

2013 OLE MISS BASEBALL MEDIA GUIDE

OLE MISS SUCCESS UNDER MIKE BIANCO

Head coach Mike Bianco has led the Rebels to 10 NCAA Tournament appearances, the 2006 SEC Tournament Championship, the 2009 SEC Championship and two SEC Western Division Championships in his last 12 years at the helm of the Ole Miss program. He has also coached three SEC Freshman of the Year selections, the 2003 National Freshman of the Year, the 2004 SEC Player of the Year and the 2010 SEC Pitcher of the Year.

The Rebels have advanced to six NCAA Regional Championships in the last eight seasons as Ole Miss has been a mainstay in the NCAA Tournament during the Bianco era. The Rebels have also produced 70 draft selections and nine MLB Players in the last decade, continuing a long tradition of Rebels in the professional ranks. Ole Miss has also produced multiple candidates for national player of the year and had players selected to 46 different All-America teams in his tenure at Ole Miss.

Ole Miss has produced 70 draft selections by Major League Baseball in Bianco's 12 seasons at Ole Miss. Nine of those Rebels have gone on to play in the Major Leagues, with seven of those players active in the 2012 season, the most of any Southeastern Conference team on an opening day roster this past season.

Lance Lynn helped the St. Louis Cardinals claim the 2011 World Series in his first season and is the second World Series participant to have played under Bianco at Ole Miss. Seth Smith played in the 2007 World Series for Colorado. Chris Coghlan was also named the 2009 National League Rookie of the Year as Ole Miss has had an impact on professional baseball in recent years.
