Why Ohio University Camps?

With so many camps to choose from these days we feel we are able to separate ourselves from the pack by offering the most personalized camps around. We keep our coach-to-player ratio low so each camper feels they matter and are able to get individual attention from the staff.

Our Coaching Philosophy

We feel that being a part of a team allows players to learn invaluable life skills. Our camps are focused on developing young people as well as better volleyball players. Our staff is passionate about coaching and teaching young athletes. You will see this reflected in every aspect of Ohio University's camp.
