#16/15/16 Kansas To Travel To #4/6/4 Oklahoma

QUICKLY -- #16 Associated Press/15 Coaches/16 Harris Polls Kansas (5-1 overall, 2-0 Big 12) will travel to Norman, Okla. to face the #4/6/4 Oklahoma (5-1 overall, 1-1 Big 12) in a game that will be televised on ABC at 2:30 p.m... Kansas has won 17 of its last 19 and 20 of its last 23 games... KU has won nine of its last 10 Big 12 games... KU has won five straight and six of its last seven Big 12 road games... KU is 16-3 in its last 19 games as a ranked team... KU is 3-3 in its last six games vs. ranked teams... Kansas is 8-18 all-time in games played on ABC, including a 2-1 mark last season (defeated Oklahoma State and Iowa State and lost to Missouri)... Saturday's game at Oklahoma is the only road game in a four-game stretch for Kansas, which was at home against Colorado last Saturday and will host Texas Tech and Kansas State in the two weeks after this game.

KU VS. RANKED TEAMS IN THE MANGINO ERA -- Kansas is 4-9 against Associated Press ranked teams in the Mark Mangino era with victories against #23 Missouri (35-14) in 2003, #25 Iowa State (24-21 ot) in 2005, and #24 Kansas State (30-24) and #5 Virginia Tech (24-21) in 2007. KU is 0-1 vs. ranked teams this season, falling at then #19 South Florida 37-34 on a field goal on the final play of the game. Prior to Mangino's arrival, Kansas won four games against ranked teams in 32 such contests.

RANKED KANSAS VS. RANKED OPPONENTS -- Saturday's game will mark just the fourth time since the 1995 season that a ranked Kansas team played a ranked opponent. All three recent games were decided by one score. Kansas is 9-17 all-time in games where both teams were ranked. Here is a look at those contests since 1995 when #11 Kansas defeated #25 UCLA 51-30 in the Aloha Bowl.

2007 - #2 Kansas vs. #3 Missouri, L 28-36
2008 Orange Bowl - #8 Kansas vs. #5 Virginia Tech, W 24-21
2008 - #13 Kansas at #19 South Florida, L 34-37

LAST TIME OUT -- Kansas junior Jake Sharp rushed for 118 yards on a career-high 31 carries and scored a personal-best three touchdowns to lead #16 Kansas to a 30-14 victory against Colorado at Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium Saturday. Sharp's 118 rushing yards were a season high for a KU running back and the second highest of his career behind his 127 yards against Toledo last season. His 31 attempts were the most by a Jayhawk since Jon Cornish also had 31 attempts against Nebraska in 2006 and his three touchdowns tied for sixth-best in school history. Sharp has now rushed for 197 yards in his last two games. Not to be overshadowed by Sharp's performance was the effort of KU's defense, which held Colorado to 233 yards of total offense, nearly 100 yards shy of its 325 per game average. The defense also came up with two interceptions on the day. KU quarterback Todd Reesing completed 27 passes on 34 attempts with one touchdown and no interceptions for 256 yards. The junior moved into second on the KU total offense career list, currently with 6,084 yards. Junior wide receiver Kerry Meier caught nine Reesing passes for 94 yards to mark the fourth game this season he had nine or more receptions in a game. Kansas scored 14 fourth-quarter points on two Sharp touchdowns to extend a 16-14 lead en route to the victory.

UP NEXT -- It is homecoming in Lawrence when Kansas hosts Texas Tech on Oct. 25. Texas Tech is ranked seventh by the Associated Press and plays at Texas A&M this Saturday before coming to Lawrence.

DID YOU KNOW? -- Kansas has started Big 12 play 2-0 for just the third time in the 13 years of the league (second year in a row) and will be looking for a 3-0 Big 12 mark for just the second time and second year in a row (Kansas was 7-0 in Big 12 play last season before losing its final league game).

DID YOU KNOW? -- While Kansas owns the nation's fourth-longest active home field winning streak at 13 games, the Jayhawks will be looking to end the country's longest current home winning streak at Norman, as Oklahoma has won 20 straight at home. Boise State and BYU have each won 16 consecutive home games.

THE KU-OU SERIES -- Oklahoma leads the all-time series by a 66-27-6 count, including a 35-13-3 advantage in games played at Norman. Oklahoma has won four straight in the series after the Jayhawks claimed three straight from 1995-97. Two of KU's wins in that stretch were in Norman as the Jayhawks posted a 38-17 win in 1995 and followed that with a 52-24 victory in 1996. In 1997 the teams met in Lawrence with the Jayhawks posting a 20-17 victory. KU and OU have split the last four in Norman with the Sooners winning the last two (2000 and 2004).

KU-OU LAST TIME -- Oklahoma turned two quick Kansas turnovers into 10 points just five minutes into the game en route to a 19-3 victory in a game played at Arrowhead Stadium in Kansas on Oct. 15, 2005. KU turned the ball over on each of its first two possessions, but on its fourth possession managed a field goal to cut the margin to 10-3 at the end of the first quarter. Neither team scored in the second or third quarters before OU managed a touchdown and a field goal in the final 10 minutes of the game to secure the victory. OU recorded 306 yards, while Kansas had just 97 yards while turning the ball over four times. The only current Jayhawk who recorded stats in the game was WR Marcus Herford (one reception for three yards). Others who played included Gary Green, James Holt, Mike Rivera, Russell Brorsen and Dexton Fields.

KU-OU LAST TIME IN NORMAN -- Oklahoma ran up 507 yards while holding Kansas to 256 in a 41-10 victory on Oct. 23, 2004. The teams were scoreless in the first quarter and Kansas trailed just 14-10 at halftime before the Sooners outscored KU 27-0 in the second half. The Jayhawks had three turnovers and 12 penalties for 109 yards, while OU did not turn the ball over while gaining 23 first downs to KU's 11.

MANGINO RETURNING TO NORMAN -- Kansas head coach Mark Mangino was an assistant coach at Oklahoma under Bob Stoops from 1999-2001 before taking over at Kansas ahead of the 2002 season. Mangino was the assistant head coach/run game coordinator/offensive line coach in 1999 before assuming the offensive coordinator title in 2000 and 2001. In the two years with Mangino as coordinator, OU was 24-2, winning the 2000 national championship.

MANGINO-STOOPS CONNECTIONS - In addition to KU head coach Mark Mangino working as an assistant to OU head coach Bob Stoops at Oklahoma from 1999-2001, the two were both assistant coaches at Kansas State together from 1991-95. Stoops was born in Youngstown, Ohio, while Mangino graduated from Youngstown State and coached there as well.

OKLAHOMA JAYHAWKS -- Kansas has 12 players on its roster from the state of Oklahoma, the state that has produced the third-most Jayhawks on the current KU roster (Texas is number one with 28 and Kansas second with 27). KU players from Oklahoma include (starters marked with an *): *LS Kayl Anderson (Tulsa), *PK Jacob Branstetter (Lawton), *DE Russell Brorsen (Stillwater), CB Anthony Davis (Tulsa), TE Bradley Dedeaux (Midwest City), WR Jack Dowdell (Tulsa), *CB Chris Harris (Bixby), *LB James Holt (Altus), *DE Jake Laptad (Tulsa), LB Dakota Lewis (Sulphur), RB Rell Lewis (Muskogee), and OL John Williams (Tulsa).

KU-OU NOTABLE -- Several KU football staff members have Oklahoma ties as TE coach and recruiting coordinator Brandon Blaney was a GA at OU in 1999 and 2000... KU strength and conditioning coach Chris Dawson played at Oklahoma from 1992-94 and was an OU graduate assistant in 1995 and an assistant on the strength and conditioning staff at OU from 1996-2000... Oklahoma has two players on its roster from the state of Kansas in DB Sherdeill Breathett (Wichita) and TE Brody Eldridge (La Cygne)... OU defensive coordinator Brent Venables was born in Salina and graduated from Kansas State, where he also coached.

THE POLLS -- Kansas is listed in the Associated Press poll for the 18th consecutive week, a school record (previous mark was 14 straight polls between 1995 and 1996). The Jayhawks' current streak ranks as the ninth longest active streak in the nation. Here is a look:

1. Texas, 132, 2. USC, 107, 3. LSU, 89, 4. Ohio State, 59, 5. Florida, 56, 6. Oklahoma, 41, 7. Georgia, 25, 8. Missouri, 21, 9. Kansas, 18

AWAY -- In its last 11 road games, Kansas is 6-5 with four of the five losses by one score. In its last road outing at Iowa State on Oct. 4, the Jayhawks rallied from a 20-0 halftime deficit to win 35-33, matching the third biggest comeback in school history.

AND HOME -- Kansas has won 13 consecutive home games as well as 22 of its last 24 played at Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium. The two losses in the last four seasons were to Texas A&M and Oklahoma State in consecutive weeks in 2006. In addition, the Jayhawks have won 17 straight against non-conference opponents in Lawrence.

DID YOU KNOW? -- KU's current 331.8 passing yards per game is on pace to beat the school record average of 291.0 set last season. Also, KU's current 455.8 yards of total offense per game is the second-best average in school history behind last year's 479.8 per contest. KU has averaged more than 400 yards per game just four times in school history.

DEFENSIVE NOTES -- KU has limited the opponent to less than 100 yards rushing in three straight games as well as four times this season... The opponent averaged 111.3 rushing yards in the first three games and 76.0 in the last three games... KU has limited the opponent to less than 200 passing yards in three of six games this year... KU has held the opponent to less than 267 total offensive yards in three games this year, including holding Colorado to 233 on Saturday, almost 100 yards fewer than its 325 yard average coming into the game... Colorado's 233 yards of total offense was the fewest allowed by KU to a Big 12 opponent since Baylor had just 202 in the second league game of last year... KU has forced seven turnovers in the last three games combined compared to four in the first three games... KU has held the opponent to 14 points or less in four of six games this year... The KU defense has been tough after a KU turnover allowing the opponents just three field goals after eight turnovers... Colorado's two scoring drives Saturday were only 28 and 41 yards... The KU defense has let the opponent score on just one of its 20 drives (a field goal by South Florida) which have started inside the opponent 20-yard line.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES -- After ranking seventh in the NCAA in kickoff return average (25.21) a year ago, the Jayhawks are 119th this season at 12.38 per return... KU is listed 15th in punt return average (15.27) after ranking 103rd (5.97) a year ago... KU has made eight of 10 field goals on the year

QUARTERBACK NOTES -- Todd Reesing - Owns a 17-2 record as a starter... In 22 career games he has thrown 51 touchdowns to just 13 interceptions and in 19 games as a starter he has tossed 48 TDs to 10 pickoffs... Has thrown for 300 yards four times this year and nine times in his career. Kerry Meier - The backup quarterback has not played a single down at the position this year, instead excelling as a wide receiver... Last year he completed 25 of 29 passes for 275 yards and three touchdowns... Started eight games at quarterback in 2006 and threw for 1,193 yards and a KU freshman record 13 touchdowns.

RUNNING BACK NOTES -- Jake Sharp - In the last two games he has produced a combined 317 yards from scrimmage with 197 rushing yards and 120 receiving yards, as well as five touchdowns (four rushing and one receiving)... Two weeks ago at Iowa State he recorded the first 100-yard receiving game in history by a KU running back with three for 107, while also rushing for 79 yards... Last week vs. Colorado he recorded the first 100-yard rushing game by a Jayhawk this season (118) and fourth of his career. Angus Quigley -- Earned his first college start against Sam Houston and responded by rushing for 61 yards on 16 carries... Started, but had just 13 yards on four attempts against Iowa State. Did not play in the backfield last week... Has 227 yards on the season after recording 98 yards in 2007. Jocques Crawford - Has averaged seven carries for 23 yards as a backup... Was the 2007 Junior College Offensive Player of the Year last season at Cisco JC.

WIDE RECEIVER NOTES -- Kerry Meier - Ranks third in the NCAA with 8.83 receptions per game and ninth in the country in receiving yards per game at 101.33 per contest... Had his three 100-receiving-yardage game streak stopped with a 94-yard game against Colorado on Saturday... Has recorded at least seven receptions in all six games this year and has at least two catches in 14 consecutive games... Has made nine catches in four of six games this year... His 53 receptions this year are one more than the next two Jayhawks combined (52). Dezmon Briscoe - Has recorded at least five catches in four of six games... Leads the team with six touchdown catches... Has two 100-yard receiving games this season... Has caught at least two passes in 12 straight games. Johnathan Wilson -- Had 19 receptions in the first three games combined, but just two in the last three contests... Had 10 catches (one shy of school record) for 179 yards (seventh-best in school history) and two touchdowns at South Florida earlier this year... Was voted by his teammates as the player who would be the biggest surprise this season. Dexton Fields - Returned to action the last two games after missing three games with an injury... Responded with a start and caught two passes for 56 yards, including a 50-yarder at Iowa State and had five grabs for 49 yards against Colorado... Has caught at least one pass in 27 consecutive games he has played in and at least two passes in 25 of his last 27 games... Was team's receptions leader in 2006 and 2007. Daymond Patterson - True freshman had eight catches for 130 yards and two touchdowns against Louisiana Tech in second game... Has had just three receptions for two yards in the four games since then... Handles punt return duties and had four for 135 yards and a 75-yard touchdown in season opener against FIU.

TIGHT END NOTES -- Tim Biere - True freshman has three catches in last two games, including career-best two for 26, including a 23-yarder, against Colorado on Saturday. Bradley Dedeaux - Entered the year with one career catch and caught two in season opener against FIU.

- S Phillip Strozier recorded two interceptions.

vs. Louisiana Tech

- KU recorded second shutout in the Mark Mangino era in 29-0 victory.
- QB Todd Reesing's 412 passing yards were the third most in KU history.
- S Darrell Stuckey posted a career-high 10 tackles.

at South Florida

- WR Kerry Meier tied school record with 11 receptions in the game.
- KU's defense allowed the first score of the season (FIU had scored on a punt return, while KU shut out Louisiana Tech).
- KU lost on the final play of the game when USF kicked a field goal. It marked the ninth game in the Mark Mangino era when a KU game was decided in the final two minutes (KU is 1-8 in those games).

vs. Sam Houston State

- QB Todd Reesing threw for 350-plus yards for the third straight game with 356 yards against the Bearkats.
- KU turned three interceptions into 21 points.
- KU held SHSU to 45 rushing yards.

at Iowa State

- KU matched third biggest comeback in school history as after trailing 20-0 won 35-33.
- RB Jake Sharp became first KU running back in history to record 100 yards receiving in a game.
- WR Kerry Meier matched a school record with his third straight 100-plus yard receiving game.

vs. Colorado

- RB Jake Sharp recorded KU's first individual 100-yard rushing game of the season with 118 yards.
- Kansas scored touchdowns on three straight offensive possessions in the second half.
- The Jayhawk defense held Colorado to just 233 yards of total offense.

KU NOTABLE -- Kansas has committed just 10 penalties in the last three games combined after recording 17 in the first three contests. KU is tied for 17th in the NCAA in fewest penalties per game... A week after committing a season-high four turnovers against Iowa State, Kansas did not have a miscue against Colorado... A total of 33 different players started games for Kansas through five games this season as compared to 29 different players all of last season... Twelve different Jayhawks have made their first career starts this season.

JAYHAWK FANS FLOCKING TO KIVISTO -- After three straight years of record-setting season attendance averages, the Jayhawks appear to be on the way to a fourth straight record. KU sold out two of its first three games with a school record 52,112 against FIU and 51,767 vs. Sam Houston State. KU also drew 48,621 on a rainy day against Louisiana Tech and 49,566 vs. Colorado on Saturday. There are fewer than 1,000 tickets remaining for the homecoming game against Texas Tech, while the Kansas State and Texas games are already sold out. Here is a look at some attendance highlights:

- Kansas is on pace for its fourth straight year of breaking the season attendance average mark. Through four games KU has averaged 50,516 fans per game. Last year's record-breaking attendance average was 46,784.
- KU's attendance of 52,112 vs. FIU in the 2008 season opener was a school record beating the 51,910 set against Nebraska last year.
- The 51,767 in attendance vs. Sam Houston State ranks as the fourth-best single-game attendance mark in KU history.

2008 PRESEASON AWARD NOMINEES -- Here is a look at Kansas players who were named to preseason watch lists for national trophy honors:

- QB Todd Reesing - Davey O'Brien Watch List (Quarterback), Maxwell Award Watch List (Outstanding Player), Walter Camp Player of the Year
- DE Russell Brorsen - Lott Watch List (Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year)
- OC Ryan Cantrell - Rimington Watch List (Outstanding Center)
- DE John Larson - Lott Watch List (Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year)
- LB Joe Mortensen - Bronko Nagurski Watch List (Defensive Player), Lombardi Watch List (Defensive Player within five yards of ball), Butkus Award Watch List (Outstanding Linebacker)
- LB Mike Rivera - Chuck Bednarik Watch List (Defensive Player), AFCA Good Works Team Nominee

KU FOOTBALL PROGRAM NOTABLE -- Here are a few notes about the Kansas football program in the Mark Mangino era:

- KU was the only school to rank in the top five nationally in both scoring offense (second) and scoring defense (fourth) in 2007.
- When KU entered the national polls in 2007, it marked the first time since 1996 the Jayhawks were listed.
- KU has set season attendance records in each of the previous three seasons.
- KU has been to three bowl games in the last five years after seven straight years without a bowl game.
- KU has produced at least six wins in three straight years for the first time since 1960-61-62.
- KU has landed 63 players on postseason All-Big 12 teams in the Mark Mangino era.
- KU has had 41 players earn Academic All-Big 12 First Team honors in the Mangino era.
- KU has produced five of the top 10 passing yardage season averages in school history, three of the top 10 total offensive yardage seasons and three of the top six scoring averages in the Mark Mangino era.
- In 2007, KU produced a 3,000-yard passer (Todd Reesing), 1,000-yard rusher (Brandon McAnderson) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Marcus Henry) in the same season for the first time in school history.
- KU improved its rushing yardage average in three straight seasons, going from 94.0 in 2004 to 188.8 in 2007.
- KU has kept the opponent under 120 yards rushing per game in each of the past four seasons, including just 83.2 in 2005 and 94.8 in 2007.
- KU has held its opponent to less than 200 yards rushing in 30 consecutive games.

JAYHAWKS IN THE NFL -- There are eight former Jayhawks on regular NFL rosters, including four who were part of the 2007 Kansas Orange Bowl Championship team. Last year's players, who were all drafted and made NFL squads include OT Anthony Collins (Cincinnati), TE Derek Fine (Buffalo), CB Aqib Talib (Tampa Bay) and WR Marcus Henry (New York Jets). Henry was waived in late September. Other former Jayhawks in the NFL include Rodney Allen (Green Bay), Charles Gordon (Minnesota), Justin Hartwig (Pittsburgh) and Adrian Jones (Kansas City).

DID YOU KNOW? -- As mentioned Kansas has won nine of its last 10 Big 12 games. Between 1996- and 2006 Kansas was 23-65 in league play. Last year's 7-1 league record was the first time KU won more than three conference games in a single year.

GAME #1 Aug. 30 at Lawrence, Kan.KANSAS 40, FIU 10

Junior QB Todd Reesing connected with Dezmon Briscoe for three touchdown passes, while true freshman Daymond Patterson had 75-yard punt return for a touchdown in his first collegiate game to lead 14th-ranked Kansas to a convincing 40-10 victory against the FIU Golden Panthers in front of a record crowd of 52,112 at Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium. Reesing completed a school-record 37 passes on 52 attempts, amassing 256 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Briscoe finished the night with a career-best nine catches for 55 yards. His three touchdown grabs also tied a career high he set against Nebraska in 2007. Kerry Meier pulled in a career-best nine balls for 62 yards as 10 different Jayhawks had receptions. It took almost two-thirds of the first quarter for the Jayhawks to get going, but once they did they didn't look back. KU scored on five of six offensive possessions with a punt return for a score in that stretch as well. The KU defense limited FIU to just 139 yards of total offense, including just 73 passing yards. The Jayhawks forced three turnovers and turned those into 10 points.

GAME #2 Sept. 6 at Lawrence, Kan.KANSAS 29, LOUISIANA TECH 0

Not even soggy conditions could stop 14th-ranked Kansas quarterback Todd Reesing, as the junior connected on 32-of-38 passes for a career-high 412 yards and three touchdowns in KU's 29-0 shutout victory against Louisiana Tech. The victory was KU's 11th straight home victory and 16th consecutive win at Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium against non-conference opponents. Defensively, KU posted its second shutout in the Mark Mangino era. Last season the Jayhawks posted a 62-0 win against Southeastern Louisiana on Sept. 8. A crowd of 48,621, the second largest non-conference home crowd at KU, saw Reesing's 412 passing yards for the game rank third on the KU single-game list. Reesing now holds four of the top 13 single-game passing yards in KU history. His 84.2 completion percentage against the Bulldogs ranks fifth on the KU single-game list. Freshman Daymond Patterson and sophomore Dezmon Briscoe combined for 15 catches and 276 yards receiving from Reesing. Patterson ended the game with eight catches for 130 yards and two touchdowns, while Briscoe had seven receptions for a career-high 146 yards and one score. Patterson and Briscoe became the first two Jayhawks to record 100 receiving yards in the same game since the 2006 season against Nebraska - Brian Murph (8-129) and Dexton Fields (8-108). Not to be outshined, junior Kerry Meier led all receivers with nine receptions for 71 yards on the night.

GAME #3 Sept. 12 at Tampa, Fla.

SOUTH FLORIDA 37, KANSAS 34

In a back and forth battle #13 Kansas fell to the 19th-ranked USF Bulls 37-34, on a 43-yard field goal by Bulls kicker Maikon Bonani as time expired. After jumping out to a 20-3 first-half lead, the Jayhawks gave up 31 unanswered points to fall behind 34-20 with 13:59 to go in the game. Quarterback Todd Reesing proceeded to lead a KU rally, engineering back-to-back touchdown drives that he capped off with touchdown passes to wide receiver Johnathan Wilson and running back Angus Quigley, respectively to tie the score at 34 with 5:32 left in the game. The Jayhawks had a chance to win the game with under a minute to go, having advanced the ball to their own 40-yard line with 0:41 to go in the game. However, Reesing's pass on first and 10 was picked off by USF defensive back Nate Allen and returned all the way to the KU 27-yard line. The Bulls ran the clock all the way down to 0:02, and Bonani's field goal attempt hooked inside the right upright to give USF the victory. Reesing had a remarkable game in a losing effort, completing 34 of 51 passes for 381 yards, three touchdowns and an interception. The junior from Austin, Texas, also had a rushing touchdown, a four-yard scamper in the second quarter that gave KU a 20-3 lead. Wilson caught 10 passes for 179 yards and two touchdowns, all three career highs. Kerry Meier tied a school record with 11 receptions, which resulte in 120 yards. Defensively James Holt had 13 tackles, including three for loss and two forced fumbles.

GAME #4 Sept. 20 at Lawrence, Kan.

KANSAS 38, SAM HOUSTON STATE 14

Kansas junior quarterback Todd Reesing threw for 356 yards and two touchdowns to lead the No. 19 Jayhawk football team to a 38-14 victory against Sam Houston State. In a battle of quarterbacks, Reesing went 23-for-38 for 356 yards and two touchdowns to outshine SHSU's Rhett Bomar, who went for 26-for-46 for 340 yards, a touchdown and three interceptions. The three KU interceptions led to 21 of Kansas' 38 points. For Reesing, it marked his third-straight game of 136-plus passing yards this season. Additionally, the junior from Austin, Texas, broke the school record for most 200-yard passing games with 14 for his career, including all four games in 2008. For the second straight week, one of Reesing's favorite targets was junior Kerry Meier, who had eight catches for a career-high 136 yards, surpassing his career best of 120 receiving yards set at South Florida on September 12. Jayhawk sophomore wide receiver Dezmon Briscoe had his second 100-yard receiving game of the year with 124 yards on five catches. Both Meier and Briscoe were recipients of Reesing touchdown throws in the game. Kansas' defense allowed a season-low 45 rushing yards on 16 attempts for the Bearkats as the Jayhawks outgained SHSU 528 to 385 in total offense.

GAME #5 Oct. 4 at Ames, Iowa

KANSAS 35, IOWA STATE 33

Behind 186 all-purpose yards from Jake Sharp and an impressive second-half passing performance from Todd Reesing, Kansas turned a 20-point halftime deficit into a 35-33 win against Iowa State in its Big 12 opener at Jack Trice Stadium. The come from behind victory tied the third biggest comeback in school history behind only a 26-point deficit at Iowa State in 1992 and a 21-point deficit vs. Colorado in 1950. A sea of 47,847 Cyclone fans were riding high as Iowa State jumped out to a fast 14-0 lead in the first quarter. By halftime KU was down 20-0 and had mustered just 93 yards and only five first downs. KU went three and out on each of its first three possessions. Everything changed in the second half when Kansas scored touchdowns on five of its six drives, before sitting on the ball to end the game. Reesing was 10-of-12 for 260 yards and three TDs in the second half to finish the game 18-of-26 for 319 yards. Meier hauled in seven catches for 125 yards and two scores. He now has 26 catches for 381 yards and three TDs over the last three games and tied the school record with his third-straight game with more than 100 yards receiving. Linebackers James Holt and Joe Mortensen each had eight tackles to lead the KU defense, while four different players broke up passes including Jake Laptad, who batted down a crucial pass at the line in the final minute. Laptad and Mortensen each posted one sack.

GAME #6 Oct. 11 at Lawrence, Kan.

KANSAS 30, COLORADO 14

Kansas junior Jake Sharp rushed for 118 yards on a career-high 31 carries and scored a personal-best three touchdowns to lead #16 Kansas to a 30-14 victory against Colorado at Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium Saturday. Sharp's 118 rushing yards were a season high for a KU running back and the second highest of his career behind his 127 yards against Toledo last season. His 31 attempts were the most by a Jayhawk since Jon Cornish also had 31 attempts against Nebraska in 2006 and his three touchdowns tied for sixth-best in school history. Sharp has now rushed for 197 yards in his last two games. Not to be overshadowed by Sharp's performance was the effort of KU's defense, which held Colorado to 233 yards of total offense, nearly 100 yards shy of its 325 per game average. The defense also came up with two interceptions on the day. KU quarterback Todd Reesing completed 27 passes on 34 attempts with one touchdown and no interceptions for 256 yards. The junior moved into second on the KU total offense career list, currently with 6,084 yards. Junior wide receiver Kerry Meier caught nine Reesing passes for 94 yards to mark the fourth game this season he had nine or more receptions in a game. Kansas scored 14 fourth-quarter points on two Sharp touchdowns to extend a 16-14 lead en route to the victory.
