RED RAIDERS FACE STIFF CHALLENGE AT NO. 3/1 OKLAHOMA

For the second straight season, Texas Tech will head to Norman for a Big 12 battle against the Oklahoma Sooners. The Red Raiders will be looking to snap a two-game losing skid at No. 3/1 OU on Saturday and will have to put an end to the nation's longest home win streak as the Sooners have won 39-straight at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. Saturday's game will kickoff at 7 p.m. (CT) and will be televised on a regional basis by ABC Sports. The Texas Tech Sports Radio Network will have the call live from Norman with the pregame show set to get underway at 6 p.m. (CT).

LAST TIME OUT: KANSAS STATE 41, TEXAS TECH 34

LUBBOCK (AP) - Collin Klein ran for three touchdowns and threw for another as No. 17 Kansas State came from behind to beat Texas Tech 41-34 on Saturday night.

Klein ran for 110 yards on 23 carries, scoring on three short runs and hitting Chris Harper for a 3-yard TD pass on the Wildcats (6-0, 3-0) first drive of the third quarter.

Tyler Lockett returned a kickoff 100 yards early in the second quarter for the Wildcats, who are undefeated after six games for the first time since 2000.

Texas Tech (4-2, 1-2) was held to two field goals in the second half. Red Raiders coach Tommy Tuberville said the Wildcats were true to form.

"They don't do anything special," he said. "They took advantage of their opportunities and we didn't take advantage of ours. We had too many missed opportunities."

Seth Doege had 461 yards and a touchdown on 43-of-63 passing, but had three of his four turnovers in consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter. He also ran for a score. He had just one interception coming into the game.

"I want them all back," Doege said. "All of them were pretty stupid on my part. As a quarterback one of our jobs is to protect the ball and I did a poor job of that tonight."

After Texas Tech's field goal late in the game to pull within 41-34, the Red Raiders recovered an onside kick when Tremain Swindall fell on the ball at their own 47. But Doege and the offense seemed to rush and failed to get a first down after running four plays.

The Wildcats, who appeared flat in the first half, came out with more energy after halftime. On Kansas State's first possession Klein put together the Wildcats' longest drive of the game, capping it with a fade to the corner of the end zone to Harper to lead 28-27. The TD pass was set up after Klein scrambled out of the pocket for a 25-yard gain to the 3.

Kansas State held the ball for 33:33, while Tech's high-powered offense had it for 26:27.

Fresh off an eight win season and a win over Northwestern in the TicketCity Bowl, Texas Tech head coach Tommy Tuberville begins his second season.

In year one, Tuberville led the Red Raiders to an 8-5 record and became the first coach in school history to win a bowl game in his first season. Armed with a prolific offense and an improving defense, the Red Raiders secured their 11th consecutive bowl bid by ending the regular-season with back-to-back wins. Tuberville's strong bowl history proved beneficial for the Red Raiders as he led them to a 45-38 win over Northwestern, which gave Tech its third consecutive win over a Big Ten foe. His successful debut led to a one-year contract extension that will keep him on the Tech sideline through the 2015 season.

The excitement for Tuberville's first season was historic as a new single-season school record for season tickets was established with sales peaking at 46,565. Along the way, Tech also set a new standard for home attendance as an average of 57,107 fans attended the six home games at Jones A&T Stadium.

Tuberville inherited a program (Jan. 10, 2010) that had been bowl eligible for a Big 12 record 16 consecutive seasons and won 29 games in the last three seasons.

In 10 seasons at Auburn, Tuberville led the Tigers to 85 overall wins, which ranks fourth in school history. The Tigers also won 49 Southeastern Conference games, a number that is the fourth-best mark in the SEC. Tuberville led Auburn to seven straight bowl appearances, including New Year's Day bowl games in four of those years.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to an 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalist for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years. Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated VirginiaTech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Tuberville directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

In 2006, 11 players had graduated before the start of the season, and Auburn had 16 graduates on its 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl roster. In 2005, 12 players graduated prior to the Capital One Bowl, while in 2004, nine players who had already earned their degrees played in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. In 2003, linebacker Dontarrious Thomas, a three-time SEC Honor Roll selection, was one of eight Division I players named a National College Scholar-Athlete which awarded him a $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full compliment of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

By the time he had three recruiting classes under his belt, Tuberville led Ole Miss to an 8-4 mark and a victory in the inaugural Motor City Bowl in 1997. His efforts earned him Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year Honors and American Football Quarterly magazine selected him as runner-up for its Schutt Sports Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and line-backers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press. Under his direction, the Aggie defense finished fourth nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg), fifth in total defense (265.5 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (92.4 ypg).

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993. While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

As defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes in 1993, Tuberville directed a Miami defense which was ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense (12.6 ppg) and No. 5 nationally in pass defense (91.15 ypg). Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. During a five-year stay at Arkansas State, Tuberville coached defensive backs, nose guards and linebackers. During his final year at ASU, the Indians advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker and Troy Allen.

2011 RED RAIDER FOOTBALL

AGAINST OKLAHOMA

Saturday's game will mark the 19th all-time meeting between the Red Raiders and the Sooners. Since 1992, when the two teams met for the first time, the Sooners have compiled a 13-5 record against the Red Raiders. Only one of Texas Tech's five wins in the series have come in Norman as the Red Raiders took a 23-12 victory over the Sooners in the first year of the Big 12 Conference back in 1996. Texas Tech is making back-to-back trips to Norman for the first time in the history of the series due to a revamped Big 12 schedule that resulted due to the departures of Nebraska and Colorado. The Sooners won last year's game 45-7.

INJURY REPORT

Tony Morales - underwent season-ending shoulder surgery during fall camp.

Darrin Moore - suffered an injury to his left ankle and right knee (on the same play) against Nevada. He is expected to play on Saturday against Oklahoma.

Pete Robertson - suffered a separated shoulder against Nevada and is being listed as probable for the game against Oklahoma.

Tanner Foster - suffered a left knee injury against Nevada and will miss the remainder of the season.

Eric Stephens - was carted off the field late in third quarter against Texas A&M with a knee injury. An official diagnosis is still pending.

Sawyer Vest - suffered a concussion on Saturday against Texas A&M and missed the Kansas State game. He should return this week against Oklahoma.

Ben McRoy - missed the majority of the K-State game and his status for Saturday's game against Oklahoma is not yet known.

Derrick Mays - suffered a hamstring injury against K-State and will be a gametime decision.

STREAKS, STREAKS AND MORE STREAKS

The word "streak" will be thrown around all week long as the Red Raiders prepare for the No. 3/1 Oklahoma Sooners on Saturday. Texas Tech enters the game riding a two-game losing streak after consecutive home losses to No. 24 Texas A&M and No. 17 Kansas State. The last time Texas Tech dropped back-to-back home games was in 2006 when the Red Raiders fell to Missouri and Texas. In order to avoid a three-game losing streak, the Red Raiders must snap Oklahoma's 39-game home win streak at Gaylord Family-Oklahoma Memorial Stadium. The last time Texas Tech dropped three consecutive games was in 1998 when the Red Raiders lost a pair of road games at Colorado and Texas A&M and then a home game against Missouri.

LIGHTING UP THE STAT SHEET

Texas Tech may be 4-2 on the season but could easily be 6-0 had costly mistakes not haunted the Red Raiders in back-to-back losses to Texas A&M and Kansas State. Tech's two losses have totaled a combined 12 points as the Red Raiders fell short to A&M 45-40 and K-State 41-34. Offensively, the Red Raiders have been on fire in both games as Tech produced a combined 1,103 yards of total offense. This past week against K-State, quarterback Seth Doege threw for a career-high 461 yards after throwing for 391 last week against Texas A&M. Texas Tech has also had success on the ground in each of the last two weeks as the Red Raiders rushed for over 100 yards in both games.

MISTAKES HAVE BEEN COSTLY

Texas Tech's self-inflicted wounds in each of the last two weeks have undoubtedly been the difference:

OPPONENT	COSTLY PLAY
Texas A&M	Blocked FG Return For TD
Kansas State	Blocked FG (resulted in a KSU FG)
Kansas State	Blocked FG
Kansas State	100-yard KO Return For Touchdown
Kansas State	24-yard INT Return For Touchdown
Kansas State	Three 4th Quarter Turnovers

TECH CLOSING IN ON 1,000 RUSHING YARDS

Texas Tech's ground game has been vital to the Red Raiders' offensive success in 2011. Through six games, Tech has amassed 969 yards rushing and is averaging 161.5 yards-per-game. The 969 yards rushing is the most by a Tech team after six games in over 11 years. It took the 2008 team, one of the best rushing teams at Tech in several years, eight games to reach the 1,000 yard mark. Perennially the last place team in the Big 12 Conference in team rushing, the Red Raiders are currently eighth in the league (ahead of Iowa State and Oklahoma State).

TEXAS TECH IS HOT IN THE RED ZONE

The Texas Tech offense has been one of the most efficient teams (tied for seventh nationally) in all of college football when it comes to the red zone. So far, Texas Tech has converted on 31-of-33 red zone attempts and scored a touchdown 27 times.

TRUE FRESHMEN ARE MAKING AN IMPACT

With Kenny Williams getting in on the action against Nevada, Texas Tech has now played 11 true freshmen over the first five games of the season - and they are making an impact:

- Texas Tech's first points of the 2011 season were scored on a touchdown reception by Bradley Marquez against Texas State.
- Texas Tech's first interception of the season was recorded by Blake Dees in Tech's game against New Mexico.
- Eight true freshman saw playing time in the opener while (DL) Delvon Simmons and (RB) Ronnie Daniels got their first action at New Mexico. Kenny Williams made his debut against Nevada.
- Texas Tech started two freshmen at linebacker against New Mexico. Blake Dees lined up at SAM while Sam Eguavoen lined up at MIKE. Dees also earned a starting role in the opener against Texas State.
- These freshmen were part of a recruiting class that was ranked as high as 15th nationally.

CRAWFORD SHOULDERS THE LOAD

After losing Eric Stephens (the team's leading rusher) for the season due to a knee injury, senior running back Aaron Crawford answered the call against Kansas State. Crawford rushed for a career-high 91 yards and hauled in four passes for 33 yards. The highlight of the night for Crawford was a 51-yard touchdown run which marked the longest rush of the season by any Texas Tech player. Prior to the K-State game, Seth Doege had the longest rush of the year when he scampered 48 yards against New Mexico.

DEES/SMITH POST BIG GAMES AGAINST KSU

Against K-State, the Texas Tech defense was led by two of its most inexperienced players. True freshman Blake Dees, who made his fifth start of the season, led the team with nine tackles, including one tackle for loss. Senior defensive end Scott Smith, who had played in just five games previously, logged five tackles on the night, including a sack and a tackle for loss. Smith was also credited with one pass breakup.

TORRES LEADING THE RECEIVING CORPS

- Alex Torres – 12 catches vs. Kansas State is a career-high

THIS IS HOW WE DOEGE

- Junior quarterback Seth Doege has been putting on a clinic through six games of the 2011 season and faces yet another huge test this weekend in Norman. Aside from the three INT's against K-State, Doege threw for a career-high 461 yards against a Wildcat pass defense that was ranked 39th nationally.
- Owns 355 career pass attempts and has just thrown four interceptions.
  - The 461 (43-of-63) passing yards against Kansas State rank as the 22nd most in school history (15th most by a Tech QB against a league opponent).

NOTABLES

- Saturday's game against Oklahoma will mark the 956th all-time contest in program history. In 87 years of football, the Red Raiders have compiled an overall record of 523-400-32 along with 53 winning seasons. Tech is currently riding a streak of 18 consecutive winning/non-losing seasons.
- Texas Tech will be making its first appearance on ABC this weekend. The Red Raiders are 3-2 in televised games this season.
- With 51 league wins since 2000, Texas Tech is the third winningest program in the Big 12 Conference this century. The Red Raiders trail only Oklahoma, Texas.
- Texas Tech is riding a streak of 68 games in which the Red Raiders have thrown at least one touchdown pass. The last time Tech did not throw a TD pass was in a 12-3 loss at TCU in 2006.
- Texas Tech ranks 15th nationally in wins (76) since the 2003 season.
- With a paid attendance of 49,744 on Saturday night against Texas A&M - the Red Raiders have hosted 40 consecutive crowds over 45,000 at Jones AT&T Stadium.
- The Texas Tech offense enters the Oklahoma game ranked sixth nationally in total offense at 533.8 yards-per-game.
- Junior receiver Alex Torres has logged at least one reception in 18 consecutive Big 12 games. His 104 receiving yards against K-State marked the fifth 100-plus yard receiving game in his career.

CARONA HAS CAREER NIGHT

Senior placekicker Donnie Carona enjoyed a career night against the Aggies as he booted four field goals, including a pair from 49 yards out. Carona's four field goals matched the single-game school record that had been done nine previous times. Chris Birkholz was the last Red Raider kicker to hit four field goals in a game when he did so against Texas in 1998.

COMEBACK KIDS

In just four games this season, the Red Raiders have already established themselves as a team that won't quit. Kansas jumped out to a commanding 20-0 in the first quarter, marking the most points given up by Tech in the first period of a game since Oklahoma scored 24 last season in Norman. After spotting the Jayhawks an early 20-0 lead, the Red Raiders outscored Kansas 45-14 the rest of the way to take a 45-34 win. The comeback was the biggest for Texas Tech since overcoming a 28-0 deficit against Minnesota in the 2006 Insight Bowl. In that game, Tech rallied for a 44-41 win in overtime and it marked the largest comeback in NCAA bowl history. Additionally, the game marked Tech's first 20 or more point comeback victory on the road since trailing 30-5 with 48 seconds before halftime against Kansas in Lawrence on Sept. 25, 2004. Texas Tech won that contest 31-30, which was also the Big 12 opener for both teams.

TOUGH AS NAILS

Senior center Justin Keown wasn't about to let a preseason knee injury force him to miss his final year of college football. Despite tearing his ACL/MCL in preseason camp, Keown returned to action in the Nevada game where he logged just over 50 snaps. At Kansas on Oct. 1, he got his old job back as he made the start at center and logged all 86 snaps of Texas Tech's come-from-behind 45-34 win over the Jayhawks.

HUGE DAY FOR HUBERT

Sophomore linebacker Cquelin Hubert was Texas Tech's nominee for Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week after a stellar performance at Kansas. With Tech trailing 20-0 after the first quarter, Hubert and Daniel Cobb replaced true freshmen Blake Dees and Sam Eguavoen at linebacker. That personnel decision turned out to be the best of the day for Tech defensive coordinator Chad Glasgow. In just three quarters, Hubert racked up nine tackles (third most on the team), one sack, two tackles for loss, a forced fumble and an interception. He became just the seventh Texas Tech player since 2000 to record a sack and an INT in the same game... Last to do it: Scott Smith, vs. #4 Texas (2010).

WELL, THAT WAS CLOSE ...

Texas Tech's 35-34 win over Nevada was not settled until the final minute of the game when Seth Doege found Eric Ward in the corner of the endzone for a 4-yard TD pass that tied the game at 34-34. Donnie Carona's extra point gave the Red Raiders the lead and a crucial defensive stop in the final seconds sealed the win. The last time Tech went down to the final minute to win a game was when Graham Harrell threw a 28-yard TD pass to Michael Crabtree (with three seconds left) against Texas in 2008.

A TECH QUARTERBACK CAN RUN?!?!?

Seth Doege proved against Nevada that it is indeed possible for a Texas Tech quarterback to be an effective runner. Doege piled up 83 yards rushing against the Wolfpack which is the highest total for a Tech QB since Zebbie Lethridge ran for 88 yards against Southwestern Louisiana in 1997.

- His 48-yard run against Nevada marked the longest by a Texas Tech QB since Rob Peters' 55-yard run in the 1999 season opener at Arizona State.

McROY SETS KICKOFF RETURN RECORD

Sophomore Ben McRoy was instrumental in Texas Tech's 35-34 come-from-behind win over Nevada. Against the Wolfpack, McRoy set a new Texas Tech school record for kickoff return yards as he compiled 203. The previous record was set by Eric Stephens at Texas in 2009 when he rang up 182 kickoff return yards against the Longhorns. McRoy also tied the school record for returns in a game (7) which was also set in that 2009 Texas game by Stephens.

- McRoy saved his best return for last and it helped set up Texas Tech's game winning touchdown. McRoy's final return went for a game-high 41 yards and gave the Red Raiders the ball at their own 44-yard line.
- Was named the Big 12 Conference Special Teams Player of the Week.

TECH SETS NCAA TEAM RECORD AT UNM

Texas Tech set a TEAM NCAA record for completion percentage in a game when the Red Raiders defeated New Mexico 59-17 on Sept. 17. Three Texas Tech players (Seth Doege, Jacob Karam and Austin Zouzalik) combined for 45 completions on 50

LONG DAY IN ALBUQUERQUE

Texas Tech experienced one of longest games in school history at New Mexico on Sept. 17 thanks to Mother Nature. The game against the Lobos was forced into a lightning delay twice and even had officials from both schools contemplating a permanent suspension. The first delay came at 2:10 p.m. (MT) and lasted 51 minutes while the second delay occurred at the end of halftime and forced a 44-minute stoppage of play. By the time the final buzzer sounded, the game lasted a total of four hours and 46 minutes. Prior to the UNM game, the last time Texas Tech had a game delayed due to weather was in a 1998 home game against Missouri. The start of that game against Missouri was delayed by 38 minutes due to cloud-to-ground lightning.

DOEGE ETCHES HIS NAME IN THE RECORD BOOK

Junior quarterback Seth Doege, who grew up idolizing former Tech quarterback Kliff Kingsbury, put himself in elite company following Tech's 59-13 win over New Mexico. Doege completed 40-of-44 pass attempts in the game to set a new NCAA record for completion percentage (90.9 percent) in a game. He surpassed his childhood idol Kliff Kingsbury who previously held the record after completing 49-of-59 passes in a victory over Texas A&M on Oct. 5, 2002.

Additionally, Doege tied the school record for consecutive completions as he was perfect on his first 15 pass attempts of the game. Doege's 15 consecutive pass completions ties a school record that was set last season by Taylor Potts in the Cotton Bowl against Baylor.

Of Doege's 44 pass attempts, all four incompletions came in the endzone. He ended the game with 401 yards passing and five touchdowns.

DEFENSE SPARKS TEXAS STATE WIN

Trailing 10-9 heading into halftime against Texas State, Texas Tech turned to its defense to turn things around in the second half. The defensive unit forced and recovered four fumbles in the second half and converted all four into touchdown drives. The four fumble recoveries by the Red Raiders matched a school record that was set previously against TCU in 1993 and at Ohio State in 1990.

MOORE EXPLODES IN SEASON OPENER

Junior wide receiver Darrin Moore, who lost his father Darrin Moore Sr. just days before fall training camp, honored his father's memory in a big way in Tech's season opener against Texas State. Moore hauled in a career and game-high 221 receiving yards and one touchdown to help the Red Raiders defeat the Bobcats 50-10. The 221 receiving yards were the most by a Red Raider in a season opener and the most since former All-American Michael Crabtree caught nine passes for 195 yards at Texas in 2007. Additionally, Moore's 221 receiving yards and 12 receptions put him at No. 10 on both the single-game yardage and single-game reception lists.

1.	Joel Filani vs. Kansas State (2005)	255
2.	Rodney Blackshear vs. Houston (1991)	251

YOU MIGHT NEED A ROSTER

Texas Tech used a young lineup against Texas State that featured eight true freshmen and three redshirt freshmen. Freshman receiver Bradley Marquez scored Tech's first points of the season (10-yard TD catch) and was one of four true freshmen to see action on the Red Raider offense. Earning playing time tonight as true freshmen were: Blake Dees (started at MIKE linebacker), Bradley Marquez, DeAndre Washington, Jace Amaro, Pete Robertson, Alfredo Morales, Sam Eguavoen and Kindred Evans. Jackson Richards, Beau Carpenter and Shawn Corker earned playing time as redshirt freshmen. In all 16 new faces dotted the field in the opener, which included junior college transfers Happiness Osunde (DB), Marcus Kennard (WR) and Dennell Wesley (DL).

• Tech enters the UNM game with four true or redshirt freshmen listed as starters on the two-deep as well as six sophomores.

FRESHMAN DEES GRADES OUT ON DEFENSE

When all the film study was wrapped up on Tech's season-opening win against Texas State, it was freshman linebacker Blake Dees that stood out as the top performer on defense. Dees became the first true freshman to start at linebacker since Brock Stratton in 2003 and wasted no time taking advantage of the opportunity. Dees, a native of Spanish Fort, Ala., finished the night with seven tackles (second most behind DJ Johnson's nine), a tackle for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

DOEGE TAKES OVER

The keys to the Texas Tech offense now belong to junior quarterback Seth Doege. Doege enters the 2011 season with one previous start under his belt as he got the nod in a 2009 home game against Kansas (threw for 159 yards [14-of-28] and one touchdown). Back-to-back knee injuries forced him to miss his junior and senior seasons in high school, so the 2011 season will mark his first full year of play since 2005. The following is a breakdown of what Texas Tech Quarterbacks (since 2000) achieved in their first full season as the starter.

FIRST YEAR QUARTERBACKS IN FIRST FULL SEASON

MARQUEZ SIGNS BASEBALL CONTRACT

Freshman runningback/receiver Bradley Marquez has signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Mets. Marquez will remain with the Tech football team in both the fall and spring and will play baseball for two months during the summer. The NCAA allows student-athletes to keep their amateur status in one sport despite being a professional in another. Marquez was drafted in the 16th round of the 2011 MLB Draft and received a signing bonus of $325,000.

LARGE AND SMALL

The largest player on this year's team as well as the smallest can both be found on the same side of the ball. LaAdrian Waddle, the starting left tackle, stands at 6-6 and weighs in at 332 pounds making him the largest player on this year's squad. On the other side of the scale stands freshman receiver Jakeem Grant. Grant reported to training camp weighing 151 pounds and stands at 5-6. Grant is expected to contribute as a true freshman and also owns the distinction of being the fastest player on this year's team.

WE CAN TAKE THE HEAT

Much of the southwest has been under an extreme drought and heatwave for most of the summer and Lubbock is no exception. In fact, Lubbock was named the "Hottest City In America" by the online magazine The Daily Beast. At the time the article was released on July 20, Lubbock had experienced temperatures that were six degree warmer than average for the month of July. Lubbock recorded 43 consecutive days of temperatures over 100 degrees, including a high temperature of 112 in June.

BEST SIGNING CLASS IN SCHOOL HISTORY

Texas Tech signed 26 student-athletes on national signing day and this year's group has been ranked as the 18th best recruiting class in the nation by Scout.com and No. 19 by Rivals.com. Prior to this signing day, the highest rated recruiting class in school history came back in 2006 when the Red Raiders earned a national No. 25 rating.

Along with the No. 18/19 national ranking, comes an even bigger honor as Scout.com named Tech's running backs class as the No. 1 group in the country (also a first in school history). Offensively, the Red Raiders also rank in the Top 15, according to Scout, in the wide receivers/tight ends group (No. 11) and offensive linemen (No. 14). Defensively, Rivals.com has the class of defensive ends ranked as the sixth best in the nation.

PRESEASON NOTES

- Tech will debut its new form-fitting uniforms from Under Armour on Saturday against Texas State. For a detailed look at the new uniforms, log on to www.texastech.com.
- Texas Tech enters the 2011 football season with its third different defensive coordinator in the last three years. Chad Glasgow replaced James Willis who left the program in December and has installed the 4-2-5 defense that was run with such success at TCU. Prior to James Willis, Ruffin McNeil served as the defensive coordinator at Tech before leaving for the head coaching job at East Carolina.
- Head coach Tommy Tuberville awarded scholarships to four players during training camp that were previous walk-on's: Sawyer Vest, Omar Ontiveros, Eugene Neboh and Jesse Smitherman.
- Freshman defensive lineman Delvon Simmons has been cleared to play immediately by the NCAA. Simmons is arguably one of the highest rated defensive players to come to Texas Tech as he was a five-star prospect out of high school by Scout.

OFFSEASON STAFF CHANGES

Coaching staff changes were the first order of business for Texas Tech in the spring. On Jan. 21, head coach Tommy Tuberville announced the hiring of Chad Glasgow as defensive coordinator and Otis Mounds as cornerbacks coach. Glasgow replaced James Willis who left the program on Dec. 26, 2010, while Mounds replaced Travaris Robinson who left the program following the Ticket City Bowl. Glasgow spent the previous 10 years as an assistant under Gary Patterson at TCU and helped the Horned Frogs rank first in the nation in total defense five times in the last decade. Mounds spent last season as a graduate assistant at Tech and was previously the secondary coach at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Seth Doege threw for three touchdowns and 326 yards to lead Texas Tech to a 50-10 win over Texas State on Saturday night.

The Red Raiders fell behind early but rallied and held the Bobcats scoreless after the first quarter.

Doege, who played most of the game, went 23 for 33. He threw two touchdown passes for 20 yards and one for 10.

Eric Stephens ran for two touchdowns - one a 46-yarder where he went untouched up the middle to put the Red Raiders up 23-10. He finished with 118 yards on 21 carries.

Darrin Moore, Doege's favorite target, caught 12 passes for 221 yards.

The Bobcats (0-1) started off solid with an option-type ground game that gave Texas Tech's defense fits. Three of the Bobcats' four fumbles, by quarterback Shaun Rutherford and running backs Marcus Curry and Terrence Franks, led to touchdowns for the Red Raiders (0-1).

Once Texas Tech's offense got on track they moved easily down the field, mixing its pass-heavy offense with the run. The Red Raiders actually ran more than they passed but got more yards in the air. Texas Tech got 157 yards on 33 carries.

The Red Raiders didn't give up a lot of points but the Bobcats chewed up yardage on the ground. Rutherford, who had 82 yards on 12 carries and used Curry, Franks and Tim Hawkins out of the backfield, appeared to flummox the Red Raiders.

Texas Tech gave up 256 yards on 50 rushes by the Bobcats. That's more yardage than they gave up on the ground last season (162 yards per game).

Texas State moved the ball easily on the ground in the first quarter and built a 10-0 lead.

Texas State got a 40-yard field goal on its first drive and then got the ball right back. Matt Harris forced a fumble after Darrin Moore caught a 5-yard pass from Doege.

Darryl Morris recovered the ball on Texas Tech's 41. Texas State kept in on the ground and Marcus Curry scored on a 7-yard run to go up 10-0.

The Red Raiders got a break when Will Johnson kicked the ball out of bounds, giving Texas Tech the ball its own 40. Two plays later, Doege found Moore along the near sideline and he pulled in a 41-yarder over his shoulder and down to the Bobcats 10.

The junior quarterback hit Brad Marquez on a fade pass in the corner of the end zone to trail 10-7 late in the first quarter.

The Bobcats got pinned at their own 1 on the kickoff when Isaiah Bell and Derek Lopez collided on the kickoff. That field position wasn't what hurt Texas State, though.

On the next play quarterback Shaun Rutherford threw the ball out of bounds, but he hadn't left the pocket and was still in the end zone, which gave Texas Tech a safety and a 10-9 deficit going into the second quarter.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Seth Doege threw for 401 yards and five touchdowns to lead Texas Tech to a 59-13 victory against New Mexico on Saturday.

Doege tied a school record by completing his first 15 passes en route to finishing 40 for 44 - a 90.9 completion percentage, a national record for quarterbacks with at least 40 completions.

"It's a tribute to the entire offense," Doege said. "The receivers caught some balls that probably shouldn't have been caught."

"I think I got hit one time, and that was my own fault because I called out the wrong blocking assignment."

Darrin Moore caught nine passes for 118 yards and three touchdowns for the Red Raiders (2-0). Eric Ward had two TD receptions.

Deon Long had three catches for 139 yards for the Lobos (0-3), including a 69-yarder to set up their only touchdown. New Mexico has been outscored 127-26 this season.

Texas Tech amassed 624 yards of offense.

Two lightning delays postponed the game a total of 95 minutes.

The Red Raiders built a 28-0 first-half lead behind Doege's hot hand. After his first incompletion, he connected on his next seven passes.

"It's pretty wild for an offense to be on like that," Texas Tech coach Tommy Tuberville said. "It all started with protection. He got hit quite a bit in the first game, but I don't think he got hit much today."

"When you are as proficient as we were today, it makes it easier on everybody."

GAME THREE • Texas Tech 35, Nevada 34

SCORE BY QUARTERS	1	2	3	4	FINAL

Texas Tech	0	7	14	14	35

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Seth Doege scrambled, looked right and found a wide open Eric Ward with 44 seconds left to rally the Red Raiders to a 35-34 win over Nevada on Saturday night.

Ward caught Doege's third TD pass of the night as the Red Raiders (3-0) came back from a 28-14 deficit midway through the third quarter.

The winning score happened on a fourth-and-three.

He threw touchdowns of 4, 8 and 2 yards en route to completing 26 of 38 passes for 222 yards.

The Red Raiders struggled on defense, giving up 562 total yards and Nevada (1-2) capitalized.

Redshirt freshman Cody Fajardo threw a 16-yard TD pass to Kolby Arendse and ran for a 56-yarder and 6-yarder for Nevada. He finished with 139 yards on 10 carries. Mike Ball also completed 139 yards on 27 carries.

Doege looked stymied as he took the snap on the final score of the game. He back-peddled to about the 17 yard line as he scanned for an open receiver in the end zone. No one in the middle. No one on the right. He looked left and saw Ward, lofting it to him in the back corner for the winning score.

Fajardo and Tyler Lantrip shared quarterback duties for the Wolf Pack, but it was Fajardo who provided the spark. He put them up 28-14 when he faked a handoff to Ball and scampered along the right sideline to score.

Doege found Jace Amaro for an 8-yard score to pull the Red Raiders within 28-21. Two field goals by Nevada gave the Wolf Pack a 34-28 lead before Doege led Texas Tech down the field for the winning score.

Texas Tech was without its leading receiver, Darrin Moore, for most of the game. Moore left early in the first quarter after he injured his left ankle and knee on a deep incompletion. Isaiah Frey hit Moore as he tried to catch a pass. Moore, ranked No. 2 nationally in receptions per game (11) has caught 21 passes for 339 yards. He had no catches Saturday night.

The Wolf Pack went up 14-7 near the end of the first half quarter when redshirt freshman quarterback Cody found a wide open Kolby Arendse on the right side of the field for a 16-yard touchdown pass. On the first play of the drive, Fajardo turned a broken play into a 34-yard gain. Three plays later, he found Arendse open in the middle of the field and he turned it into a 27-yard play.

Fajardo replaced starter Lantrip midway through the second quarter and led the Wolf Pack on an 83-yard scoring drive, keeping the ball on the ground for all but one play. Fajardo scored untouched on a 2-yard run around the left side for to tie it at 7-7.

Nevada held Texas Tech scoreless in the first quarter, which was a first this season for the Red Raiders. The Wolf Pack found success on the ground early while simultaneously eating clock and keeping the Red Raiders off the field. Their first scoring chance came at the end of a 14-play drive, but Anthony Martinez's 31-yard field goal missed when he hit the right upright.

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) - Seth Doege passed for 366 yards and three touchdowns and Eric Stephens rushed for 124 yards and scored twice, helping Texas Tech come roaring back from a 20-point deficit and beat Kansas 45-34 Saturday in both teams' Big 12 opener.

Doege, who threw three touchdowns the week before against Nevada and set an NCAA record with a 90.9 completion percentage against New Mexico, was 29 for 46. The 6-foot-1 redshirt junior, playing his first full season since high school in 2005, was also intercepted for the first time this season but still turned in another virtuoso performance for the Red Raiders (4-0) to remain among the country's top passers.

Kansas' Jordan Webb, who also came into the game without an interception in his first three games, was picked off three times and each turnover led directly to a Texas Tech TD.

Doege connected with Eric Ward on a 40-yard scoring pass, found Jacoby Franks for a 13-yard TD toss and made it 45-27 late in the third quarter with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Ward, who had 71 yards on four catches.

The Jayhawks (2-2) parlayed a bevy of big plays into 191 yards and three touchdowns on their first 15 plays of the defensively-challenged day. But then Doege and the Red Raiders got hot, scoring 24 unanswered points before Kansas got a 19-yard touchdown pass from Webb to Rell Lewis to take a 27-24 lead after a first half that lasted just 9 minutes short of 2 hours.

The Red Raiders, off to their first 4-0 start since beginning 10-0 in 2008, unleashed a 21-0 third-quarter blitz to salt away their 12th victory in 13 meetings with the Jayhawks.

Stephens tallied on runs of 8 and 1 yards before Ward's final touchdown catch following Cquilin Hubert's interception.

D.J. Beshears got Kansas rolling with a 56-yard return of the opening kickoff. Four plays later, James Sims broke loose up the middle on an 11-yard TD run. Terrance Bullitt blocked the extra point, leaving it 6-0.

On the Jayhawks' second possession, Brandon Bourbon broke into the Tech secondary on a counter play, slipped a tackle, and sped 51 yards into the end zone for Kansas' longest run of the year. Bourbon had 101 yards on 10 carries and Webb was 16 for 22 for 239 yards and three touchdowns.

Doege, who had thrown 122 passes this season without an interception, was picked off by safety Keeston Terry on Texas Tech's next possession and Kansas set up on its own 25. Beshears got 54 yards on a catch-and-run, then, from the 21, Webb connected with tight end Tim Biere.

Texas A&M	10	21	7	7	45
Texas Tech	7	13	10	10	40

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Texas A&M coach Mike Sherman brought out some film from the last couple of seasons this past week to remind his players how it feels to win.

The No. 24 Aggies had lost two straight after holding double-digits leads at halftime when they came into Lubbock.

They led again at halftime, 30-21 against Texas Tech on Saturday night. This time the Aggies prevailed.

"It seems like it's been forever since we've had this feeling," Sherman said after the 45-40 win. "We went back down memory lane a little bit and relieved some of those feelings. And we had that same feeling in there today."

Ryan Tannehill ran for two touchdowns and threw for another for the Aggies.

"That feeling in the locker room makes it all worth it," Tannehill said. "You're in there with your closest brothers, and you're having a good time. To me that's the best feeling you have."

Texas A&M finally put together four quarters, despite being outscored 20-14 in the second half. The Aggies (3-2, 1-1) ran for 205 yards on 46 carries.

Seth Doege threw for three touchdowns and 391 yards to lead Texas Tech (4-1, 1-1). Eric Stephens Jr. injured his knee late in the third quarter and had 122 yards on 22 carries.

"We hate to lose Eric Stephens," Tuberville said. "It doesn't look good." Cyrus Gray and Christine Michael each ran for a score for Texas A&M.

Tannehill found Michael Lamothe early in the fourth quarter for a 5-yard TD to put the Aggies up 45-30. Sherman said he weighted his game plan toward the run. There were 46 rushing plays and 16 passes.

"I didn't want this to be a throw-fest out there," Sherman said. "I wanted to have some balance in running the football. It worked for us so we stayed with it."

Tannehill's pass to Lamothe proved crucial. Doege came back and found Alex Torres on a 20-yard TD pass with 31 seconds remaining in the game to pull within 45-40.

"We gave ourselves a chance at the end but made too many mistakes," Texas Tech coach Tommy Tuberville said. "We couldn't stop their run. We played much better but didn't get anything going offensively in the third quarter."

The game's momentum turned on a blocked field goal by the Aggies in the third quarter. Terrence Frederick put A&M up 38-23 when he picked up the ball and ran 63 yards untouched along the near sideline for the touchdown. Dustin Harris was the Aggie who got his hand on the 50-yard attempt by Donnie Carona.

That score took the air out of the Red Raiders and their fans.

A roughing the kicker penalty on the Aggies earlier in the third quarter gave Texas Tech another shot at scoring. The Red Raiders got only a field goal, though, to pull within 31-23. Steven Terrell appeared to have been pushed into Red Raiders punter Ryan Erxleben on fourth-and-10 from Texas Tech's 35.

Doege found a wide open Torres for a 22-yard gain and then was sacked for a 7-yard loss. Donnie Carona finished the drive with a 49-yard field goal - his second from that distance as the Red Raiders had to settle for 3-pointers throughout the game.

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) - Collin Klein ran for three touchdowns and threw for another as No. 17 Kansas State came from behind to beat Texas Tech 41-34 on Saturday night.

Klein ran for 110 yards on 23 carries, scoring on three short runs and hitting Chris Harper for a 3-yard TD pass on the Wildcats (6-0, 3-0) first drive of the third quarter.

Tyler Lockett returned a kickoff 100 yards early in the second quarter for the Wildcats, who are undefeated after six games for the first time since 2000.

Texas Tech (4-2, 1-2) was held to two field goals in the second half.

Red Raiders coach Tommy Tuberville said the Wildcats were true to form.

"They don't do anything special," he said. "They took advantage of their opportunities and we didn't take advantage of ours. We had too many missed opportunities."

Seth Doege had 461 yards and a touchdown on 43-of-63 passing, but had three of his four turnovers in consecutive possessions in the fourth quarter. He also ran for a score. He had just one interception coming into the game.

"I want them all back," Doege said. "All of them were pretty stupid on my part. As a quarterback one of our jobs is to protect the ball and I did a poor job of that tonight."

After Texas Tech's field goal late in the game to pull within 41-34, the Red Raiders recovered an onside kick when Tremain Swindall fell on the ball at their own 47. But Doege and the offense seemed to rush and failed to get a first down after running four plays.

The Wildcats, who appeared flat in the first half, came out with more energy after halftime. On Kansas State's first possession Klein put together the Wildcats' longest drive of the game, capping it with a fade to the corner of the end zone to Harper to lead 28-27. The TD pass was set up after Klein scrambled out of the pocket for a 25-yard gain to the 3.

Kansas State held the ball for 33:33, while Tech's high-powered offense had it for 26:27.

Kansas State stayed close in the first half but only because of its defense and special teams. The offense mustered just 94 yards, less than half of those on the ground. Texas Tech's defense was tough against the Wildcats run, allowing Kansas State's 26th-ranked rushing offense just 45 yards on 18 carries in the first half.

The plan was to chew up the clock and not let Texas Tech's offense on the field. The Red Raiders, instead, had the ball 2 minutes longer in the first half.

Doege was hot in the first half. He completed 25 of 34 passes for 296 yards, his best first-half of the season.

After Lockett's kick return TD in the second quarter, Anthony Cantele missed the extra point to cut the deficit to 14-13. Lockett took the ball straight up the middle and into a pile of Red Raiders at about the 50. Suddenly, though, he was out front of the pile and outraced them all to the corner of the end zone.

The Wildcats blocked two field goals, setting up a touchdown with the second. Raphael Guidry blocked the kick and Nigel Malone picked it up and returned it 30 yards to the Texas Tech 46. Klein put Kansas State up 20-14 when he scored from a yard out.
