Game Information

Oklahoma State serves as the No. 7 seed at the 2012 Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship and will face No. 10-seed Texas Tech on Wednesday, March 7, at 8:30 pm inside the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo. The game will be televised by the Big 12 Network (KOCB channel 34 in Oklahoma City, KTUL channel 8 in Tulsa). Dave Armstrong will handle the play-by-play duties while Reid Gettys provides color commentary. The Cowboys swept the Red Raiders in two games this season, winning 67-59 at home and 80-63 in Lubbock. The game will also be aired on satellite radio, with the Cowboy Radio broadcast (Sirius channel 93, XM channel 191).

About Oklahoma State

Oklahoma State is 14-17 overall this season and finished 7-11 in Big 12 Conference action following a 77-58 loss at Kansas State on Saturday. The Cowboys finished in sole possession of seventh place in the league standings.

Keiton Page, the lone Cowboy senior, leads the Pokes in scoring, averaging 16.8 ppg overall this season and 18.8 ppg in league play. He is the Big 12 active leader in career three-pointers made with 291, and is second on the team in assists this season with 63. Markel Brown is averaging 10.5 points per game while leading the team in assists (70), and is second on the team in rebounds (162) and steals (39).

Oklahoma State has been hampered by injuries throughout most of the conference portion of the schedule. Jean-Paul Olukemi suffered a knee injury during the Virginia Tech game and is out for the season. Philip Jurick suffered a foot injury prior to the Texas A&M game in College Station and missed four games. He suffered a torn Achilles tendon at K-State and is done for the season. Le'Bryan Nash suffered an injury to his non-shooting hand and is listed as doubtful this week. Only six active Cowboys have played in at least 15 games this season.

About Texas Tech

Texas Tech is 8-22 overall this season and 1-17 in league play, finishing last in the Big 12 Conference. The Red Raiders are led by freshman forward Jordan Tolbert who is the only Tech player averaging double figures at 11.4 points per game. He is also averaging a team-high 5.7 rebounds per game. Three other Red Raiders are averaging at least eight points per contest, led by junior transfer Ty Nurse's 8.9 ppg. Texas Tech is averaging 59.5 ppg as a team and have a -4.4 turnover margin, committing 17.1 miscues per game. The Red Raiders' lone win in conference play this season was a 65-47 victory over Oklahoma in Lubbock. The head coach of TTU is Billy Gillispie, in his first season with the Raiders.

Up Next

The winner of Wednesday night's first-round game will face No. 2-seed Missouri (27-4 overall, 14-4 Big 12) on Thursday at 6 pm in the quarterfinals. That game will be televised on the Big 12 Network.

OSU at the Big 12 Championship

Oklahoma State is 20-13 all-time at the Big 12 Championship, including tournament titles in 2004 and '05. OSU made a third title game in 1999, but fell to Kansas in the finals, the Cowboys' fourth game in four days.

Oklahoma State has never lost a first-round game in the Championship, going 8-0 on the first day of the tournament. OSU has been the No. 7 seed on four previous occasions, and is 4-0 against the No. 10 seed. Oklahoma State won seven-straight tournament games from the quarterfinals of 2004 until the first round of 2006.

Series History vs the Red Raiders

Oklahoma State is 35-15 all-time against Texas Tech, and has won the last three in the series. Since the Big 12 formed in 1996-97, OSU is 26-11 against the Red Raiders. The Cowboys are 18-3 at home, 8-9 on the road, and 9-3 on neutral courts against Texas Tech.

Oklahoma State is 4-1 against the Red Raiders in the Big 12 Championship, having last played in 2008, when No. 9-seeded OSU defeated No. 8-seeded Tech, 76-72.

Last Time vs Texas Tech

Markel Brown scored a career-high 30 points and Oklahoma State connected on 33-of-35 free throws as the Cowboys defeated Texas Tech 80-63 in Lubbock. The victory ended a 14-game road losing streak in conference games for OSU.

Brown went 7 of 12 from the field, including 3 of 6 from beyond the arc, and didn't miss any of his 13 free-throw attempts. Le'Bryan Nash scored 16 points for the Cowboys while adding four assists.

The 94.3 percent shooting from the charity stripe is the sixth-highest in OSU history. The Cowboys were 32 of 33 with less than 10 seconds remaining, which would have been a school record. However, Jaye Crockett fouled Cezar Guerrero with one second remaining, and the Cowboy freshman went 1-for-2 at the line.

Crockett scored 16 points and grabbed 14 rebounds while Robert Lewandowski added 14 for the Red Raiders.

Against the Red Raiders in Stillwater

Keiton Page scored 23 points and Oklahoma State held off a late Texas Tech rally to open Big 12 play with a 67-59 victory inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

After Oklahoma State's 13-point lead dwindled to two, Page hit a step-back three-pointer with 2:40 remaining to put the Cowboys up 60-55. After a miss on the next possession, Page curled around a screen to hit another trey from the left wing and give OSU a six-point edge.

He added four free throws in the final 17 seconds to put the game away.

Oklahoma State committed a school-record low two turnovers in the game, both in the second period. It's the fewest turnovers in a game since the statistic began being kept during the 1974-75 season.

Cowboy freshman Le'Bryan Nash scored 21 points, including 16 in the first half. Markel Brown scored 10 points off the bench despite nursing a leg injury.

Freshman Jordan Tolbert had 13 points and 13 rebounds to lead the Red Raiders. Ty Nurse, Jaye Crockett and Javarez Willis added 11 points apiece.

Page Among All-Time Leaders in Career Scoring

With 22 points at Kansas State, Keiton Page now has 1,609 points in his career, ranking seventh in the school record books. The Cowboys would have to play three games in the Big 12 Championship in Kansas City next week to give him a realistic chance at surpassing Bob Kurland, who had 1,669 points in his career. It's rather ironic that the shortest player to ever score 1,000 points in an OSU career is so close to one of the tallest players in school history. Page finished with 819 career points in Big 12 Conference games only, ranking third in the school record book.

With seven treys against Kansas, Keiton Page became the all-time leader in three-pointers made in OSU history. He now has 291 career threes, surpassing Randy Rutherford's total of 279, which he accomplished in three seasons. Page also holds the all-time record for career three-pointers attempted at 794.

Page ranks seventh on the Big 12 career list, and is just eight treys shy of tying Jacob Pullen of Kansas State and Texas A&M's Josh Carter for fifth on the league list.

Keiton Page ranks seventh nationally in three-pointers made per game, averaging 3.2 treys per contest. He is only five three-pointers away from becoming the fourth player in school history to connect on 100 or more shots from long range in a single season.

5. Keiton Page, OSU	85.8

Page has been fouled 43 times in his career when attempting a three pointer, including eight made treys with opportunities for four-point plays. He has made 5-of-8 of those. On 35 occasions when he was fouled and missed his three-point attempt, he is 98-of-105 on his free-throw shots, good for 93.3 percent.

This season alone, he's been fouled 17 times when shooting a three pointer. He is 42-of-45 (.933) from the line in those situations.

Cowboy senior Keiton Page established two new school records recently. Against Texas A&M in Stillwater, he became the all-time school leader in minutes played. He surpassed Bryant Reeves and his 4,165 career minutes. Page has played 4,205 minutes in his career.

Page also became the first player in school history to compete in 65 conference games. Due to realignment, this is the first season that Oklahoma State has played more than 16 league games since 1927-28. He finished his career with 66 conference games.

Rare Feat

Due to conference realignment, this is the first season that a Big 12 player has an opportunity to play more than 64 career league games. Keiton Page is one of six Big 12 players who have played every conference game of their career. The others are: Quincy Acy of Baylor, Missouri's Marcus Denmon & Kim English, Texas A&M's David Loubeau, and Jamar Samuels of Kansas State. Page and Acy were the first league players to play in 65 career league games on Monday, and as the first game on Saturday, Page and Samuels were the first two to play in 66 career league games.

Miller's Walking Wounded

OSU athletic trainer Jason Miller has had to put in overtime this season, claiming he's had more major injuries to deal with this season than his previous 15 years in working with basketball teams combined. And, with the departures of point guards Reger Dowell and Fred Gulley, OSU has lost an entire starting five this season. Here is a look at what Miller and Coach Ford have had to deal with this season:

Keiton Page — injured his foot in the game against Arkansas-Pine Bluff and missed the UTSA game, ending his streak of consecutive games played at 104 and consecutive starts at 67.

Fred Gulley — suffered a shoulder injury in the game vs Stanford in New York; left the team following the game against New Mexico in Oklahoma City.

Reger Dowell — left the team following the Alabama game in Birmingham on Dec. 21.

Jéan-Paul Olukemi — suffered a torn anterior cruciate ligament in the Virginia Tech game on New Year's Eve.

Philip Jurick — suffered a left foot injury in practice on Jan. 27 and missed four games; suffered a torn Achilles tendon in his right leg at Kansas State and is out for the season.

Le'Bryan Nash — suffered an injury to his left (non-shooting) hand in the game at Oklahoma; has missed three games and is doubtful for the Big 12 Championship.

All six players listed above had started at least three games for the Cowboys this season, while four of them had started 10 or more games. Page is the only one of the six that will most likely play on Wednesday against Texas Tech.

Record Low for Turnovers

The Cowboys established a new school and Big 12 Conference record against Texas Tech when they committed just two turnovers against the Red Raiders. It is the fewest turnovers in a game for OSU since 1974-75, the first season the statistic was kept regularly. It is also the fewest turnovers by any Big 12 school since the league formed in 1996-97.

Earlier in the season, Oklahoma State committed just four turnovers against Pittsburgh in Madison Square Garden. That number tied the previous school record for the fewest miscues in a game. The Cowboys had also committed just four turnovers against Marquette on Jan. 14, 1992.

Oklahoma State is averaging just 12.2 turnovers per game this season, ranking second in the Big 12 only to Missouri and 47th nationally. The lowest turnover average in Oklahoma State history is 12.3 TO/game during the 2008-09 season, when the Cowboys had just 431 turnovers in 35 games. Turnovers have been kept regularly since the 1973-74 season.

In Big 12 games only, Oklahoma State's average drops to 11.7 turnovers per game.

Free Throw Records

Against Texas in Stillwater, Oklahoma State established a Big 12 record for most team free-throws made in a game, making 43 against the Longhorns. The previous league record was 40 on two occasions. Missouri made 40 against Oklahoma in a 1997 Big 12 Tournament game, and Texas Tech made 40 against Southwestern Louisiana on Dec. 6, 1997.

The Cowboys also established a school record for most free-throws attempted with 56 against UT. The previous school record was 55 vs LSU in Tulsa on Dec. 20, 1994. OSU made 40 in that contest. Oklahoma State's 43 makes against the Longhorns tie for the second-most in a single game in school history. The record is 44 at Nebraska on Feb. 14, 1990 (OSU attempted 52), and the 43 tied what the Cowboys made against Wichita State on Jan. 11, 1955.

The One and Only

Senior guard Keiton Page became the first Cowboy in school history to defeat two different teams ranked either No. 1 or No. 2 nationally in his career. Coupled with OSU's 85-77 win over top-ranked Kansas on Feb. 27, 2010, the victory over No. 2 Missouri on Jan. 25 gives Page two of the biggest wins in school history. The only other time Oklahoma State defeated a No. 1 and No. 2 in the same time frame was the 1948-49 squad which beat top-ranked St. Louis on Jan. 20, 1949, then defeated the No. 2 Billikens again 10 games later on Feb. 26, 1949.

40-Point Games

With his game against Texas on Feb. 18, Keiton Page joined rare company. His 40 points marked just the sixth time in school history that a Cowboy has scored 40 or more points in a game. Bob Kurland scored a school-record 58 points against St. Louis in 1946, the only 50-point game in OSU history. Randy Rutherford scored 45 at Kansas in 1995, and Arlen Clark scored 42 vs Colorado in 1959. Ed Odom scored 41 points in a non-conference game against Texas-Pan American in 1979, and Page matched JamesOn Curry's 40 at Baylor in 2007.

Tough Schedule

According to the Sagarin Ratings, Oklahoma State's strength of schedule this season ranks as the second-toughest in the country behind only Michigan. All 10 Big 12 schools have a strength of schedule ranking among the top 45 nationally.

OSU played three top-10 teams in a four-game span last month. Only one other time in school history has Oklahoma State played three top-10 teams in a span of four games. Actually, in the 1995 NCAA Tournament, the Cowboys played three-straight games against top-10 foes. OSU defeated No. 3 Wake Forest and seventh-ranked UMass before falling to No. 1 UCLA in the Final Four.

Kansas in Stillwater was OSU's sixth top-10 opponent this season, the first time OSU has played six top-10 opponents during the regular season since 2002-03.

Block Party

As a team, Oklahoma State has 136 blocked shots this season, an average of 4.4 deflections per game. The Cowboys rank fourth in the Big 12 Conference and 55th nationally.

Junior center Philip Jurick leads the team with 47 blocked shots this season, ranking fourth in the Big 12 and 65th nationally. His 47 blocks are the 14th-most in a single season in school history.

Michael Cobbins is second on the team with 46 blocked shots, the third-most ever by a Cowboy freshman. His total is the 15th-most in a single season in school history. Cobbins ranks sixth in the Big 12 and 106th nationally, while in conference-games only, he ranks third with 31.

Markel Brown has 19 blocks this season after setting a school record for guards with 33 blocked shots as a freshman. He already ranks 15th in the school record book for career blocked shots with 52.

OSU blocked 12 shots in the Stanford game, tied for the fifth-most in a single game in school history and just four shy of the school record. Jurick blocked a career-high six shots against Pittsburgh and has had five blocked shots on two occasions.

Streak Alive

Oklahoma State has made at least one three pointer in 384 consecutive games, a school-record streak that nearly ended against Kansas State in Stillwater on Jan. 21. The Cowboys went 1-of-16 from beyond the arc, the lone make by Keiton Page with two minutes left in the game. Page has been the streak savior four times in his career, including three times last season. He also maintained the streak against Oklahoma (OSU was 1 of 14), Central Arkansas (1 of 12) and vs. DePaul (1 of 10) in 2010-11.

Since OSU's streak began in 2001, the Pokes have made just one trey on 15 occasions, and are 8-7 in those games. Surprisingly, 10 of those 15 games have been inside Gallagher-Iba Arena.

After going 0-for-6 in the season opener against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, Page has made at least one three pointer in 29 consecutive games. He has made multiple treys on 26 occasions this season.

Starting Lineups

Coach Travis Ford will use his 14th different lineup for the first round of the Big 12 Championship. Despite the limited number of bodies available throughout most of the season, he's only used one lineup more than four times. Here is a look at the games and which players were on the floor for tipoff:

Opponent	Guard	Guard	Guard/Forward	Forward	Center	Record
Games 1 & 2	Gulley	Page	Olukemi	Nash	Cobbins	2-0
Game 3	Gulley	Brown	Olukemi	Nash	Cobbins	1-0
Game 4	Dowell	Brown	Olukemi	Nash	Cobbins	0-1
Game 5-7	Guerrero	Page	Brown	Olukemi	Jurick	2-1
Game 8	Dowell	Page	Brown	Olukemi	Jurick	1-0
Game 9	Gulley	Page	Brown	Olukemi	Jurick	0-1
Game 10	Gulley	Page	Brown	Nash	Jurick	0-1

Game 12 & 13	Page	Brown	Olukemi	Nash	Jurick	1-1
Game 14-17	Page	B. Williams	Nash	Cobbins	Jurick	2-2
Game 21	Guerrero	Page	B. Williams	Nash	Cobbins	0-1
Game 18-20, 22-28	Page	Brown	B. Williams	Nash	Cobbins	4-6
Game 29-31	Page	Brown	B. Williams	Cobbins	Jurick	1-2

Regardless of who starts on Wednesday, every lineup this season has had either Nash, Olukemi or Jurick starting.

Biggest Upsets

The victory over second-ranked Missouri on January 25 could rank as the biggest upset by Oklahoma State in school history. It was the first time in school history that a sub-.500 team defeated a top-five opponent. The Cowboys were one game over .500 (13-12) when they defeated No. 4 Kansas in 2008 and also one game over .500 (12-11) when they beat No. 3 Kansas State in 1962.

Big 12 Statistical Rankings

- In the Big 12 Conference rankings, Keiton Page ranks second in league-games only and fifth in all games, averaging 18.8 ppg in league games and 16.8 ppg overall. He ranks 88th nationally in scoring.
- Freshman Le'Bryan Nash ranks 13th in all games at 13.3 points per contest and ninth in league-games only at 14.7 ppg. Markel Brown ranked 19th, averaging 12.1 ppg in league-games only.
- Michael Cobbins ranks 10th in the league in rebounding with his 5.7 rebounds per game. Markel Brown ranks 16th at 5.2 boards per contest. Le'Bryan Nash is tied for 19th, averaging 5.0 rebounds per game. In league-games only, Cobbins moves all the way up to fifth at 7.2 boards per game, while Nash ranks 17th at 5.1 rebounds per contest. Brown is tied for 18th at 4.9 rpg.
- Keiton Page ranks fifth in the Big 12 Conference in steals, averaging 1.5 thefts per contest. Markel Brown is 11th at 1.3 steals per game.
- Page ranks fifth in the Big 12 and 50th nationally in free-throw percentage at 84.7 percent.
- Page ranks first in the Big 12 and seventh nationally with his 3.2 three-point field goals made per game. He ranks 13th in the league and 47th nationally in three-point percentage at 38.2 percent. Keiton also leads the league for three-pointers made in conference-games only at 3.6 per game.
- Page leads the league in minutes played per game, averaging 35.4 minutes per outing.
- OSU ranks third in the Big 12 and 44th nationally in free-throw percentage at 73.3 percent. In league-games only, that percentage improves to 76.1 percent, also third in the conference.
- Oklahoma State ranks third in the Big 12 and 59th nationally in three-point field-goal percentage defense at 31.4 percent.

Freshman Class

Oklahoma State had five freshmen in its eight-man rotation this season. Three of those five have been starters and are seeing significant playing time. In fact, since conference play began, the five freshmen have accumulated 616 of OSU's 1,189 points this season, or 51.8 percent. The freshmen have grabbed 306 of OSU's 495 rebounds, or 61.8 percent.

Since league play began, Le'Bryan Nash ranks ninth in the league in scoring, averaging 14.7 points per game. He ranks 10th in field goal percentage at 41.8 percent. Michael Cobbins ranks fifth in the league in rebounding, averaging 7.2 boards per contest. Nash is 17th at 5.1 rpg. Cobbins ranks third in the Big 12 in blocked shots at 1.7 deflections per game.

Nash's 13.4 points per game ranks as the second-highest by a Cowboy freshman in OSU history. Richard Dumas holds the rookie record at 17.4 ppg. Nash's 362 points rank fourth among OSU freshmen.

Cobbins is shooting 49.2 percent from the floor this season, which would rank sixth among all-time Cowboy freshmen. Nash's 73.8 percent from the free-throw line would rank third among OSU's all-time freshmen.

Page Named All-Big 12

Cowboy senior Keiton Page is a unanimous second-team All-Big 12 selection this season. He was named All-Big 12 Second Team in a vote of the league coaches, announced Sunday by the conference office. He is a two-time All-Big 12 pick by the Associated Press, as the AP has named him second-team All-Big 12 this season after being an honorable mention All-Big 12 selection as a junior. The Kansas City Star has also named Page a second-team All-Big 12 honoree.

Nash Top Big 12 Freshman

Le'Bryan Nash was named the Big 12 Conference's Freshman of the Year by the Associated Press, and was named the co-Big 12 Conference Freshman of the Year, tying Baylor's Quincy Miller in the vote of the league coaches. Nash was also named to the Big 12 All-Rookie Team, as well as All-Big 12 Honorable Mention.

Nash is the first Cowboy in school history to be named the conference freshman of the year. He was also named the preseason Big 12 Freshman of the Year.

Seniors Earn Academic Honors

A pair of Cowboys were named to the Academic All-Big 12 First Team last week. Seniors Keiton Page and Darrell Williams were both named to the first team with grade point averages of 3.2 or higher. It is the first honor for Williams (majoring in university studies) and the second honor for Page (majoring in physical education). Page is the sixth Cowboy to earn Academic All-Big 12 honors on two occasions and is the first two-time first-team selection since Fredrik Jönzén in 2001-02.

Smart an All-American

Marcus Smart is one of 24 high school seniors listed on the 2012 McDonald's All-American rosters and will compete for the West Team at the 35th annual McDonald's All-American High School Basketball Games.

He is the fifth Cowboy signee in the last eight seasons to be named a McDonald's All-American, joining: Byron Eaton and Gerald Green, both McDonald's All-Americans in 2005; James Anderson, a 2007 McDonald's All-American; and Le'Bryan Nash, a McDonald's All-American in 2011.

The McDonald's All-American games will be played at the United Center in Chicago on March 28. The girls' game will start at 6:30 pm CT (ESPN) while the boys' game will tip off at 8:30 pm CT and be televised on ESPN.

Cowboys in the NBA

Oklahoma State has had a rich tradition of former players making it to the National Basketball Association. Eighteen former Cowboys have played in more than 3,000 games in the NBA in the last two decades. Four former Cowboys are currently playing in the NBA:

Tony Allen has the longest tenure of any current Cowboy in the NBA and was a member of the Boston Celtics when they won the World Championship in 2008. Allen is in his second season with the Memphis Grizzlies, and has started 33 of 34 games so far this season. He is averaging 10.6 points and 3.8 rebounds per contest, including a season-high 21 points against Utah on Jan. 6, which he matched against New Jersey. He's also shooting 46.6 percent from the floor, including 36.4 percent from long range, and 77.8 percent from the free-throw line. Entering the 2011-12 season, Allen had played in 408 career games, starting 113.

James Anderson is in his second season with the San Antonio Spurs. He was limited to 26 games and two starts during the 2010-11 season due to injury. So far this season, he has played in 28 games with one start. He scored a career-high 12 points against the Los Angeles Clippers on Dec. 28 this season, and is currently averaging 3.8 points and 1.5 rebounds per game.

Terrel Harris was signed by the Miami Heat before the season started after spending the 2010-11 season bouncing around the D-League. This year, he has played in nine games, averaging 3.3 points and 2.6 rebounds per game. His best outing so far came against the Atlanta Hawks on Jan. 5, when he grabbed a career-high 14 points and matched his career best with nine points in 44 minutes on the court.

After a sporadic two-year career with the Houston Rockets (2005-07), John Lucas latched on with the Chicago Bulls in 2010-11 and has been a productive backup. In fact, in his first-career start against the Washington Wizards on Jan. 11, Lucas scored a career-high 25 points, grabbed eight rebounds and dished out eight assists in 46 minutes as the Bulls won, 78-64. He also limited the Wizards' John Wall to 11 points on 4-of-13 shooting and forced four turnovers. Lucas has played in 27 games this season with two starts and is averaging 5.3 points and 1.7 assists per game while shooting 41.7 percent from beyond the arc.

Three former Cowboys are playing in the NBA Development League. Maurice Baker and Marcus Dove are both playing with the Dakota Wizards, while JamesOn Curry is playing with the Springfield Armor. In fact, Curry was named to the East squad for the sixth annual NBADL All-Star game, held Feb. 25 at the NBA All-Star Jam Session. He scored a team-high 25 points in a losing cause.

Cardiac Cowboys

The Cowboys have made a habit of digging themselves into deep holes during games this season, only to crawl back out in dramatic fashion. In five of OSU's 12 wins this season, the Cowboys trailed by at least seven points at some point during the game. In two of those five games, OSU had to recover from double-digit deficits.

Against UTSA, OSU trailed the Roadrunners by 11 at 71-60 with 2-1/2 minutes remaining in regulation. Four free throws by Jean-Paul Olukemi and a three-pointer by Reger Dowell put the Pokes on a 7-1 run and cut the lead to five. Still down seven with 1:12 left, a back-and-forth battle over the next minute still left the Cowboys down by six with 13 seconds remaining. Freshman Cezar Guerrero scored a conventional three-point play and on the inbounds pass, the Cowboy rookie stole the ball, stepped behind the arc and drained a trey to tie the game and send it into overtime. Guerrero scored eight of OSU's 13 points in the extra period and the Cowboys won, 90-85.

Against Missouri State, the Cowboys were down 12 points, 52-40, with 17:29 remaining in the game after MSU went on a 5-0 run to start the second half. OSU used a 9-0 run to cut the lead to three, and took their first lead of the second period when Keiton Page hit a three to give OSU a 50-49 lead. The Pokes still trailed by two at 67-65 with 3:13 left in the game when Fred Gulley hit a pair of free throws to take the lead for good. Oklahoma State ended the game on a 9-1 run.

In seven other games, Oklahoma State made big-time comebacks in the second half, only to eventually fall short. The Cowboys trailed Stanford by 28 with just over 7-1/2 minutes remaining in the game, but OSU went on a 21-8 run over the final minutes for a respectable 15-point loss.

Against Pittsburgh, the Pokes trailed by 16 at 59-43 with nine minutes to play in the game. But, a 25-15 run, including eight points by freshman Le'Bryan Nash, and seven free throws down the stretch kept OSU at arms length and the No. 15 Panthers came away with the six-point win, 74-68.

In the All-College Classic, the Cowboys trailed New Mexico by 13 just two minutes into the second half. However, the Pokes went on a 25-11 run to take a 53-52 lead with 7:27 remaining in the game when Jean-Paul Olukemi hit a three pointer. It was the last basket OSU would make in the contest as the Lobos went on a 14-3 run to end the game in a 66-56 win.

In OSU's game against Alabama, the Cowboys fell behind 19-4 at the first media timeout and trailed by 19 just 11-1/2 minutes into the game. The Tide led 49-30 with 14 minutes left in the contest. Never giving up, the Pokes went on a 9-0 run to cut the lead to 10, and with 5:47 remaining, cut the lead to single digits at 56-47 on a three-pointer by Cezar Guerrero. However, OSU simply expended too much energy trying to come back and finally fell, 69-52.

In the Virginia Tech game, Oklahoma State trailed by 10 points with five minutes remaining in the game, but the Cowboys went on a 10-0 run over a three-minute span to tie the game at 61-61 before failing to score over the final two minutes. Nash scored five points during the run, while Guerrero connected on a pair of free throws and Brian Williams hit a trey to tie the game.

Oklahoma State was down 13 points to Kansas State with just over nine minutes remaining. The Cowboys cut the lead to three on a trey by Keiton Page with two minutes to go, but were unable to overtake the Wildcats, falling 66-58.

OSU fell behind Baylor by 12 midway through the first half at home, but tied the game up five minutes into the second period at 39-39. Seven minutes later, the Pokes were down nine at 50-41, but a 16-6 run gave Oklahoma State a one-point lead with 1:44 remaining. OSU eventually lost by four, outscored 8-3 in the final 1:30.

While it wasn't likely that Oklahoma State would win at Kansas after falling behind by 29 in the first half, the Cowboys did make it interesting, cutting the lead down to 12 with 6:46 remaining thanks to some fine defensive pressure. OSU eventually lost to the No. 7 Jayhawks by 15.

The most recent game that kept the old ticker pumping was the Bedlam game in Norman. Oklahoma State fell behind early and scored just 12 points in the first half, trailing by 18 at intermission. Coach Ford must have given quite a halftime speech, as the Cowboys came out of the locker room and went on a 27-12 run to cut the lead to three at 42-39. OSU had two chances to tie the game, but both three-point attempts rimmed out. The Sooners went on a 9-0 run, ending any chance at a victory.

Head Coach Travis Ford

Travis Ford is wrapping up his fourth season as the head man for the Oklahoma State Cowboys. He is just the second coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament in his first two seasons in charge of the Cowboys, and his 23 victories in his initial campaign are the second-most wins by a head coach in his inaugural season at Oklahoma State.

In four seasons at the helm of the Cowboys, he has already led OSU to nine victories over top-25 opponents, including four wins over top-10 foes.

Ford is in his 15th season as a head coach at either the Division I or II level and has mastered the art of generating successful programs.

He began his career at Campbellsville and after a 16-17 mark in his initial season, he resurrected the team to a 28-3 record the following season.

It took a few more years after he took over at Eastern Kentucky, but by his fifth season, the Colonels won 22 games and made an NCAA Tournament appearance.

Then at UMass, he went 13-15 his initial season before back-to-back 20-win seasons his final two years.

Ford has compiled a 269-200 overall record as a head coach, including a 201-169 mark at the Division I level. The 90-78 win over Texas was his 200th career victory as a Division I coach. He is 25 games over .500 with a 79-54 record at Oklahoma State.

At OSU, his .594 winning percentage ranks as the third-highest in school history — coach Eddie Sutton finished at 70.9 percent and Mr. Iba won 67.3 percent — and Ford's 79 victories are the fourth-most in school history. He has moved past John Maulbetsch on the career coaching victories list.

Shots From the Heart

Head coach Travis Ford and assistant coach Steve Middleton were invited to compete in a special project this year. "Shots From The Heart" is being sponsored to help create more awareness for the growing problem of heart disease and to raise money to benefit the Skip Prosser Foundation. CollegeInsider.com and the Skip Prosser Foundation are working with the American Heart Association, which will be a beneficiary of the Skip Prosser Foundation, to further promote "Shots from the Heart" and the educational aspects of heart disease.

Competing coaches were placed into a 64-person bracket, shooting 25 free throws and keeping track of their scores. Every few weeks, the participants in the bracket are narrowed down based on their total points in the competition, until a winner has been determined.

So far, Coach Ford has defeated Central Michigan's Ernie Zeigler in the first round, Jim Laranaga of Miami in the second round and Niagara's Joe Mihalich in the Sweet 16.

Ford has defeated Bruce Weber of Illinois in the Elite Eight, and will advance to the Final Four against Sean Miller of Arizona. The other match in the semifinals pits Detroit's Ray McCallum against Buzz Peterson of UNC-Wilmington.

Ford has made 99 of 100 free throws in the competition so far. Peterson is 96 of 100, Miller is 98 of 100 and McCallum has been perfect on all 100 free-throw attempts.

Fans and media can check out the bracket at <www.collegeinsider.com>.

Radio Broadcast Crew

Oklahoma State Cowboy Basketball fans are fortunate to have four professional members on the radio broadcast crew. Dave Hunziker is entering his 11th season as the play-by-play voice of the Cowboys. He is joined court-side by John Holcomb, sports director at KOTV in Tulsa, who is in his fifth year as the color analyst for the broadcast. Big 12 This Week host Chad McKee and former Cowboy Bryndon Manzer serve as the play-by-play and analyst for the Cowboy Television Network games and also as the alternate crew for Cowboy Basketball radio broadcasts.

Radio Show Schedule

Dave Hunziker will host Coach Ford's radio show live once a week on the Cowboy Radio Network. The show airs from 6-7 pm, mostly on Monday of each week depending on the team's schedule, starting the first week of December. Each week's scheduled broadcast will be listed on the calendar on page 1 of these game notes.

Cowboys Ink Three for 2012-13

Three players have signed National Letters of Intent with the Oklahoma State Cowboy Basketball team and will enter OSU for the 2012-13 academic year.

“We’re very excited about all three signees,” Ford said. “All three have very distinctive skills, but they all have something in common. They’re all high-character guys that love winning. They love to play the game. All three of them are gym rats and live in the gym. All three of these guys really fit my personality and I’m excited about them.”

Marcus Smart, a 6-4, 220-pound wing out of Marcus High School in Flower Mound, Texas, is a unanimous five-star recruit and a unanimous top-15 player nationally. Clark Francis of HoopScoop has Smart rated as the No. 2 player in the country. The Texas Gatorade Player of the Year averaged 15.1 points, 9.2 rebounds, 5.1 assists and 2.5 steals per game as a junior. He is currently averaging 13.6 points, 8.9 rebounds and 4.7 assists per game as a senior. Smart chose the Cowboys over a host of schools, including North Carolina, Kansas, Stanford, Arizona, Texas, Marquette, Oklahoma, Missouri and Baylor.

“Marcus Smart is a guy who can play the one (point guard), two (shooting guard), three (small forward) or four (power forward). He’s just an overall winner. He does everything. He plays at a level of energy that hasn’t been matched by many people that I’ve seen. He’s the ultimate competitor. He can really shoot it for his size, he’ll get down there and bang it, he’s athletic, he can rebound, and he does all these things for his high school team. He might play the point for a while, he might play the two for a while, he might go down there and post for a while. He’s the most versatile player in the class of 2012. You ask anyone, and they all say, ‘he’s a winner and can do so many different things to help you win’. He’s a great leader, and it’s very contagious.”

Phil Forte, a 5-11, 165-pound guard and high school teammate of Smart, is a versatile guard who can play the point or off-guard position. He averaged 17.2 points per game while connecting on 120 three-pointers his junior season. He is currently averaging 14.9 points per game while connecting on 3.1 three-pointers per contest. He is a three-star recruit and was ranked as the No. 27 point guard in the country according to Scout.com. He is also a three-star prospect according to Rivals.com. Forte received scholarship offers from several Big 12 schools, including Kansas, Kansas State, Oklahoma and Texas Tech.

“Phillip is probably THE premier shooter in the country,” said Ford. “I have not seen a close second. He can really shoot, which is his number one strength. His other strengths are that he’s really, really strong with the ball in his hands. He can create and is a really good ball handler. When I watched him play this summer, the better the competition was, the better he played. And his AAU team played against THE best competition in the country. It was just impressive to watch him raise the level

We Will Remember

Although it seems impossible, for the second time in just over a decade, Oklahoma State’s basketball programs were hit by tragedy. On Nov. 17, head women’s basketball coach Kurt Budke, assistant coach Miranda Serna, former state senator and OSU alum Olin Branstetter, and his wife Paula, were killed in a plane crash west of Little Rock, Ark. The Branstetter’s were taking coaches Budke and Serna to Little Rock on a recruiting visit.

Coach Budke was in his seventh season as the Cowgirls’ head coach, with an all-time record at OSU of 112-83. His team was 1-0 after a convincing victory over Rice just four days earlier. Under his direction, Oklahoma State made post-season appearances in each of the past five seasons, including three trips to the NCAA Tournament.

During the 2009-10 season, the Cowgirls won 24 games, including a school-record six victories over Top-25 teams, achieved a top-10 national ranking for the first time ever, and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Budke transformed a program that endured a winless conference season in 2005-06 into a league-title contender and NCAA Sweet 16 participant just two years later. He was married to the former Shelley Balthazor and the couple has three children: Sara, Alex and Brett.

2012-13 Recruiting Class

Player	Pos	Ht	Hometown (High School/Last School)	Hoop Scoop Ranking
Phil Forte	G	5-11	Flower Mound, Texas (Marcus HS)	No. 76 overall
Kamari Murphy	F	6-8	Brooklyn, N.Y. (Lincoln HS/IMG Academy)	No. 11 5th-Year
Marcus Smart	G/F	6-4	Flower Mound, Texas (Marcus HS)	No. 2 overall

of his game all summer long. He’s used to winning. He wakes up every morning and before he goes to school, he goes to the gym. Phillip is a winner and has always been a winner. I look forward to coaching him every day.”

The Flower Mound Marcus duo led their team to the Texas Class 5A state championship with a 40-38 victory over Garland Lakeview Centennial last March. The Marauders finished with a 39-1 record, just one year after finishing 37-3 and falling to Fort Bend Bush 45-43 in the title game when Smart and Forte were both sophomores. Smart was named the MVP of the 2011 state championship, recording 16 points, 11 rebounds, four steals and two assists in the title game. Forte scored 14 points and dished out five assists in a semifinal win over Fort Bend Hightower.

This season, Flower Mound Marcus is 37-2 overall, ranked No. 1 in Class 5A in the state of Texas, and has advanced to the Class 5A semifinals of the state tournament in Texas. The Marauders are the No. 9-ranked team nationally in the USA Today Super 25. Smart and Forte will both compete in the 2012 Kentucky Derby Basketball Classic in April.

Kamari Murphy, a 6-8, 210-pound forward originally from Brooklyn, N.Y., is spending a post-graduate year at IMG Academy in Bradenton, Fla. Murphy spent the previous two years playing for Lincoln High School in Brooklyn — the same school that produced Stephon Marbury, Sebastian Telfair and Lance Stephenson. Murphy averaged 17 points and more than 10 rebounds per game as a senior, helping lead the Railsplitters to the PSAL Class-AA title game as a senior and the Brooklyn regular-season crown and borough title.

“Kamari is an ultra-athletic player with a very high motor, another guy who gets raves from his coaches on how hard he works every single day,” Ford said. “They say he never has an off day as far as effort. He’s an incredible young man who’s got a great attitude. I think he’s got a great upside as far as his athleticism, his length at 6-8 or 6-9, and how he fits our system. He can knock down the 15-foot jump shot with consistency. He does have to continue to work on his low-post game, but he does have a low-post game. The way we play, he could possibly be one of the premier shot blockers because he’s athletic, he runs hard and has an extremely high motor. He’s prepping (going to prep school) for a year which is only going to help him get bigger and stronger and come in here ready to play.”

Murphy, a three-star prospect according to Rivals.com, selected Oklahoma State after being recruited by Florida, Miami, Auburn, Missouri, Pittsburgh, Arizona and Coach Serna was in her seventh season as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State. She helped guide the resurgence of the OSU women’s basketball program and served as the recruiting coordinator.

Serna came to OSU from Louisiana Tech, where she worked in the same capacity under Budke. Prior to Ruston, La., she served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Fresno State. Serna was also spent the 2001-02 season as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Chicago State.

She began her Division I coaching career at Long Beach State, coaching there for two seasons. Serna got her feet wet in the coaching profession under Budke, joining his staff at Trinity Valley Community College in 1997 and helping lead the Lady Cardinals to the NJCAA National Championship in 1999.

As a player, she helped lead TVCC to the NJCAA national title in 1996 and finished her collegiate career at Houston.

She is survived by her mother, Nettie Herrera of Guadalupita, N.M., and her father, John Serna, of Ledoux, N.M.

Cowboys Win Season Opener

OSU defense holds Islanders to just 39 points as OSU cruises

Stillwater, Okla. — Oklahoma State held an opponent to the fewest points in the Travis Ford era, and the Cowboys cruised past Texas A&M-Corpus Christi here Friday night in the season opener. Freshman Le'Bryan Nash led OSU with 13 points while fellow freshman Cezar Guerrero added 12.

The Cowboys started the season on a 9-0 run and led by 13 just over 10 minutes into the contest at 17-4. A free throw by Nash with less than 30 seconds remaining in the first period gave OSU a 31-11 lead which the Pokes took into the locker room.

It was much of the same in the second half as the Islanders never got closer than 20 in the second stanza and took a 30-point lead at 69-39 when Guerrero hit a trey with just over a minute to go in the game. The Cowboys committed just one turnover after intermission.

Jéan-Paul Olukemi was the only other Cowboy in double figures with 11. In his first official start, redshirt freshman Michael Cobbins scored seven points, grabbed four rebounds and blocked four shots. Junior-college transfer Philip Jurick did not attempt a shot in the game, but pulled down a game-high 10 rebounds.

Notes

- Oklahoma State improved to 79-24 all-time in season openers, including a current streak of 17-consecutive wins. The Cowboys are 91-12 all-time in home season openers, including a streak of 37 straight.
- Oklahoma State's 32-point win was the largest margin of victory since a 93-61 win over Southern on Nov. 18, 2009, a span of 65 games.
- The Islanders' 39 points were the fewest against OSU since Northwestern State scored 36 against the Pokes on Dec. 31, 2007. It's the fewest points by an opponent in the Ford era.
- Oklahoma State's six turnovers were the fewest by a Cowboy squad since the Pokes had six against Pacific on Dec. 29, 2009.
- Redshirt freshman Michael Cobbins' four blocked shots rank as the eighth-most in a single game by a freshman in school history.

OSU Advances in NIT Season Tip-Off

Cowboys rout UAPB in the second half after trailing early

Stillwater, Okla. — Jean-Paul Olukemi scored 15 points, Brian Williams came off the bench to score 12 and Oklahoma State overcame a slow start to beat Arkansas-Pine Bluff 73-46 Tuesday night in the opening round of the NIT Season Tip-Off.

The Cowboys (2-0) shot 50 percent in the second half to pull away after leading by seven at halftime.

Markel Brown contributed 11 points and 10 rebounds and Philip Jurick had seven points, 10 rebounds and five blocks for Oklahoma State. Williams scored eight points during a 10-0 run that gave the Cowboys the lead for good late in the first half, and they put it away with a 9-0 run that pushed the lead to 69-45 on Brown's reverse layup with about 3 minutes left.

Savalace Townsend led the Lions (0-1) with 12 points on 5 for 16 shooting.

Notes

- With 51 rebounds against Arkansas-Pine Bluff tonight, it marks the first time OSU has gone over the 50-boards mark since Nov. 14, 2009, when the Cowboys grabbed 52 against Seattle.
- Sophomore guard Markel Brown recorded his first-career double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds. It was his first-career double-figure rebounding game, besting his career high of eight.
- With UAPB scoring just 46 points tonight, it marks the first time since the 2001-02 season that OSU has held back-to-back opponents to less than 50 points each. The last time the Cowboys accomplished that feat was on Dec. 8 and Dec. 17, 2001, when OSU held Jackson State to 41 point and Northwestern State to 44.
- Junior Philip Jurick's five blocked shots tonight rank as the ninth most by a Cowboy junior in school history, two shy of the OSU record for a junior.
- With two three-pointers against the Lions, senior guard Keiton Page moved past James On Curry and into fifth place on the OSU career three-pointers made list. Page now has 198 career treys, just two shy of the 200 mark. Curry had 197 threes in his three years in a Cowboy uniform.
- Page also moved past Curry in the career minutes-played list, moving into 15th place on that chart. Page now has 3,239 career minutes played, while Curry had 3,234.

Cowboys Win Thriller Over UTSA

Guerrero scores six points in final 12 seconds of regulation, eight in OT

Stillwater, Okla. — Cezar Guerrero tied a school single-game record for a freshman with 29 points, and OSU overcame an 11-point deficit in the final 2-1/2 minutes as the Oklahoma State Cowboys defeated UTSA 90-85 in overtime.

Down 71-60 with 2-1/2 minutes remaining in regulation, it appeared that the Cowboys would suffer their first loss of the young season. Jean-Paul Olukemi was fouled and scored both free throws to cut the lead to single digits.

After three-consecutive possessions resulted in turnovers, Reger Dowell hit a three pointer, cutting the lead to six at 71-65. Michael Hale, who had a team-high 26 points for UTSA, hit 1-of-2 from the line. Olukemi was fouled again, and hit both shots from the stripe to cut it to five.

A layup by Igor Nujic with 1:12 left in the game gave the Roadrunners a three-possession lead. Olukemi grabbed the rebound off a Guerrero miss, and was fouled again, connecting on both FTs. A miss by Nujic and a defensive board by Guerrero led to a follow make by Le'Bryan Nash, cutting the UTSA lead to three.

Hale hit both free throws after being fouled by Fred Gulley, putting UTSA ahead 76-71 with 27 seconds remaining. A missed three by Dowell, and a foul by Markel Brown gave Nujic a chance to make it a three-possession game again, this time with 18 seconds remaining. He missed the first, but hit the second, making it 77-71.

A conventional three-point play by Guerrero cut the lead in half. The speedy freshman then stole the in-bounds pass, stepped behind the arc and drained a trey with about eight seconds to go, sending the game into overtime.

Guerrero was one of four players on each team that reached double figures. Nash had 18 points and nine rebounds, while Olukemi scored 10 of his 12 points at the line. Dowell chipped in 11 off the bench, while OSU big man Philip Jurick recorded his third-straight double-figure rebounding game with 10 boards.

Notes

- Cezar Guerrero's 29 points tied the OSU record for a freshman. The mark was set by Byron Houston vs Kansas State in 1989 and matched by James Anderson vs Prairie View A&M in 2007.
- Guerrero's eight three pointers tied for the second-most in a single game in school history. The last time a Cowboy hit eight treys in a single game was Obi Muonelo at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi on Dec. 14, 2008. It also tied for the most ever hit by a Cowboy inside Gallagher-Iba Arena, matching Randy Rutherford's eight against Oklahoma on Feb. 7, 1994.
- With 10 boards against the Roadrunners, junior Philip Jurick recorded a double-figure rebounding game for the third-straight contest.

Cowboys Fall in NIT Semifinals, 82-67

Stanford Cardinal race past OSU, hold Pokes off at end

New York City, N.Y. — Freshman Le'Bryan Nash scored 16 points and Markel Brown added 11, but Stanford led by as many as 28 points before the Cowboys ended the game on a run and lost to the Cardinal, 82-67, here in the semifinals of the Dick's Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off Wednesday night.

Stanford's Josh Owens made his first nine shots from the field and finished with 21 points to lead the Cardinal. He scored 13 of his team's first 15 points.

Owens was 10 of 12 from the field as the Cardinal had their best game of the season from beyond the 3-point line. Stanford (5-0) will play No. 5 Syracuse for the championship on Friday night.

Oklahoma State (3-1) will face Virginia Tech at 2:30 pm ET on Friday afternoon. The Cowboys are already scheduled to host the Hokies in Gallagher-Iba Arena on New Year's Eve.

Chasson Randle added 17 points and Aaron Bright had 15 for the Cardinal, who took control with an 18-0 run that spanned both halves.

Stanford scored the last six points of the first half to take a 46-35 lead and the Cardinal opened the second half on a 12-0 run. They hit four of their nine 3-pointers during the spurt.

Stanford came into the game shooting 32.8 percent from 3-point range and the most 3s the Cardinal had in one game was seven against UC Davis. The Cardinal were 5 of 10 from long range in the first half, with Bright going 3 for 5. Randle matched his effort in the second half and Stanford was 9 of 19 from beyond the arc in the game.

It was another solid defensive effort by the Cardinal, who hadn't allowed an opponent to reach 60 points in their first four games.

Stanford's lead reached as much as 28 points, the last time at 74-46 on a basket by Randle with 7:46 to play.

Oklahoma State, which won this tournament in 1991, is 18-10 at Madison Square Garden.

Notes

- For the second time this season, junior Philip Jurick blocked five shots in a single game. The 6-11 center also had five blocked shots against Arkansas-Pine Bluff and is averaging 2.8 blocked shots per game this season.
- As a team, the Cowboys blocked 12 shots, the first time since 2003 that OSU has recorded 12 blocked shots. It also ranks tied for the fifth-most blocks in a single game in school history. The Cowboys are averaging 6.8 blocked shots per game this season.

Cowboys Fall in Consolation Finals of NIT

Markel Brown records second-career double-double in loss

New York City, N.Y. — Markel Brown scored a game-high 19 points and grabbed 10 rebounds for his second-career double-double, but the Cowboys gave up 22 offensive rebounds and fell to Virginia Tech 59-57 in the consolation finals of the Dick' Sporting Goods NIT Season Tip-Off here inside Madison Square Garden.

Erick Green scored 18 points for Virginia Tech, while Dorian Finney-Smith recorded a double-double of his own with 10 points and 14 boards, including eight offensive. Despite not making a field goal over the final 61/2 minutes, the Hokies (4-1) went 10 of 17 from the free throw line over the final 6:01 to hold off the Cowboys (3-2), who got within two points twice.

Finney-Smith hit a three-pointer with 6:49 to play to give Virginia Tech a 49-40 lead. Two free throws by Jarell Eddie kept the Hokies up 53-44 with 5:27 left. Oklahoma State scored the next seven points to get within 53-51 with 3:37 left on a drive by Jean-Paul Olukemi. The other time the Cowboys got within two was the final margin on a 3-pointer by Keiton Page with 1.4 seconds left.

Olukemi had 13 points and Page added 11. The Cowboys shot nearly 41 percent from the floor, but connected on just 3-of-17 three-pointers, or 17.6 percent. OSU turned the ball over just 11 times, but those 11 miscues led to 16 Hokie points. Meanwhile, the Pokes could only muster six points off 11 VT turnovers.

Virginia Tech, which lost 69-58 to No. 5 Syracuse in the semifinals, took the lead for good with a 14-0 run that gave the Hokies a 21-12 lead with 6:40 left in the first half. The Cowboys went 5:57 without a point, missing two shots and committing four turnovers in the span.

Oklahoma State, which lost 82-67 to Stanford in the semifinals, won this tournament in 1991.

These teams play a regularly scheduled game in Stillwater, Okla., on Dec. 31.

Notes

- Markel Brown recorded career highs for both points (19) and rebounds (10) against Virginia Tech. It was his second double-double of the season and of his career.
- Oklahoma State lost for just the second time in the Travis Ford era when holding an opponent to fewer than 60 points. The other loss was also to Virginia Tech, a 56-51 setback against the Hokies in the 76 Classic last season in Anaheim.
- The Cowboys lost for just the sixth time in the Ford era when shooting better than their opponent from the field. OSU is 56-6 when shooting for a higher percentage than its opponent since Ford became head coach.
- Oklahoma State gave up 20 or more offensive rebounds for the first time since Texas grabbed 23 offensive boards on Feb. 28, 2009, a span of 78 games. OSU won that contest, 68-59.

Cowboys Slip Past Tulsa, 59-56

Le'Bryan Nash scores a game-high 21 points in win

Stillwater, Okla. — Freshman Le'Bryan Nash scored a career-high 21 points, Keiton Page added 15 and Oklahoma State recovered after squandering a 10-point halftime lead to beat Tulsa 59-56 on Wednesday night.

The Cowboys (4-2) needed to rally in the final minutes for a second-straight home game, but this time, it wasn't nearly as dramatic as the 11-point deficit they overcame in the final 2-1/2 minutes en route to an overtime win against UTSA on Nov. 16.

Nash scored six-straight points to wipe away most of a seven-point deficit in the final six minutes. Page's three-pointer from the top of the key put Oklahoma State ahead 54-53 with 2:23 remaining, and the Cowboys held on from there.

Oklahoma State shot just 37 percent from the floor, but took advantage of 29 trips to the free-throw line, connecting on 20. The Cowboys also forced 20 Tulsa turnovers, leading to 14 points.

Jordan Clarkson led Tulsa (4-4) with 18 points and Steven Idlet scored 13, but he missed a potential tying layup at the rim in the final 10 seconds.

The Cowboys extended their current non-conference homecourt winning streak to 36 games with the win. The string extends back to the opener of the 2007-08 season. OSU improved to 71-37 all-time against the Golden Hurricane.

Notes

- Oklahoma State extended its home non-conference winning streak to 36 games with the win over Tulsa. The three-point victory is the closest game during that stretch.
- Sophomore guard Markel Brown matched the most steals by a Cowboy against Tulsa with four. It's the eighth time in school history that an OSU player had four steals against the Golden Hurricane.
- With six blocked shots against TU, the Cowboys matched the school record for blocked shots in a game vs the Golden Hurricane.
- With 15 points against Tulsa, senior guard Keiton Page moved past Raymond Crenshaw (1,140 points) and Joe Atkinson (1,145) and into 23rd place on the OSU career scoring list.
- With the victory against TU, the Cowboys are now 47-5 at home in the Travis Ford era.
- Freshman Le'Bryan Nash reached double figures for the fourth time in six games this season. It was his first 20-point game as a Cowboy.

Cowboys Defeat Langston, 80-58

Page scores 20, Brown adds 19 as OSU romps

Stillwater, Okla. — Keiton Page scored 20 points and Markel Brown had 19 as Oklahoma State beat Langston 80-58 on Sunday.

Page hit 5 of 11 three-pointers and 7 of 14 overall from the field. Brown scored 13 of his 19 in the second half and also had five assists. Michael Cobbins added a career-high 10 points for the Cowboys.

Langston, an NAIA program, was led by Modtets Williams and Landon Gray with 13 points each. Paul Campbell added 11 for the Lions, who shot 35.6 percent from the floor and turned the ball over 19 times.

The Cowboys led by 17 points at halftime, 44-27, but with 2-1/2 minutes remaining in the game, Langston trailed by just 11. OSU scored 11 unanswered points over that final time period for the 22-point victory.

Oklahoma State won its 37th consecutive game at home against a non-conference opponent.

Notes

- Oklahoma State shot a season-high 57.4 percent from the floor for the game, connecting on 27-of-47 shots from the field.
- The Cowboys held an opponent to less than 60 points for the fifth time this season.
- Markel Brown matched his career high with 19 points against the Lions.
- Keiton Page reached 20 points for the first time this season.
- Jean-Paul Olukemi grabbed a season-high 10 rebounds, his second-career double-figure rebounding game.
- Fred Gulley returned to the floor for Oklahoma State and matched a career-high with four assists.

OSU Makes Comeback at Missouri State, 72-67

Down 12, OSU recovers for five-point victory

Springfield, Mo. — Down 12 just two minutes into the second half, Oklahoma State's basketball squad used a team effort and defeated Missouri State 72-67 Wednesday night before 8,601 fans at the JQH Arena.

Le'Bryan Nash led a quartet of Cowboys in double figures with 19 points off the bench. Keiton Page added 15, including two key three-pointers, and Jean-Paul Olukemi scored 13 points, four free throws in the waning minutes.

OSU's win ended the Bears' 22-game home non-conference winning streak. It also ended a streak for the Cowboys, who had not won on an opposing team's home court in 12 contests.

Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year Kyle Weems scored a game-high 24 points and also grabbed 12 rebounds. However, only nine of those points came after halftime, as OSU's defense keyed on the Bear forward.

OSU made 41 trips to the free-throw line in a game plagued by 51 fouls. The Cowboys made 31 of those attempts and also turned the ball over just eight times.

Notes

- The Cowboys ended two streaks with a win over the Missouri State Bears. OSU ended a 12-game losing streak on opposing team's home courts, dating back to the Iowa State game two years ago. The Pokes also ended MSU's 22-game home non-conference winning streak.
- For the second time this season, Oklahoma State overcame a double-digit deficit in the second half to win a game. The Cowboys trailed the Bears by 12, 52-40, with 17:29 remaining in the game. Earlier this season against UTSA, the Pokes trailed by 11, 66-55, with 4:39 to go before winning in overtime..
- Oklahoma State's eight turnovers against Missouri State marked the second time this season that the Cowboys have had fewer than 10 miscues. OSU had six against Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in the season opener.

Cowboy Comeback Falls Short

Down 16, OSU cuts deficit to five before 74-68 loss to No. 15 Pittsburgh

New York City, N.Y. — Le'Bryan Nash scored a game-high 20 points, but Ashton Gibbs scored 17 points, including three free throws in the final 17 seconds, and No. 15 Pittsburgh beat Oklahoma State 74-68, the Cowboys' third loss of the season and all of them at Madison Square Garden.

The Panthers (9-1) led by as many as 16 points in the second half, but Oklahoma State was able to get within five twice late. Each time, Gibbs was able to make at least one free throw.

But the game was won because of the Panthers' rebounding, a part of the game they have always excelled in and Pittsburgh is fourth in the nation in that statistic right now. The Panthers finished with a 43-25 rebound advantage and outscored the Cowboys 40-26 in the paint.

Center Philip Jurick blocked a career-high six shots, tying for the 11th-most in school history.

Gibbs had eight points - including two 3s - in Pitt's 17-7 run to close the first half that gave the Panthers a 42-30 lead. Pittsburgh extended the lead to 16 points three times, the last at 59-43 on a basket by Patterson with 9:03 to play.

The Cowboys, who started the second half by missing 13 of their first 17 shots, later rallied. Oklahoma State got within 71-66 with 20 seconds to play when Markel Brown stole a pass, scored and was fouled. He missed the free throw and Gibbs made two foul shots one second later.

Reger Dowell's layup with 10 seconds to go made it 73-68, but Gibbs made one of two from the line. The miss was his only one of the game as he finished 7 of 8 and the Panthers were 18 of 29. The Cowboys were 9 of 13 from the free throw line.

After the poor start to the second half, Oklahoma State finished 14 of 33 from the field (42.4 percent) in the final 20 minutes.

Notes

- Oklahoma State turned the ball over just four times against Pittsburgh, tying for the lowest number of turnovers in a game since the statistic began being kept on a consistent basis during the 1975-76 season. The mark was established against Marquette on Jan. 14, 1992.
- OSU outscored Pitt 14-1 in points off turnovers, forcing the Panthers into 12 miscues to the Cowboys' four.
- The Cowboys scored 36 points off the bench, including a game-high 20 points by Le'Bryan Nash.
- Junior center Philip Jurick recorded six blocked shots in the game, tying for the 11th-most in a single game in school history.
- Junior guard Reger Dowell established a career high with five assists vs the Panthers.
- The Cowboys went on a 23-12 run to cut the Panthers' lead from 59-43 to 71-66 in the final nine minutes of the game.

Cowboys Drop All-College to New Mexico

OSU falls to 6-4 with 66-56 loss to Lobos in OKC

Oklahoma City, Okla. — Keiton Page scored 18 points and Jean-Paul Olukemi added 16, but New Mexico's Kendall Williams scored 16 points and New Mexico posted its fifth win this season over a team from a BCS conference, beating Oklahoma State 66-56 in the All-College Classic on Saturday night.

Drew Gordon added 13 points and 20 rebounds for New Mexico (8-2), which won its sixth-straight game by seizing control with a 12-0 first-half run, then weathering a second-half rally by Oklahoma State (6-4).

The Lobos also have recorded wins this season over Boston College, Washington State, Arizona State and USC. New Mexico is now 3-1 all-time against Oklahoma State.

Oklahoma State is 8-3 in the All-College Classic since the nation's oldest college basketball event moved to a classic format.

Le'Bryan Nash and Philip Jurick both recorded double-figure rebounds, but the Cowboys also committed 15 turnovers in the loss.

Notes

- Junior Philip Jurick and freshman Le'Bryan Nash each recorded a career-high with 11 and 10 rebounds, respectively, against the Lobos.
- Drew Gordon's 20 rebounds are the most by an OSU opponent since Baylor's Lawrence Roberts recorded 20 boards against the Cowboys in 2003.
- Oklahoma State's bench has scored at least 30 points in each of the last three games and seven of 10 games this season.
- The Cowboys were held scoreless for a six-minute period in the second half, then failed to score a basket in the final seven minutes.

Cowboys Drop Third Straight to Alabama

OSU cuts 19-point deficit to single digits before loss

Birmingham, Ala. — Oklahoma State cut a 19-point deficit back to single digits, but Trevor Releford scored 15 of his 19 points in the second half to help shorthanded Alabama beat Oklahoma State 69-52.

The Crimson Tide, unranked for the first time this season, had lost three of its last four games and leading scorer JaMychal Green didn't dress because of a nagging right shoulder injury.

The Cowboys dropped their third-straight game at the BJCC Arena, a site about an hour from Alabama's campus. OSU trailed by just nine points after Cezar Guerrero hit a trey at the 5:09 mark.

Le'Bryan Nash led Oklahoma State with 17 and Jean-Paul Olukemi scored 12.

Tony Mitchell had 16 points and 11 rebounds for the Tide, while freshman Trevor Lacey added 12 in his first start.

Oklahoma State will be off a week before returning to the court on Dec. 28 when the Cowboys travel to Dallas, Texas, to face the SMU Mustangs in The Showcase at the American Airlines Center.

Notes

- Oklahoma State shot just 32.7 percent from the floor, including 29 percent in the first half, as the Cowboys fell behind by as many as 19. The Cowboys trailed 19-4 at the first media timeout.
- OSU outscored Alabama 30-29 in the second half, including a 17-7 run over a seven-minute span which cut the lead to single digits.
- Oklahoma State outrebounded the Crimson Tide 37-36, despite an 11-board effort from Tony Mitchell.
- The Pokes made 11-of-13 shots from the charity stripe, good for a season-high 81.3 percent.

Cowboys Defeat Mustangs in Double OT

Page, Guerrero score final 21 points as OSU ends three-game skid

Dallas, Texas (AP) — Keiton Page scored all nine Oklahoma State points in the first overtime, and Cezar Guerrero scored seven of his 14 points at the start of the second overtime as the Cowboys defeated SMU 68-58 Wednesday night at the American Airlines Center.

The Cowboys closed the game with a 16-0 run, with the final six points in the first overtime before outscoring SMU 10-0 in the second extra period.

SMU had matched its biggest lead of the game when Robert Nyakundi made three free throws for a 58-52 advantage with 1:17 left in the first overtime. Keiton Page then made two 3-pointers in a span of 33 seconds, with a miss by Nyakundi between those shots.

Guerrero opened the second overtime with a 16-foot jumper, then made a 3-pointer and had a driving layup to stretch the lead to 65-58.

Page led Oklahoma State with 27 points.

Nyakundi had 20 points and 11 rebounds for SMU, which has lost 10 in a row against the Cowboys.

Notes

- Oklahoma State shut out the Mustangs in the second overtime, the first time an opponent has failed to score in an OT period since Feb. 26, 1984.
- Keiton Page scored all nine points in the first overtime on a pair of treys and three free throws when he was fouled on another three-point attempt.
- Cezar Guerrero scored the first seven points of the second OT period, half of his 14 points in the game.
- Brian Williams grabbed a career-high seven rebounds and scored nine points in a career-high 41 minutes off the bench.

Foul Trouble Dooms Pokes in Austin

OSU falls to Texas Longhorns, 58-49

Austin, Texas (AP) - Brian Williams scored a career-high 16 points, but Texas' Myck Kabongo scored 15 points and the Longhorns rallied to beat Oklahoma State 58-49 on Saturday night.

Jonathan Holmes added 11 points as the Longhorns (11-4, 1-1) avoided starting Big 12 play with back-to-back losses for the first time under coach Rick Barnes.

Le'Bryan Nash added 12 points for OSU before picking up his fifth foul with 2:04 left in the game.

The Cowboys were whistled for 29 fouls in the game compared to just 17 fouls called on Texas. The Longhorns made 29 trips to the free-throw line, compared to just 11 by OSU. Five of the eight Pokes who played were in foul trouble throughout most of the second half.

Michael Cobbins grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds for the Cowboys and also blocked five shots.

The first half included a drought of over five minutes without a field goal, and the teams went into halftime tied 21-21 after shooting a combined 27 percent (15 of 56).

Notes

- Redshirt freshman Brian Williams scored a career-high 16 points against the Longhorns in his second-career start.
- Redshirt freshman Michael Cobbins recorded career highs for both rebounds (10) and blocked shots (5).
- Oklahoma State lost for just the third time in the Travis Ford era when holding an opponent to below 60 points.
- One game after committing a school-record low two turnovers, the Cowboys turned the ball over 21 times against Texas, tying a season high.

Cowboys Win Bedlam Battle, 72-65

Nash scores 21 points as OSU improves to 8-0 vs Sooners in all sports

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Freshman Le'Bryan Nash tied his career high with 21 points, Keiton Page scored 18 and Oklahoma State beat Oklahoma 72-65 on Monday night in the Bedlam rivalry game.

The Cowboys (9-7, 2-1 Big 12) didn't trail after the first four minutes and hung on to pick up their fourth win in the last five games in the rivalry.

Carl Blair scored a season-high 20 points and pulled down 10 rebounds, and Romero Osby had a career-best 18 points and 10 rebounds to lead Oklahoma (10-5, 0-3). The Sooners have lost their first three games in Big 12 play for the second-straight season and only the third time since the conference was created.

Oklahoma trimmed a 17-point lead to five in the final minute, but Oklahoma State made all eight of its free throws in the final 43 seconds to finish it off.

Following the game in the locker room, head coach Travis Ford presented the game ball to Shelley Budke, the wife of Kurt Budke. Coach Ford had worn an orange jacket similar to the one Budke had made famous when he wore it during the Cowgirls' win over No. 6 Oklahoma a few years ago.

Notes

- For the 11th game this season, Oklahoma State's defense held the opponent below 30 percent from the three-point arc. The Sooners were just 4-of-17 from long range, good for just 23.5 percent.
- For the second time this season, Page matched his career high with six rebounds.
- Oklahoma State's offense reached the 70-point mark for the first time in eight games. The last time OSU scored 70 or more was a 72-67 win at Missouri State on Dec. 7.
- Freshman Le'Bryan Nash matched his career high with 21 points against the Sooners.
- Oklahoma's 50 rebounds are the most against the Cowboys since La Salle grabbed 52 against OSU on Dec. 4, 2010.
- Redshirt freshman Brian Williams went 9-of-11 from the free-throw line, matching his season total for made free throws this season. He was 9-of-13 on the year entering Bedlam.
- Redshirt freshman Michael Cobbins grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds for the second-straight game. He also had 10 at Texas. He was one point shy of his first-career double-double for the second-consecutive game as well.

Cowboys Lose in Waco

OSU drops contest to No. 4-ranked Baylor Bears, 106-65

Waco, Texas — Oklahoma State suffered its worst defeat in 80 years as the fourth-ranked Baylor Bears defeated the Cowboys 106-65. It was the most points allowed by OSU since 1990.

Keiton Page scored 15 points and Markel Brown matched that team-high total off the bench. However, Baylor was very balanced, with four players scoring 15 or more points, including a game-high 21 by freshman Quincy Miller. Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year Perry Jones recorded a double-double with 19 points and 12 rebounds.

Oklahoma State did its best to keep the game close, trailing by just five at 28-23 when Brown connected on a jumper with just under six minutes remaining before intermission. However, BU went on a 18-8 run to end the half and take a 46-31 lead into intermission.

With just eight Cowboys playing, the game quickly turned into a rout. Baylor had a 20-point lead at 61-41 just six minutes into the second period, and it quickly ballooned as the Bears connected on 15-of-29 shots from long range and out-rebounded OSU, 48-25.

Notes

- The 41-point margin was the largest by an OSU opponent since Creighton defeated the Cowboys 65-23 on Jan. 12, 1932.
- Baylor's 106 points are the most by an OSU opponent since Oklahoma scored 107 on March 3, 1990. It was the first time a Cowboy foe reached 100 points in a regulation game since Kansas scored 104 on Feb. 12, 1997.
- Keiton Page moved into sole possession of 17th place on the OSU career scoring list.

Cowboys Fall to Cyclones on Buzzer Beater

Page, Nash score 21 points each in loss to Iowa State

Ames, Iowa (AP) — Markel Brown dished out a career-best 11 assists, and Keiton Page and Le'Bryan Nash each scored 21 points, but Iowa State's Scott Christopherson banked in a 3-pointer at the buzzer to give the Cyclones a 71-68 victory over Oklahoma State in front of 12,397 fans inside Hilton Coliseum.

OSU had a chance for the final shot with the score tied at 68, but ISU's Tryus McGee knocked the ball off Brown's leg, and it rolled out of bounds with 4.8 seconds left, giving the Cyclones possession.

Iowa State (13-5, 3-2 Big 12) inbounded to Christopherson, who dribbled up the floor, stopped two feet from the 3-point line and launched his game winner over Page. After a video review by the officials, the basket stood.

Christopherson, Royce White and McGee scored 17 points each to lead the Cyclones, who trailed 66-60 with less than three minutes to play. Christopherson hit a 3-pointer and a driving layup to cut the lead to one, and after Page sank two free throws, McGee nailed a 3 to tie it at 68 with 16.8 seconds remaining.

Notes

- Markel Brown dished out a career-high 11 assists, the most by a Cowboy since Byron Eaton recorded 10 dimes against Pittsburgh on March 22, 2009.
- Keiton Page took over the OSU record for most three-pointers attempted at 670 and counting. Randy Rutherford held the previous record of 668 for 17 seasons.
- Christopherson's buzzer-beating shot gave OSU's opponent a victory in the final three seconds for the first time since Dec. 18, 2006, when Tennessee's Dane Bradshaw tipped-in a basket with 1.9 second remaining to give the Volunteers a 79-77 win over the Cowboys.
- Freshman guard Christien Sager saw his first action of the season when he played one minute during the first half. He was originally a walk-on who was given a scholarship after school started.

Cowboys Drop Home Contest to K-State

Wildcats win 66-58, despite late run by Oklahoma State

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Keiton Page scored 17 points and Markel Brown added 14, but the Cowboys could not overcome a 13-point deficit midway through the second half and Oklahoma State fell to No. 25 Kansas State 66-58 here Saturday afternoon.

K-State freshman Angel Rodriguez scored 14 points in his second start and Jamar Samuels added 12 points and 12 rebounds for the Wildcats, who snapped an 11-game losing streak at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

KSU held Oklahoma State without a made basket for a 15-minute stretch spanning halftime, building up a 46-33 lead after Will Spradling's runner in the lane with 9:08 to play. Then, they held off a late charge as the Cowboys pulled within 59-56 with just over two minutes left.

Rodriguez and Rodney McGruder combined to make seven of 10 free throws down the stretch to seal the Wildcats' first win in Stillwater since 1993. It was the team's longest losing streak in any conference venue, starting when both teams were in the Big Eight.

Brown converted a three-point play off a steal that led to a two-handed slam during a string of nine straight points for the Cowboys to get the lead down to four. Page's three-pointer from the left wing — OSU's only make in 16 attempts from long range — cut it to 59-56 with 2:01 remaining.

Kansas State didn't allow another point until Page's jumper at the buzzer, securing the victory at the foul line despite making only 23 of 40 free throws during the game.

The Wildcats had a 50-29 rebounding advantage while playing without top shot blocker Jordan Henriquez, who was suspended indefinitely for conduct detrimental to the team.

Notes

- Freshman walk-on Grayson George made his first appearance in a Cowboy uniform with 7.2 seconds left in the game. Christien Sager made his second-straight appearance after coming in at Iowa State.
- With 17 points against Kansas State, Keiton Page moved past James On Curry and into 16th place on the OSU career scoring list. He now has 1,373 points and is just six points shy of moving into 14th place.
- The Cowboys were called for 29 fouls against Kansas State, tying a season high. OSU was also whistled for 29 fouls at Texas. Those fouls resulted in 40 free-throw attempts by the Wildcats, the most by an Oklahoma State opponent this season.

Cowboys Defeat No. 2 Missouri, 79-72

Le'Bryan Nash, Brian Williams each score career highs in victory

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Le'Bryan Nash scored a career-high 27 points, Brian Williams added a career-best 22 and Oklahoma State knocked off No. 2 Missouri 79-72 on Wednesday night, handing the Tigers their second loss of the season.

Nash scored 13 points during a 17-4 burst that sent the Cowboys (10-10, 3-4 Big 12) into the lead in the final 4 minutes and the Tigers didn't have a response.

Nash hit a jumper and a 3-pointer to get it going, then nailed another 3 from the left side to give the Cowboys a 65-64 lead with 3:23 to play. He connected on another 29 seconds later and ran to the opposite end of the court when Missouri (18-2, 5-2) called timeout to encourage a student section that was already hopping up and down to bring it on.

Ricardo Ratliffe had 25 points and 12 rebounds to lead Missouri, which allowed the Cowboys to shoot a season-best 59 percent. They hadn't surpassed 49 percent against an NCAA opponent all season.

Markel Brown added another energizing play with a right-handed dunk off an alley-oop but got called for his second technical foul for getting in Matt Pressey's face and was ejected. Marcus Denmon hit the two free throws from the technical and Ratliffe added two more off a third-chance opportunity to push the lead back to 60-53, but the Cowboys didn't miss a beat.

After Nash's big spurt, Williams had a two-handed dunk in transition and a three-point play to help preserve the lead down the stretch.

Nash had scored 21 points four times this season but was coming off a rough performance when he had only four points and got himself into foul trouble.

Brown provided a boost right from the start with a thunderous right-handed jam on Oklahoma State's first possession after winning the tip. He picked up a technical foul 90 seconds into the game that seemed inconsequential at the time but eventually led to his dismissal.

OSU made an uncharacteristic 57 percent of its shots while leading most of the first half. Page's step-back jumper from the left elbow provided the Cowboys a 37-36 lead at the break.

The first half marked the third-best shooting performance in a half this season for Oklahoma State, the Big 12's worst shooting team at 41 percent, only to be outdone by a 62 percent mark after halftime.

Notes

- Freshman guard/forward Le'Bryan Nash scored a career-best 27 points tonight against Missouri. His previous high was 21 points on four occasions. His four assists were also a career high.
- Redshirt freshman guard/forward Brian Williams also scored a career high with 22 points, six more than his previous high of 16 he scored at Texas. He was 10 of 12 from the charity stripe.

Cowboys Fall in College Station

Oklahoma State's last trip to Texas A&M ends in defeat

College Station, Texas (AP) — Elston Turner scored 23 points as injury-depleted Texas A&M beat short-handed Oklahoma State 76-61 on Saturday.

David Loubeau added 13 points for the Aggies, who led by a point at halftime and never trailed in the second half.

Texas A&M was without second-leading scorer Khris Middleton, who missed his second-straight game, and point guard Dash Harris, who didn't play after injuring his right foot Monday against Kansas.

Markel Brown's 19 points led Oklahoma State which wasn't able to build on Wednesday's 79-72 upset of second-ranked Missouri. The Cowboys were without 6-11 center Philip Jurick, who sprained his foot during practice on Friday morning.

Texas A&M led by seven points with about 10 minutes remaining before using a 12-4 run to extend its lead to 63-48. Daniel Alexander and Zach Kinsley each hit a 3-pointer in that span.

Notes

- Sophomore Markel Brown matched his career high with 19 points against Texas A&M.
- Freshman Cezar Guerrero started the fourth game of his career in place of Brown.
- Freshman Christien Sager recorded his first official statistics with an assist and one steal in two minutes of play.
- Oklahoma State led 14-10 when Michael Cobbins was called for his second foul at the 14:20 mark of the first half. Marek Soucek, the only other Cowboy over 6-7, played just nine minutes in the game, picking up his third foul with just under six minutes remaining in the first period.
- The Cowboys have now lost four-straight games to Texas A&M.

Cowboys End League Road Skid

OSU ends conference road losing streak with 80-63 win at Texas Tech

Lubbock, Texas (AP) — Markel Brown scored a career-high 30 points and Oklahoma State connected on 33-of-35 free throws as the Cowboys defeated Texas Tech 80-63 on Tuesday night.

The sophomore went 7 of 12 from the field, including 3 of 6 from beyond the arc, and didn't miss any of his 13 free-throw attempts.

Le'Bryan Nash scored 16 points for the Cowboys, ending a 14-game losing streak in conference road games. OSU hadn't won a league road contest since Feb. 17, 2010, when the Pokes won at Iowa State.

Keiton Page and Cezar Guerrero missed the only free throws in the game for the Cowboys, despite being the best two FT shooters on the team.

Jaye Crockett scored 16 points and grabbed 14 rebounds while Robert Lewandowski added 14 for the Red Raiders, who tied their worst start in conference play since 2000.

Notes

- Sophomore Markel Brown scored a career-high 30 points, besting his previous high of 19.
- The Cowboys connected on 33 of 35 free throws, good for 94.3 percent. That ranks as the fifth-highest percentage in school history with a minimum of 20 attempts.
- Oklahoma State ended its conference road losing streak at 14 games, the third-longest in school history.
- Walk-on Mason Cox saw the court for the first time in his career when he came in with 13 seconds left in the game.
- In two games against the Red Raiders, Oklahoma State turned the ball over just 10 times. The Cowboys established a school and Big 12 record for fewest turnovers in a game earlier this season in Stillwater with two.

Oklahoma State loses to Bears, 64-60 Cowboy comeback bid falls short against No. 6 Baylor

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Brian Williams scored a career-high 23 points, but Perry Jones III scored 16 points and grabbed 11 rebounds, as Oklahoma State's bid to upset No. 6 Baylor fell short 64-60 on Saturday.

The Cowboys rallied from a nine-point deficit to take a 57-56 lead on Keiton Page's wide-open 3-pointer from the right wing with 1:42 to play.

Oklahoma State trailed by as many as 12 points midway through the first half, but cut the deficit to eight at intermission, 37-29. A 10-2 run to start the second period found OSU tied with the Bears, and after falling behind by nine with eight minutes to play, the Pokes went on a 16-6 run to take the lead with 1:44 remaining.

Oklahoma State was bidding to win back-to-back home games against top-10 opponents after defeating No. 2 Missouri in the last home contest.

Notes

- Oklahoma State lost for just the fourth time in school history at home to Baylor, and the first time since Feb. 15, 2003.
- The Cowboys held the Bears, who's 40.7 percent shooting from long range entering the game led the Big 12 Conference, to just 4 of 19 from beyond the arc, good for just 21.1 percent.
- Redshirt freshman guard Brian Williams scored a career-high 23 points. His previous high was 22 against Missouri.
- For the second-consecutive game, the Cowboys shot better than 90 percent from the free-throw line. OSU made 14 of 15 shots from the charity stripe, good for 93.3 percent. Over the five games, Oklahoma State is shooting 89.8 percent from the line.
- Senior guard Keiton Page scored 15 points, moving him past Byron Eaton and into 13th place on the OSU career scoring list. With 1,419 career points, he is just 10 points shy of moving past Olus Holder and into 12th place, and 16 points away from moving past Leroy Combs for 11th place.
- Page became the 10th player in Big 12 Conference history to attempt 700 or more shots from beyond the arc in his career. With eight attempts today, he now has 707 in his career. He now ranks ninth in the Big 12 record book for career three-point attempts.

Cowboys Outlast Iowa State, 69-67

Nash's game-winning shot, subsequent block gives OSU the victory

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Le'Bryan Nash hit the winning fadeaway jumper with 4.7 seconds left and blocked Chris Allen's attempt for the tie at the buzzer to lift Oklahoma State to a 69-67 victory against Iowa State on Tuesday night.

The Cowboys avenged perhaps their most heartbreaking defeat of the season, having lost on Scott Christopherson's banked-in three-pointer at the buzzer in Ames.

After a game filled with back-and-forth runs, this one came down to the final play too.

The Cyclones wiped away an eight-point deficit over the final five minutes behind Allen's strong three-point shooting, but Nash connected to put OSU back ahead. Allen, who hit a career-high six three-pointers and scored 22 points, drove past the arc and into the lane, but Nash swatted his shot into the stands and preserve the win.

Markel Brown led Oklahoma State with 19 points. Nash finished with 18.

Notes

- Oklahoma State extended its winning streak against Iowa State in Gallagher-Iba Arena to 17 games. The Cowboys have not lost to the Cyclones at home since 1988.
- With 13 points against Iowa State, senior guard Keiton Page now has 1,432 points, moving past Olus Holder and into 12th place on the all-time Oklahoma State career scoring list.
- Redshirt freshman Michael Cobbins grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds, the most by a Cowboy this season. It is also tied for the fourth-most ever by a freshman in OSU history. It's the most by a Cowboy freshman since Ivan McFarlin grabbed 14 against Baylor on Feb. 23, 2002.
- With the win, coach Travis Ford picked up his 77th win as the head man at Oklahoma State, moving him into sole possession of fourth place among the winningest coaches in OSU history.
- Entering the ISU game, OSU's opponents had scored 293 second-chance points off of 290 offensive rebounds, an average of 1.01 points per offensive board. The Cyclones scored just three second-chance points on 13 offensive rebounds.

Cowboys Fall at No. 7 Kansas, 81-66

OSU cuts 29-point deficit to 12, Jayhawks too much

Lawrence, Kan. (AP) — Oklahoma State trailed by as many as 29 points in the first half, but some full-court pressure defense cut the lead down to 12 before the game ended in an 81-66 win by No. 7 Kansas.

Four Cowboys scored in double figures, led by Markel Brown's 21. Keiton Page scored 19 for the Pokes, while Le'Bryan Nash and Brian Williams each added 11.

Jeff Withey and Thomas Robinson each logged double-doubles for the Jayhawks, as Withey finished with 18 points and a career-best 20 rebounds, while Robinson scored 24 points and grabbed 14 boards for his 18th double-double of the season.

Tyshawn Taylor added 12 points, Elijah Johnson had 11 and Travis Releford 10 for the Jayhawks, whose 55-26 lead was trimmed to a dozen with 6:43 to go.

OSU's 27-point halftime deficit is the third-largest ever by a Cowboy squad and the largest in a Big 12 game. However, OSU limited KU to just 34 percent shooting in the second half and forced 11 turnovers in cutting the lead to 12.

Notes

- For the second-consecutive game, four of Oklahoma State's five starters scored in double figures.
- For the second time this season, OSU's opponent had two players record double-doubles, and also for the second time this season, an opponent grabbed 20 rebounds against the Pokes.
- After trailing 55-26 just 50 seconds into the second half, Oklahoma State went on a 30-13 run over a 12:24 span, forcing eight turnovers while holding the Jayhawks to 6-of-24 (25 percent) shooting.
- With three blocked shots against KU, Michael Cobbins moved into third place on the list for single-season blocks by an OSU freshman.
- Oklahoma State turned the ball over just six times in the game, all before intermission.

Cowboys Drop Game at No. 3 Mizzou, 83-65

OSU goes on 15-1 run to end the game

Columbia, Mo. (AP) — After handing No. 3 Missouri one of its two losses of the season three weeks ago in Stillwater, Oklahoma State expected a significantly better effort from the Tigers in their rematch Wednesday night. It got one, too.

Marcus Denmon scored 17 points and was joined by four teammates in double figures as the Tigers avenged that earlier defeat with an 83-65 rout over the Cowboys. Missouri led by 22 points at halftime and by as many as 35 well into the second half before a late run fueled by Keiton Page made the final score a tad more respectable.

Page led Oklahoma State with 23 points, but 14 of those came in the game's final seven minutes once the outcome wasn't in doubt. He hit 5 of 9 attempts from beyond the arc.

Missouri held Nash to 11 points after he torched the Tigers for 27 in a seven-point win in January. Nash sat out five minutes early in the first half after picking up two quick fouls.

Missouri started slow, making just one of its first six shots as the Cowboys took an early 4-point lead. But the Tigers soon found their shooting touch and it fueled a 23-4 run over nine minutes in first half that helped Missouri put the game away.

The Tigers, who start four guards along with the 6-foot-8 Ratliffe, had a 37-29 rebound advantage, their first after being outrebounded by an average of more than nine boards the previous five games. But for a change, the defensive matchup was favorable against a team that starts three guards and also has no starter taller than 6-8. That big man, redshirt freshman Michael Cobbins, had 12 points and seven rebounds for the Cowboys.

Notes

- Oklahoma State finished the game on a 15-1 run, 11 of which came from Keiton Page.
- The Cowboys committed just six turnovers in the game, despite constant ball pressure by the Missouri defense.
- The Tigers were called for just six fouls in the game, half the previous low of 12 by an OSU opponent this season.
- Despite giving up 11 offensive rebounds to Missouri, the Tigers were only able to score eight second-chance points.
- The Cowboys dished out 16 assists, the third-highest total by Oklahoma State this season.

Keiton Page Scores 40 on Texas

Cowboy senior leads OSU to 90-78 victory over the Longhorns

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Keiton Page scored a career-high 40 points, Le'Bryan Nash added 18 and the Cowboys snapped Texas' four-game winning streak by beating the Longhorns 90-78.

Page erupted for 27 first-half points, matching his previous season-best for a game, and ended up becoming only the sixth player in school history to reach the 40-point mark.

Page hit all 20 of his free throws and coach Travis Ford pulled him from the game with 35 seconds left to a roaring standing ovation from the crowd. The two shared a hug, slapped hands and had another brief embrace before Page greeted the rest of the Cowboys by the bench.

Myck Kabongo scored a career-high 22 points for Texas and Big 12 scoring leader J'Covan Brown added 20.

Notes

- Keiton Page's 27 points in the first half are the second-most ever in a half by a Big 12 player against a league opponent. Kansas State's Michael Beasley scored 28 points vs Baylor on Feb. 23, 2008. The Big 12 record for most points in a half against any opponent is 29 by Oklahoma's Tony Crocker against Centenary on Dec. 9, 2009.
- His perfect 20-of-20 free-throw performance is the most FT attempts without a miss by a Big 12 player in league history. The previous high was 18-of-18 by Texas Tech's Rayford Young against Kansas on Feb. 13, 1999. Page's total is the second-highest in school history behind Arlen Clark's NCAA record 24-of-24 against Colorado on March 7, 1959.
- Page's 20 free throws ties for the most made by a Big 12 player in league history. He tied Baylor's Curtis Jerrells, who had 20 at Texas A&M on Jan. 23, 2008.
- Brian Williams collected a career-high six steals, tying for the second-most by a freshman in school history.
- Markel Brown recorded his third-career double-double with 12 points and 11 rebounds.
- Michael Cobbins blocked four shots against Texas, the fifth time this season he's recorded four or more blocks.
- Oklahoma State's 56 free-throw attempts are the most ever by a Cowboy squad, besting the 55 OSU attempted against LSU in Tulsa on Dec. 20, 1994. The 43 makes tie for the second-most in school history, one shy of the school-record 44 made at Nebraska on Feb. 14, 1990.
- The Cowboys' team total of 43 free-throws made is a Big 12 single-game record. The previous high was 40 by Missouri vs Oklahoma on March 8, 1997, and Texas Tech vs Southwestern Louisiana on Dec. 6, 1997.

Cowboys Fall in Norman, 77-64

Bedlam series splits for third-straight season

Norman, Okla. (AP) — Keiton Page hit nine three-pointers, including eight in the second half, but Oklahoma's Steven Pledger scored 17 points and Romero Osby added 16 points and 13 rebounds as the Sooners snapped a six-game losing streak by beating Oklahoma State 77-64.

Oklahoma extended its home winning streak against Oklahoma State to eight games, rolling to an 18-point halftime lead and holding off a second-half rally by the Cowboys.

Oklahoma led 30-12 at halftime after Oklahoma State set a school record for fewest points in a half against a Big 12 foe. The Cowboys came roaring back and had two chances to tie the game before the Sooners pulled away again.

Brian Williams scored 11 points for OSU while Le'Bryan Nash added 10. OSU scored a season-high 52 points in the second period.

Notes

- Page's nine three-pointers made and 17 three-pointers attempted both rank as the second-most in a single game in school history, surpassed only by Randy Rutherford's 11-of-19 performance against Kansas in 1995. Page now has 275 treys in his career, just five shy of moving past Rutherford for the all-time career three-pointers made record.
- Page missed his first free-throw attempt of the game, ending his string of consecutive free throws at 35. It is the fourth-longest streak in school history.
- Page is averaging 30.7 points over his last three games, improving his Big 12 scoring average to 18.2 ppg.
- Page had two four-point play opportunities tonight against the Sooners, the sixth and seventh of his career. He is 5-of-7 from the line in those situations.
- Page became the 18th player in school history to record 250 assists in a career.
- Oklahoma State's 12 points in the first half are the fewest by a Cowboy team in a Big 12 Conference game. The previous low was 16 against Oklahoma on Jan. 12, 1999. It was one point shy of the modern-day low of 11 vs Oklahoma on Dec. 27, 1965.
- OSU's 52 points in the second half are the most by the Cowboys in the second period since they scored 50 against Texas A&M on Jan. 27, 2010.
- Oklahoma State's 31 three-point attempts are the most since the Cowboys attempted 33 at Texas A&M on March 3, 2010.

Cowboys Take Down Aggies, 60-42 OSU limits Texas A&M to fewest points by a Big 12 foe since 2004

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Brian Williams scored 13 of his 17 points in the second half and was one of three double-figure scorers for Oklahoma State as the Cowboys beat Texas A&M 60-42 on Saturday.

Keiton Page scored 15 points and Markel Brown 12 for Oklahoma State (14-15, 7-9 Big 12). Michael Cobbins had nine rebounds.

The loss was Texas A&M's seventh in eight games and dropped the Aggies to 13-15, 4-12. The conference's lowest-scoring team finished 19 points under its season average of 61.3.

Khris Middleton led Texas A&M with 14 points. David Loubeau, with 10, was the only other player in double figures for the Aggies, who shot 32 percent (15 of 47).

Notes

- Texas A&M's 42 points are the lowest by a Cowboy opponent in league play this season and was one point more than the fewest allowed by a Big 12 team since the conference formed in 1996-97. Baylor scored just 41 points against OSU on Jan. 15, 2000, and the Aggies were held to just 41 points on March 6, 2004.
- Head coach Travis Ford used the 13th-different lineup of the season. Le'Bryan Nash, who sat out the game with a hand injury, had started the last 19 games.
- Senior guard Keiton Page became the all-time school leader for minutes played in a career. With 35 today against Texas A&M, he now has 4,166, one more than Bryant Reeves had in his four-year career.
- With the game today, Page has now tied Fredrik Jönzén for fifth place on the all-time games-played list in OSU history with 130. With the start, he has tied Ronnie Daniel for eighth place on the career games-started list with 104.
- With three three-pointers against the Aggies, Page now has 278 in his career, one shy of the school record held by Randy Rutherford, who had 279 in his three-year career. Page is also one shy of tying John Lucas for the seventh-most by a Big 12 player.
- Oklahoma State is 11-0 this season when leading at halftime.
- The Cowboy victory ended a four-game losing streak to the Aggies.

Cowboys Celebrate Senior Night for Page OSU falls to No. 3 Kansas in Page's final game in GIA

Stillwater, Okla. (AP) — Keiton Page hit seven three-pointers and scored 29 points in his final home game for the Cowboys, and Brian Williams added 20 points, but No. 3 Kansas won the Big 12 Conference regular-season title with a 70-58 victory over Oklahoma State.

Tyshawn Taylor scored 27 points and Thomas Robinson added 17 points and 11 rebounds for the Jayhawks, who won in Gallagher-Iba Arena for the first time in six years Oklahoma State teams had upset top-five Kansas teams in 2008 and 2010.

The Jayhawks outscored short-handed Oklahoma State 34-8 in the paint, held a 32-23 rebounding advantage and shot 52 percent for the game and 60 percent in the second half.

Page hit two three-pointers in the first three minutes, pushing him past Randy Rutherford to break the school record for career treys, but Oklahoma State soon fell into an extended drought and behind to stay. The Cowboys didn't make a basket for more than seven minutes, and Kansas took advantage to go on a 15-2 run.

When Page hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key to get Oklahoma State within 40-33, Conner Teahan answered at the other end and soon the lead had doubled. Jeff Withey's spinning layup pushed Kansas' lead to 52-38 with 9:49 remaining.

Williams then hit a three from the left wing, only for Taylor to duplicate it moments later from the right wing.

Page attempted one last bid at a dramatic rally, hitting three three-pointers and a jumper in a three-minute span to trim the deficit to 60-52 with 5:33 remaining, but that's when Taylor slammed the door.

Notes

- With seven treys against Kansas, Keiton Page became the all-time leader for career three pointers in school history. He moved past Randy Rutherford, who had 279 in his three-year career at OSU. Page now has 285 three-pointers made.
- Redshirt freshman guard/forward Brian Williams recorded his third-career 20-point game with 20 against the Jayhawks. He is 7-of-14 (.500) from beyond the three-point arc in the last three games.

Cowboys Fall at Kansas State, 77-58

OSU limits Texas A&M to fewest points by a Big 12 foe since 2004

Manhattan, Kan. (AP) — Rodney McGruder scored 24 points, Jamar Samuels had 17 points and 12 rebounds and Kansas State used a big run out of halftime to beat short-handed Oklahoma State 77-58 on Saturday.

Jordan Henriquez had 16 points and eight boards for the Wildcats, who added another impressive win to their resume heading into next week's Big 12 tournament.

Kansas State has won four of its last five games, including back-to-back road wins against Top 10 teams Missouri and Baylor, and has four victories over teams in the RPI Top 25.

Keiton Page hit six 3-pointers and finished with 22 points for the Cowboys, who played without star freshman Le'Bryan Nash for the third straight game because of a fractured left hand.

The Cowboys also lost Philip Jurick, their second-leading rebounder, to an apparent right foot injury early in the game.
