IN THE B1G

This season marks the first for men's hockey as a Big Ten Conference sport. The six teams that make up the league - Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Penn State and Wisconsin - each play a 20-game league schedule, facing each opponent twice at home and twice on the road. All six teams advance to the Big Ten Tournament in the Xcel Energy Center in Saint Paul, Minn. The Top 2 teams receive a bye into the semifinals, with the No. 4 and 5 seeds and No. 3 and 6 seeds meeting in the first round. The tournament champion receives the league's automatic bid into the NCAA tournament. Minnesota and Wisconsin have already locked up the first-round byes. The first-round matchups will be Ohio State vs. Michigan State and Michigan vs. Penn State, but final seeding will not be determined until after games this weekend.

This is the final week of the regular season with three two-game series closing play, as Ohio State plays at Penn State, Minnesota travels to Michigan and Michigan State. Entering the weekend, Minnesota is first with 42 points, followed by Wisconsin in second with 37 points. Michigan is third with 30 points, with Ohio State fourth (24 points), Michigan State fifth (19 points) and Penn State sixth (7 points). A team receives three points for a win in regulation or overtime. If a game is tied after a 5-minute overtime, each team receives one point and a three-round shootout is held to determine which team gets a second point.

Minnesota needs one point to clinch a share of the title and two points to claim the outright title, regardless of what Wisconsin does. Michigan is locked in third place but Ohio State can tie the Wolverines for third with two wins and two Wolverine losses. Michigan State can finish fourth or fifth and Penn State will finish sixth.

LAST TIME OUT

The Buckeyes hosted No. 1-ranked Minnesota last weekend. The Gophers won game one, 5-1. In game two, Ohio State came from a goal down twice in the third period for a 2-2 OT tie and then won the shootout, 1-0 in three rounds, to pick up the extra point in the Big Ten standings.

Penn State took on Wisconsin in two games in University Park. The Badgers won the opener, 4-2, before a 3-2 Wisconsin win in overtime in the second game.

BUCKEYE SNAPSHOT

The Buckeyes led 1-0 after the first period on a Max McCormick goal at 9:30. In the second, Matt Johnson and McCormick scored 26 seconds apart for a 3-0 Buckeye lead and Ryan Dzingel tallied shorthanded to put Ohio State up 4-0 after two periods. Frey made 17 saves in the first period, 10 in the second and 19 in the third for the win.

Game 2 (Feb. 1) - Ohio State 5, Penn State 2: Ohio State scored five unanswered goals to defeat Penn State, 5-2, and earn a series sweep of the Nittany Lions. The Buckeyes gave up two goals early in the first period to Penn State but scored three times in the second, including back-to-back power play goals from Tanner Fritz and Ryan Dzingel less than two minutes apart, to tie the game and then take the lead. Sophomore Anthony Greco's goal with 1:07 left in the second broke the two-all tie and stood as the gamewinner. - Dzingel's assist in the second period vs. Wisconsin Feb. 15 marked the 100th point of his Buckeye career (and came in his 101st game). He is the first Buckeye to hit the century mark since Sergio Somma, Peter Boyd and John Albert in 2010-11, who all hit triple digits as seniors. - Dzingel netted his second career hat trick Jan. 10 vs. Michigan State. It was the first in Big Ten Conference play and was matched by Wisconsin's Michael Mersch later that night. Dzingel also scored three times vs. Penn State Dec. 29, 2012. He also had an assist vs. the Spartans for his second career four-point day after two goals and two assists at Michigan Nov. 19, 2011. It was the Buckeyes' first hat trick since Alex Szczechura Feb. 16, 2013.

He returned to the lineup vs. Mercyhurst but did not see game action and was back between the pipes for both games vs. Michigan State Jan. 10-11. He made 33 saves in game one and then stopped 26-of-27 shots in game two.
