OHIO (4-8-3, 4-3-1) DROPS TO FOURTH

Following a pair of back-to-back 1-0 losses at Chessa Field to Northern Illinois on Friday and Western Michigan on Saturday, Ohio fell to fourth in the MAC regular season standings. Eastern Michigan, which played Ohio to a 1-1 draw on Oct. 14, moved up to third. Below the Bobcats in the standings are Kent State, which Ohio defeated 2-1 in double-overtime on Sept. 28, and Northern Illinois in fifth place.

OFFENSE GOES COLD

After scoring nine goals in its first five MAC contests this season, the Ohio offense has struggled to find the back of the net recently with just one goal in its last three games. All three of Ohio's conference losses this season have come by 1-0 final scores and all four of its wins have come with two goals scored or more. Ohio has been shutout in seven games this season with a 0-5-2 record in those contests.

MACLEAN CONSISTENT IN GOAL

Despite dropping both games last weekend to NIU and WMU, Ohio keeper Jess MacLean has been the epitome of consistency between the pipes for the Bobcats. The Loveland native has surrendered one goal or less in every conference game this season and in the last 10 games, dating back to a 0-0 (2OT) draw at Robert Morris on Sept. 21. MacLean's goals against average overall this season is .97 while her conference GAA sits at .83 with seven goals in eight MAC games.

SENIOR DAY HONORS 2008 CLASS

Ohio's senior class received special recognition prior to the Bobcats' contest against Western Michigan on Sunday. Larissa Najjar, Callie Broomfield, Danielle Young, Kristen Miller, Alyssa Warren, Mary McPhail and Lindsey Price were all presented with flowers by their parents at midfield before opening introductions. The seniors also placed roses on a plaque in memory of would-be senior Sarah Merritt who tragically passed last year on March 21.

PHYSICAL GAMES

Ohio has been issued the lowest amount of yellow cards this season of any team in the MAC, but that did not stop the referee from letting the penalty cards fly this weekend in Ohio's games against Northern Illinois and Western Michigan. Ohio's Sarah Brown was awarded the first yellow card in her collegiate career while Northern Illinois was also issued a card while Western Michigan was hit with three yellow cards. A total of 42 fouls were called in the two weekend games, 21 in each contest.

CORNERING THE MAC STANDINGS

Despite dropping to fourth in the MAC standings, Ohio moved up to second in the conference with 82 corner kicks. Ball State, first in the MAC regular season standings, is also first in corner kicks with 84. Toledo, fourth in corners with 76, sits in second place in the conference.

ABOUT BOWLING GREEN (6-9-1, 3-5-0 MAC)

Picked to finish second in the league's preseason poll, Bowling Green has underachieved thus far in 2007, sitting in a tie for eighth place in the MAC standings. In their last two games, the Falcons defeated Miami in double-overtime and took conference-leading Ball State to double-overtime in a 3-2 loss in Muncie, Ind. Bowling Green has placed 102 of its 207 shot attempts on goal, scoring 20 times. The Falcons have been issued 12 yellow cards this season, four more than their opponents, they have scored the most goals in the MAC this season, with 31 total.

BOWLING GREEN PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

The Falcons are led on offense by the scoring duo of Stacey Lucas and Jackie Tamerlano. The pair have combined for nine of the team's 20 goals and Lucas leads the team with five scores and two game-winning goals. Setting up the offense is Corbie Yee, who leads the team with five assists. Three keepers have seen playing time in the Falcons' net this season, with Alexa Arsenault (seven starts) and Christy Zabek (eight starts) getting the most time. Arsenault has 45 saves and allowed eight goals in eight total games played while Zabek has surrendered 14 goals in eight games played with 32 saves.

ABOUT TOLEDO (11-4-1, 6-5-2)

The Rockets have shocked the MAC this season by recording a program-high six conference victories with three game remaining to be played. Toledo, picked to finish eighth in the MAC standings, currently sits in second place behind Ball State. Toledo has scored just three goals in its last three games after racking up 14 scores in its first five MAC games - including back-to-back 4-0 wins against Northern Illinois and Western Michigan.

TOLEDO PLAYER SPOTLIGHT

The second-place Rockets are paced offensively by Molly Cornwell. The two-time MAC Player of the Week honoree has scored 10 goals this season, the most by a single player in the MAC. The 5-foot-5 sophomore from Pickerington, Ohio, also leads the team with nine assists for a conference high 29 total points. Cornwell has scored two goals in three different games, including contests against Eastern Michigan (both via penalty kick) and at Buffalo. The All-Freshman Team selection tallied six goals and five assists in her first year at Toledo.

SERIES HISTORY

Ohio has dominated Bowling Green and Toledo in its all-time series. The Bobcats hold an 8-1-1 all-time record against Bowling Green, with an undefeated 4-0-1 mark at Chessa Field and a 4-1 record on the road. Ohio has an equally impressive 7-3 mark against Toledo. The Bobcats have won four of five games at home and three of five games on the road.

LAST SEASON AGAINST BOWLING GREEN AND TOLEDO

Last season, the final score in both of Ohio's games against Bowling Green and Toledo was 3-0. But only one time did the Bobcats come out on the winning end. Ohio defeated Bowling Green on Oct. 6, but lost to Toledo on Oct. 10, on the same roadtrip the Bobcats will embark on this Friday.

MAC NEWS AND NOTES

- The Eastern Michigan Eagles will be back on the road this weekend, when they travel to play in-state rival Western Michigan on Friday. They will then head to DeKalb to take on Northern Illinois. These two games mark the first time since Oct. 7 that the Eagles have played away from Scicluna Field. Ashley Rodrigues set a school-record for points in a game when she netted three goals and an assist against Buffalo. She is only the fourth player in school history to net a hat trick and the first since Michele Lawrence did it in 2005. When EMU scored seven goals against Buffalo, it was the most goals the Eagles have ever scored against a Division I opponent. It was also the most since 1998 when eight goals were scored against Saginaw Valley State.
- Buffalo goalkeeper Amy Coron recorded 11 saves in Bulls' 1-0 win against CMU, the most she has recorded in MAC games this season.
- Northern Illinois goalkeeper Lindsey Curnock recorded 200 shutout minutes with a pair of clean sheets during the weekend. She notched her 11th career shutout to become the school's all-time leader on Friday at Ohio. Northern Illinois extended its unbeaten streak against Ohio to six games, dating back to 2002, with its 1-0 victory against the Bobcats on Friday.
- The Ball State Cardinals are off to their best start in MAC play in program history with a 7-0-1 mark through the first eight conference games. Ball State has now gone 13-straight MAC regular season games without a loss dating back to last season.
- With Friday's 1-0 victory at Miami, Toledo secured its school-record sixth MAC win of the season. The previous record for league victories was five on six occasions.
- The Miami Redhawks are now 5-7-3 overall and 3-4-1 in the MAC. They lost a pair of 0-1 games last week and will travel to Kent State and Buffalo this coming weekend, looking to move above .500 in the league.
- Western Michigan concluded its longest road trip of the season on a high note, shutting out Ohio 1-0 for its first MAC win of the season. The Broncos return to the friendly confines of WMU Soccer Complex for the final three games of the regular season.
- The Kent State Golden Flashes had won four straight when scoring first before Friday's loss at Central Michigan. KSU is now 5-2-1 on the year when scoring the first goal of the game. - Kent State fell to 0-6-0 all-time at Eastern Michigan's Scicluna Field after falling 1-0 to the Eagles on Sunday.
- Central Michigan improved to 2-0-0 in overtime this season with Friday's 2-1 double OT win over Kent State. It was the Chippewas' second double overtime win in conference play, as they had previously earned a 2-1 2OT triumph at Bowling Green on Oct. 5.
- Friday's loss at Ball State marked the first time in the 11-year history of the Bowling Green women's soccer program that the Falcons lost a road game in overtime.

OHIO'S LAST TWO GAMES

FRIDAY: NORTHERN ILLINOIS 1, OHIO 0

Northern Illinois needed just seven minutes to score but the Bobcats could not find the back of the net for the full 90 minutes and lost to the Huskies 1-0 on a chilly Friday evening.

The loss was only the second in conference play for Ohio (4-7-3, 4-2-1 MAC) who were also shutout by Ball State while Northern Illinois (6-4-3, 3-3-1 MAC) evened its record in MAC competition.

Karen Enockson scored her team-leading fifth goal of the season for the Huskies on their first shot attempt of the game.

NIU's Lisa Maier streaked down the far side of the field and fed a ball into the middle just a few feet in front of Enockson. That was as close as the senior from St. Charles, Ill., needed it and she collected the pass, took a few dribbles and fired a shot to the near post, sneaking the ball just past Ohio keeper Jess MacLean (Loveland).

Ohio had plenty of chances to tie the game but NIU keeper Lindsey Curnock recorded the 11th shutout of her career, and second clean sheet in as many games. Curnock saved five Ohio shot attempts while MacLean grabbed three saves.

The Bobcats kept the pressure on Northern Illinois throughout the game, racking up eight corner kicks in the contest but the Bobcats' seven shot attempts, five on goal, could not get past Curnock.

The Huskies nearly had another goal, late in the second half, when a pass back to MacLean stalled on the turf and a Northern Illinois forward took a shot that hit the inside of the far post and slowly rolled all the way across the front of the net before creeping out of bounds inches away from the near post.

Sarah Brown (North Royalton) made her second start of the season on the back line for the Bobcats and was awarded a yellow card in the 28th minute.

The physical contest saw 21 total fouls called, 17 whistles against the Huskies. Northern Illinois' Micaela Damas was also issued a yellow card in the 75th minute.

SUNDAY: WESTERN MICHIGAN 1, OHIO 0

Senior day started with celebrations about past accomplishments, but Ohio's MAC contest against Western Michigan ended with reflection on current progress.

Ohio (4-8-3, 4-3-1 MAC) dropped its second straight conference home game and allowed Western Michigan (3-9-3, 1-5-2 MAC) to escape Athens with its first MAC victory this season, 1-0.

On a corner kick mid-way through the first half, Valerie McIntyre fired a long cross over the goal box but Amy Letzqus corralled the ball near the back post and fired a shot that ricocheted off the hands of Ohio keeper Jess MacLean (Loveland) and popped up and into the top of the net.

The goal was only the Broncos ninth this season.

Ohio once again had plenty of chances to score, none better than on one of their seven corner kicks, this particular one in the second half. Elyse Merchant (Carmel, Ind.) skied for the header but her shot bounced off a Bronco defender standing on the goal line for a team save. Forward Jasmine Merith (Richmond Hill, Ontario) also had a few nice rips at the goal but her two long shots either played into the keeper at the top of the net or sailed just over the crossbar.

Western Michigan keeper Julia Francy recorded six saves and MacLean snatched one shot but allowed the lone goal. MacLean continued her streak of allowing one goal or less for the 10th consecutive contest.

The game started with the Bobcats recognizing its seven seniors as they played their last regular season home game of their careers. If the team wishes to play another game at Chessa Field this year, the 'Cats will need to finish in fourth place or better in the conference standings to play host to a first round MAC tournament game.

Ohio currently sits in third with Eastern Michigan and Kent State close by and still playing games on Sunday.

The Bobcats head to the road for their next and last three games of the regular season with contests at Akron, Bowling Green and Toledo.

HEAD COACH STACY STRAUSS

In her seven seasons as head coach of the Ohio women's soccer team, Stacy Strauss has guided the Bobcats into perennial contenders in the Mid-American Conference, winning two of the program's league-leading three regular-season titles.

Strauss' 68-63-7 (.518) career coaching record makes her the program's all-time leader in wins. She also holds a 45-29-7 (.599) MAC record that is among the highest in the conference's history.

2006 after an injury-filled 2005 season that saw the Bobcats go 3-14-0 on the season and 1-10-0 in MAC play. Already working with a relatively young and inexperienced squad, Strauss lost two projected defensive starters before the 2006 campaign began.

Despite the losses, Strauss led the Bobcats to a 9-9-1 overall record and a 7-3-1 record in conference play. The Bobcats earned the No. 2 seed in the MAC Tournament.

Strauss coached a trio of players to All-MAC selections in 2006.

Rachael Goulding was named to the All-MAC First Team on defense and senior midfielder Tiffany Horvath earned All-MAC Second Team honors for the third time under Strauss. Goulding and fellow freshman Amy Lower were named to the All-MAC Freshman Team.

OHIO ROSTER BREAKDOWN

Head coach Stacy Strauss has recruited heavily in the state of Ohio but has not limited her search to just the school's home state. The Bobcats currently feature 14 players from Ohio and a mixture of players from the Midwest, East, West and Canada round out the roster.

Ohio (14):	Callie Broomfield, Kate Fledderjohn, Amy Lower, Jess MacLean, Kristen Miller, Courtney Mink, Larissa Najjar, Halle Plagens, Lindsey Price, Erika Schmitt, Alyssa Warren, Danielle Young, Sarah Brown, Brittany Sutor
Illinois (1):	Jackie Hanson
Indiana (1):	Elyse Merchant
Iowa (1):	Mary McPhail
Maryland (1):	Christa Puccio
Virginia (1):	Erika Dietz
Minnesota (1):	Maggie Rojas-Alford
Kentucky (1):	Aupala Huq
Colorado (1):	Dominique Wright
Canada (2):	Rachael Goulding, Jasmine Merith

Ohio has an excellent balance of young talent and experienced leaders on the 2007 roster. Head coach Stacy Strauss recruited well last season, signing eight freshmen including two who were named to the All-MAC Freshmen Team at the end of the season, Rachael Goulding and Amy Lower. Strauss has chosen three seniors to be captains this season - Larissa Najjar, Callie Broomfield and Mary McPhail.

Seniors (7):	Danielle Young, Kristen Miller, Alyssa Warren, Larissa Najjar (Redshirt), Mary McPhail, Callie Broomfield, Lindsey Price
Juniors (5):	Courtney Mink, Erika Schmitt, Kate Fledderjohn, Erika Dietz, Aupala Huq
Sophomores (9):	Christa Puccio, Rachael Goulding, Elyse Merchant (Redshirt), Amy Lower, Jasmine Merith, Maggie Rojas-Alford, Halle Plagens, Dominique Wright, Jess MacLean
Freshmen (3):	Jackie Hanson, Sarah Brown, Brittany Sutor

POSITION CHANGES

During the 2007 season head coach Stacy Strauss has moved some players around the pitch. The biggest change was switching senior co-captain Larissa Najjar from center-back on defense to forward. The Columbus, Ohio, native has not scored a goal yet, but the move coincided with the Bobcats sweeping Kent State and Buffalo in their opening weekend of MAC play.
