“Athletics has a unique ability to inspire and motivate change, which has had a profound impact on my life and development. Beyond the field of competition, the individuals who I have encountered through athletics have served as key personal mentors and leaders. Now that I have the opportunity, I want to become a catalyst for change in the lives of others, and I believe intercollegiate athletics provides the perfect forum to do so.”

“The ADC program is truly a unique experience, and it is one that I am enormously grateful to be a part of. This field is a true passion of mine, and the opportunity to experience different facets of intercollegiate athletics at such a highly prestigious university will undoubtedly provide me with the necessary tools and challenges to be successful in any future endeavor. “
