NEWS AND NOTES

THE THANKSGIVING GAME

The Oklahoma State Cowboys will close their 2008 regular season Saturday when they host the Oklahoma Sooners in the 103rd renewal of "The Bedlam Series". The Cowboys enter the contest 9-2 overall, including a 5-2 record in Big 12 play. Oklahoma is 10-1 overall and 6-1 in conference action.

ABC-TV

The Bedlam game will mark Oklahoma State's fifth straight appearance on ABC. In town calling the action will be Brent Musberger, Kirk Herbstreit and Lisa Salters. After just one previous appearance in ABC's prime-time window, OSU will be part of ABC's featured time slot for a third straight game.

THURMAN'S BACK

Oklahoma State's all-time leading rusher, Thurman Thomas, will be honored at Saturday's game for his selection into the College Football Hall of Fame. Thomas, a two-time All-American, will be officially inducted into the hall in December at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. He is also a recent inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (August of 2007). Thomas was a two-time All-American at Oklahoma State and the two-time Big Eight Conference offensive player of the year. He rushed for 4,595 yards in four years in Stillwater.

GAMEDAY, TOO

ESPN's College GameDay is in Stillwater this week. The show has not been on campus since 2004. That year, ESPN was also launched in Stillwater, and ESPN's Basketball GameDay came to OSU as well.

THE COWBOYS QUICKLY

Oklahoma State enters the Oklahoma game with nine wins. That total ties an OSU record for most wins in the regular season. All three of Oklahoma State's 10-win seasons (1984, 1987 and 1988) have included a bowl victory to reach the final total. The 2008 season is the eighth nine-victory season in Oklahoma State history, the sixth since 1976 and the first since 2003.

CONFERENCE, TOO

The Cowboys also have five Big 12 wins. OSU has never won more than five conference games in a season. The Cowboys have won five league games nine times, including five 5-2 records in Big Eight play and three 5-3 records against the Big 12 (1997, 2002, 2003).

AND ON THE ROAD

OSU has completed the road portion of its season with a 3-2 record, including a 2-2 mark in conference road games. It is the most road wins by OSU since the 2003 and 2004 teams were also 3-2. Under Mike Gundy, OSU lost eight of its first 10 road contests, but has gone 5-6 away from home since then with the last three road losses (dating back to November, 2007) coming against members of the Associated Press top 10.

GOOD NUMBERS

This year's Bedlam matchup marks the first time that both schools have entered the game with at least nine wins. However, it is worth noting that the OSU-OU matchup has not always been the season finale and ninth victories sometimes came later in the season. In fact, Saturday's game will mark the 56th time in 103 meetings that the state's two Big 12 institutions have closed the regular season against each other.

SIBLING RANKINGS

Saturday's matchup will be the ninth between Oklahoma and Oklahoma State when both squads are members of the Associated Press poll and the first between two ranked Bedlam participants since 2004. The Sooners are No. 3 and the Cowboys are No. 11 entering Saturday's game.

OSU FACES FOURTH A.P. TOP-3 F-0E

For the fourth time this season, Oklahoma State will be facing an opponent from the Associated Press top three when the Sooners come to town. OSU is 1-2 against the top three this season. Unlike the previous matchups (at No. 3 Missouri, at No. 1 Texas and at No. 2 Texas Tech), the Cowboys will be playing a ranked opponent at home for the first time this season. OSU will be trying to knock off two members of the AP top five in the same season for the first time in school history. Incidentally, it's worth noting that Oklahoma State is the only member of the Big 12 to post a conference road win against the AP top five. Every other conference school that has beaten a top-five opponent accomplished that feat at home or on a neutral field.

TOP FIVE TRIUMPHS

Oklahoma State has knocked off Oklahoma three times when the Sooners have been ranked in the top five of the Associated Press poll. In 1976, unranked Oklahoma State defeated No. 5 Oklahoma by a 31-24 count in Norman. That win helped the Cowboys gain a share of the Big Eight championship. In 2001, OSU was just 3-7 when it picked up a shocking 16-13 victory in Norman over fourth-ranked OU. The following year OSU was a 38-28 winner over third-ranked Oklahoma in Stillwater. That last victory over the Sooners was OSU's last over a team in the AP top five prior to OSU's Oct. 11 win at No. 3 Missouri earlier this year.

OSU AND THE POLLS

Oklahoma State enters the OU game ranked No. 11 in the Associated Press poll. Oklahoma State has now spent nine straight weeks in the Associated Press poll. It is OSU's longest stay in the top 25 since the 1987 and 1988 seasons when the Cowboys were ranked for 19 straight weeks. Oklahoma State's ranking is its highest in November since Nov. 23, 1985, when OSU climbed to seventh. Entering the 2008 season, Oklahoma State had not been ranked since November of 2004.

HONORS CANDIDATES LIVE HERE

OSU's nine-win season has opened the honors doors for several members of the Cowboy football program.

- Sophomore receiver Dez Bryant is a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.
- Punter Matt Fodge is a semifinalist for the Ray Guy Award.
- Running back Kendall Hunter is the Big 12's only semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award.
- Tight end Brandon Pettigrew is a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award.
- Quarterback Zac Robinson is a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.
- Head coach Mike Gundy is a semifinalist for the George Munger national coach of the year award.

HOME STREAK

Oklahoma State enters the Bedlam game with a 6-0 home record in 2008. Another victory would give OSU seven home victories for the first time ever. It would also provide the Cowboys with their first undefeated home season since 1984 (6-0), just their second since 1957, and the 11th in their history. OSU is 12-3 in its last 15 home games (since October of 2006). OSU has not dropped a home game to a team ranked outside of the Associated Press top 15 since Oct. 21, 2006 with a loss vs. No. 23 Texas A&M. The Cowboys haven't lost at home to an unranked team since Oct. 8, 2005 (Missouri).

THE HOME FIRES

The potent Oklahoma State offense has been particularly productive on the home turf. OSU has played 18 home games over the last three seasons with some impressive offensive results. In those 18 contests, the Cowboys have scored at least 40 points 12 times, reached 400 yards of total offense 16 times, and topped the 500-yard mark nine times. During that span OSU has averaged 515.7 yards of offense per game and 45.1 points per home contest.

SO LONG, SENIORS

Fifteen members of the Oklahoma State football squad will play the final home game of their careers when the Cowboys host the Sooners. The senior class includes...

- Zach Allen, LS: The ranking long snapper for OSU for each of the past four seasons
- T.J. Bell, S: Having his best year as a Cowboy as a safety and special teams player
- Brian Bowling, TE: Walk-on from Tonkawa; brother of receiver Bo Bowling
- Jeray Chatham, DT: Converted offensive lineman who has been a starter at DT for two seasons
- Seb Clements, LB: Walk-on who has become important member of the linebacker corps
- Zach Crissup, DB: Walk-on defensive back who began his career at Bacone
- Steve Denning, OL: Wrapping up his second straight year as a starter in the o-line
- Matt Fodge, P: One of the nation's top punters for the past three seasons
- Jacob Lacey, CB: Three-year starter at corner and an all-Big 12 candidate
- Quinton Moore, S: Starting safety with a steady senior season to his credit.
- Todd Nelson, WR: Walk-on receiver who has earned spot on travel roster
- Brandon Pettigrew, TE: One of America's best
- Ricky Price, S: Standout senior safety and former receiver
- Tonga Tea, DT: Junior college transfer enjoying excellent senior season
- David Washington, C: Steady starter at center who has returned from 2007 injury.

NOTING THE SENIOR CLASS

Oklahoma State's 2008 senior class is small, but successful. The fourth-year seniors will be playing in a third straight bowl game. That accomplishment has been achieved just twice before at Oklahoma State. OSU played in three straight bowl games in 1983, 1984 and 1985, and again in 2002, 2003 and 2004. Four players who redshirted in 2004, receiver Todd Nelson, linebacker Seb Clements, tight end Brandon Pettigrew and defensive back Jacob Lacey, are part of a fourth bowl team. Freshmen in 2005 were 1-7 in conference play. OSU is 12-11 against the Big 12 over their last three years. Fourth-year seniors have an overall record of 27-21. Those that have been around since 2004 are 34-26 counting their redshirt season. During their careers, OSU has gone from 1-7 in Big 12 play in 2005, to 3-5 in 2006, 4-4 in 2007 and at least 5-3 in 2008.

BOWL PECKING ORDER

There is still plenty of sorting to do, but below is a look at the Big 12 bowl tie-ins and television agreements as the Big 12 enters its last weekend of the regular season. A second BCS selection or a national championship participant could alter Big 12 selections. The bowls are in order of their selection of Big 12 teams.

COWBOYS AND SOONERS

The Oklahoma State-Oklahoma football series dates back to 1904, three years before statehood. OU holds a large advantage at 78-17-7. However, things have been much tighter recently. And in Stillwater, the games have truly lived up to the "Bedlam Series" moniker.

- Oklahoma holds an 8-5 series advantage since 1995 with six of the 13 games being decided by 10 points or less.
- The cumulative scoring total for the four games in Stillwater this decade is Oklahoma 105, Oklahoma State 101.
- The last three games in Stillwater find the Cowboys outscoring the Sooners by a 94-93 margin.
- In the last five Bedlam games in Stillwater, Oklahoma State has outscored the Sooners, 142-131.

IT'S A NEW CENTURY

The first decade of the new century has brought with it a new era in the Oklahoma State-Oklahoma football series with the state battles more competitive than they has been over a prolonged period of time since the 1920s and 1930s. The drama has especially been present in Stillwater. Take a look at the last four Cowboy home games in the series.

Nov. 25, 2000

No. 1 Oklahoma 12, Oklahoma State 7

In final game for the Cowboys under head coach Bob Simmons, the eventual national champions escaped Stillwater with the win. It was a defensive battle that saw OU outgain OSU by a 309-275 margin. OSU put together a nine-play drive on its final possession. It ended with an incomplete pass in the end zone from the OU 12 with 3:15 left in the game. Oklahoma's final five points came on a third-quarter safety and a field goal that was the result of an 11-yard drive.

NATIONAL POLLS :: AS OF NOVEMBER 23

ma State took out third-ranked Oklahoma 38-28 for a second straight upset of a Sooner team ranked in the top five of the AP poll. The Cowboys jumped to a 35-6 lead and cruised to the win. Rashaun Woods caught 12 passes for 226 yards with three touchdowns (41, 60 and 13 yards) as the Cowboys hit the Sooners with 506 yards of total offense and an average of 7.8 yards per snap.

Oct. 30, 2004

No. 2 Oklahoma 38, No. 20 Oklahoma State 35

In a wildly entertaining and back-and-forth contest, the Sooners won in the last Bedlam matchup to feature two ranked teams. OSU scored the final points of the day on a Vernand Morency touchdown with 10:34 remaining in the game. The issue wasn't decided until the Cowboys missed a 49-yard field goal with 11 seconds left in an effort to force overtime.

Nov. 25, 2006

No. 13 Oklahoma 27, Oklahoma State 21

In a Bedlam game that wasn't decided until the final play, OU prevailed 27-21. Both teams scored on their first possessions and from there the Sooners jumped to a 20-7 lead early in the third period. OSU rallied from that deficit and a 27-14 hole to close within 27-21 with 6:41 remaining on a D'Juan Woods TD reception. The Cowboy defense limited OU to one yard of total offense on the Sooners' final three possessions to give OSU a chance. The final possession of the game saw the Cowboys drive 38 yards to the OU 25. The final play of the game found Zac Robinson firing to Woods in the end zone on a fourth-and-10.

ORANGE AND CRIMSON

As with most state rivalry games, there are several connections between the coaching staffs of the Cowboys and Sooners.

- Oklahoma State head coach Mike Gundy is the older brother of OU running backs coach Cale Gundy.
- Sooner defensive line coach Jackie Shipp is a Stillwater High School grad. His father was a long-time faculty member at Oklahoma State.
- Chris Wilson, OU special teams coordinator, is a former assistant coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College. The head coach at NEO at that time was Dale Patterson, who is currently OSU's assistant director of football operations.
- OU's director of sports enhancement, Jerry Schmidt, headed up the OSU strength staff in 1988-89 and worked with current Cowboy assistant athletic director for speed and strength Rob Glass. Glass returned to OSU from Florida in 2005.
- OSU equipment coordinator Wes Edwards is a former OU staffer.
- OSU director of football operations Jimmy Gonzales was an administrator at Oklahoma under former Sooner boss Gary Gibbs.

PLAYING AT A HIGH LEVEL

Dating back to Oct. 6, 2007, every loss Oklahoma State has suffered has come against a member of the Associated Press top 15. The last Cowboy loss to a non-ranked opponent came at Texas A&M (24-23) in the middle of the 2007 season.

THE SCHEDULE FACTOR

Oklahoma State's chances of winning the Big 12 South were all but ended at Texas Tech. However, it is worth noting the role that the 2008 schedule has played in the title chase. Oklahoma State has gone on the road to face three Big 12 foes ranked in the Associated Press top five. In fact, all three of those foes were among the AP top three at the time of the OSU game. OSU's 1-2 record against those three opponents gives OSU one more road victory against the AP top five than the rest of the league put together. Consider....

- Missouri's lone road game against the AP top five resulted in a loss at Texas.
- Texas' lone road game against the AP top five resulted in a loss at Texas Tech.
- Texas Tech's lone road game against the AP top five resulted in a loss at OU.
- OSU played three top-five opponents, all on the road, in a five-week span. The results were a win over the third-ranked team, and a four-point loss at No. 1 before the loss at No. 2 Texas Tech.
- Like Oklahoma, Texas Tech and Texas, the Cowboys are undefeated in home games.

THE SPIRIT OF '88

Over each of the last three seasons, the Cowboy offense has drawn comparisons to the legendary 1988 team that featured a first-round draft pick at wide receiver (Hart Lee Dykes), a Heisman Trophy winner at running back (Barry Sanders) and the Big Eight Conference's all-time leader in passing yards and total offense at quarterback (Mike Gundy). Heading into the 12th game of the season, the 2008 offense appears to stack up best among recent Cowboy offenses when challenging the '88 team. Take a look at OSU's numbers through 11 games this season as compared to the 11-game numbers posted by the 1988 squad.

The 2008 Cowboys figure to close the season as the second highest scoring team in Oklahoma State history. The Cowboys are averaging 41.6 points per game to rank second only to the 1988 team and its 47.5 points. The 2008 team has tied the 1988 squad with five games over the 50-point mark.

TURNOVER TURNAROUND

Oklahoma State forced a total of 19 turnovers last season in 13 games. The 2008 Cowboys have already surpassed that number with 23 turnovers gained through 11 contests. The Cowboy defense has recovered 12 fumbles this season after recovering just seven in 2007. OSU has 11 interceptions this season, one shy of last year's 13-game total.

BANG FOR THE BUCK

Not only are the Cowboys turning over the opposition, OSU is making use of its extra possessions. Over the last eight weeks, Oklahoma State has scored nine touchdowns and three field goals after a turnover, including two defensive touchdowns against Texas A&M. At No. 3 Missouri, the Cowboys' final touchdown (the eventual difference in the game), was set up by Andre Sexton's 39-yard interception return. OSU's final points at Texas were set up by a Jacob Lacey interception.

SENIOR HAZING

Oklahoma State stormed into the Associated Press rankings largely behind its offense. Make that its youthful offense -- as in every single point that has been scored this season has been registered by a player that is expected back next season. The scoring breakdown by class is below.

Class.....	Points.....	Pct Of Team Total
Freshmen.....	0	0
Sophomores.....	310	67.7
Juniors.....	148	32.3

THE CLASS OF THE SOPHOMORES

There can be little argument that Oklahoma State's Dez Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter comprise the top sophomore duo in America. Bryant is fourth nationally in receiving with 111.1 yards per game and 1,222 yards for the season. Among the top 10 receivers in the country, Bryant's 17.97 yards per grab is easily the best average. Of players with at least 40 receptions, Bryant's per-catch average is again the best in the country. Hunter averages 6.83 yards per carry and is fifth nationally with 1,434 rushing yards. Among America's five rushers, Hunter's average per carry is, again, easily the best in the country.

1000/1000

The 2008 season marks the fifth time in Oklahoma State history (and the second straight year) that the Cowboys have featured a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver.

BATTING 1000 -- TWICE

Year.....Rusher.....Receiver
1988.....Barry Sanders 2,628.....Hart Lee Dykes, 1,278
2002.....Tatum Bell, 1,096.....Rashaun Woods, 1,695
2003.....Tatum Bell, 1,286.....Rashaun Woods, 1,367
2007.....Dantrell Savage, 1,272.....Adarius Bowman, 1,006
2008.....Kendall Hunter, 1,434.....Dez Bryant, 1,222

FEET AND HANDS

For only the third time in OSU history, the Cowboys will have a duo that reach 1,200 yards in rushing and receiving. The feat was first accomplished when Barry Sanders ran for 2,628 yards and Hart Lee Dykes accumulated 1,278 receiving yards in 1988. In 2003, Tatum Bell rushed for 1,286 yards and Rashaun Woods had 1,367 receiving yards. With Kendall

Hunter at 1,434 rushing yards and Dez Bryant at 1,222 receiving yards, Oklahoma State is in position to have a 1,300-1,300 combo for the first time in school history.

SOPH FEET

At a school with a running back tradition that can stack up against anyone, Kendall Hunter's sophomore season continues to turn heads as the regular season reaches its final week. Hunter is the nation's fifth leading rusher (despite being limited to just 11 carries for 102 yards at Colorado) with an average of 130.4 yards per game. His nine 100-yard rushing games are nearly twice as many as any other Big 12 runner. His rushing total of 1,434 yards to date make him the second most prolific sophomore back in OSU history, behind only Thurman Thomas. Take a look at Thomas' sophomore season compared to Hunter's 2008 campaign.

THE 100 CLUB

Kendall Hunter's nine 100-yard rushing games this season have him mixing with some impressive company in the all-time Cowboy backfield. The single-season record for 100-yard rushing games in a season is 12, set during Barry Sanders' Heisman Trophy season.

100-yd

Barry Sanders	12	1988	Won the Heisman
Terry Miller	11	1977	Heisman runner-up
Dantrell Savage	10	2007	First-team all-Big 12 RB
Thurman Thomas	10	1987	Two-time All-American

Vernand Morency	9	2004	All-Big 12 and NFL RB
Ernest Anderson	9	1982	Led NCAA in rushing
Terry Miller	9	1976	All-American

KENDALL MEETS THE LEGENDS

Kendall Hunter became just the third Cowboy sophomore rusher to reach 1,000 yards in a season with his 161-yard effort at Texas. The only other sophos to accomplish the feat were Thurman Thomas, who rushed for 1,650 yards in 1985 and Terry Miller, who ran for 1,026 yards in 1975. Thomas was a two-time All-American while Miller was a Heisman Trophy runner-up during his career.

FIFTH WITH AN ASTERISK

Kendall Hunter enters the OU game with 1,434 rushing yards. That total is fifth nationally. However, it is worth noting that Hunter's total has come on fewer carries. Among the nation's top five runners, Hunter leads with 6.8 yards per rushing attempt. Hunter's per carry average is more than one full yard better than the NCAA's leading rusher, Donald Brown of Connecticut.

MEASURING SUCCESS

Now that Kendall Hunter is firmly entrenched as part of OSU's top 20 all-time rushers (No. 12 entering the Oklahoma game) it is interesting to compare his career to date to with some of OSU's legendary running backs. For his career, Hunter averages 6.6 yards per carry on 306 totes. That number would be second best in OSU history if it is maintained for the rest of his career. OSU's all-time leading rusher, Thurman Thomas, averaged 5.1 yards per carry. The best per-carry averages from OSU's all-team leading rushers:

HUNTER TIDBITS

Kendall Hunter has recorded 14 rushing touchdowns this season with 10 of those scores coming from more than 20 yards out. To date, his 1,434 rushing yards rank No. 11 on OSU's single-season list. His 14 rushing TDs represent the sixth best single-season total in OSU history and are the most by a Cowboy since Tatum Bell ran for 16 touchdowns in 2003. Hunter is currently No. 12 all-time at OSU with 2,130 rushing yards.

SECOND BEST

Kendall Hunter averages 6.7 yards per carry in 2008. That impressive number will not, however, impress his backup, Keith Toston, who has rushed for 632 yards this season with nine scores, averages 6.9 yards per carry. Another Cowboy runner, Beau Johnson, is gaining 6.2 yards on his 58 attempts.

THE NO NAME CLUB

Oklahoma State is on the brink of leading the Big 12 Conference in rushing for a third straight season as OSU averages more than 260 rushing yards per game. For the third straight season, OSU will rank among the national leaders in total offense and for the third straight season, Oklahoma State's offensive line will be among the national leaders in fewest sacks allowed (No. 15 nationally entering the week). Despite the accomplishments, and despite five multi-year starters up front, no current Cowboy starter has been named to as much as the Big 12 second team. The group has a combined 144 career starts entering the OU game.

Left Tackle Russell Okung

The talented pro prospect has been a starter since his true freshman season and is second on the squad with 31 straight starts.

:: Guard Andrew Lewis

One of the MVPs up front, Lewis began last season at guard but took over starting duties at center when David Washington was lost to injury in the third game of the season.

:: Center David Washington

A three-year letterman with 38 career starts under his belt, Washington lost 2007 to a broken leg, but has returned to reclaim his spot in the middle of the Cowboy offensive line.

:: Guard Steve Denning

Has started 21 straight games in the offensive line and is a key in the Cowboy rushing attack.

:: Right Tackle Brady Bond

Played eight-man football in high school, Bond made the transition to Big 12 starter as a redshirt freshman. He is playing his best football as a Cowboy.

A MOMENT WITH DEZ

Oklahoma State sophomore receiver Dez Bryant was a highly recruited prepster. He had a strong freshman season and put up impressive numbers when senior wideout Adarius Bowman was temporarily lost to injury. However, even those clippings could not properly set the stage for a sophomore season that has become one of the best in Oklahoma State history and one of the tops in the country in 2008. He has already been named as a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award.

BRYANT ON THE NCAA CHARTS

- Tied for the national lead with two punt returns for scores
- Ranks third with 16 touchdown receptions
- Ranks third with 17.9 yards per punt return
- Ranks fourth with 111.1 receiving yards per game
- Ranks seventh with 9.82 points per game
- Ranks No. 23 with 146 all-purpose yards per game
- Ranks No. 30 with 6.2 catches per game

MORE BRYANT BULLETS

- Bryant has two of the top 10 receiving games in the country this season. His 236 yards against Houston ranks as the second best game in America this season and his 212-yard effort against Baylor is 10th.
- He was the Walter Camp national player of the week for his efforts against Houston (which also included a 71-yard punt return for a score).
- For the season he has earned one Big 12 offensive player of the week award and one Big 12 special teams player of the week honor.
- Bryant has played 23 career games and scored 24 career touchdowns.
- It's worth noting that Bryant did not have any offensive statistics against Missouri State when the Cowboys threw the ball just 10 times in rolling to the victory.
- Bryant has seven 100-yard receiving games in his brief career to rank third all-time at OSU.
- Bryant had a spectacular punt return for a score against Texas A&M. The 78-yarder was ESPN SportsCenter's top play of the day.
- Bryant's 80-yard touchdown reception against Iowa State was the sixth longest pass play in OSU history.
- Bryant has 18 receptions covering at least 20 yards, and 14 catches for 26 yards or more.
- His punt returns have included efforts of 78, 71, 42, 24, 21 and 20 yards.

DEZ AND THE RECORD BOOK

Dez Bryant is already weaving his name into OSU's record book, in the midst of his sophomore season. He already joins All-American Rashaun Woods as the only other Cowboy with multiple 200-yard receiving games. Bryant has two while Woods had three. His 11 receptions against Baylor represent the sixth best total in OSU history. His 1,222 receiving yards this season place him fourth on the single-season list with two games remaining, assuming a bowl appearance. His 68 receptions are fifth on OSU's single-season list. His 108 points rank him No. 3 on the single-season list. His 22 touchdown receptions are already the third best total in Oklahoma State history. The school record for TD grabs is 42 held by Rashaun Woods.

BRANDON'S BACK

After being sidelined by injury for much of the early going, first-team all-Big 12 tight end Brandon Pettigrew is returning to form. In fact, he has been named a semifinalist for the John Mackey Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top tight end. Through the first seven games of the season, Pettigrew had just 11 catches covering 131 yards. Over the last four games, Pettigrew has 24 catches for 252 yards. Pettigrew now has 1,361 career receiving yards to rank No. 12 all-time. He is eighth all-time with 105 receptions and is the first Cowboy tight end to reach triple figures in catches.

A SLIDING SCALE

It is no secret that the Oklahoma State offense has improved every season under fourth-year head coach Mike Gundy, but even by OSU's rapidly-changing standards, the 2008 Cowboy attack has been more than impressive to date when stacking up against past totals. A glance:

OSU OFFENSE UNDER GUNDY

Year	Tot.	Off.	NCAA Rank	Scoring	NCAA Rank
2005	324.8	92	20.18	96
2006	409.8	16	35.2	7
2007	486.3	7	34.6	22
2008	492.6	7	41.6	7

DRIVING SCHOOL

Oklahoma State's 11-game drive chart puts into perspective the Cowboys' offensive attack.

- OSU has scored 26 times in less than two minutes of game play.
- The Cowboys have scored six times on plays from more than 50 yards away (not including special teams).
- Oklahoma State has scored on five plays or less 29 times.
- OSU has 24 scoring drives of more than 70 yards (including a 99-yarder vs. Troy and a 92-yarder vs. Iowa State).

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

There is little doubt that Oklahoma State's return game ranks among the nation's elite. OSU is 15th nationally in kick-off returns and No. 2 in punt returns. And the good news for OSU is that it is a team effort on both special teams units.

- OSU has seven punt returns of 20 yards or more. Six of those returns are by Dez Bryant, including cross-country treks of 78 and 71 yards for touchdowns.
- Aside from Dez Bryant, Ricky Price had a 68-yard punt return at Washington State.
- OSU has six kickoff returns of at least 36 yards, including a 90-yarder for a score by Perrish Cox.
- Perrish Cox is No. 9 nationally with an average of 29.2 yards per kickoff return.
- OSU has four kickoff returns of more than 50 yards.
- True freshman safety Victor Johnson got into the act with a 52-yard at Texas and a 39-yarder at Colorado.

RETURNS OF PERRISH

Two seasons ago, Perrish Cox and his kick returns were a bit of a novelty act after he took back the 2006 season-opening kickoff 96 yards for a touchdown, becoming the first Cowboy since Barry Sanders to accomplish the feat. Two years later, it's safe to say that Perrish Cox is one of America's most dangerous kick returners. He added another chapter at Washington State when his lone touch against the Cougars resulted in a 90-yard kickoff return for a score.

- Cox now has four returns for scores in his career (three kickoff returns and one punt return) with one return for a score in three straight seasons.
- Cox is tied for the national lead among active players with three career kickoff returns for scores. It also ties him with Barry Sanders for the OSU career record.
- His 1,961 career kickoff return yards are an OSU record and rank No. 10 among all active NCAA players (second in the Big 12).
- Cox has three of the 13 longest kickoff returns in Oklahoma State history with his 98-yarder against Kansas State in 2007 ranking fourth, his 96-yarder against Missouri State in 2006 ranking 11th and his 90-yarder against Washington State ranking No. 13.

FODGE FODGE

OSU has a potent weapon in its arsenal in senior punter Matt Fodge. OSU is second nationally in net punting (40.83 yards) because Fodge has punted 29 times, but the opposition has a season total of just 48 return yards, despite six punts in excess of 50 yards. Six of Fodge's punts have been fair caught, 17 have been downed inside the 20 (giving him 64 career punts inside the 20). Against Missouri, he had a 69-yard punt downed at the Missouri five and at Texas Tech he had a 71-yarder downed at the Red Raider three. Fodge would rank No. 9 nationally in punting if he had enough attempts to qualify for the NCAA statistics with his average of 44.4 yards. Fodge was recently named as a Ray Guy Award semifinalist. The award is presented annually by the Augusta (Georgia) Sports Council to the nation's top punter.

Z-ROB

Zac Robinson continues to be his efficient self. And while his numbers don't scream for headlines because of OSU's effective ground game, Robinson's statistics show he is one of the nation's most effective quarterbacks. He was recently named one of 13 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award.

- Robinson enters the OU game as the nation's third-rated passer with an efficiency rating of 178.03
- Robinson is the NCAA's fourth-rated active career passer (182.3 rating).
- His career average of 7.81 yards of offense per play ranks him third among all active NCAA players.

- He's No. 19 nationally in the "points responsible for" category with 14.73 per game.
- He is third all-time at OSU with 47 career touchdown passes.

Robinson is now second all-time at OSU with 7,059 yards of total offense. He trails only head coach Mike Gundy, who had 7,749 yards of total offense from 1986 through 1989.

- Robinson has 5,650 career passing yards to rank third at OSU. He trails only Mike Gundy (7,997) and Josh Fields (6,090).
- The junior signal caller has 1,415 career rushing yards.
- In 2008, Robinson's 395 yards vs. Iowa State represent the fourth-best passing game in OSU history. His 320 passing yards vs. Houston is the 12th-best game in Cowboy history. Robinson now owns the top passing day in OSU history, along with the fourth, 12th, 18th, 24th and 25th best passing days by a Cowboy. He has passed for 300 yards four times, including a school record 430 yards vs. Texas last season.
- Robinson has 2,481 passing yards this season to rank fourth on OSU's single-season list. He trails only (Josh Fields 3,145 in 2002), his own 2007 total (2,824), and Josh Fields (2,494 in 2003).
- His 2008 total offense count is now at 2,899 for the fourth best mark in school history.

QUICK HITS

- OSU has played four true freshmen this season, including tight end Jamal Mosley, and defensive backs Victor Johnson, Markelle Martin and Johnny Thomas.
- 14 different Cowboys have scored through the first nine games of the season.
- OSU is averaging 7.2 yards per offensive snap.
- Oklahoma State set a new stadium attendance record vs. Troy with a crowd of 52,463 on hand for the OSU win.
- OSU has set a new season ticket record with sales still ongoing and approaching 40,000.
- The Oklahoma State-Texas game was played in front of 98,518 fans. It was the largest crowd ever to see a game in the state of Texas.

230/230

Oklahoma State enters the Oklahoma game averaging 261.3 rushing yards per game and 231.4 passing yards per game. OSU and Tulsa are the only two schools in the country averaging at least 230 yards through the air and on the ground.

BY THE DECADE

Part of it can be attributed to an ever-lengthening college football season, but with more than one full season to go, the current decade is already the second most successful in Cowboy football history in terms of victories. OSU enters the Colorado game with 58 wins since the beginning of the 2000 season. Only in the 1980s, when OSU went 71-43-2, did the school win more than 57 games in a decade. OSU has already won 17 more games this decade than it did in all of the 1990s. A bowl appearance this season, which OSU is already eligible for, would also tie the 1980s for most post-season appearances in a decade at six.

THE BALANCE OF THE COWBOYS

What can the Cowboys provide for an encore? In 2006, OSU and Boise State were the only two teams in the country to run and pass for more than 200 yards per game. In 2007, the Cowboys were perfectly balanced with 3,161 rushing yards and 3,161 passing yards (243 yards per game on the ground and through the air). In the opener at WSU, OSU was again balanced with 174 yards on the ground and 193 through the air.

THE YOUNG GUNS

Oklahoma State has 15 seniors on its roster. That total is 10th lowest among the nation's power conferences, tying the Cowboys with Arizona State, Colorado and Notre Dame for the 10th spot. Minnesota and North Carolina have the smallest senior classes from the power leagues with 11 each. Of the 15 Cowboy seniors, three are walk-ons and two are specialists.

COACHING CAPSULE

Gundy became Oklahoma State's head coach on Jan. 3, 2005. He served as OSU's offensive coordinator and associate head coach the previous four seasons. He served on Oklahoma State staffs under Pat Jones, Bob Simmons and Les Miles. He was also on staff at Baylor and Maryland before returning to his alma mater.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE

Gundy was a four-year starter and letterman at Oklahoma State from 1986 through 1989. He remains OSU's all-time leading passer with 7,997 yards and he led the Cowboys to back-to-back 10-win seasons in 1987 and 1988. His 429-yard passing performance against Kansas in 1989 is still the second-best passing game at Oklahoma State and he owns six of Oklahoma State's top 30 single-game passing performances. He also still holds Oklahoma State career records for pass completions (604), passing yards (7,997), completion percentage (58.3 percent), interception avoidance (36 in 1,035 pass attempts) and total offense (7,749)

FAMILY

Gundy is the son of Ray and Judy Gundy. His father attended OSU on a basketball grant. He and his wife, Kristen, have three sons, Gavin, Gunnar and Gage. Kristen is also an OSU graduate. His brother, Cale, is on the coaching staff at Oklahoma.

BOONE PICKENS STADIUM

MOVING DAY IS GETTING CLOSER.

Before the opening of the 2009 football season, the home of Cowboy football will officially move about 100 yards west and straight into the future.

The west end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium is now open for fan occupancy on game days. By next spring, it will house all operations of Cowboy football in facilities that will absolutely rival any in college athletics.

Not only will the west end zone serve as headquarters for the Cowboy coaching staff with offices at the club level, the facility will include a new OSU locker room, speed and strength center, equipment room, hall of fame, athletic training center, theater room, meeting rooms, video operations, media center, and a dining area that will serve as the team training table.

The west end zone is so inclusive that Bullet will have his own stall.

The west end zone and the new Boone Pickens Stadium will officially be open for business when the Georgia Bulldogs visit to open the 2009 season.

OSU'S WEST END ZONE PROJECT:

- The completed horseshoe will raise seating capacity to more than 60,000 and will put in place more than 100 suites around the rim of the stadium. A new video board and a ribbon board will encircle the stadium.
- The site of the new dining area that will be utilized by OSU's student-athletes will offer views of the stadium as well as the OSU campus. It will seat at least 300.
- The team theater room will accommodate more than 200 and could be utilized for a variety of special events. The facility will include surround sound and can serve in a variety of ways -- from a movie theater to a classroom to an interview room.
- A state-of-the-art athletic training facility will be located just steps from the Cowboy locker room and will encompass 8,000 square feet with four pools for hydrotherapy.
- Offices for the coaching staff will be housed on the club level of the west end zone and will feature stadium views and balconies for game-day seating.
- The entire west end zone project will feature 1.1 million square feet, including 700,000 square feet with conditioned air.
- Convenience. Convenience. Convenience. The project will include a 12,000-square-foot locker room that is located just steps away from the speed and strength center, athletic training center, equipment room and meeting rooms. The locker room will be big enough to host the team as well as offensive, defensive and special teams meetings during halftime. The locker room size will double OSU's current dressing quarters.
- The players' custom-designed lockers will include equipment and shoe ventilation, as well as embossed glass name plates that players take with them upon graduation.
- The football-only speed and strength center will spread over more than 20,000 square feet and will include a sprint track for timings and conditioning.
- A mammoth equipment room, covering roughly 14,000 square feet, will be a model of efficiency and organization for the players as well as coaches and staff.
- The history of Cowboy football will be prominently displayed on several levels of the west end zone, including a vestibule near the Cowboy locker room, as well as a 5,000 square foot football gallery located near the main entrance of the football operations center.

SEATTLE - Spectacular play from Oklahoma State's special teams was a key factor in the Cowboys' 39-13 win over Washington State at Qwest Field in Seattle on August 30.

Junior Perrish Cox delivered the biggest blow of all when he returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown immediately following a third-quarter Cougar touchdown that brought the score to 18-6 and seemingly breathed life into a Washington State squad that was thwarted all game long. Senior Ricky Price and sophomore Dez Bryant both set up scores with big returns as well, as Price returned a punt 68 yards and Bryant broke a 42-yard punt return. Both led to Cowboy field goals.

Cowboy running back Kendall Hunter rushed for 107 yards and a pair of touchdowns and quarterback Zac Robinson was 20-of-27 for 193 yards. Bryant led all receivers with seven catches for 90 yards.

The Oklahoma State defense smothered Washington State, limiting the Cougars to only 82 yards passing and 196 yards of total offense. Linebacker Justin Gent's fourth-quarter interception all but sealed the resounding Cowboy victory, with fellow linebacker Ori Lemon leading all tacklers with 10 stops.

Andre Sexton registered nine tackles, assisted on a tackle for loss, broke up a pass and had two quarterback hurries, with Ricky Price notching five tackles, a sack, a forced fumble and a pass break-up.

STILLWATER - Oklahoma State turned in one of the top offensive performances in school history in dismantling Houston, 56-37 at Boone Pickens Stadium on Sept. 6.

The Cowboys piled up the second-highest single-game total offense mark in school history with 699 yards and saw running back Kendall Hunter (210 rushing yards) and receiver Dez Bryant (236 receiving yards) become the first 200-yard rushing/200-yard receiving tandem in a single game in school history. When quarterback Zac Robinson's 320 yards passing are included, it marked only the fourth time in NCAA history that a team had a 300-yard passer, a 200-yard rusher and a 200-yard receiver in the same game.

Bryant had touchdown catches of 39 yards, 29 yards and 74 yards and added a 71-yard punt return for a touchdown in the contest.

After trailing, 16-7 in the second quarter, a Robinson-to-Bryant touchdown pass with just over a minute left in the first half brought the score to 16-14. The Cowboys then blew the game wide open in the third quarter by outscoring the Cougars, 28-7.

OSU flexed its quick-strike muscle throughout the game with four touchdown drives of less than two minutes and four touchdown drives of four plays or less.

STILLWATER, Okla. - The tone was set instantly by the Oklahoma State defense in Saturday's 57-13 win over Missouri State at rainy Boone Pickens Stadium. On the first play from scrimmage, Quinton Moore forced a fumble that was recovered by Derek Burton to set up an OSU touchdown just five plays later.

The Cowboy defense forced the Bears to punt on their ensuing possession, and on the first play from scrimmage after the punt, Zac Robinson connected with Bo Bowling on a 66-yard touchdown strike to swell the lead to 15-0 just 4:30 into the game.

An eight-yard Kendall Hunter touchdown run at the 6:28 mark of the first quarter expanded the OSU lead to 22-0 and effectively put the game out of reach. Coach Mike Gundy elected to play his entire second-team offense with the exception of Robinson in the first quarter and Robinson was eventually substituted before halftime.

Hunter was taken out of the game with 13:59 remaining in the second quarter and did not return, but still logged 132 yards rushing and two touchdowns on just 11 carries. Keith Toston and Beau Johnson saw the rest of the action at running back, with Toston finishing with 11 carries for 148 yards and a touchdown and Johnson adding 13 carries for 138 yards and two touchdowns.

Saturday's game marked the first time since Dantrell Savage (130), Robinson (116) and Hunter (113) all rushed for more than 100 yards against Texas Tech last year that OSU had three players rush for more than 100 yards in a single game.

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Zac Robinson threw three touchdown passes to Dez Bryant, and Oklahoma State reached 50 points for the third consecutive game in a 55-24 win over Troy on Saturday.

The Cowboys finished with 612 yards of offense, the eighth-highest total in school history, against a Troy defense that entered the game 11th in the Football Bowl Subdivision at 237.7 yards per game and allowed 309 yards a week earlier in a 28-10 loss at Ohio State.

Robinson completed 16 of 21 passes for 254 yards, and the Cowboys had a pair of 100-yard rushers in Kendall Hunter, who had 24 carries for 169 yards, and Keith Toston, who had 17 carries for 114 yards. Both scored two touchdowns as they extended Oklahoma State's string of games with at least one 100-yard rusher to 15.

Before a Boone Pickens Stadium-record crowd of 52,463 fans, Oklahoma State also avenged an embarrassing 41-23 loss to Troy (2-2) from last season, a game in which the Trojans led by 31 points before surrendering two meaningless touchdowns.

It took Oklahoma State less than a half to surpass its scoring output from that game.

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) - Dez Bryant caught three passes for touchdowns and scored another on a punt return, and No. 21 Oklahoma State took advantage of five first-half turnovers in rolling over Texas A&M 56-28 Saturday night.

The Cowboys set a school record by surpassing 50 points for the fourth straight game, with some big help from their defense and special teams. Ugo Chinasa and Patrick Lavine each scored on interception returns as Oklahoma State (5-0, 1-0 Big 12) snapped a four-game losing streak to the Aggies.

Both of the interceptions thrown by A&M's Jerrod Johnson tipped off receivers' hands. Chinasa was there to catch the deflection for a 6-yard return in the first quarter, and Lavine brought back another carom for a 27-yard score to make it 28-7 just before halftime.

Zac Robinson added a 23-yard touchdown pass to Bryant and a 6-yard TD run in the third quarter for the Cowboys. Robinson finished 13-of-18 for 186 yards with the three passing TDs to Bryant and two rushing touchdowns.

Oklahoma State came in with the nation's top rushing offense, averaging 340 yards, and figured to have a decided edge against the fifth-worst run defense in the nation. But while the Aggies' defense held Kendall Hunter in check, keeping the nation's third-leading rusher to less than 100 yards for the first time this season, Bryant and the Cowboys' defense picked up the slack.

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - Oklahoma State stopped a Missouri offense that had been scoring at will all season, intercepting Chase Daniel three times in the second half and upsetting the third-ranked Tigers 28-23 victory on Saturday night.

Zac Robinson and Damian Davis hooked up on a pair of long scores in the second half, and Patrick Lavine's interception at the Oklahoma State 31 with 1:41 to go was the clincher. Missouri (5-1, 1-1 Big 12) had appeared poised to challenge for No. 1 with a strong effort after top-ranked Oklahoma lost to Texas and No. 2 Alabama had the weekend off.

Instead, it was the coming-out party for the Cowboys (6-0, 2-0 Big 12). Oklahoma State, only 18-19 in coach Mike Gundy's first three seasons, is 6-0 for only the second time since 1945.

And it was Robinson, not Daniel, who played like a Heisman Trophy front-runner. Robinson was 19-for-28 for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Kendall Hunter had 154 yards on 24 carries and a 68-yard scoring run.

Daniel was 39-for-52 for 390 yards and a touchdown for Missouri, which had won 10 in a row and 18 of 19 at home but were held 19 points below their scoring average. Derrick Washington, averaging 100 yards per game, was held to 11 yards on eight carries with a 5-yard scoring run.

STILLWATER, Okla. - Dez Bryant set a career high with 11 receptions and had 212 yards receiving to go with two touchdowns in No. 8 Oklahoma State's 34-6 win over Baylor at Boone Pickens Stadium Saturday. With the win, the Cowboys improved to 7-0 on the year.

Though Bryant will get much of the acclaim following Saturday's win, it should be noted that the Cowboy defense continued its vastly improved play this year by limiting the Bears to their lowest scoring total of the year as well as their lowest yardage output of the season (204 yards).

Baylor got on the board first when Jacoby Jones punched in a one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, but from that point on, it was all Cowboys. Running back Keith Toston found the end zone from four yards out later in the quarter to set off a string of 34 straight Cowboy points.

Quarterback Zac Robinson had one of his best all-around games of the year, completing 13-of-20 passes for 238 yards and two touchdowns and rushing 14 times for 57 yards. Robinson's fingerprints were all over the key sequence of the game. Leading, 21-6, the Cowboys faced third-and-29 from midfield. Robinson scrambled for a 23-yard gain to set up fourth-and-six at the Bears 27. Robinson then hard-counted Baylor offsidese to bring it to fourth-and-one from the 22 before keeping on an option to get the first down. Five plays later, Toston stung with Bears by finding the end zone for his second touchdown of the game to give the Cowboys a 28-6 lead with only 19 seconds left in the first half.

AUSTIN, Texas - Seventh-ranked Oklahoma State was taking a shot at top-ranked Texas' end zone on the last play of the game, but the Longhorns were able to deflect the effort to preserve a 28-24 win over the Cowboys in front of a school-record 98,518 fans at DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium. With the win, Texas improved to 8-0 overall and 4-0 in the Big 12, with Oklahoma State dipping to 7-1 overall and 3-1 in the league.

Cowboy running back Kendall Hunter gave the Longhorn defense fits all day, as the Cowboy sophomore rushed 18 times for 161 yards and a touchdown. As a team, Oklahoma State rushed for 217 yards against a vaunted Texas run defense that ranked second nationally entering the game by limiting the opposition to a paltry 48 yards per game.

Fueled by a second-half interception by cornerback Jacob Lacey and a late-game fumble that was forced by linebacker Ori Lemon and recovered by defensive lineman Jeray Chatham, the Cowboys was in position to march down the field and take the lead with less than three minutes remaining, but the Longhorn defense responded in kind by holding the Pokes on downs with 2:39 left. The OSU defense got the ball back for the Cowboy offense with 33 ticks left on the clock, but the Cowboys needed to go the length of the field with no timeouts remaining. Zac Robinson and Dez Bryant connected twice on the drive to put OSU at midfield with six seconds remaining to set up the hail mary pass attempt to win the game that was batted down.

STILLWATER, Okla. - Zac Robinson passed for 395 yards and five touchdowns. Dez Bryant had nine catches for 171 yards and four touchdowns and Kendall Hunter added 107 rushing yards on only 13 attempts to lead ninth-ranked Oklahoma State to a 59-17 win over Iowa State.

The Cowboys (8-1 overall; 4-1 Big 12) rolled up 682 yards of total offense against a Cyclone team (2-7 overall; 0-5 Big 12) that lost its seventh straight game thanks in part to an Oklahoma State defense that recorded two interceptions and recovered an ISU fumble. The Cowboy defense held the Cyclones scoreless on two ISU trips to the red zone, as Terrance Anderson picked off an Austin Arnaud pass in the end zone in the second quarter and the OSU defense stuffed Iowa State on downs in the fourth quarter.

Big plays were the name of the game for the Cowboy offense, as Robinson connected with Jeremy Broadway on a 95-yard touchdown pass that stands as the longest pass in school history not long after he found Bryant for an 80-yard touchdown pass earlier in the game. Damian Davis was also on the receiving end of a long pass from Robinson, hauling in a 50-yard toss in the second half.

LUBBOCK, Texas - In a game ripe with Big 12 South title implications, No. 2 Texas Tech handed No. 8 Oklahoma State a 56-20 defeat at Jones A&T Stadium. The Red Raiders (9-0 overall; 5-0 Big 12) entered the game riding high after knocking off then-No. 1 Texas, then went on to pass their second straight stiff test, this time from the Cowboys (8-2 overall; 4-2 Big 12).

Red Raider quarterback Graham Harrell led Tech to the win by completing 40-of-50 passes for 456 yards and six touchdowns with no interceptions.

The Cowboys struck first when Patrick Lavine recovered a Harrell fumble on the game's opening series. Running back Kendall Hunter punched in a two-yard touchdown run three plays later to give OSU its only lead of the day. With the Cowboys jumping on top quickly, Harrell recovered to lead the Red Raiders on seven consecutive touchdown drives following Hunter's score.

The Red Raiders kept the Cowboys at arm's length, opening up a 35-14 lead early in the third quarter to effectively put the game out of reach.

Hunter's 117 rushing yards made him the first opposing player to rush for 100 yards against a Tech defense that came into the game ranked No. 10 in the nation in rush defense.

BOULDER, Colo. - Oklahoma State's defense helped lift the No. 11 Cowboys to a 30-17 road victory at Colorado on Nov. 8.

Coordinator Tim Beckman's unit suffocated the Buffaloes by limiting them to 3-of-15 third-down conversions in the game and held Colorado to only two touchdowns -- one of which came when a ball deflected off the shoulder pads of an intended receiver and into the hands of Scotty McKnight who took the ball into the endzone and the other came when Colorado started a drive on the OSU 16-yard line following an interception.

The Cowboy offense was led by its usual group of playmakers, quarterback Zac Robinson, running back Kendall Hunter, receiver Dez Bryant and tight end Brandon Pettigrew. Robinson completed 15-of-23 passes for 217 yards and connected with Bryant on a spectacular 29-yard touchdown pass in which Bryant snared the ball one-handed while coming across the field at full speed, then sprinted his way into the end zone. Hunter churned out his ninth 100-yard rushing game of the season with 11 carries for 102 yards and a 43-yard touchdown, with Pettigrew adding seven catches for 75 yards.
