

Outside Competition

Basketball

A student-athlete who participates in any organized basketball competition except while representing the institution in intercollegiate competition in accordance with the permissible playing season, becomes ineligible for any further intercollegiate competition in the sport of basketball (See the Athletic Compliance Office about additional exceptions and waivers – i.e. high school alumni games, Olympic games, etc...).

Competition on an outside team may only occur between June 15th and August 31st and only in NCAA-approved summer leagues. A team shall include on its roster no more than two ODU players with intercollegiate basketball eligibility remaining, and players must limit their competition to one team in one league. The summer league must be within 100 air miles of Old Dominion University or within 100 air miles of your official residence at the end of the academic year. Each student-athlete must consult his/her coach prior to and must have the prior, written approval of the athletic director prior to participating in any summer league. A student-athlete who participates in any organized outside basketball competition except while representing the institution in intercollegiate competition or in an NCAA approved summer league will be ineligible for any further intercollegiate competition in the sport of basketball. (See the Athletic Compliance Office about additional exceptions and waivers – i.e. high school alumni games, Olympic games, etc...).

All other sports

A student-athlete in any sport other than basketball who participates during the academic year as a member of any outside team in any noncollegiate, amateur competition becomes ineligible for intercollegiate competition in that sport for the remainder of the year and for the next academic year.

Exception: A student-athlete may compete outside of the institution's declared playing and practice season as a member of an outside team in any noncollegiate, amateur competition during any official vacation period published in the institution's catalog and during the summer.. The number of student-athletes from Old Dominion shall not exceed the applicable limits set forth below.
