OSU AWARD WINNERS

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY SPORTS HALL OF FAME

The Oregon State University Sports Hall of Fame was established in 1988 in an effort to honor and preserve the memory of those student-athletes, teams, coaches, and members of the athletic staff who have contributed in an outstanding and positive way to the promotion of the Oregon State University athletic and academic program.

To be considered for this high honor, there are seven criteria that must be met:

1. If a nominee was an athlete, the person must have completed his or her eligibility at least five (5) years prior to induction.
2. If a student-athlete, the person must have earned two Varsity "O" letters.
3. If a coach, athletic administrator, or athletic staff member, the person must have either earned a Varsity "O" letter at Oregon State University or have been on the staff for at least five (5) years and have become inactive at OSU.
4. The records of the person considered should be so outstanding that there would be little question as to the qualifications necessary for induction.
5. Consideration will be given for personal conduct in sports and the personal contribution to the idea of sport.
6. Consideration will be given to teams who have contributed in a very outstanding and positive way.
7. Criteria and qualifications will be based upon the nominees' participation while attending or serving Oregon State University. However, accomplishments after leaving the University may be an important part of consideration.

TERRY BAKER
 1962 HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER

OREGON STATE'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following individuals were selected first, second or third team All-America by UPI, Associated Press or the Sporting News. Years selected in bold.

HERM ABRAHAM • 1916

Herm Abraham, along with Meier Newman and Ozburn Walker, were Oregon State's first All-Americans in the sport. He led the Aggies to an upset at Michigan State in 1915. He earned All-American honors in 1916, after lettering three years.

TERRY BAKER • 1962

The Heisman Trophy winner was the nation's most heralded athlete after leading OSU to a 1962 Liberty Bowl victory over Villanova. Terry Baker was a first team All-American in 1962, and in addition was named the Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, Helms Foundation Award recipient, AP, UPI, and the Sporting News Player of the Year to name just a few. The two-time Oregon State team MVP played in the 1962 College All-Star Game. Baker also excelled in basketball where he helped the 1963 team to the Final Four. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1980. His number 11 is the only number retired at OSU. He is (as of June 2009) the only individual to win the Heisman Trophy and play in the Final Four. Baker was the first individual from the West Coast to win the Heisman. He was drafted first overall in 1963 by the Los Angeles Rams of the NFL.

TED BATES • 1958

Ted Bates earned All-American acclaim as an offensive lineman in 1958, and was also named an All-Pacific-Coast Conference and All-Coast selection. He played in the 1957 Rose Bowl and was the recipient of the 1958 Hayward Award for the top amateur athlete in the state. Bates played in the 1958 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. He played four NFL seasons with the Chicago Cardinals. Bates was a 1996 inductee into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame.

INOKE BRECKTERFIELD • 1998

Inoke Breckterfield is one of Oregon State's top all-time defensive lineman. He concluded his career by being selected a third-team All-American in 1998. Breckterfield played in the Hula Bowl after being selected first team All-Pac-10. He won the conference's prestigious Morris Trophy, given to the league's top defensive lineman. The Honolulu native ended his career as the school's all-time leader for quarterback sacks with 19.5 and tackles-for-loss with 55.5. Breckterfield signed a free agent contract with Edmonton of the CFL following his collegiate career and later played for Winnipeg and Toronto.

STEVE BROWN • 1972

Steve Brown was a three-year varsity letterman from 1970-72. He earned All-American honors (1972) by nine organizations and publications, including seven first team selections, and he was a two-time All-Pac-8, two-time All-Coast and two-time team defensive MVP selection. Brown came to OSU as a fullback before moving to the defensive side as a freshman. He had a school record 186 tackles as a senior. As a junior he led the team with 134 tackles and had four interceptions against defending conference champion Stanford. He also had 22 tackles in that same '71 game vs. Stanford. At the conclusion of his OSU career he played in the East-West Shrine Game, Hula Bowl and Coaches All-American Bowl. Brown was the team captain of the West in the Shrine Game and co-captain of the North Squad in the Hula Bowl where he made 19 tackles and intercepted three passes. He also had 15 tackles and one interception in the Coaches All-American Bowl. He went on to play professionally for Calgary in 1973 and for the Portland Storm in 1974 before suffering a career-ending knee injury.

BRANDON BROWNER • 2003

Brandon Browner played just two seasons at Oregon State leaving after his sophomore year to pursue the NFL. Browner, a cornerback, was the second OSU player in the history of the program to declare himself eligible for the NFL Draft prior to the end of his college eligibility. He redshirted in 2002 before earning 2003 Freshman All-American honors. The 6-4 Sylmar, Calif., native was the 2003 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

VERN BURKE • 1963

Vern Burke is still considered one the best receivers ever to wear an Oregon State uniform. He caught 69 passes for 1,007 yards in 1962, both NCAA records at the time. At the time of his enshrinement into the OSU Sports Hall of Fame in 1991, he held records for the most passes caught in one game (12) and career receiving touchdowns (19). He was a consensus All-American in 1963 and played five years of professional football. Burke played in the 1963 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl games. He was inducted into the State of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1982.

STEVE COURY • 1979

Steve Coury was by most accounts Oregon State's MVP in the decade of the 1970's. He was selected first team all-league in the Pac-10 as a senior in 1979. The offensive MVP also earned second team All-Coast. He played in the Blue-Gray Classic and East-West Shrine games. Coury set the record for career receiving yards (1,837) and receptions (135). He accounted for 142 receiving yards in a 1979 game. The four-year letterman went on to play at Ottawa in 1980 before embarking on a coaching career.

JOHN DIDION • 1967 & 1968

In 1968, John Didion earned consensus All-American honors as a center. As a junior, he was a second team All-American selection by AP and UPI (1967). At the conclusion of his college career, he played in the Coaches All-America, Senior Bowl, Hula Bowl, College All-Star, and East-West Shrine games. He was drafted in the seventh round by the Washington Redskins and enjoyed a pro career that included stints with the Redskins, Saints, Bears and Seahawks.

JIM DIXON • 1926

Jim Dixon played at Oregon State from 1924-26 and was an All-American and All-Coast left tackle selection as a senior. He later served as an assistant coach at Oregon State from 1933-51. The Dixon Recreation Center on campus is named in his honor.
