SOCIAL MEDIA UPDATES — Follow Oregon State women's basketball on Twitter (@oregonstatewbb) and Facebook (Oregon State Women's Basketball) for in-game updates, pictures, videos and other inside information in Beaver women's basketball.

WHAT'S NEXT FOR THE BEAVERS — If the Beavers win, they will face the winner of Texas Tech and San Diego/Pacific between March 24-26.

GAME 33: WASHINGTON — Tuesday, Mar. 20 (7:00 p.m.): Oregon State is 29-47 all-time against Washington. The Beavers have won the last three meetings, including the first season sweep over the Huskies since 2008-09.

Washington has won four of its last five games, falling only to top-seeded Stanford at the Pac-12 Tournament. The Huskies handily defeated Cal Poly, 90-71, in the first round of the WNIT, before handing Pac-12 opponent, Utah, a 52-39 loss on Sunday. Redshirt senior center Regina Rogers leads the Husky offense, averaging 16.5 points per game, shooting 60.2 percent from the field, and paces the boards with a 8.4 rebound per game mark. The reigning Pac-12 Freshman of the Year, guard Jazmine Davis, is close behind, averaging 16.2 points per game. Head coach Kevin McGuff is in his first season, and Washington is 5-7 on the road this season, 2-1 in non-conference play.

WNIT OUTINGS — Oregon State is 14-6 all-time in its WNIT outings, winning two national titles in 1980 and 1982. The Beavers have now won their tournament opener eight of their nine trips with the last trip being the 2009 season.

TOURNAMENT TIDBITS —

- Oregon State has qualified for the WNIT eight seasons, six of those times from 2001-10.
- The Beavers have made either the NCAA Tournament or WNIT 13 times since 1980.
- Washington is 5-3 in WNIT games, having made three appearances (1999, 2002 & 2004) in the post-season event. Washington has never failed to win at least one game in the WNIT.
- The at-large berth in the WNIT is the Huskies' first traditional postseason selection since the 2007 NCAA Tournament.
- A Pac-12 school has been in the final game of the WNIT the last two seasons, including a Cal win in 2010. The conference went 4-0 in WNIT games to start the 2012 Tournament.
- The Pac-12 tied for the most qualifiers for a conference with the Colonial Athletic Association and Atlantic 10 with five. Joining Oregon State are USC, Washington, Arizona State and Colorado.

THINGS TO WATCH FOR — Oregon State has held both of its WNIT opponents to a 44.5 points per game average, while also limiting them to 27.6 percent shooting ... The Beavers are 17-2 when it holds its opponents to 60 points or fewer ... The Beavers are 16-4 when they score at least 60 points in a game, 8-0 when they score at least 70 ... Junior Sage Indendi has 119 career three-pointers, which is third all-time. She needs 56 more to move to second ... Sophomore Alyssa Martin is eighth all-time for career three-pointers with 95, she needs one more to move to seventh ... Freshman Ali Gibson is tied for eighth all-time for most three-pointers made in a season with 55. She needs two more to move to seventh ... Junior Patricia Bright is leading the Pac-12, sixth in the country, averaging 3.4 blocks per game this season with 108 total, which is a new school record, resetting the record El Sara Greer set last year of 92. Bright's 108 blocked shots is the third most in a single season in Pac-12 history. She needs three to move to second.

MEDIA RECOGNITION — Head coach Scott Rueck was tabbed the 2012 Pac-12 Media Coach of the Year, while senior Earlysia Marchbanks was named to the All-Pac-12 Team, junior Patricia Bright All-Defensive Team and freshman Ali Gibson All-Freshman Team, announced Monday. The honors mark the first for all four recipients.

RACKING UP MORE AWARDS — Senior Earlysia Marchbanks was named All-Pac-12 by the conference coaches, while freshman Ali Gibson was All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention and All-Freshman Team. Junior Patricia Bright earned All-Defensive Team honors, announced March 6.

College Sports Madness tabbed head coach Scott Rueck the Pac-12 Coach of the Year, while Marchbanks was third team and Bright was fourth team.

And junior Thais Pinto was named the netscoutsbasketball.com Pac-12 International Player of the Year.

LOOKING BACK AT SATURDAY — Senior Earlysia Marchbanks earned her sixth double-double of the season with 14 points and a career-high 15 rebounds as the Oregon State women's basketball team stormed past Saint Mary's, 56-41, to advance to the WNIT Sweet 16. Sophomore Alyssa Martin was the other Oregon State player to score in double-figures with 12 points.

GARNERING NATIONAL ATTENTION — Oregon State ranks in the top 25 in three categories as a team, while one player is ranked in a category as of the NCAA rankings released on March 18. The Beavers are 14th for blocked shots per game (5.5), 18th for personal fouls per game (13.6) and 22nd for field goal percentage defense (35.0). Junior Patricia Bright is currently ranked sixth for blocked shots (3.38).

CURRENT RPI RANKINGS — Oregon State is currently 83rd in the NCAA RPI Rankings, released on March 11. Five Pac-12 schools rank higher than the Beavers in No. 2 Stanford, No. 29 California, No. 38 USC, No. 65 Arizona State and No. 71 UCLA.

ODDS & ENDS — Oregon State boasts the tallest player in school history in 6-7 center Thais Pinto. She also is the tallest on any Pac-12 roster with the second-tallest being 6-5.

Two Oregon State players boast fathers that played at Pac-12 schools. Alyssa Martin's father, Earl, Martin played at Oregon State from 1986-90, while ShaKiana Edwards-Teasley's father, James Edward played at Washington from 1974-77. Both fathers are still in top 10 lists at their respective institutions.

With the addition of Colorado and Utah in the inaugural season of the Pac-12, the Beavers hold a 0-2 record all-time against the Buffaloes and a 6-5 edge over the Utes prior to the teams' meetings this season.

Oregon State's 5-0 start is the best start for the program since 2000-01, when the Beavers went on a 6-0 run.

The average height of the 12-player roster is 5-10 with the tallest player being junior Thais Pinto and the shortest junior Mollee Schwegler.

The Beavers are now 6-20 all-time in Pac-10/12 openers, winning the conference-opening game twice in the past three seasons.

While the Beavers have never won at Stanford, the Cardinal's seven-point margin of victory over the Beavers on January 7 in Maples is the second-lowest in school history, second only to the March 7, 1987 contest when Oregon State lost 58-56.

The Beavers' win over Arizona State snapped an 18-game series winning streak that dated back to 2003. With the win, the team ties its number of conference wins from last season.

Oregon State's win at USC is the first time the Beavers have won in the Galen Center since January 29, 2004. The team handed the Trojans their second conference loss at home this season, second to No. 4 Stanford.

The team's nine conference wins is the most in a season since 2008-09, when the Beavers finished 9-9 in Pac-10 play, finishing in a three-way tie for fourth place.

Oregon State's three overtime contests mark the most in a single season since the 2006-07 season when the Beavers went 1-2.

The last time Oregon State earned six straight conference wins was 1994-95, and the last time the Beavers defeated the Ducks in three consecutive meetings was with a sweep in 1992-93 and the first meeting in the 1993-94 season.

The Beavers' 12 wins in Gill Coliseum are the most since the 2008-09 season, when that squad won 13.

The last time Oregon State swept the Washington schools in a weekend was 2008-09, and the last time it swept them on the road was 2001-02. The Beavers haven't taken the season sweep over Washington since 2008-09 as well.

Oregon State's tie for fifth place in the regular season finish is the best finish since 2008-09, when the Beavers finished tied for fourth with the same record in conference play.

BRIGHT IN THE RECORD BOOKS — Junior Patricia Bright etched her name in the Oregon State record books at Pepperdine on Dec. 10. Bright blocked nine shots, resetting the record that Brina Chaney and Sissel Pierce set in 2003 and 2000 of eight blocked shots. The single-game record is only the fourth in the overall single-game records that occurred away from Gill Coliseum.

Bright added another record on February 25, blocking five shots in the second Civil War meeting to record 95 at that point in the season - the most ever in a single season in school history.

BRIGHT GETS RECOGNITION — Junior Patricia Bright was named the Pac-12 Player of the Week after her play at Pepperdine by both the conference office and by College Sports Madness. Bright nearly earned a triple-double with 16 points, 10 rebounds and a school-record nine blocked shots.

FAMBRO TABBED A GAME CHANGER — Junior Quortni Fambro was named the Winimation.com Win Stat Rally Award recipient in her inspired effort against Pepperdine. The Win Stat Rally Award is given to a player or players that came on the court with their team trailing, and leave the court with their team ahead or with momentum on their team's side.

TOP TURNAROUND PROGRAM — The Oregon State women's basketball team is currently boasting the top turnaround in NCAA Division I women's basketball as of Dec. 14. The Beavers finished 9-21 (.300) last season, while posting a 6-1 record (.889) so far this season, marking a 57.5 percent change.

RECORDS KEEP BEING SCRATCHED — Oregon State has broken a pair of records already this season. The Beavers' 96-32 win over Western Oregon marks the largest margin of victory in school history, resetting the record of 60 (114-54) set on February 7, 1980 over Alaska-Anchorage. And against Cal State Northridge, Oregon State reset the Gill Coliseum record for most rebounds with 55. The previous record was 53, set on March 11, 1995 against USC.

SWINGING OVER — Freshman Arica Nassar joins the women's basketball team after a successful season with the Oregon State volleyball team. Nassar netted All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention and Pac-12 All-Freshman Team accolades, while also being named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Week twice.

OVER .500 — Oregon State's win over Western Oregon tied up the all-time record with the 500th win in the program's history.

SCORING SURPRISE — The Beavers currently average 65.4 points per game, a big jump from last year, when they only posted a 53.9 average. The team's 96 points against Western Oregon ties for the 19th highest scoring game by Oregon State in school history.

300 REACHED — Head coach Scott Rueck earned his 300th career win over Cal State Northridge on November 17. He achieved his first 288 at George Fox in his 14 seasons as head coach.

SEASON OPENERS — Oregon State is now 30-6 record in season openers. The Beavers have won the last 14 straight season openers, last seven home openers.

TAKING IT TO THE ROAD — Oregon State is 18-18 all-time on its first outing on the road after defeating Eastern Washington on November 22. The Beavers dropped the first away game the past two seasons.

FRESHMAN TALENT — Freshman Ali Gibson has quickly solidified herself in the starting lineup, posting the best field goal percentage of the guards (41.9 percent) and is the second-leading scorer on the team with 11.8 points per game, while leading the team in conference play averaging 11.9 points per game. Gibson plays with the poise of a veteran guard, and currently boasts the most minutes (32.9) on the floor.

INDENDI REVAMPS HER GAME — Junior guard Sage Indendi finished her inaugural season at Oregon State with a school record - the most three pointers in a single season (75). This season, Indendi is looking play a more complete game, while sharing point guard duties and setting up scoring opportunities for her teammates.

CHASING RECORDS — With her 75 three-pointers last season, junior guard Sage Indendi has snuck on the top 10 list for career three-pointers. Based on her opening season as a Beaver, she's on track to break the record of 178 set by Felicia Ragland from 1999-02. And don't count sophomore Alyssa Martin out either. She counted 60 three-pointers last season.

PINK OUT WEEKEND — The Beavers hosted California for its annual Pink Out game on Saturday, Feb. 18 at 2:00 p.m. Part of the proceeds went to the Kay Yow Fund and the Corvallis Clinic's Project H.E.R. Last year, volleyball's Spike Out Cancer, Pink Zone and gymnastics' Pink Out raised over $12,000 for breast cancer organizations.

Also, in conjunction with the gymnastics team's Pink Out, a Pink Out breakfast was held on Saturday, Feb. 18 at 9:30 a.m. in the Reser Club. A silent auction was also held with all of the proceeds going to the Corvallis Clinic's Project H.E.R., raising over $9,300.

FAMILIAR FACES — The Beavers welcome back six from the 2010-11 roster, including four starters in senior guard/forward Earlysia Marchbanks, junior guard Sage Indendi and sophomore guards Alexis Bostick and Alyssa Martin. The roster boasts the two top scorers from last HALF NEWCOMERS — Oregon State doubles its squad returning from the 2010-11 season with five junior college transfers and a true freshman. The Beavers welcome the tallest player to ever don an Oregon State women's basketball jersey in 6-7 center, Thais Pinto, from Belo Horizonte, Brazil. With a father and uncle with NBA experience and championship rings, it was only fitting for forward ShaKiana Edwards-Teasley to follow in their footsteps on the hardwood. Guard Mollee Schwegler lettered in five sports at Rainier High School, including football, while being a two-sport athlete at Lower Columbia College in basketball and softball. Forward/center Patricia Bright and guard Quortni Fambro round out the junior college transfers, while freshman guard Ali Gibson led her prep team to three California state championships and a national title.

BEAVERS INK FIVE — The Oregon State women's basketball team will add five freshmen to its 2012-13 roster. Joining the squad will be Jamie Weisner, a 5-9 guard from Clarkston, Wash., Samantha Siegner, a 6-3 guard from Albany, Ore., Khadija Toure, a 5--8 guard from Kamiakan, Wash., Deven Hunter, a 6-2 forward from Salem, Ore., and Ruth Hamblin, a 6-6 center from Houston, British Columbia, Canada.

REWIND TO LAST SEASON — The Beavers finished the 2010-11 season with a 9-21 record, but they were competitive in every game, falling by 10 points or less in 15 of those losses. El Sara Greer and Sage Indendi were named All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention with Greer adding Pac-10 All-Defensive Team honors. Alyssa Martin was named to the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team. And Indendi set a school record for most three-pointers made in a single season with 75, while Greer reset the blocked shots record with 92.

RUECK'S ASSISTANT COACHES — Head coach Scott Rueck welcomes back a pair of assistant coaches this season in Mark Campbell and Eric Ely. Campbell became the winningest two-year guard in Hawai'i basketball history at guard. Ely brings over 12 years of Division I coaching experience splitting time at Oral Roberts and Missouri. He played professionally in France and Brazil after his collegiate career closed. Joining the staff this season is Megan Dickerson, who served as assistant coach under Rueck from 2006-10 at George Fox.

ATTENDANCE AVERAGE — Last season, the Beavers averaged 1,500 fans per game, ranking the seventh highest in school history. The 1995-96 season still sits at top, where Oregon State averaged 5,264 per game.

Oregon State averaged 1,526 this season over 10 games, marking the sixth most in school history, and the Civil War attendance of 3,719 is the most in Gill Coliseum since 2006-07.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES — Head

coach Scott Rueck is available to meet the media once Pac-12 play begins every Tuesday (with the exception of the week of the Pac-12 Tournament) at 9:30 a.m. in the Gill Media Room (Room 15), beginning Tuesday, Dec. 27. Each press conference is also streamed online live at osubeavers.com.

CATCH EVERY GAME ON THE RADIO — Every Oregon State women's basketball game this season will be on the airwaves, either on the AM dial or online at osubeavers.com. Fans can catch games on KLOO 1340-AM in the Corvallis area. Every game will also be available through Beaver Nation Online, the audio/visual service of osubeavers.com.

Ron Callan of KPAM 860 begins his third season as the voice of the Beavers.

For the fourth straight season, select games will be available for fans in the Portland area on KKOY 1550-AM. This year, the Beavers will be on 10 times in Portland, the same as the last three seasons. KKOY is the sister station of KPAM 860, which broadcasts Oregon State football, men's basketball and baseball, among other Beavers' information.

SEE THE BEAVS ON TV — Oregon State appeared on television twice this season. The Civil War contest in Gill Coliseum on Saturday, Jan. 28 at 4:00 p.m. was broadcast nationally on FSN, and the second installment of the Civil War Series in Eugene aired on CSNNW.

BEAVERS ALL-ACCESS — ROOT SPORTS will air the popular 30-minute "Beavers All-Access" show beginning in January on Wednesday afternoons. Head coach Scott Rueck will sit down with host Mike Parker in taping for the show on five occasions at 101 next to Big River Restaurant in downtown Corvallis on Jan. 9, Jan. 23, Jan. 30, Feb 13 and Mar. 5.

BEAVER SPORTS TALK — Most of the Oregon State radio networks will carry Beaver Sports Talk, which airs every Tuesday during basketball season beginning at 7:00 p.m. The show originates from McMenamans on Monroe and will feature Oregon State basketball coaches Scott Rueck and Craig Robinson as well as selected players.

ONLINE HOME OF BEAVER ATHLETICS — The Internet home of Oregon State athletics, osubeavers.com, has a full slate of information on the Oregon State women's basketball team. Game notes, photo galleries, roster and full schedule are available by visiting the website.

BEAVER NATION ONLINE — The subscription-based site within osubeavers.com offers exclusive interviews, highlights, webcasts and special features from Oregon State coaches and players throughout the year. Live events, game replays, weekly and post-game press conferences, special features, highlights and classic games are constantly shown on the site.

It was a homecoming of sorts for Scott Rueck, who was named the fifth head coach in the history of the Oregon State women's basketball program on June 30, 2010. He begins his second season at the helm of the program.

In 2011-12, Rueck continued to exceed expectations, leading the Beavers to a 9-9 conference record and a 18-11 regular season mark. He was named by the Pac-12 media and College Sports Madness as the conference's Coach of the Year.

In his inaugural year as head coach of the Beavers, Rueck led the inexperienced squad to a 9-21 record with only one player with NCAA Division I level experience. With a lot of question marks prior to the first tipoff, the Beavers captured their first win in the season opener over Long Beach State en route to a 7-4 non-conference finish. Oregon State battled to close losses to open Pac-10 play before earning its first conference win over Washington at Alaska Airlines Arena. Shortly after, the Beavers claimed their second Pac-10 victory at home in legendary Gill Coliseum in what is believed to be the biggest come-from-behind victory in program history, overcoming a 20-point deficit to win 61-59 over Oregon in the second Civil War meeting. Rueck coached two All-Pac-10 honorees in senior El Sara Greer and redshirt sophomore Sage Indendi, an All-Pac-10 Defensive Team selection in Greer and a Pac-10 All-Freshman Team recipient in Alyssa Martin.

In addition, Rueck individually was inducted into the George Fox Sports Hall of Fame, as well as his 2000-01 squad also being included on the inductee list.

Rueck came to Oregon State after spending the past 14 seasons serving as the head women's basketball coach at George Fox, compiling a career 288-88 (.766) record. Under his watch, the Bruins recorded winning seasons each year, winning the Division III National Championship in 2009. Rueck has led his squads to five "Sweet 16" appearances, three "Elite 8" contests, six NCAA Division III Tournament appearances and seven Northwest Conference Championships.

During his time as head coach, Rueck has coached four NAIA All-Americans, four NCAA All-Americans and 33 All-Northwest Conference honorees. Individually, he has been named the NCAA Division III National Coach of the Year (2009), three-time NCAA Division III West Region Coach of the Year (2008, 2009, 2010) and seven-time Northwest Conference Coach of the Year (2000, 2001, 2005, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010).

George Fox finished last season with a 28-3 overall record and a perfect 16-0 Northwest Conference mark. The Bruins advanced to the NCAA Division III Sectional Final but came up short against Washington-St. Louis to end their tournament run. The undefeated conference performance is only the third time in league history that a team had accomplished that feat, the second being during George Fox's 2008-09 season.

During the 2008-09 seasons, the Bruins had lost all five starters from the previous "Sweet 16" season and were picked to finish fifth in the conference. But with its four returning letterwinners and 10 freshmen, Rueck led the team to a school record 32-0 season to win the national championship and finish the season with the top spot in the rankings in both the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and D3hoops.com polls.

The Bruins set more records in that magical season under his care. The team won the Northwest Conference with its 16-0 record, leading the conference by five games - the largest margin ever for the title team.

In just his fourth season at the helm during the 1999-00 campaign, Rueck led the Bruins to their first NCAA Division III Tournament, finishing 23-5 overall and advancing to the "Sweet 16" with a No. 19 national ranking. The next season built on the previous year's success with the team finishing 15-1 in conference play to capture its first league title with a 23-3 overall record. The Bruins were ranked as the top team in the country for two weeks straight, finishing the season No. 11.

George Fox made its next tournament appearance during the 2004-05 campaign, advancing further than any team in school history to the "Elite 8." The Bruins finished the season with a 22-6 overall record and were ranked as high as 10th in the polls as the season concluded.

In 2007-08, Rueck's defense gained national attention as it was the national leader, allowing only 45.4 points per game. That squad finished 25-5 overall, reaching the round of 16 for the third time and finishing as high as 15th in the polls.

Rueck got his start coaching while an undergrad at Oregon State. He served as assistant coach at Santiam Christian High School for the boy's basketball team from 1989-93. He then became the women's basketball assistant coach at George Fox under former head coach Sherri Murrell, helping the Bruins to a 37-23 overall record and two NAIA postseason appearances. Additionally, he coached the women's tennis team in 1995-96.

Basketball runs in the Rueck family. His sister, Heidi, was an NAIA All-American point guard at George Fox, setting the school records in career, single season and single-game assists and eventually being voted into the school's Sport Hall of Fame in 2005. His father, Marv, was a part of the coaching staffs at Hillsboro and Glencoe High Schools, including being the inaugural head coach at Glencoe when it opened in 1980.

Rueck earned a Bachelor's in exercise and sport science from Oregon State in 1991, while adding a Master's in physical education in 1992. He is married to the former Kerry Aillaud, and the couple has three children, Cole, Kate and Macey. Kerry played basketball for George Fox from 1993-95, while serving as assistant coach for the program from 1998-06.
