15:36 mark of the second frame. The Cougars (5-3) rallied back out of the break, turning a two-point deficit into a seven-point lead over a three-minute span with 9:14 left in the contest.

Ohio answered quickly, tying the score twice and ultimately taking the lead with 2:18 left, 58-57, on the strength of a Revezs free throw. The Bobcats scored the game's last 10 points—a span of 3:37 that included all 10 points coming from the free-throw stripe.

Ohio never trailed in the first half, leading by as many as eight on five different occasions. The Bobcats jumped out to a 14-6 lead to start the game with 11:40 left in the half, as Redd chipped in five points early.

Redd hit a pair of three-pointers on her way to eight first-half points, while fellow sophomore Revezs kicked in nine points for the Cats. Ohio shot 39.3 percent (11-28) from the floor and 37.5 percent (3-8) from behind the arc in the first half. Ohio outrebounded Chicago State 21-16, and four Bobcats notched three boards apiece.

Ayesha Neasley came off the bench and provided a spark on the offensive end for the Cougars. Neasley hit just two field goals, but hit all six of her free-throw attempts in the first half to lead the way with 10 points and three rebounds. The Cougars shot 33.3 percent (8-24) from the floor and missed on both of their three-point attempts.

Katie Reihmann drilled a three from the right corner as time expired on the half, pushing the Bobcat lead to six, 32-26, as both teams went to intermission.

Reihmann would finish with eight points off the bench, as would Ciara Iglehart, who kicked in five rebounds.

Revezs went 5-of-10 from the floor, but did just as much damage from the free-throw line, hitting 10 of her 12 attempts. Ohio, statistically the Mid-American Conference's best team from the stripe, shot 79.3 percent from the free-throw line on the night.

The Bobcats shot 41.3 percent from the floor Monday and held Chicago State to a 38.8 mark. The Bobcats won the rebound battle 34-31 and tied the Cougars, 14-14, in the turnover column.

Chicago State was led by Neasley's 14 points and six rebounds from Brandi-Janai Carter.

Redd's 19 points come on the heels of an 18-point effort in Ohio's last outing. She has now scored in double figures in six of seven games this season.

COLUMBIA, S.C.—Katie Reihmann hit five three-pointers, and Lauren Revezs followed up a 20-point effort with 18 points, but South Carolina held the rest of the Bobcats in check and rolled to a 77-49 victory over the Ohio women's basketball team Thursday in the Colonial Center.

Ohio (2-6) kept the contest close through the first 20 minutes, even taking a lead as the clock dipped below the 10-minute mark of the first half and going to the break down by just nine points, 31-22. The second half belonged to the Gamecocks (4-3), though, as the home team outscored Ohio 46-27 in the second half frame.

Revezs, who hit for a career-best 20 points in Ohio's home win against Chicago State on Monday, once again carried the load on the offensive end for the Bobcats. Revezs hit 6-of-9 attempts from the floor, was successful on her only three-point try of the game and converted 5-of-6 free-throw shots before fouling out in the second half.

Reihmann went to the break 1-for-1 from behind the arc, but exploded in the second half and finished the game a perfect 5-for-5 from WILMINGTON, N.C. - Rachel Frederick recorded a double-double. Katie Reihmann hit five three-pointers for the second-straight game and the Bobcats led at the half, but UNC-Wilmington rallied back to defeat the Ohio women's basketball team 60-55 Sunday in the Trask Coliseum.

Ohio (2-7) went to the break with a 24-19 lead, but was outscored 41-31 in the second half by the Seahawks (5-2). UNC-Wilmington used 13 second-half points from Stephanie Fernald to seal the home victory.

Frederick notched her second double-double of the season Sunday, posting a dozen points and 10 boards for the Cats. Reihmann, who has emerged as one of the premier sharp-shooters in the Mid-American Conference, knocked down 5-of-8 three-point attempts and totaled 15 points. Reihmann has hit 10 three-pointers over the last two games.

Simone Redd registered 12 points and chipped in six assists and two steals for the Bobcats.

With a five-point lead in its pocket at the half, Ohio increased its advantage to seven via a Reihmann triple at the 15:39 mark of the second half. Ohio would not score another point, though, until more than nine minutes later. Redd hit a jumper with 6:36 on the clock to end the drought, but by that time the Seahawks had run off 14-straight points and now led by five. The margin increased to 11 on two occasions and UNC-Wilmington scored its last 15 points from the free-throw line to preserve the victory.

A solid defensive effort gave Ohio its early lead in the first half. The Bobcats held UNC-Wilmington to just 22.2 percent (6-of-27) shooting from the floor and 12.5 percent (1-of-8) from behind the arc in the first half. The Bobcats, though, hit 45 percent (9-of-20) of their attempts from the field in the half and converted 4-of-8 (50 percent) three-point tries. Redd scored 10 first-half points and the Bobcats had just one fewer rebound (17-16).

The second-half drought, however, spelled Ohio's demise Sunday. UNC-Wilmington heated up on the offensive end in the second stanza, knocking down 42.9 percent (9-of-21) of its tries from the floor.

The Bobcats were outrebounded 39-29 Sunday, but Ohio did outscore the Seahawks in the paint, 20-12. The Bobcats got more production from their bench (19-16), but UNC-Wilmington was able to score 14 points off 23 Ohio turnovers.

UNC-Wilmington was led by Fernald, who finished the game with 20 points and a pair of steals. Sahsha Taylor matched Frederick's double-double with 12 points and 12 boards in the win.

CLEVELAND, Ohio - Back in her hometown, Cleveland-native Simone Redd matched a career-high with 26 points, while Rachel Frederick hit for 25 to lead the Ohio women's basketball team to a 76-64 victory Thursday over Cleveland State in Goodman Arena.

Frederick, a true freshman, matched the offensive production of the entire Cleveland State offense in the first half, going to the break with 17 points and leading the Bobcats (3-7) to a 37-17 advantage. She'd finish with 25, two points short of her career-high set at East Carolina.

Redd, who attended Cleveland's Regina High School, scored 17 of her 26 points in the second half. Her effort helped hold off a resilient Viking attack that outscored the Bobcats 47-39 in the second frame. Redd's 26 points tie a career-best, a mark she originally set Feb. 19, 2005 against Northern Illinois.

Redd chipped in eight rebounds, as did Domenica Silva, who made just her third appearance of the season after missing the beginning of the slate with a hand injury. Silva also scored four points, the first of her career as a Bobcat.

Erin Martin scored 17 points, Omega Harrington kicked in 13, and Nicole Thomas grabbed a game-high 13 boards for the Vikings (2-8).

The Bobcats went to the break having completed one of the most dominant halves of basketball of the 2005-06 season. Frederick was the catalyst for an Ohio squad that took a 20-point lead into the break at 37-17. Frederick hit for 17 points in the half, knocking down 6-of-10 tries from the floor and 4-of-5 free-throw attempts.

Trailing by a point in the early going, Ciara Iglehart scored six-straight points to give the Bobcats a lead they'd never relinquish. Ohio trailed 6-2, then scored 23 of the game's next 26 points and took over the momentum of the contest.

Ohio led by nine, 18-9, as the clock dipped below the 13-minute mark when Frederick heated up. She scored 11 of Ohio's next 13 points, a run that pushed the Bobcat lead to 31-15 with just more than four minutes left in the half.

Ohio took its largest lead, a 24-point edge, on four different occasions in the second half. The Vikings did, though, rally back in the second stanza. After connecting on just 7-of-25 (28 percent) of its tries in the first half, Cleveland State hit 19-of-36 (52.8 percent) attempts in the second frame to tighten the lead.

Cleveland State cut the Ohio lead to 10, 68-58, at the 2:45 mark of the second half. A three-point play for Frederick and five points by Redd in the final 82 seconds, however, sealed the Bobcat win down the stretch.

Ohio now has a seven-game winning streak over Cleveland State.

ATHENS, Ohio - Simone Redd drilled a three-pointer with 27 seconds left in regulation to send the game into overtime, but Duquesne rallied past the Ohio women's basketball team in the extra period Friday, slipping past the Bobcats 82-79 in The Convo.

Ohio (3-8) led by seven at the break, but the Dukes (5-6) fought back hard in the second period and led by as many as six with one minute left in the half. The Bobcats picked up the tempo down the stretch and facing a three-point deficit, Redd knocked down a clutch shot from beyond the arc to tie up the game and send it into overtime. The Bobcats took a three-point lead in overtime, but Duquesne outscored Ohio 5-0 over the last 1:54 of the game.

Redd finished with 19 points, but it was true freshman Rachel Frederick that paced the Ohio attack with 21 points and eight boards, including a 10-for-11 effort from the charity stripe. Quintana Ward scored 12 points off the bench, and center Vicky Hashivon shattered a career-high, hitting for 11 points with six boards.

The Dukes were a two-man show on the evening, relying on Loui Hall and Aiga Bautre for the bulk of its offensive production. Hall hit for 22, and Bautre kicked in 20 for the Dukes. Bautre keyed a second-half rally with 15 points in the second stanza.

Duquesne out-rebounded the Cats by just one (40-39), but Nicole Sinclair had her way on the boards with 13 rebounds.

The Bobcats were hitting on all cylinders in the first half. Back-to-back threes by Redd and Katie Reihmann put Ohio ahead 14-6 with 13:07 left in the first half. That lead was cut down to one on two different occasions in the half, but the Bobcats continued to push Duquesne as the half neared an end. Ohio took a double-digit lead, 11 points, at the 6:42 mark. It's biggest lead of the game came at the 3:47 point of the first half, a 12-point edge at 35-23.

At the break, no one in the game was in double figures in the scoring column, but a balanced Bobcat attack that included seven players with at least two points gave the home team a 37-30 lead. For the half, Ohio's bench provided 11 points and the Bobcats scored 14 points off seven Duquesne turnovers.

Out of the locker room, Ohio increased its lead to nine at the 14:48 mark. From that point, however, the Dukes began to roll back into the contest. A Brittany Warren layup at 10:13 gave the Dukes a lead, 49-48. That lead swelled to as much as six with 60 seconds remaining.

A Ward layup and a combined three free throws from Frederick and Ciara Iglehart put Ohio down 73-70 with 42 seconds left. Redd knocked down the three with 27 seconds left to tie the game and Ohio successfully defended Duquesne's ensuing possession.

An old-fashioned three-point play from Frederick gave the Bobcats a three-point lead with 2:54 left in the overtime period. The Dukes, however, outscored the Cats 7-1 over the duration.

Ohio shot 42.6 percent from the floor and 38.9 percent from beyond the arc in the game. The Dukes countered with a 38.3 field-goal percentage and a 42.1 mark from three-point range.

ATHENS, Ohio - Ciara Iglehart scored a career-high 19, and Domenica Silva kicked in a career-best 15 for Ohio, but Kent State managed to hold off the Bobcats down the stretch and take an 83-73 decision in the Mid-American Conference women's basketball opener Sunday in the Convocation Center.

Iglehart and Silva were two of four double-figure scorers for the Bobcats in the loss. The Golden Flashes used 23 points off the bench from Rachel Bennett and capitalized on 30 Bobcat turnovers to seal the victory.

After leading deep into the first half and trailing by just six at the break, Ohio fell behind by as many as 15 in the second frame. The Cats clawed back, though, cutting the deficit to two possessions--six points--with 65 seconds left on the clock. From that point on, though, Kent State took care of business at the charity stripe, hitting six of its eight tries from the line in the waning seconds to hold onto the win.

Though no Ohio player recorded double digits in rebounds, the Bobcats dominated Kent State on the glass with a 41-30 margin. Rachel Frederick nabbed a game-high nine rebounds, while Silva and Iglehart each pulled down seven.

The Golden Flashes were defeated on the boards, but were not shut out inside. Kent State outscored Ohio 38-20 in the paint, thanks in large part to 19 points by Lindsay Shearer, who entered the game as the league's top scorer.

The Bobcats wouldn't lead by any more than three points on the night, but Ohio did manage to hold on to a lead with less than five minutes left in the first half. Despite committing 21 first-half turnovers, the Bobcats stayed in the game with a dose of hot shooting. The Cats connected on 63.2 percent of their tries from the field in the first half, and put away 75 percent of their three-point attempts.

Simone Redd paced the Ohio attack in the first half with 12 points. She finished with 14 on the day.

Ohio's lead slipped away toward the end of the first half and the Golden Flashes went to the break with a six-point edge. Kent State led by double figures for the first time at the 14:59 mark of the second half and the Golden Flashes took their largest lead of the game, 53-68, with 6:52 left. Ohio cut the lead to single digits with less than two to play, but Kent State held on and captures its first MAC win of the season.

For the game, Ohio shot 40.8 percent from the floor, 47.1 percent from the three-point line and 86.2 from the stripe. The Bobcats forced 17 Kent State turnovers and turned it into 13 points. Ohio managed eight second-chance points and limited Kent State to just three.

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio – Ohio carried a halftime lead into the second frame, but the defending league champion Bowling Green managed to pull away on its home floor and take a 77-63 decision over the Bobcats Wednesday in Anderson Arena.

Ohio (5-10, 2-2 Mid-American Conference) rallied back from an early 12-point deficit and went on to lead the ballgame as the clock hit all zeros in the first half. The Bobcats remained a thorn in Bowling Green's side throughout the second half, but the Falcons (13-2, 4-0) came on strong in the frame and managed to pull out the home victory.

Rachel Frederick led the way for the Bobcats with 18 points. Quintana Ward matched a career-high with 16 points, including a 3-for-3 effort from beyond the arc. Ward also dished six assists before fouling out.

The Falcons were paced by four players in double figures, headed up by Ali Mann's 17.

The Bobcats outrebounded Bowling Green 38-30. Ciara Iglehart and Frederick were the leaders on the glass for Ohio with seven boards apiece. Simone Redd was limited to just one point, but she did kick in six boards and a pair of assists.

The first half was a Jekyll and Hyde of sorts for the Cats, as Ohio trailed by double figures early but would go onto lead the game at intermission.

Ohio couldn't get much going on the offensive end in the early going and Bowling Green, the league's most productive scoring team, took advantage. The Falcons scored seven points before Ohio would ever hit the score board, and Bowling Green pushed its lead to 12, 14-2, with 12:33 left in the half.

With just more than four minutes left in the half, the Bobcats came to life. Trailing 21-13, Ohio put up a 13-2 run in the final 4:15 of the half to take a 26-23 lead into the break. The Bobcats scored their last nine points of that run via the three-point shot. Lauren Revesz knocked down a triple that tied the game for the first time, and Ward hit her second-straight three from well beyond the arc with 33 seconds left to give Ohio its first lead of the game, an edge the Cats would take with them into the locker room.

Ward used a pair of triples to lead the Cats on the offensive end in the first half. She kicked in a game-high eight at the break, while Revesz chipped in five. Eight Ohio players touched the scoring column in the first half, and seven Bobcats recorded a rebound. Ohio outrebounded Bowling Green 24-17 in the first frame, with Redd leading the way with five and Domenica Silva and Frederick adding four.

After the Falcons tied the game up right out of the break, Ward responded with another triple to push the Bobcats back on top. Ohio would lead as late as 15:39 mark in the second half before Bowling Green came on and took over for good.

The score was tied 34-34 with 15:25 remaining before Bowling Green went on a run that spelled doom for the Bobcats. The Falcons went on a 17-3 spurt over the next several minutes to take a commanding 14-point lead.

ATHENS, Ohio - Simone Redd netted a career-high 33 points, and the Bobcats never trailed Saturday in a 63-55 win over Akron in Mid-American Conference action in the Convocation Center.

Redd hit a career-best four three-pointers on her way to a 33-point effort, tied for the ninth-highest output in school history. The Bobcats (6-10, 3-2 MAC) doubled up Akron (3-13, 0-5 MAC) in the first half, 34-17, and held on in the second frame to pick up the league win. Ohio has now won 10 in-a-row over the Zips.

Redd, the league's reigning Sixth Man of the Year, hit 4-of-5 attempts from the three-point line and knocked down 11-of-12 free-throw tries. She pulled down six boards and dished out three assists.

Rachel Frederick was Ohio's only other double-figure scorer. The true freshman scored 13 points--hitting double digits for the eighth-straight game--and grabbed seven rebounds. Ciara Iglehart picked up a game-high eight boards.

The Bobcats lived by the three-ball in the early going and was successful in doing it. Ohio hit 7-of-15 three-point attempts in the first half, and finished the frame with just three two-point baskets. Redd and Frederick kicked-off the game with a pair of triples to give Ohio an early 6-0 lead, an advantage the Cats would never relinquish.

In the final 3-plus minutes of the first half, Redd scored Ohio's last seven points and lifted the Bobcats to a game-high 17-point lead.

The Zips heated up in the second half and trimmed the Bobcat lead to single digits on several occasions. From the 13:21 mark until 7:59 remained in the game, Akron's Jessie Crooks scored 13-straight Akron points, carving the deficit down to five.

It was not until less than 30 seconds remained in the game that Akron would get any closer. Ohio led 57-53 with 28 seconds remaining, but the Bobcats managed to convert 6-of-8 free-throw tries in the closing seconds to hang on for the win.

The Bobcats dominated the glass Saturday, outrebounding the Zips 42-32. Ohio shot 35.1 percent (20-57) from the field and 34.8 percent (8-23) from beyond the arc. Conversely, Akron hit 38.5 percent (20-52) from the field and 33.3 percent (4-12) from three-point land.

Crooks paced the Zips with 20 points--including 15 in the second half. Niki McCoy recorded 11 points and eight boards.

Ohio has now defeated Akron 13-straight times in The Convo, dating back to 1993.

KALAMAZOO, Mich. - Despite a pair of 20-plus point efforts and a late second-half rally, the Ohio women's basketball team couldn't match Western Michigan on its home floor, dropping an 88-77 decision Wednesday in University Arena.

The Bobcats (6-11, 3-3 Mid-American Conference) trailed 15-2 to begin the game and carried the burden of a 13-point deficit at the break. Ohio trimmed the Western Michigan lead to nine with less than three minutes left in the second half, but the Broncos (7-10, 4-2 MAC) were too much down the stretch and picked up the home victory.

Ciara Iglehart netted a career-high 23 points on the night, including a 10-of-12 effort from the charity stripe.

Freshman Rachel Frederick scored in double figures for the ninth straight night, posting 20 points with five rebounds and four three-pointers. Simone Redd hit for 15 points.

Domenica Silva (Sao Paulo, Brazil) carried the Cats on the glass, recording a career-best 11 rebounds.

Western Michigan was led by Lindsey Brown's 18 points. Casey Rost scored 14 points and became the program's all-time leading scorer. The Broncos shot 55.9 percent from the field on the evening.

The Broncos came out firing in the first half and put Ohio in a hole it would never manage to dig out of. Western Michigan jumped out to a 15-2 to start the game, building a lead it wouldn't relinquish.

Ohio began to respond on the offensive end as the half matured, but the Bobcats couldn't draw much closer. Western Michigan took a 41-28 lead into the locker room, with Brown leading the way via a game-high 10 points.

Redd led the Bobcats with eight points at the break, while Frederick kicked in seven and three rebounds. Domenica Silva came off the bench to lead Ohio with four boards at intermission.

In addition to Brown's 10, Casey Rost scored nine and Amanda Parker tallied eight at halftime. The Broncos outrebounded Ohio 19-15 and beat the Bobcats in the paint, 20-8.

Ohio shot 41.7 percent from the field in the first half and 20 percent from the perimeter. Conversely, the Broncos converted 50 percent of its tries from the field and 27.3 percent from beyond the arc.

Maria Jillian knocked down a three-pointer to open up the second half, setting the tone for the Broncos to control the entire frame. Western Michigan maintained a comfortable advantage throughout the half, though Ohio was more productive on the offensive end in the second period.

Ohio cut the lead to single digits just once, but it proved to be too late. Ohio trailed by nine as the clock dipped below three minutes remaining in the game, but the Broncos held on in the closing moments. The Bobcats outscored Western Michigan 49-47 in an offensive-minded second frame, but it wasn't enough to overcome the halftime deficit.

ATHENS, Ohio - Lynn Bria moved into second place on the Ohio all-time wins list Saturday as her Bobcats snatched a 74-62 victory over Northern Illinois in DeKalb.

Sophomore Lauren Revezs scored a career-high 26 points in just 23 minutes, kicking in five boards, two assists and four steals. Revezs was 8-of-11 from the floor, 2-for-2 from the three-point line and 8-of-8 from the stripe.

Revezs was one of four Bobcats to tally double figures, as Quintana Ward hit for 15, Ciara Iglehart scored 14 and Domenica Silva registered 10 points.

Ohio (7-11, 4-3 Mid-American Conference) led by four at the break and took over down the stretch to pull out the victory. The Bobcats led by a bucket, 60-58, at the 3:46 mark in the second half. From there on, though, Ohio converted 12-of-14 free-throw attempts and allowed just two more Huskie points—a pair of free throws with little more than a minute left.

The win marked No. 75 at Ohio for Bria, vaulting her past Amy Prichard and into second place all-time. Bria now trails only Marsha Reall in the program's all-time head coaching wins list. Reall won 122 games in nine seasons with the Cats from 1990-99.

The first half was a back-and-forth battle, with the Bobcats eventually coming out on top. The lead changed hands 16 times in the frame.

After trailing by a point with 3:26 left, the Bobcats used a three-pointer and a jumper from Ward and a free throw from Iglehart to pull out in front, 34-30 at intermission.

It was a lead that would grow to 12 by the final gun and an advantage that Ohio would never let out of its grasp.

Revezs led all scorers with 11 at the break, while Ward had nine and Rachel Frederick pulled down four boards. The Cats shot 48.1 percent from the field in the first half and connected on 4-of-9 three-point attempts. Ohio went to the line just six times in the half, hitting four of those tries.

Kristin Wiener and Jessie Wilcox led the Huskies with seven points each at the half. Northern Illinois (7-11, 3-4 MAC) hit 54.5 percent of its tries from the floor in the first half and knocked down 2-of-6 three-point attempts.

Northern Illinois hung around for most of the second frame, staying within single digits for more than 19 minutes. The Huskies cut the deficit to two on five different occasions in the half, but every time they did, Ohio had an answer.

The Bobcats got 29 points from their bench Saturday and outscored Northern Illinois 22-14 in the paint. Each team had 34 rebounds on the night. Wiener had a game-high nine boards, while Frederick paced the Cats with seven.

Ohio shot 43.1 percent from the floor, 38.5 percent from the arc and 83.3 percent from the charity stripe on the day. Northern Illinois countered with a 30.6 shooting percentage from the field, a 33.3 mark from the three-point line and 62.5 percent from the foul line.

ATHENS, Ohio - Domenica Silva exploded for a career-high 27 points, but Ohio fell behind early and never led, dropping an 80-63 decision to Ball State Tuesday night in Mid-American Conference action in The Convo.

Silva scored 15 points in the second half, helping the Bobcats (7-12 overall, 4-4 MAC) claw back from a 21-point deficit and cutting the lead to just nine with 5:13 left. Ball State (12-7, 5-3 MAC) responded with an 11-0 run, though, pushing the lead back to the 20-point plateau with less than two minutes left in the game.

For the second-straight game, Ohio was forced to play without its leading scorer, sophomore Simone Redd, who suffered an ankle injury last week. Silva stepped up in Redd's absence, though, hitting 9-of-12 tries from the field and 9-of-10 free-throw attempts for her best effort in an Ohio uniform.

Ciara Iglehart chipped in 15 points for the Bobcats, while Rachel Frederick paced Ohio with eight rebounds. Quintana Ward played all 40 minutes, recording four assists.

Four Cardinals finished the game with double figures in the scoring column, headed by Julie DeMuth, who notched a double-double with 18 points and 11 boards. Erica Cotton hit for 17 points, while Stephanie Douglas came off the bench to score 12 points in 15 minutes. Becca Bajorek scored 10 points and nabbed four rebounds.

Ball State had control of the game from the opening tip, allowing Ohio to tie the game twice but never trailing. The Cardinals shot 50 percent (14-28) from the floor in the first half, opening up an 11-point lead at the break. Cotton scored 13 of her 17 in the first frame, while DeMuth was just three rebounds short of a double-double at intermission.

Silva kept the Bobcats alive throughout the first half, scoring 12 points with a couple rebounds. Ohio shot 40.7 percent (11-27) from the floor in the half, but was held empty from behind the arc (0-4).

Ball State pushed its lead above the 10-point mark for most of the second half, but Ohio didn't quit. The Cardinals led 62-41 with 10:02 left, but thanks to an 18-6 Bobcat run, the lead was down to nine, 68-59, with 5:13 left. That's when an 11-0 Ball State run put the game away.

Ball State outrebounded Ohio 40-33. The Cardinal bench outscored Ohio's 31-7.

Mount Pleasant, Mich. - Ohio fell behind in the early going and never recovered Saturday, falling 64-48 to Central Michigan in Mid-American Conference action in Rose Arena.

Rachel Frederick led all scorers with 19, but Ohio (7-13, 4-5 MAC) dug itself a hole in the game's opening 10 minutes and could never recover. The Bobcats trailed by eight points before they ever got on the scoreboard, but rallied to cut the deficit to seven at the break. Central Michigan (12-8, 3-6 MAC) was solid on the offensive end all night, hitting 52.9 percent of its attempts from the floor in the second half to provide the knockout punch at home.

Along with Frederick, Ciara Iglehart was Ohio's only other double-digit scorer. Ann Skufca was the lone Chippewa in double figures, posting 18 points. Guard Sharonda Hurd picked up a game-high 12 rebounds, including five on the offensive end.

The Chippewas came out firing in the first half, opening up an 8-0 lead and taking a 13-point edge with just more than eight minutes left to play in the half. The Bobcats didn't get on the scoreboard until Iglehart hit a couple free throws at the 13:05 mark, and it was Iglehart that gave Ohio its first field goal - a three-pointer with 12:39 left.

Thanks to a late first half run for Ohio, the Bobcats stayed close with Central Michigan at intermission. Trailing 18-5 at the 8:26 mark, the Bobcats would go on a 9-3 run and pull to within seven, 21-14, at the break.

Iglehart finished the half with five, as did Frederick. Ohio hit just 19 percent (5-27) of its tries from the floor in the first half, while the Chippewas managed to knock down 38 percent (8-21) from the field.

Skufca and Chasidy Myers shared the majority of the scoring duties in the half for Central Michigan, each chipping in six points. The Chippewas outrebounded Ohio 23-16.

The Bobcats cut the Central Michigan lead to five on a couple occasions in the second half, but they'd never get any closer. The Cats used a Frederick three at 11:46 to cut the lead to eight, 35-27. From that point forward, though, Central Michigan would carry a double digit lead.

The Chippewas used an 11-2 run midway through the second half to go up by 20 points. Ohio chipped away at the lead a few times but couldn't get over the hump before the final buzzer sounded.

Central Michigan outrebounded the Bobcats 40-30 on the night. Ohio shot 35.7 percent (20-56) from the floor on the night, while the Chippewas countered with 47.3 percent (26-55). The Bobcats knocked down 5-of-12 three-point attempts Saturday, but struggled at the line, hitting just 3-of-7 tries.

ATHENS, Ohio - The Ohio women's basketball team had MAC West Division leader Eastern Michigan on the ropes late in the second half, but the Eagles managed to hang on down the stretch, taking a 62-56 decision Wednesday in The Conv.

Eastern Michigan (15-6, 9-1 Mid-American Conference) scored 17-straight points in the first half to open a commanding lead, but the Bobcats (7-14, 4-6 MAC) scratched and clawed back to keep the game within reach early. By the time the second half clock fell below 13 minutes, Ohio had a lead. The game was tied 3:09 left, but Eastern Michigan managed to score nine of the final 12 points in the game to slip past the Bobcats in Athens.

Ciara Iglehart scored a game-high 20 points, including a pair of three-pointers. Rachel Frederick punched in 11 points with five boards. Lauren Revesz paced the Cats with six rebounds, a block and a steal. Ohio won the battle down low, outrebounding Eastern Michigan 32-28.

Sarah VanMetre led Eastern Michigan with 19 points. Ryan Coleman chipped in 15, and Kendra Gallert scored 12-all in the first frame. Patrice McKinney went to the break with two rebounds, but finished with a game high 12.

It took more than three minutes, but the Bobcats scored the game's first points with a hoop at the 16:38 mark. The lead didn't last long, though, as Eastern Michigan went on to score the next 17 points of the half, opening up a 17-2 advantage with 12:04 left. Ohio stopped the bleeding temporarily, but the Eagles stayed hot on the offensive end, taking a 23-4 edge as the clock dipped below the 10-minute mark.

From there, though, Ohio would turn it on and creep back into the ballgame. The Cats went on a 17-8 run over the next seven minutes to cut the deficit to 28-21 with 2:20 left in the half. Eastern Michigan went to the break with a 32-23 lead.

At the break, Iglehart led the Cats with 12 points and three boards. Ohio shot 40.9 percent (9-22) from the floor and 33.3 percent (2-6) from behind the arc.

Eastern Michigan's Gallert hit four three-pointers in the first half to pace the Eagles with 12 points. Ryan Coleman recorded three boards and three assists. The Eagles hit 46.4 percent (13-28) from the floor and 41.7 percent (5-12) from the perimeter.

Ohio outrebounded Eastern Michigan 18-12. The Eagles turned 12 Bobcat turnovers into 12 points.

Over the first seven minutes of the second half, Ohio turned a nine-point Eastern Michigan lead into a one-point Ohio lead, 39-38, with 12:54 left. Both teams traded the lead often down the stretch, with no squad leading by more than four over the next seven minutes.

With 3:09 remaining, Frederick went to the line with the Cats down a pair. Frederick converted both ends, tying the game at 53-53. Coleman hit a free throw and another jumper to put Eastern Michigan on top by three, but Iglehart responded with a free throw to cut the lead to two. The Eagles went back up by four, until Quintana Ward layed in a runner for two with eight seconds left, pulling Ohio to within a bucket. From there, Coleman converted a pair of free throws and tossed in a layup to finish off the Bobcats.

Ohio shot 43.2 percent (19-44) from the floor and 44.4 percent (4-9) from three-point range Wednesday. The Eagles countered with a 41.7 mark (20-48) from the field and a 29.4 percentage (5-17) from the arc.

With leading scorer Simone Redd still on the shelf with an injured ankle, seven Bobcats got into the scoring column Wednesday night.

ATHENS, Ohio - A slow start and a propensity to turn the ball over were the difference for the Ohio women's basketball team Saturday, as the Bobcats dropped an 81-49 decision to Toledo in the Convocation Center.

Toledo (9-12, 4-7 Mid-American Conference) jumped out to a 10-0 start and never trailed in the game. Ohio (7-15, 4-7 MAC) recorded 23 turnovers Saturday--including 15 in the first half.

Rachel Frederick led the Ohio attack with 18 points, helped by a 10-of-12 effort from the free throw stripe. Domenica Silva was the Bobcats' lone other double figure scorer, kicking in 11 points on the day. Frederick led an Ohio team that outrebounded Toledo 38-30 with eight boards of her own.

The Rockets shot 60 percent (30-50) on the day, including a 76.9 percent (20-26) mark in the second frame. In that second half, Toledo outscored Ohio 51-33. Danielle Bishop scored 21 points with eight boards to lead the Rockets.

The Bobcats jumped out to a slow start, and the Rockets came out firing. The combination put the Cats into a hole they'd never be able to climb out of. Over the first two minutes of the game, Ohio missed its only shot attempt and turned the ball over three times. Conversely, Toledo got on the board early and took a 10-0 lead with 18:05 left in the half.

Ohio used a Frederick triple to score its first points of the game with 17:30 left, but the Rockets had an answer for every Ohio comeback effort. Toledo used an 11-4 run over the next five-plus minutes to take a 14-point lead, 21-7, with 11:33 left in the half. The lead swelled to 16 with less than a minute left, and the teams went to the locker room with Toledo leading 30-16.

Turnovers plagued the Bobcats throughout the half. Toledo turned 15 Ohio miscues into 22 points through the game's first 20 minutes. A cold shooting effort also nagged at Ohio in the early going, with the Cats shooting 22.7 percent (5-22) in the half.

At the break, Frederick led Ohio with six points. Quintana Ward and Silva each had five, rounding out the scorers for the Bobcats. Silva and Lauren Revesz each chipped in four rebounds for Ohio. The Bobcats outrebounded Toledo 22-13 in the frame.

Kristi Zeller and Crystal Young shared the bulk of Toledo's first-half scoring duties Saturday, with each netting eight in the half. Toledo shot 41.7 percent (10-24) in the half and recorded 12 steals.

Out of the locker room, a Frederick deuce cut the deficit to nine, 32-23, with 18:22 left in the game. From that point on, though, the lead would be in double figures for the rest of the half. The Rockets were hot on the offensive end throughout the half, upping their lead to 20 with 14:17 left. By the time the clock dipped below two minutes, Toledo's lead had been increased to 31 points and its largest advantage came just as the clock hit all zeros.

The Rockets scored 32 points off 23 Ohio turnovers Saturday and made 16 steals. Toledo got 24 points from its bench and outscored Ohio 24-16 in the paint. The Bobcats outscored Toledo 17-4 on second-chance points.

KENT, Ohio - Ohio took a late second-half lead and managed to push one of the league's best teams to overtime, but playing with just four players in the final minute and a half of the extra period, the Bobcats fell 73-66 to Kent State Wednesday in the M.A.C. Center.

After trailing by just four at the break, the Bobcats clawed back into the game in the second half, taking a lead with 1:16 left. Ohio (7-16, 4-8 Mid-American Conference) allowed a free throw on the other end, but didn't give the Golden Flashes another inch, forcing an overtime period.

Ohio never led in overtime, but hung close throughout. Less than four minutes into the extra frame, Ohio's fourth player of the night picked up her fifth and final foul. Starting the game with just eight active players, the Bobcats used four players in the final 1:28 of the game, but didn't let up. Over that stretch, Ohio matched Kent State 8-8 on the scoreboard. The Bobcats could not, however, overcome the deficit and fell to the Golden Flashes (16-7, 9-3 MAC), who clinched a first-round bye in the upcoming MAC Tournament.

Domenica Silva (Sao Paulo, Brazil) led the Cats on the offensive end, registering her first-career double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. Silva was 7-of-14 from the floor and 6-of-7 from the line.

Two other Bobcats recorded double figures in scoring on the night. Rachel Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.) struggled from the field, but picked up the slack at the stripe, knocking down 11-of-13 free-throw tries for 13 points. Playing all 45 minutes, Quintana Ward (Park Forest, Ill.) notched 11 points with four assists and a 6-of-6 effort from the line. As a team, Ohio, the league's best free-throw shooting team, hit 28-of-35 tries (80 percent) from the charity stripe. Lauren Hmiel (York, Pa.) pulled down a career-best eight rebounds.

Lindsay Shearer paced Kent State with 25 points and nine rebounds, including a 12-of-14 effort from the free-throw line. Like Ohio, the Golden Flashes were proficient from the line, hitting 83.3 percent (25-30), including 11-of-13 in the overtime period. Sarah Burgess hit three shots from behind the arc to come off the bench and contribute 10 points and nine boards.

The lead swapped hands several times in the first half, with neither team making a convincing run. Ohio led by as many as six in the first four minutes, but Kent State hung around, snatching the lead back and leading by as many as four. The game was tied at 24 with 4:15 left, but the Golden Flashes went to intermission up four, 31-27.

For the half, Ohio shot 30.4 percent (7-23) from the field and 85.7 percent (12-14) from the free-throw line. Kent State countered with a 34.4 mark (11-32) from the field and a 75 percent effort (6-8) from the line. Ohio hit one three in the first half, Kent State knocked down three.

Out of the locker room, the script remained much the same as the first half. Ohio regained the lead early, relinquished it for much of the half, then went on to pick it back up around the eight-minute mark. Trailing by a couple late in the game, Silva knocked down a jumper with 1:16 left to take one-point lead. Kent State responded with a free-throw to tie it and eventually send it to overtime.

Kent State scored six-straight to open up the extra frame via a pair of Sarah Burgess three-pointers and never looked back. With Frederick and Lauren Revesz (Bridgeville, Pa.) already fouled out and now down to six active players, Ciara Iglehart picked up her fifth at the 1:01 mark. Silva got number five with 1:28 left on the clock, leaving Ohio to play out the string with four players.

OXFORD, Ohio - Rachel Frederick registered a double-double and Simone Redd returned to the floor for the first time in three weeks, but the Bobcats were topped by Miami on Saturday, 60-56, in Millett Hall.

Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.) used a 14-point, 10-rebound effort to notch her team-leading fifth double-double of the season. Redd (Warrensville Heights, Ohio), who suffered an ankle injury and missed the last six games, returned to action with seven points and five rebounds in 24 minutes Saturday.

Tied at 19 at the break, Ohio (7-17, 4-9 Mid-American Conference) led for much of the second half. The Bobcats pulled ahead by five points, 39-34, with 10:46 left in the game. The Cats would lead by five as the clock neared the eight-minute mark, but from there the RedHawks began to take control. Miami (8-16, 3-10 MAC) went on a 10-0 run over the next two and-a-half minutes to take a five-point lead of its own, an edge the RedHawks would never relinquish.

Ohio cut the lead to a single possession on a few occasions down the stretch, including using a Redd three-pointer to cut the deficit to three with two seconds left. Miami converted from the free-throw line in the final couple ticks, though, to even the season series at 1-1.

Both teams jumped out of the gate ice cold on the offensive end. After Miami took a 6-5 lead with 13:01 left in the first half, neither team would touch the scoreboard for the next six minutes. A Frederick three-pointer broke the dry spell and put Ohio on top by a bucket, 8-6. The RedHawks used a 7-4 run over the last three-plus minutes to tie the game at 19 as the clubs went to intermission.

For the half, Ohio shot 25.9 percent (7-27) from the field, while Miami countered at 22.9 percent (8-35). Ciara Iglehart (Mission Viejo, Calif.) finished the half with seven rebounds and three Bobcats shared the scoring lead with five points apiece. Miami was led by Eve Pyle's seven points off the bench. Ohio held a two-rebound advantage on the glass.

The game was tied over the first five minutes of the second half, with neither team able to take a commanding lead. Both squads did improve offensively in the second frame, as both Ohio and Miami shot an identical 41.9 percent (13-31) from the field.

After hitting just one-of-eight attempts from the arc in the first half, Miami scored on 3-of-6 three-point tries in the second half. And though they'd shoot a worse percentage in the frame than Ohio, the RedHawks were able to get to the free-throw line 20 times in the second half, converting 12.

For the game, Ohio featured three in double figures. Frederick's 14 led the way, while Domenica Silva (Sao Paulo, Brazil) followed up her first-career double-double with 13 points, five rebounds, three steals, three blocks and four assists. Quintana Ward (Park Forest, Ill.) scored 11 points with three steals and three assists.

Jenna Schone scored 13 points with five boards and four assists for Miami. Pyle finished with 11 points and nine rebounds. Ohio outrebounded Miami 48-45 on the night, but the RedHawks won the turnover battle 20-14.

In addition to her 14 points and 10 boards, Frederick notched four assists and converted 9-of-12 free-throw attempts.

Redd hit 3-of-10 tries from the field and recorded a steal and an assist.

ATHENS, Ohio – Rachel Frederick had a career night on the glass and in the scoring column, but Buffalo torched the Bobcats from behind the arc, defeating Ohio 84-77 Tuesday in The Convo.

Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.) matched a career-high with 27 points and set a career-best with 15 boards in 40 minutes of action. It was her sixth-career double-double and second in as many games. But the Bulls were too much from the outside, hitting 12-of-17 attempts (70.6 percent) from three-point range to bury any significant Ohio runs.

Ohio (7-18, 4-10 Mid-American Conference) had three players in double figures, getting 15 from Ciara Iglehart (Mission Viejo, Calif.) and 20 from Simone Redd (Warrens Heights, Ohio), who is still recovering from an ankle injury that sidelined her for three weeks. The Bobcats dominated Buffalo on the glass, with a 43-32 advantage, but the Bulls were proficient from the field (47.3 percent) and from the stripe (76.9 percent), in addition to their night from three-point land.

Buffalo (9-16, 4-10 MAC) was led by four players in double figures, paced by Brooke Meunier's 23. Meunier hit three three-pointers, as did Stephanie Bennett, who scored 13. Flynn Pyykkonen matched Bennett's 13 and Heather Turner kicked in 20 with six rebounds.

The lead switched hands 13 times in a see-saw battle, with Ohio leading as late as the 14:20 mark of the second half. The Bobcats trailed by a bucket at the half and kept the deficit under 10 for the first 14 minutes of the second frame. After shooting 62.5 percent from behind the arc in the first half, though, Buffalo went 7-of-9 (77.8 percent) in the second half to seal the victory.

The Bobcats fell behind early, 12-4, just more than four minutes into the first half. Thanks to Frederick, though, that changed quickly. Frederick scored Ohio's next 10 points, all within less than two minutes, to tie the score at 14 with 13:44 left in the half.

From there, Ohio would go on to lead by six at the 10:02 mark, but the Bulls went on to tie the game in the final few minutes of the half. The Bobcats regained the lead, 30-29, with 2:25 remaining in the half. Buffalo responded with its fifth three-pointer of the half to take a two point edge, 32-30, into the locker room.

At the break, Frederick led all scorers with 13 points and eight boards. Iglehart kicked in six for the Cats. Ohio shot 38.2 percent from the floor and 50 percent from behind the arc. The Bobcats outrebounded Buffalo 22-17—including grabbing eight boards on the offensive end.

Pyykkonen paced the Bulls with 10 points and five rebounds at intermission. Turner chipped in seven with four boards. Buffalo shot 41.9 percent from the floor and 62.5 percent from behind the arc. The Bulls received nearly half of their scoring output from behind the three-point line.

Ohio jumped out to a 6-0 run to open up the second half, taking back the lead in the opening minutes. The game was tied three more times in the next several minutes, until Ohio used a Redd layup to go ahead 47-45 with 14:20 left. As it would turn out, that would be the last lead Ohio would own.

Over the last 15 minutes, Buffalo hit four triples to negate any Ohio chance at a comeback.

Despite the loss, Ohio remains in the hunt to host a first-round MAC Tournament game in The Convo. Three teams—Ohio, Buffalo and Miami—are fighting for the East Division's two MAC Tournament home games. With two regular season games left, the Bobcats and Bulls share a 4-10 league mark. After a Tuesday loss to Akron, Miami sits a game back at 3-11.

ATHENS, Ohio – Ohio took the nation's 25th-ranked team down to the wire, but Bowling Green managed to hold off a furious second-half Bobcat rally to take a 65-61 decision Saturday in The Convo.

Ohio (7-19, 4-11 Mid-American Conference) tied the game with less than eight minutes to go in the second half and trailed by a single possession with seven seconds left in the game. Bowling Green (24-2, 15-0 MAC) held on down the stretch to stay perfect in the league and count its 15th-straight win.

Rachel Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.) hit for 12 points and 10 rebounds, marking her third-straight double-double and team-leading seventh overall this season. After pulling down her eighth rebound of the game in the second half, the true freshman became the first Ohio player to record 300 points, 200 boards and 50 steals in a single season since Nicki Smith hit the mark in the 1991-92 season.

Point guard Quintana Ward (Park Forest, Ill.) led Ohio with 14 points on the night, including three three-point goals. Lauren Revesz (Bridgeville, Pa.) knocked down 5-of-7 tries from the floor for 12 points.

The Bobcats dominated Bowling Green in the paint, outscoring the Falcons 24-16. Ohio shot 35.1 percent from the field on the day and 37.5 percent from behind the arc.

Bowling Green was led by 20 points from Ali Mann, a 14 point, 12-rebound effort from Liz Honegger and 14 points from Casey McDowell.

Ohio trailed by just five at the break and went on to tie the score deep into the second half. The Bobcats outscored the Falcons in the second half, but Ohio never was able to take a second-half lead, falling just short of pulling off the upset.

The Bobcats came out hot in the first half, but an early run was answered by an even larger Bowling Green sprint in the early going. The Bobcats jumped out to a 7-2 advantage with 17:30 left in the half, but the Falcons would respond. McDowell hit three-straight three-pointers and Bowling Green went on a 15-0 run over the next six minutes to erase Ohio's lead and go on top, 17-7, with 11:17 left in the half.

Simone Redd hit a three to stop the bleeding and in doing so cut the deficit to single digits for the remainder of the half. Ohio pulled to within a bucket as the clock neared zero, but an Ali Mann three as time expired pushed Bowling Green's lead to five, 28-23, at intermission.

At the break, six players shared scoring duties for the Cats, with Revesz leading the way with six. Redd had five and four other players scored three, including Domenica Silva (Sao Paulo, Brazil) who paced Ohio with six first-half rebounds. The Bobcats shot 29.6 percent from the field in the half and converted 2-of-8 tries from three-point land. Ohio committed nine turnovers and matched Bowling Green's 21 first-half boards.

McDowell hit three triples on her way to a game-high 11 points at the break for the Falcons. Honegger connected on just 1-of-8 tries from the floor, but she did lead the pack with six rebounds—all on the defensive end—four blocks and three steals. Mann went to the break with nine. Bowling Green shot 34.5 percent from the field and 33.3 percent from beyond the arc in the half. The Falcons turned the basketball over just six times.

Ohio slowly chipped away at the deficit throughout the second half. Bowling Green led by eight with just less than 11 minutes left, but the Cats responded with a 9-1 run to tie the score at 46 with 7:48 left. Ohio stayed within a bucket or two for most of most of the next seven minutes, until Bowling Green took an eight-point edge with 29 seconds left. But Ohio wouldn't go away. The Cats used three-pointers by Frederick and Katie Reihmann (Marengo, Iowa) to pull to within three with seven seconds left. Ohio fouled on the inbounds pass, sending Kate Achter to the line for two. Achter missed the first, but knocked down the second to put the game out of reach.

HOME TEAM: Ohio Bobcats 7-19, 4-11 MAC

AKRON, Ohio -- Ohio converted 23-of-25 attempts from the charity stripe and outlasted Akron on the road Tuesday, 66-56, earning a first-round home game in the Mid-American Conference Tournament.

Four Bobcats pitched in double figures in a balanced scoring effort, with Simone Redd (Warrensville Heights, Ohio) leading the pack with 13. Lauren Revesz (Bridgeville, Pa.) and Ciara Iglehart (Mission Viejo, Calif.) kicked in 12, while Rachel Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.) chipped in 10.

With the win, the Bobcats (8-19, 5-11 MAC) secure a first-round home game in the upcoming MAC Tournament. Ohio clinches the No. 4 seed in the East, which means the Cats will play host to the No. 5 seed in the West. That opponent remains to be determined, based on the outcomes of a West Division game on Wednesday night. The Bobcats will either face Central Michigan or Northern Illinois. Ohio fell 64-48 to Central Michigan in early February, but defeated Northern Illinois, 74-62, on the road in January.

Ohio jumped out to an early lead and held a double-digit lead over Akron (5-22, 2-14) throughout much of the first half. The Cats went to the break up by nine and were nearly perfect from the free-throw stripe in the second half to erase any Akron hopes on pulling off the victory. Ohio didn't score a field in the game's final 7:47, but the Cats went 16-of-16 from the line during that stretch to hang on for the W.

Akron had three players in double figures, with Niki McCoy scoring 19 with seven rebounds in 40 minutes. Jessica Deville shot just 2-of-11 from the field, but did manage to notch a double-double with 10 points and 12 boards. The Zips outrebounded Ohio on the night, 42-30.

Ohio committed just 12 turnovers on the night. That, combined with a 92 percent effort from the free-throw line, propelled the Cats to their 11th-straight win over Akron.

After going ahead 9-2 in the opening two minutes, Ohio climbed to a 14-point advantage as the clock neared the 10-minute mark of the first half. The lead swelled to 16, 27-11, on a Frederick three with 6:28 left. But, Ohio scored three points over the final five minutes of the half as Akron went on a 10-3 run to pull within six at intermission.

Ohio was led by eight-first half points from Frederick. Jessie Crooks had nine to pace the Zips.

Out of the break, the Bobcats held a comfortable lead for much of the first 15 minutes of the second half. But, down 10 with less than five to go in the game, Akron began to trim away at the lead. The Bobcats didn't hit a field goal in the final 7:47, but during that stretch, Ohio went 16-for-16 from the free throw line. Akron cut the lead to four with 1:36 left, but the Cats hit six-straight free throws to hold off the comeback attempt.

ATHENS, Ohio - A 19-0 second half run helped erase a seven-point halftime deficit and carry the Ohio women's basketball team past Central Michigan, 74-57, and onto the quarterfinals of the MAC Tournament in Cleveland.

The fifth-seeded Bobcats (9-19) now move on to a March 8 match-up with West Division Champion Eastern Michigan in the quarterfinal round. The trip marks the second in as many years to Cleveland for Lynn Bria's squad and the second-straight season in which Ohio has ousted the Chippewas (16-12) at home in round one to get there.

Ohio struggled to get going a bit in the first half, slipping to a seven-point hole at the break. Ohio came alive on both ends of the basketball floor in the second half, though, outscoring Central Michigan 49-25 in the frame to seal its largest victory of the 2005-06 season.

Up five points with just less than 10 minutes to go, Ohio scored the game's next 19 points and opened the door and never looked back. Central Michigan didn't score a point for a stretch of more than five minutes in the second half, and they went from the 11:22 mark to the 3:41 mark without a field goal.

Simone Redd (Warrensville Heights, Ohio) scored 23 points to lead four Bobcats in double figures. Domenica Silva (Sao Paulo, Brazil) scored 13, while Ciara Iglehart (Mission Viejo, Calif.) and Rachel Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.) each netted 11. Iglehart fell one rebound short of a double-double.

Casey Manning was Central Michigan's lone double figure scorer, recording a game-high 26 with five rebounds off the bench. Manning hit 10-of-15 tries from the floor.

Ohio led just twice in the first half, and never after the 14:28 mark of the frame. Central Michigan never went ahead by a big margin, but the Chippewas did maintain a hold on the lead throughout most of the half, banking primarily on Manning's scoring efforts.

After Ohio tied the score with 3:36 left, the Chippewas went on a 7-0 run to finish out the half, taking a 32-25 lead into the break.

At the break, Manning was a perfect 6-of-6 from the floor to lead all scorers with 13. Central Michigan got seven points from Chasidy Myers and five from Sharonda Hurd. The Chippewas shot 43.8 percent (14-32) from the field in the half, but connected on just 1-of-6 tries from the perimeter. Central Michigan outrebounded the Cats 19-15.

Ohio was led by nine points from Redd, who returned to the starting lineup for the first time since her midseason ankle injury. Frederick had eight and Silva and Iglehart each kicked in four. Ohio shot 39.1 percent (9-23) from the floor and hit 2-of-4 three-point attempts.

From the opening seconds, the second half completely belonged to Ohio. The Bobcats erased the seven-point deficit over the first five-plus minutes, going ahead with 14:41 left. With 13:30 on the clock, Frederick nailed a three-pointer that gave Ohio a two-point lead. The Cats would never trail again, and from the 8:49 mark on, the lead stood at double digits. Ohio was dominant in the paint in the second half, outscoring the Chippies 22-8.

For the game, the Cats shot an even 50 percent (26-52) from the floor and 60 percent (6-10) from three-point range. Central Michigan countered at 35 percent (21-60) from the field and 23.1 percent (3-13) from the arc.

CLEVELAND - After jumping out to a slow start and trailing at the break, Ohio fired back to tie the score down the stretch, only to be edged in the closing minutes, 76-66, by West Division champ Eastern Michigan in the quarterfinals of the MAC Tournament in Quicken Loans Arena.

The Bobcats (9-20) dug themselves into a 14-0 hole to kick-off the game, but Ohio slowly chipped away at the deficit and went to the break down seven. The Cats started the second half on a 10-2 run, pulled within a single possession around the 10-minute mark and tied the score at 59 with 5:27 left. From there, Eastern Michigan (22-6), the top seed in the West, scored 10-straight points to open up the game and seal the quarterfinal victory.

Eastern Michigan advances to the semifinal round on Friday afternoon. The Bobcats finish up the season for the second-straight year after the quarters.

Rachel Frederick (Gibsonia, Pa.), the 2006 Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year, paced four Bobcats in double figures with 17 points. Frederick eclipsed the 400-point plateau on the season with the help of an 11-for-11 effort from the free throw line.

Quintana Ward (Park Forest, Ill.) scored 13, as did Ohio's lone senior Ciara Iglehart (Mission Viejo, Calif.). Off the bench, Lauren Revesz (Bridgeville, Pa.) kicked in 12 with a team-high five rebounds.

Ryan Coleman led three Eagles in double figures with 24 points. Patrice McKinney and Sarah VanMetre chipped in 14 apiece.

Ohio hit just six field goals in the first half, shooting just 26.1 percent. Half of those field goals, though, came from behind the arc, keeping the Cats alive. Eastern Michigan shot 39.3 percent in the half, with seven players entering the scoring column.

Ohio didn't score its first point until the 13:49 mark of the half, but the Bobcats managed to hang around throughout the next 13 minutes and go to the break within striking distance.

That distance was shortened in the early going of the second half, as Ohio pulled to within a possession, 49-47, with 10:43 left. For the first time all afternoon, Ohio came around to tied the score at 59 with just more than five minutes to go. The Eagles responded with a quick 10-0 run over the next four minutes to pull away for good.

Ohio outbounded the Eagles 30-26 on the afternoon and knocked down 88.9 percent of its tries from the stripe. Eastern Michigan forced 20 Bobcat turnovers and outscored the Bobcats 32-22 in the paint.

Ohio will return all but one letterwinner next season, that being Iglehart, the team's lone senior. Among the returnees are honorable mention All-MAC selection Simone Redd (Warrensville Heights, Ohio) and Frederick, the MAC Freshman of the Year.
