ATHENS, Ohio – This weekend the Ohio softball team will play its first home games of the season and will begin conference play against Ball State and Miami.

The weekend starts with a doubleheader against Ball State on Friday, 1/3 p.m. and single games against Miami on Saturday, 2 p.m. and Sunday, 1 p.m.

So far the Bobcats have played all of their games away from home and have an 11-16 overall record, which includes five tournament appearances. The Bobcats previously scheduled home opener, March 7 against Dayton, was canceled due to weather conditions.

Last time out, the Bobcats split a doubleheader at Cleveland State. Ohio won game two, 1-0, but dropped game two to the Vikings, 5-4.

Freshman Shalene Petrich (Chehalis, Wash.) has started every game and leads the team with a .363 batting average. She shares a team-high 29 hits with senior Debbie Szalejko (Beavercreek, Ohio). Petrich also leads the team with 17 stolen bases, she's attempted to steal 20 times. Petrich is on a five-game hitting streak that began with three hits against Stanford at the Stanford Invitational last weekend. Since, she's had two hits against UC Davis and Long Beach State, one hit in game one of the doubleheader at Cleveland State and two hits in game two against the Vikings.

Senior Kelly Rodriguez (Miami, Fla.) bats .355 on the season with 27 hits and a team-high 16 RBI. Szalejko has a .354 batting average while non-starters Meagan McCutcheon (Mogadore, Ohio) and Maureen McKelvey (Stow, Ohio) bat .316 and .314, respectively. McKelvey is on a three-game hitting streak dating back to March 25 when she had two hits against Long Beach State. She had one hit in both games at Cleveland State.

Freshman Candace Saucedo (Ontario, Calif.) leads the 'Cats in the circle with a 2.12 ERA. Her 3-2 record includes 11 appearances and one complete game. She's also struck out 26 batters. Junior Michelle Sauter (Chehalis, Wash.) has a 2.77 ERA and a 6-7 record. Sauter has struck out the most batters than any Bobcat pitcher with 50 strikeouts. She's also pitched a team-high 65.2 innings.

SCOUTING BALL STATE

Ball State defeated the Indiana Hoosiers 8-0 in six innings at the BSU Softball Complex. Abby Gross leads Ball State with a .392 batting average and 19 RBI. Allie Pennock is batting .253 on the year and has a team-high 18 steals. Elizabeth Milian and Amanda Pick will share a majority of the innings this week. Pick is 2-8 with eight complete games and 48 strikeouts. Milian has a team-high 49 strikeouts and an ERA of 2.44.

SCOUTING MIAMI

Miami heads into its conference opening weekend after posting a 1-4-1 mark over the past week, which includes Tuesday's 2-1 walkoff win over Eastern Kentucky. The RedHawks also posted an 0-4-1 mark at the inaugural Miami Softball Invitational (March 23-25). Miami senior Leslie Macedo continues to add to her career RBI record, as she now has 90 career RBIs and needs only 10 more to hit triple digits for her career. Freshman Meredith Linch picked up her first win since the Panera Bread Classic Tuesday against Eastern Kentucky when she tossed five innings of scoreless relief. Linch allowed only two hits in five innings, and, more importantly, issued only two free passes in one of her best outings of the season.

HITS ON THE STREAKS

Four Bobcats are on hitting streaks with Shalene Petrich and Kelly Rodriguez sharing five-game streaks. Maureen McKelvey is on a three-game hitting streak and Amanda Sacks is on a two-game hitting streak.

BREAKOUT PERFORMANCE

Freshman Shalene Petrich has moved her up the Bobcat offense and leads the team with a .363 batting average going conference play. Petrich also leads the team with 17 stolen bases, which is top ten on Ohio's all-time single season list. She's scored more runs than any player with 14. Petrich was named MAC East Player of the Week on Feb. 13.

DEUCES

Nine players have double-digit hits on the season, led by Debbie Szalejko and Shalene Petrich with 29 each. Szalejko and Petrich have started all 27 games of the season. Kelly Rodriguez follows the pair with 27 hits.

PRINCESS OF THIEVES

Freshman Shalene Petrich has totaled a team-high 17 stolen bases this year in 20 attempts.

BOBCATS SIGN FIVE

Head Coach Jill Matyuch has announced that Emily Wethington, Melissa Bonner, Krista Harbough, Paige Kemezis and Kelly Krueger have signed national letters of intent to play softball at Ohio next season.

Wethington, a senior at Scecina Memorial High School in New Palestine, Ind., led the Crusaders (25-1) to a No. 1 ranking in the Indiana Class 2A Section and a city tournament championship. Wethington was selected to the all-state team and was named the Indiana Gatorade Player of the Year in 2006. She finished second at the ASA 18U National Championship last summer with the Indy Edge. Her current travel team is the Southern Force based out of Illinois.

Bonner, a second team all-state selection, attends Kings High School in Kings Mills, Ohio. Bonner led her team to two district finals and is a three-time Fort Ancient Valley Conference All-League selection. The 2005 pitcher of the year plays travel ball for the Cincinnati Elite.

Harbough is a third baseman at Northwest High School in Fulton, Ohio. Harbough was named team MVP last season and was selected second team all-state. Harbough has been dubbed offensive player of the year three times and was named rookie of the year as freshman. She plays travel ball for the Ohio Wolfpack.

Kemezis is a catcher at Immaculate Heart Academy in Hackensack, N.J. Last year Kemezis led the team in hits, home runs, doubles, total bases and fielding percentage. Kemezis has been named first team all-league and all-county. Last summer, she competed with the New Jersey Pride.

Krueger is from Perrysburg, Ohio. She attends St. Ursula Academy in Toledo, Ohio where she was a member of the 2004 Division 1 State Championship team.

SEASON TOURNAMENTS

Carolina Classic

The Ohio softball team opened the 2007 season at the Carolina Classic in Chapel Hill, N.C. The Bobcats faced East Carolina, NC State, Coastal Carolina and North Carolina. Freshman Shalene Petrich earned MAC Co-Player of the Week honors from her performance in the four games of the weekend. The Bobcats also earned their first win of the season against Coastal Carolina, 8-7.

Spartan Classic

Ohio's second tournament of the season was the Spartan Classic at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. Bobcat opponents included Kent State, Morehead State, Campbell and UNCG.

Elon Invitational

The Bobcats third straight tournament appearance was in the Elon Invitational hosted by Elon University in North Carolina. The Bobcats posted four wins in the weekend; Georgetown (2-1), Elon (9-2), Rider (3-1 & 8-0). The 'Cats only loss came against Campbell, 6-1.

Stanford Invitational

The Bobcats ended their tournament schedule with a 1-6 finish at the Stanford Invitational during spring break. Ohio's only win was over Portland State, 2-1.
