2013 SPRING PROSPECTUS

THE SEASON AHEAD: Spring practice begins April 1 and concludes with a rare Friday night Spring Game April 26 at Reser Stadium live on the Pac-12 Networks at 7 p.m. The 2013 season opens Aug. 31 with a home visit from FCS Eastern Washington.

THE NEW LOOK: Oregon State won't be wearing new uniforms this spring, but it will sport a brand new look in August. OSU Athletics unveiled its new Nike brand/uniforms March 4 and will first appear in its new looks in the season opener Aug. 31. The Beavers have several different uniform combinations. The new look also includes a "re-beaved" logo. The former logo existed from the late 1990s through March 3, 2012. OSU also has three new HydroSkin® finished helmets by Hydro Graphics, Inc.

STABILITY: Oregon State has been one of the most successful teams in the nation since the arrival of head coach Mike Riley for his second stint in 2003. Riley is 10th in the FBS for current longevity beginning in that '03 season (also was head coach 1997-98). The list includes Frank Beamer, Virginia Tech, 1987 (first season); Larry Blakeney, Troy, 1991; Mack Brown, Texas, 1998; Bob Stoops, Oklahoma, 1999; Kirk Ferentz, Iowa, 1999; Gary Paterson, TCU, 2000; Jim Grobe, Wake Forest, 2001; Mark Richt, Georgia, 2001; Gary Pinkel, Missouri, 2001.

STABILITY PART II: Oregon State has by far the longest combined tenures in the Pac-12 Conference of defensive and offensive coordinators. Mark Banker started in his capacity with the defense in 2003 and Danny Langsdorf with the offense in 2004 – that's a combined 21 seasons.

WINNINGEST COACH: Head coach Mike Riley became the school's winningest football coach last season when he won his 75th game on Sept. 29 at Arizona. Riley now has 81 total victories the most of any coach in the Pac-12 Conference. His 52 league wins ranks 13th in Conference history, two short of 12th place holder Jim Owens of Washington (1957-74).

STARTERS RETURNING: The Beavers will be one of the more experienced teams in the Pac-12, if not the nation this season. OSU expects to return a total of 294 combined starts from the 2012 team, not including two-year starting placekicker Trevor Romaine and one-year starters Keith Kostol (P), Michael Morovick (LS) and Tim McMullen (H). Senior offensive tackle Michael Philipp has the most starts of any Beaver on the current team with 35. For a complete list of starters please access the roster breakdown.

HONORS CANDIDATES: Oregon State's loaded roster features several honors candidates. Junior defensive end Scott Crichton is arguably the team's most visible defender. The 2012 Pac-12 First Team and Honorable Mention All-America is already tied for sixth in OSU history for tackles-for-loss (32) and tied for seventh for sacks (17). Other defenders to play close attention to are senior cornerback Rashaad Reynolds, senior linebacker Michael Doctor (the team's active lead for tackles with 172) and junior end Dylan Wynn. Offensively, the starting quarterback (see next note) figures to have an excellent chance for honors. In addition, sophomore center Isaac Seumalo returns from his freshman All-America season, junior receiver Brandin Cooks will likely break into the school's top 10 chart for yards during the first month of the season and senior guard Grant Enger was an honorable mention all-league selection last season. Kicker Trevor Romaine was also an honorable mention pick last year and has a legitimate chance to move all the way to second this season for career field goals made at OSU, trailing only 2005 Groza Award winner Alexis Serna.

WHAT TO WATCH IN APRIL: The biggest competition for starting duties in 2013 in the Spring will be at quarterback, where senior Cody Vaz and junior Sean Mannion will be competing. Vaz started five of the 13 games last season (1,480 yds, 59% comp pct) and Mannion (18 career starts) started eight games (2,446 yds, 64.5% comp pct). Defensive tackle and cornerback are two other positions the Beavers will need to develop depth at in April.

THE NUMBERS: Oregon State returns a large portion of its statistical numbers from the 2012 season. Here is a closer look:

	2012	Pct Return
Passing:	3,992 yds	100%
Rushing:	1,618 yds	75%
Scoring:	423 pts	74%

STARTERS LOST: The biggest void on defense are the departures of both defensive tackles, Castro Masantai and Andrew Seumalo – the pair combined for 38 starts – and consensus All-America cornerback Jordan Poyer (24 starts). OSU will also need to replace on defense middle linebacker Feti 'Unga (19). On offense the biggest departures from a year ago are OSU record setting receiver Markus Wheaton (33 starts) and tackle Colin Kelly (25 starts). Tight end Colby Prince (24) also has graduated.

EARLY ARRIVAL: True freshman offensive lineman Sean Harlow from San Clemente, Calif., will arrive on campus in time for spring practice. He is one of several Beavers in recent years who graduated high school early to arrive on the OSU campus for Spring term, including current tight end Caleb Smith. Overall, the Beavers 2013 recruiting class ranked No. 39 in the nation; the second-highest ever position in the history of the Rivals.com rankings.

BRAY AND LOCEY PROMOTED: Former graduate assistant and standout linebacker Trent Bray was promoted to full-time linebackers coach in the offseason. Former wide receivers coach Jay Locey has been promoted to Chief of Staff.

FINAL RANKINGS: The Beavers have appeared in the Associated Press top-25 rankings for a school record 12 consecutive weeks entering 2013; escalating to as high as No. 7 (also in the BCS) the week of Oct. 22. The team finished No. 19 in the USA Today/Coaches Poll and No. 20 in the AP Poll – the first end of the season ranking since 2008.

BIGGEST TURNAROUND IN OSU HISTORY: Oregon State won six more games than all of last season (3-9), which is the biggest one year improvement in school history. The Plus-6 also matches the most in the FBS last season with Middle Tennessee (2-9 last yr/8-4 this yr) and Ohio State (6-7/12-0). OSU played in the Valero Alamo Bowl against Texas.

GAUDY NUMBERS: Oregon State's offensive machine eclipsed the 500-yard mark four times in 2012. The Beavers hit 683 yards against Nicholls State (ranks 2nd all-time), 613 yards in a win at Arizona (7th), 559 yards vs. Cal (tied for 17th) and 501 yards against UCLA. The following is a closer look at where some of the numbers shaped up:

	2012 (OSU mark)	Record
Points	423 (2nd in OSU history)	433 (2003)
Passing Yards*	3,992 (2nd)	4,265 (2003)
Passing TDs	27 (2nd)	29 (2004)
Pass 1st Downs	180 (1st)
Touchdowns	54 (1st)
Total Offense*	5,610 yards (2nd)	6,019 (2003)
Pts Allowed*	268 (2nd)	267 (2002)

13-game season*

PAC-12 HONORS: Four Beavers earned 2012 Pac-12 First Team honors in a vote by the league's coaches. The First Team honorees included Jordan Poyer (CB), Markus Wheaton (WR), Scott Crichton (DE) and Jordan Jenkins (special teams). OSU's Honorable Mention selections include Rashaad Reynolds (CB), Andrew Seumalo (DT), Isaac Seumalo (C), Grant Enger (RG), Brandin Cooks (WR) and Trevor Romaine (PK).

SCORING DEFENSE: Oregon State finished second in the Pac-12 for scoring defense last season allowing 20.6 points. The 268 total points allowed is just one more than the OSU record for a 13-game season (2002).

PAC-12 THIS CENTURY: USC owns the most victories in the Pac-12 Conference this century with 125 (105 with vacated wins), followed by Oregon (122), OSU (96), UCLA (86), Cal (85), Arizona State (84), Stanford (81), Washington (70), Arizona (67), WSU (66). Utah has 109 victories this century and Colorado has 67.

MIKE RILEY

HEAD COACH
13th season at Oregon State
Alabama '75

"Mike Riley is the best guy in college football."

Any number of people from current players, ex-players, coaches at all levels or anyone who has ever met him could acknowledge that; it was national sports media personality Jim Rome who made that statement following an interview during the 2012 season.

Coach Riley could very well be the best guy in college football, but he is also ranks among the best coaches in the game. He is the winningest active coach in the Pac-12 Conference with 81 victories (all at OSU), owns the most wins ever at Oregon State, the team has been ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 28 weeks, has coached 22 All-Americans and 28 NFL Draft picks (thru the 2011 season).

The longest tenured coach in the Pac-12, in his 13th season, has a resume that sparkles with achievements. He was the 2008 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), Pac-10 Conference and State of Oregon Coach of the Year, and his teams have appeared in the final Associated Press top-25 rankings in three of the last six seasons. In 2012 he was selected the AFCA Region Coach of the Year.

The 60-year-old head coach has guided the Beavers to seven bowl games in the last 10 years. The Beavers are 5-2 with Riley at the helm in bowl games after he started the rejuvenation of the program during his first tenure in 1997 and '98 that subsequently made three postseason appearances. When he took control of the program in the winter of 1997, Oregon State was mired in a streak of 28 consecutive losing seasons. While his first two teams did not post winning marks, the competitiveness of the program increased dramatically and the foundation was laid for teams that would play in bowl games in 10 of the next 14 years.

Riley has 52 Pac-10/12 victories, which ranks 13th in the conference record book. Legendary coaches Jim Owens (Washington), Bruce Snyder (Cal, ASU), Rich Brooks (Oregon) and Dick Tomey (Arizona) are all within his reach for the 2013 season which would move him into the top-10 all-time for league wins.

He has also led his team to outstanding success in the classroom, where over the last five years Beavers have been honored by the league for academic achievement 64 times.

Riley's pro style approach to how he manages the program has paid dividends to players who have gone on to successful professional careers. Twenty-one former Beavers who were coached by Riley were in the NFL as of Dec. 1, 2012, including quarterbacks Matt Moore (Miami) and Derek Anderson (Carolina), running back Steven Jackson (St. Louis) and defensive back Brandon Browner (Seattle). Anderson, Jackson and Browner have each earned Pro Bowl honors.

Riley is the first coach in OSU history to win more than one NCAA-sanctioned bowl game at OSU, capturing the 2003 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2004 Insight Bowl, the 2006 and 2008 Sun Bowls, and the 2007 Emerald Bowl titles. He also is the first coach to lead the program to more than one winning conference season (5-3 in '04, 6-3 in '06, 6-3 in '07, 7-2 in '08 and 6-3 in '09 and 6-3 in '12) since 1969.

Under Riley, Oregon State has not been shy about playing challenging non-conference games. Since 2003, 10 of the 13 out of league road opponents have finished the season in the AP-top 25 (thru 2012 season). He's also experienced success against top-25 teams winning 12 games, including three times against teams ranked No. 3 or higher.

It's difficult to select the best season Oregon State has had with Riley at the helm. The 2006 team certainly is at the top of charts as it is the second club in OSU history to capture at least 10 victories. The Beavers won eight of their final nine games, including defeating No. 3 USC and ending the Trojans' 27-game Pac-10 win streak. OSU also ended a lengthy Aloha Stadium win streak of Hawai'i and capped off the year with a thrilling victory over Missouri (39-38) in arguably the best Sun Bowl ever played. The final summary of the season showed OSU finishing third in the Pac-10, just one game behind co-winners USC and California. OSU ended the year ranked No. 21 in the final AP Poll. His 2012 team was picked to finish last in the Pac-12 North, yet went 6-3 in league and 9-4 overall. The team was ranked in the Associated Press Poll a school-record 12 consecutive weeks, including as high as No. 7. The Beavers opened the year with victories over No. 13 Wisconsin and No. 19 UCLA, and posted the third-best conference record behind a pair of BCS bowl teams.

The 2008 Beavers lost more starters than any other Pac-10 team, but Riley and his staff found replacements within the program to turn what was expected to be a rebuilding year into a 9-4 season and the program's second-best ever mark in the Pac-10 Conference at 7-2 (tied for second). All of this while playing a schedule that was considered one of the toughest in the nation that included three BCS bowl teams (USC, Utah, Penn State). The keynote victory of the season was a 27-21 win over then-No. 1 USC in a nationally televised Thursday game. The season culminated with a 3-0 victory over No. 18 Pittsburgh in the Sun Bowl, a game OSU played without two of the team's top three offensive weapons - Pac-10 Offensive MVP and All-America running back Jacquizz Rodgers and his brother receiver James Rodgers. The team ended the year No. 18 in the final Associated Press Poll and No. 19 in the USA Today.

His 2007 team won seven of the final eight games on the way to a 9-4 mark, just one game behind co-Pac-10 champions USC and Arizona State at 6-3 in the league. OSU won at No. 2 California when a Bear victory would have moved them to No. 1 and beat No. 18 Oregon in Eugene. The defensive unit finished first in the nation against the run and accumulated the most yards lost via tackles than any other team in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The Beavers put the finishing touches to the season and a No. 25 final ranking with a victory over Maryland in the Emerald Bowl.

Riley returned to the Beaver sideline for the second time in 2003 and led the team to the Las Vegas Bowl title over New Mexico. The team set numerous individual and team records, and led the Pac-10 for both offense and defense. He followed up the '03 team's success by signing the program's best ever recruiting class, according to several scouting organizations.

In 2004 the team accepted the challenge of playing both '03 defending national champions, the eventual 2004 national champions and faced one of the most difficult schedules overall in the nation. The team fought through early setbacks before defeating Oregon in the annual Civil War in then record fashion. The victory over the archrivals propelled OSU to a convincing 38-21 victory over Notre Dame in the Insight Bowl. The Beavers closed 2004 winning six of their final seven games and pushing Orange Bowl/National champion USC to the wire.

In 2009, Riley and his staff had a monumental task of replacing nearly every starter on defense and a total of seven NFL draftees. The Beavers not only qualified for a bowl game, but also for the second straight year played the season finale for the opportunity to receive the Rose Bowl berth. A league-high seven Beavers earned first team All-Pac-10 honors and the team finished higher than the preseason predictions for the fourth consecutive year.

While the 2010 team did not qualify for a bowl game, there were still plenty of highlights. The Beavers played the most difficult schedule in the nation competing against four teams that finished the year in the top seven of the national polls, and winning two games over top-25 clubs. OSU featured Stephen Paea (DT) earning Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year and for the second time was named the recipient of the league's Morris Trophy, awarded to the conference's top defensive lineman. Jacquizz Rodgers earned Pac-10 First Team for the third consecutive season and joined just two other former Pac-10 running backs (Napoleon Kauffman and Charles White) as three-time honorees. Riley also led the "Beaver Nation" charge to school records for average home attendance (45,509) and for season ticket sales (26,952).

Riley left Oregon State after the 1998 season to pursue a unique opportunity to become the head coach of the National Football League's San Diego Chargers. He spent four years in the NFL, returning to Oregon State after a one-year stint as an assistant with the New Orleans Saints. Riley was a popular choice when he was originally hired for the position in late December of 1996 and was equally as popular upon his hiring the second time.

He calls Corvallis his hometown, although he was born in Wallace, Idaho. He grew up watching Beaver football, as his father Bud was an assistant coach for the program from 1965-72 and again in 1979. Mike was a standout quarterback at Corvallis High School, leading the Spartans to the 1970 state title.

Riley, who already had coaching in his blood at a young age, made the decision to continue playing the sport in college at the University of Alabama for legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He played cornerback from 1971-74, helping the Tide to four South-eastern Conference titles and the 1973 national championship.

Riley immediately launched a successful coaching career following his graduation from Alabama. His first stop was as a defensive graduate assistant coach for Mike White at the University of California in 1975. He helped the Bears to an 8-3 record and a share of the Pacific-8 Conference title, the first and only for the program since the Pac-8/10 Conference was formed in 1968.

He continued his education and his coaching in 1976 at Whitworth College in Spokane, Wash. He finished his master's degree in physical education in 1977 while working for the popular Pacific Northwest coach and future Canadian Football League legend Hugh Campbell.

Riley's first full-time appointment came at NAIA powerhouse Linfield College in McMinnville, Ore. From 1977-82 he served as the program's defensive coordinator and secondary coach, as well as assistant athletic director. Riley assisted head coach Ad Rutschman's Wildcats to a six-year record of 52-7-1, which included five conference titles and the 1982 undefeated NAIA title team.

An opportunity to coach in the professional ranks presented itself following the '82 season, and Riley was on his way to the Canadian Football League's Winnipeg Blue Bombers as the secondary coach. During his three-years as an assistant, Winnipeg produced a 32-15-1 mark and won the 1984 Grey Cup title.

Riley returned to the college level in 1986 as an assistant coach at the University of Northern Colorado, before being named the youngest coach in CFL history in 1987 with Winnipeg at 33-years of age. Riley guided the Bombers to two Grey Cup titles (1988, '90) and was named the CFL's Coach of the Year in those seasons. He was inducted into the club's Hall of Fame June 13, 2007.

In 1991 Riley took over the San Antonio Riders of the World Football League, spending two seasons before the league suspended its North American operations. He returned to the college ranks in 1993 when then-USC head coach John Robinson offered him the position of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach - he later became assistant head coach. The Mesa (Ariz.) Tribune named him the league's top assistant coach in 1993 after leading the Trojans' offense to record setting numbers. Then USC quarterback Rob Johnson earned numerous Pac-10 and NCAA records, and would later become a first-round draft pick.

Riley remained at USC through the 1997 season, helping the Trojans to victories in the Rose, Cotton, and Freedom Bowls. USC won one outright league title, shared another and finished second one time.

In addition, Riley has been the head coach for three postseason all-star games - the Hula Bowl, East-West Shrine Game and Blue-Gray All-Star Classic.

Mike and his wife Dee are the parents of one son, Matthew, and one daughter, Kate. They also have a grandson, Elijah Jo. Matthew, an OSU graduate, is currently employed within the Beaver Athletic Department as a video specialist and he and his wife Lydia (an OSU graduate student) live in Corvallis. Kate is a 2011 OSU graduate and also resides in Corvallis. Mike has two brothers; Edward Riley is a physician and Associate Professor at the Stanford University School of Medicine and Pete Riley is a scientist for the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife.

Mike Riley is under contract at OSU through 2020 - his contract rolls over one year for every time the team plays in a bowl game.

His success at all levels is well documented. Riley has earned the respect of players, coaches, media and fans. He has been called the savior of Oregon State football and the future continues to look bright for the Orange and Black.

2013: Dylan is an underrated defensive end ... one of the quickest players at his position in the Conference ... best known for his non-stop, hustling, relentless demeanor on and off the field ... uses quickness to advantage as a tackle in nickel and dime packages ... 19 career starts. 2012: Made 49 tackles, including eight on special teams - second on the team ... recorded a sack and forced fumble against Wisconsin ... registered eight tackles and a fumble recovery against Utah. 2011: Played in all 12 games, starting seven ... named Freshman All-America Honorable Mention by College Football News ... one of 10 true freshmen to play in 2011, an Oregon State record ... set the Oregon State single season record with five fumble recoveries ... finished the season with 44 tackles including 5.5 tackles-for-loss ... registered his first career sack at California.

DE LA SALLE: Scout rated Dylan the 23rd best defensive end in the nation ... led De La Salle to its 19th consecutive North Coast title and to its fifth consecutive state title game, finishing the year 14-0 ... 50 tackles and 12 sacks as a senior as his numbers reflect PFLUGERVILLE: Three-year letterman and starter for the Panthers ... First Team All-District honors as a sophomore and senior ... All-State Honorable Mention as a senior ... rushed for 1,216 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior, also accounted for 145 yards receiving and one interception ... as a sophomore and junior combined he rushed for 1,257 yards and 13 touchdowns - suffered a knee injury his junior season that curtailed his playing ... KEYE-TV Player of the Week for a September 2009 game after rushing for 243 yards and three touchdowns ... also played basketball.

PERSONAL: Born March 6, 1993 in East Austin, Texas ... son of Richey Woods and Faith Barrs ... has one sister, Dianna ... 3.50 cumulative GPA ... member of the National Honor Society, school Honor Roll and class officer ... chose OSU because "it felt like home away from home" ... intends to major in sports administration ... undecided major.
