

OREGON STATE HISTORY/YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Oregon State's most recent dive into women's swimming came in 1973-74, but the sport took hold at the school long before that.

The Beaver yearbook for the 1914-15 school year shows a swim team photo in the Girls Athletics section. The first mention of women's swimming as an intercollegiate sport came in the 1920 Beaver, reporting on Oregon Agricultural College's victory over the University of Oregon in the second annual spring meet in 1919.

By the 1930s, intercollegiate competition for women in all sports had waned. Some sports resumed on a club basis in the 1950s.

In 1973-74, OSU began its Department of Women's Intercollegiate Athletics and women's swimming was elevated from a club sport to varsity status. Oregon State was a member of the AIAW prior to joining the NCAA. OSU's women's swimming program joined the Pacific-10 for the 1986-87 school year, when the conference added women's sports.
