2014 MEN’S SOCCER

9-7-4 Overall; 5-3-0 Big Ten

BUCKEYES AND ZIPS COLLIDE IN NCAA FIRST ROUND IN COLUMBUS

The Ohio State men’s soccer team is set to play in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Akron at 5 p.m. ET Thursday at Bert L. & Iris S. Wolstein Field in Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium. The winner of the Ohio State-Akron match will travel to face No. 1 seed Notre Dame (11-4-4) in the second round at 7 p.m. ET Sunday in South Bend, Ind.

The Buckeyes (9-7-4) are returning to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2010 season and ninth time in program history after finishing second in the Big Ten conference and advancing to the semifinals of the league tournament to receive an at-large bid. Ohio State is 5-2-1 in their last eight matches and has collected a 5-2-3 mark in Columbus in 2014.

The Zips (13-6-1) have won eight of their last 10 matches and won their third-consecutive MAC championship. Akron is making its 29th all-time appearance in the NCAA tournament and has advanced to the round of 16 in five of the last six seasons.

BRACKET BREAKDOWN

Notre Dame is the No. 1 seed in the 48-team field for the NCAA Division I Men’s Tournament, which is set to begin Thursday with five first-round games. UCLA, Michigan State, Maryland and Indiana follow at 2-5. The Atlantic Coast Conference led the way with seven teams in the field, while the Big Ten added six teams to the bracket. The ACC produced the most seeded teams (5) of any conference in the country.

The remaining 16 seeds in order are Stanford, Clemson, Georgetown, Syracuse, Charlotte, Providence, Creighton, Louisville, Washington, California and Virginia. Twenty-four additional teams were selected at large. Twenty-four teams were selected at large. A total of 10 opponents from the Buckeyes’ 2014 schedule made the tourney field, including four seeded teams.

BUCKEYES IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

• Ohio State is making their ninth NCAA Tournament appearance in program history, all with John Bluem at the helm, and first since 2010.
• The Buckeyes have posted a 7-8-1 record in NCAA play, 5-2-0 at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium.
• The team has advanced to the second round of the tournament in five of its eight appearances.
• The 2007 squad advanced to the program’s first College Cup Final before falling short, 2-1, against No. 1 seed Wake Forest.
• This will be the second meeting between Ohio State in Akron in the tournament with the Zips winning the first time in 2008 in double overtime in Akron.

BUCKEYES IN A NUTSHELL

• The Buckeyes are 9-7-4 overall and held a 5-3 mark in conference play. Ohio State is 5-2-1 in their last eight matches and has collected a 5-2-3 mark in Columbus in 2014.
• The Scarlet and Gray earned the No. 2 in the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to the semifinals before falling, 2-1, against No. 6 seed Indiana last time out in College Park.
• Ohio State sits at No. 29 in the latest NCAA RPI poll. Ten opponents on the 2014 schedule made the tourney.
• The Buckeyes are receiving votes in the final NSCAA Division I national poll.
• Senior midfielder Yanni Sarris leads the squad with a season-high 15 points on five goals and five assists, while Liam Doyle (5g, 6a), Danny Jensen (5g, 1a), Kyle Culbertson (3g, 3a), Christian Soldat (3g, 1a), Marcus McCrory (2g, 1a), Ryan Ivanic (1g, 3a) and Joao Ehlers (1g, 6a) have also netted scores.
• Jensen has scored four goals in the last six matches and was the lone goal scorer in the team’s 3-1 loss against Akron Sept. 24.
• Senior goalkeeper Alex Ivanov, a Senior CLASS Award Finalist, is 9-7-4 with a 0.92 goals-against average and .816 save percentage with seven shutouts in 20 matches. He leads the Big Ten with 84 saves and third in saves percentage.
• Ivanov (Ohio State, 2010) is the lone Buckeye that was a part of the 2010 NCAA squad. Sarris (FGCU, 2011), sophomore Alex Ranalli (Akron, 2012) and back-up goalkeeper Andrian McAdams (2010-12, Akron) have also netted scores.
• Head coach John Bluem was named Big Ten Coach of the Year, while Doyle was named a first team All-Big Ten selection and Sarris a second team honoree. McCrory and freshman Hunter Robertson were each named to the All-Freshman Team.
• The Buckeyes hold a 2-3-1 mark against Top 25 opponents.
• Ohio State has not lost a home match at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium since a 2-1 defeat against Indiana Oct. 12.
• Ivanov, Jensen and Culbertson were each named to the MAC Tournament All-Tournament Team.

BRING ON THE COLD

The match Thursday will go down as one of the coldest OSU soccer matches in recent history. Here are some of the coldest matches researched (since 2000):

- Nov. 4, 2000 at Michigan (Ann Arbor, Mich.) – 25 degrees
- Nov. 3, 2006 vs. Michigan (Columbus, Ohio) – 31 degrees
- Nov. 26, 2008 at Akron (Akron, Ohio) – 32 degrees
- Nov. 2, 2006 vs. Michigan State (Columbus, Ohio) – 34 degrees
- Nov. 19, 2000 vs. Creighton (Columbus, Ohio) – 34 degrees

CAPS list is local to site
Sarris, from Mentor, Ohio, earns his first career All-Big Ten laurel on the second team. The OSU midfielder has had a breakout season, leading the team with a season-high 15 points on five goals and a team-best five assists.

McCrary, a native of Madison, Wis., is one of the top upcoming forwards in the conference, and was a unanimous selection to the All-Freshman squad. One of the quickest attacking players in the league, McCrary has collected seven points on a three goals and an assist and guided the team to a road victory at Wisconsin in front of their homecrowd with a goal and an assist in the 2-0 win over the Badgers Oct. 18. He scored his first career goal in the 14th minute in a home win over Michigan State to give the Buckeyes the early lead Oct. 4 in Columbus. McCrary has played in 19 games this season with 11 starts.

Robertson, a Westerville, Ohio, native and Columbus Crew Academy product, is the only freshman to start in all 20 games this year. The OSU back has been a consistent, strong defensive player and has been a key piece to the Buckeyes’ backline, while also taking the majority of the team’s corner kicks. Robertson has helped the Buckeyes limit opponents to 0.95 goals per game and has been a part of seven shutouts this season.

Junior co-captain Zach Mason received the Big Ten Sportsmanship Award for Ohio State. A constant presence in the midfield, the Big Ten Distinguished Scholar has started in all 56 games the last three seasons, which leads all active Buckeyes.

PERFECT 10

With a win over Akron, the Buckeyes would post the 20thth 10-win season in program history. Twelve of those have come in 18 seasons under coach John Bluem.

HOME COOKIN’

Ohio State holds an 89-34-18 record (.688) - 5-2-3 this season - in Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium since the facility opened in 1999.

RPI

In the final RPI of the 2014 season, issued Nov. 17, Ohio State holds on to the No. 29 spot in the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI), the most important of the criteria in selection to the 48-team NCAA Tournament. The Buckeyes are 3-5-1 against teams ranked higher than them. Six Big Ten teams ended the year in the Top 30. The RPI is a mathematical formula designed to objectively compare results and strength of schedule.

BIG TOURNAY RECAP

Ohio State received the No. 2 seed in the Big Ten Tournament and advanced to the semifinals for the first time since 2009, but was eliminated following a 2-1 loss to No. 6 seed Indiana Nov. 14 in College Park. Maryland went on to win the tournament crown with a 1-0 win over the Hoosiers Nov. 16. Freshman forward Marcus McCrary scored the equalizer in the 69th minute following an athletic run through the midfield on a head ball by Yianni Sarris. However, the Hoosiers earned a penalty kick in the 86th minute and converted the attempt to claim the eventual gamewinner. The Buckeyes outshot the Hoosiers, 20-12, including a 9-5 advantage in shots on target.

BUCKEYES DEFEAT TTUN, AGAIN

For the second time in a five-day span, the Buckeyes defeated Michigan with the foot of sophomore forward Danny Jensen, who scored the lone goal in the 19th minute of play Nov. 9 in the BIG Ten quaters. Senior midfielder Max Moller created space outside and sent a far cross into the box to set up the header into the lower right of net by Jensen at 18:16.

Defensively, senior goalkeeper Alex Ivanov collected his 15th career shutout, making three stops, including a huge left-handed denial from the far post in the 13th minute, while the OSU backline held strong in the final 20 minutes to deny the Wolverines the equalizer. It’s just the second time in school history Ohio State has defeated Michigan twice in a season (first was in 2007).
Senior goalkeeper Alex Ivanov was named one of 10 finalists for the 2014 Senior CLASS Award, the organization announced last week. To be eligible for the award, a student-athlete must be classified as a Division I senior and have notable achievements in five areas of excellence — community, classroom, character and competition.

Ivanov is in his first year as captain for the Buckeyes. The native of Strongsville, Ohio, Ivanov graduated last spring with a bachelor’s degree in electrical and computer engineering, collecting an impressive 3.70 cumulative GPA. He is currently pursuing a second degree in sports industry as a post graduate independent study this fall. In addition to his work in the classroom, Ivanov has volunteered with the 2nd and 7 Foundation, reading to elementary students. He has been a part of three different “Kids Kicking Cancer” events. On the field, Ivanov was named a second team Big Ten selection and was selected as Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week four times in his career. This year, Ivanov has led the league in saves for the second-consecutive year was named to the 2014 Big Ten All-Tournament Team.

The Senior CLASS Award winners will be announced during the 2014 NCAA Men’s and Women’s College Cup® championships in December. Fans are encouraged to log on to the senior class award website and vote up to Nov. 24th.

SARRIS LEADING THE SCORING
Senior midfielder Yianni Sarris has led the team in scoring for the majority of the 2014 campaign with a season-high 15 points (5g, 5a). A native of Mentor, Ohio, Sarris is tied for sixth in the Big Ten in points (15), tied for eight in goals (5) and tied for third in assists (5). In 30 career starts, Sarris has notched 23 points (7g, 5a) in three seasons in the Scarlet and Gray.

SUPER SUB SOLDAT
Sophomore forward Christian Soldat has become the team’s top player off the bench for head coach John Bluem. The native of Rockwall, Texas, Soldat has collected all seven of his season-high points in the last eight matches. Ohio State has won in every game Soldat has tallied a point this year. In the regular-season finale, he picked up the game-winning goal vs. the Wolverines Nov. 1 in Ann Arbor, posting a season-best four shots, including three on target in 60 minutes of action.

IVANOV CLIMBS CAREER SAVES LIST
With 12 saves, senior goalkeeper Alex Ivanov would tie former Buckeye and current volunteer coach Matt Lampson for second on the OSU career saves list with 244. Former Buckeye Dave Scheer holds the school record with 263 career stops (1985-88).

A STRONG BACK FOUR
Guided by junior back Liam Doyle, the Ohio State back four has been solid support for senior goalkeeper Alex Ivanov. Along with Doyle in the backfield are three underclassmen, which have each started in all 18 matches for the Scarlet and Gray, including sophomores Austin Bergstrom and Tyler Kidwell and true freshman Hunter Robertson. A physical, tall group, tall players of all (6-0 or taller), the Buckeye back four has limited opponents to just 0.95 goals per game and a .075 shot percentage mark.

WOLSTEIN RECAP
Butler won the ninth annual Wolstein Classic with a 1-0-1 mark. On Sept. 30 in Columbus, & Ireland’s Wells Sports Memorial Stadium, the Bulldogs defeated Canisius, 2-0, before ending the tournament with a 0-2-0 mark. Sophomore Tyler Kidwell and junior Liam Doyle were the beneficiaries of the contest vs. the Bulldogs.

A WEEK OF UPSETS
The Buckeye unit claimed two key ranked wins against No. 5 Louisville and No. 17 Michigan State earlier this year. It marked the first time since the 2007 College Cup run that team has beaten back-to-back nationally-ranked opponents. The victory over the Cardinals was the first Top 10 road win since the 2004 season.

Senior midfielder Yianni Sarris scored the lone goal of the match against the Cardinals in the 39th minute off a Louisville turnover, while the OSU defense held the Cardinal offense to five shots in the second half and denied three corners. Alex Ivanov had three saves to help break a four-match win streak for Louisville.

The team then jumped to second in the conference standings following a 2-0 victory over the Spartans. Liam Doyle struck the game-winner in the 74th off a deflection from a free kick from 30 yards out. Forward Marcus Ivancic scored twice in the classic. Ohio State (0-0-2) was ranked 3rd in the rankings, while Kentucky had a 7-3 lead in corners. Alex Ivanov, Yianni Sarris, Andrii McAdams, Zach Dobey, Konrad Kuharski, Ryan Iivancic and Max Moller were recognized before the start of the contest vs. the Wildcats.

Tulsa, Okla. (Bishop Kelley)
Rutgers
Tulsa Soccer Club

At a glance: Has appeared in 37 career games at Ohio State, including 15 starts since transferring from Rutgers to Ohio State at the beginning of 2013. Dedicated and fit players for the Buckeyes. His excellent work rate combined with good attacking skills gives defenses major problems.

As a senior (2014): Has started in 11 games and appeared in 20 overall. Collected four assists including one in the season finale 2-1 win vs. Michigan (Nov. 5) just 34 seconds into the match, while also assisting on the team’s game winner in the quarterfinal of the Big Ten Tournament vs. Michigan (Nov. 9). Put 13 shots on target with 29 attempted. Played a season-high 90 minutes three times.

As a junior (2013): Played in 17 games, while making for starts for the Buckeyes. Played a season high of 94 minutes during a double overtime draw against Wright State. Assisted the goal that led Ohio State to a 1-0 victory over Penn State (Nov. 2). 17 shots with six on goal. Collected a total of 980 minutes during his third season for the Scarlet and Gray.

As a sophomore at Rutgers (2012): Played in 15 games, starting 12. Scored one goal for the Scarlet Knights, a 1-1 equalizer vs. Louisville (Sept. 30) in a comeback win. Also secured an assist on game-winning tally vs. Central Connecticut (Sept. 26).

As a freshman at Rutgers (2011): Saw action in seven games with one shot credited in a 2-1 win over Cincinnati (Oct. 9).

Bishop Kelley: Four-year lettermen under head coach Donovan Bradshaw. Mixed time between the forward and midfield positions. Scored 75 goals and tallied 50 assists over four seasons. Recognized as the Bishop Kelley offensive Player of the Year in 2010 and 2011. Received all-state, all-district and all-metro accolades. Earned the Bishop Kelley Golden Boot Award in 2010 and 2011. 2011 Tulsa World Player of the Year. Finalist for the 2011 Gatorade Player of the Year in Oklahoma. ESPN Rise Player of the Week (May 2011).

Personal: Son of Krisann and David Moller. Has a younger sibling, Aubrey. Plans to one day coach at the collegiate level. Enjoy’s watching sports and spending time with friends and family away from the pitch. Lists scoring the game-winning goal in a double overtime state championship game during his junior season as his greatest sports thrill. Father, David, also played soccer at Ohio State.
