Olympians

For over 80 years, Oregon State has been providing wrestlers for United States Olympic teams.

The most successful was Robin Reed, a 1924 gold medalist. Reed wrestled for the Beavers when the school was known as Oregon Agricultural College.

Reed came to OAC from Portland's Franklin High. Though his actual weight was close to 140 pounds, Reed often wrestled at 170 pounds.

Reed won the gold at 135 pounds in Paris, pinning all his foes, including OAC teammate Chet Newton in the final. Legend has it that Reed wrestled against each of his United States teammates while sailing to Europe for the Olympics; he won every match and pinned all but the heavyweight. Reed also won two national amateur titles. Later, Reed coached the Beavers for two seasons; his teams dominated Pacific Coast competition and won the 1926 Amateur Athletic Union national championship in a meet held in Corvallis.

National & World Meets

Many Oregon State wrestlers have gone on to win national open titles and represent the United States in the World Championships.

The most recent was Les Gutches, who completed one of the finest careers in OSU history in 1996. He went on to win four straight national freestyle titles at 187.25 pounds, and in 1997 he added to his legend by winning the World Freestyle title.
