NOTING THE BUCKEYES

- Ohio State finished the season 28-7 overall and 13-3 in the Big Ten.
- The Buckeyes won the outright Big Ten title marking its second-straight conference crown.
- OSU won the Big Ten Tournament for the sixth time in program history and the first since 2011.
- The Buckeyes set four school records for a team this season, taking and making more three-point field goals of any team as well as taking and making the most field goals overall.
- OSU earned a bid in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-straight season and hosted first and second round games for the second time in three seasons.
- Three Buckeyes garnered All-Big Ten honors and with Kelsey Mitchell and Stephanie Mavunga earning first team accolades, that gave Ohio State at least one first team honoree for the 14th-straight season, the most of any school in the conference.
- Mitchell earned first team All-American honors by the WBCA and the USBWA making her the program's first four-time All-American.
- Mitchell was named the Big Ten's Player of the Year by the conference's 14 head coaches for the third time in her career.
- Mitchell finished her career as the Big Ten's all-time leading scorer, either male or female, with 3,402 career points which was also second in NCAA history.

- Mitchell made 56 more three-pointers than any female in NCAA history.
- Mitchell knocked-down a three-pointer in each of her last 91 games which set an NCAA record.
- Mitchell played in and started all 139 games of her career which is an OSU record.
- For her career, Mitchell holds 30 NCAA, Big Ten or OSU records.
- Mavunga averaged 16.6 points and 11.0 rebounds per game this season. She is one of three Buckeyes to average a double-double for an entire season and she did it in each of the last two years.
- Mavunga led the team with 19 double-doubles on the year which was third in the Big Ten.
- Mavunga and Mitchell were both named to the Big Ten All-Tournament Team after leading the Buckeyes to their first title since 2011. Mitchell was named the tournaments' Most Outstanding Player after averaging 25.7 points, 4.7 assists and 4.0 three-pointers per game in the three games.
- Linnae Harper was one three players this season to average more than 14 points, eight rebounds, two assists and two steals per game.
- Kevin McGuff won 20 games for the 14th in his 16 years as a head coach.

RECAPPING THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

- Ohio State was selected as one of 16 hosts for the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in the last three seasons.
- The Buckeyes opened the tournament with a resounding 87-45 victory over George Washington.
- Ohio State raced out of the locker room after halftime and out-scored George Washington 48-18 in the second half.
- All 10 Buckeyes who suited up for the game scored at least two points led by Stephanie Mavunga with 22 points, 13 rebounds and four blocked shots.
- Alexa Hart scored a season-high tying 12 points.
- Kelsey Mitchell scored a season-low 11 points but dished-out seven assists.
- Ohio State allowed an opponent season-low 45 points.
- In the second round, the Buckeyes ran into a hot-shooting Central Michigan squad. The Chippewas jumped-out to a big lead early in the second quarter and never looked back, bouncing the Buckeyes 95-78.
- Mitchell scored 28 points and made six three-pointers in the defeat while Stephanie Mavunga added 16 points and 15 rebounds.
- CMU was 14-of-27 (51.9 percent) from long range and made 25-of-27 free throws.

RECAPPING THE BIG TEN TOURNAMENT

- The Buckeyes won their sixth Big Ten Tournament title and their fourth as the No. 1 seed.
- Kelsey Mitchell was named the Tournament's Most Outstanding Player after averaging 25.7 points, 4.7 assists and 4.0 three-pointers over the three games.
- Along with Mitchell, Stephanie Mavunga was named to the All-Tournament Team. She averaged 19.7 points and 13.0 rebounds per game while shooting 75 percent from the floor.
- Sierra Calhoun scored 13 or more in all three games and made seven three-pointers.
- Linnae Harper struggled in the semifinal game but came up big in the championship vs. Maryland. Harper scored 14 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and dished-out four assists.
- Alexa Hart made her first three starts of the season for the injured Asia Doss and averaged 7.7 points and 5.0 rebounds.
- OSU rolled past Rutgers in the quarterfinals 82-57. The Buckeyes outscored Rutgers 15-2 to close the second quarter and then outscored the Scarlet Knights 28-7 in the third quarter to put the game out of reach.
- The Buckeyes limited Rutgers to seven points in both the second and third quarters which were the two lowest scoring quarter by an opponent this season.
- The 90-88 semifinal over Minnesota was a thriller that featured 11 ties and 16 lead changes.
- Stephanie Mavunga notched the tournament's first 20/20 game as she scored 26 points and grabbed a tournament record 21 rebounds. She also blocked a season-high seven shots.
- Kelsey Mitchell scored 30 points and dished-

- out a career-high tying nine assists.
- Minnesota led by 10 after the first and the Buckeyes would come back to lead 51-50 at the break. The Gophers led by two heading to the fourth and pushed the lead to 85-79 with 4:40 to play.
- The Buckeyes then scored 11-straight points and held Minnesota to just one basket over the final 4:30 of the game.
- In the championship vs. Maryland, the Buckeyes outscored UM 27-9 in the second quarter to take a 44-31 lead at halftime.
- The Terrapins stormed back and closed to within two points with six minutes to play. That's when Mitchell hit back-to-back threes and Harper followed with a steal and a score to push the lead back to 10 points with 2:34 left. That run sealed the title for the Buckeyes.

MAVUNGA'S MONSTER NIGHT

- Stephanie Mavunga had a tremendous game in the semifinal win over Minnesota falling just three blocks short of a triple-double.
- She notched 26 points, marking her 10th 20-point game of the season.
- Her 21 rebounds set a new Big Ten Tournament record and was her second 20-rebound game of the season.
- She blocked a season-high seven shots which put her over 300 for her career.

MITCHELL BIG PLAYER OF THE YEAR

- For the third time in her career, Kelsey Mitchell has been named the Big Ten's Player of the Year.
- She also won the award as a freshman in 2015 and last year as a junior in 2017.
- Mitchell is one of four Buckeyes to earn B1G POY honors multiple times joining Tracey Hall (1986-87), Jessica Davenport (2005-07) and Jantel Lavender (2008-11).
- A Buckeye has now been named POY 15 times which is eight more than the next closest program (Purdue).
- This is also the 11th time a Buckeye has been named Player of the Year in the last 14 seasons.

ALL-BIG TEN ACCOLADES

- The Buckeyes had quite the haul when the Big Ten awards were announced as in addition to Mitchell earning Player of the Year honors, four other Buckeyes earned Big Ten accolades.
- Stephanie Mavunga claimed her first team All-Big Ten honors by both the coaches and the media. This is her second all-conference award as she was a second team honoree last season.
- Linnae Harper earned second team All-Big Ten honors and was also selected by the coaches as one of five members of the Big Ten All-Defensive Team. Harper was the conference's Sixth Player of the Year last season.
- Mitchell was a unanimous first team selection for the third-straight season and her fourth first team nod overall.
- Sierra Calhoun and Asia Doss both garnered All-Big Ten honorable mention honors by the coaches.

92-STRAIGHT WITH A THREE

- Kelsey Mitchell made a three-pointer in each of her final 92 games.
- That set an NCAA record, passing Heather Butler of UT Martin old mark of 80-straight games from 2011-13.

THROWING IT IN FROM DEEP

- Kelsey Mitchell finished her career as the NCAA all-time three-point leader, making 497 threes in her career.
- That passed UConn's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis' old mark of 398. She passed her during the game against FGCU on Nov. 24, 2017.
- Mitchell set the NCAA single-season record with 127 three-point field goals as a freshman and then broke her own school and Big Ten mark with 129 this season.
- She has smashed the old OSU record of 270 which was set by Caity Matter from 2001-05.
- Mitchell has made 38.6 percent of her three-point attempts in her career.

FASTEST PLAYER TO 2,000 POINTS

- Kelsey Mitchell became the fastest player in NCAA history (since 1981) to record 2,000 career points.
- Mitchell reached the mark in her 79th career game, besting Jackie Stiles who scored her 2,000th point in 83 games. Stiles is the NCAA's second leading scorer behind Kelsey Plum.
- The Cincinnati, Ohio native was also the fastest player in Big Ten history to 1,000 points as it took her 41 games to score her first 1,000 points.
- Kelly Mazzante of Penn State had been the fastest Big Ten player to 2,000 points as she hit the mark in her 88th game.

2018 CLASS NOTCHES 100TH WIN

- The class of 2018 -- Kelsey Mitchell, Alexa Hart, Asia Doss and Makayla Waterman -- has had a successful four years and recently notched its 100th victory.
- Fittingly, the 100th win came on Senior Day as the Buckeyes knocked-off Purdue 73-60 on Feb. 18, 2018.
- This class won 106 games, two Big Ten Championships, a Big Ten Tournament title and made four NCAA Tournament appearances.

MCGUFF WINS 20 AGAIN

- This was Kevin McGuff's 16th season as a head coach and he has now recorded 20 wins in 14 of those seasons.
- He has failed to reach 20 wins just twice in his career, going 17-13 in his second year at Xavier and going 17-18 in his first season at Ohio State.
- McGuff led the Buckeyes to 24, 26, 28 and 28 wins over the last four seasons.

MAKING AND SHARING

- Kelsey Mitchell is one of just 13 players in NCAA history with 3,000 career points. She also joined another exclusive club on Feb. 8.
- Mitchell dished-out her 500th career assist in the win over Rutgers.
- Of the 13 players who have scored 3,000 points, just four of them also have 500 career assists -- Maya Moore (3,036 points, 544 assists), Kelsey Plum (3,527 points, 523 assists), Rachel Banham (3,093 points, 522 assists) and Kelsey Mitchell (3,402 points, 545 assists).
- That's not only an impressive group of players but its also an impressive feat to score 3,000 career points and give out 500 helpers.

THREE STREAKING

- Kelsey Mitchell finished her career by making at least one three-pointer in 92-straight games.
- That is an NCAA record, passing the old mark of 80 set by Heather Butler of UT Martin from 2011-13.
- The last time Mitchell failed to make a three-pointer in a game came against Michigan State on Dec. 31, 2015 when she was 0-for-10 from beyond the arc.

THE MOST OF ANYONE!!

- Kelsey Mitchell made 497 career three pointers which is the most of any female player in NCAA history at any level.
- She passed West Liberty's Laura Malernee who made 441 threes from 2008-11 with a three-pointer against Maryland on Jan. 22.
- Malernee is from central Ohio and went to nearby Gahanna Lincoln High School.

BIG TEN ALL-TIME LEADING SCORER

- On Jan. 27 vs. Michigan State, Kelsey Mitchell scored a game-high 23 points and in the process, passed Minnesota's Rachel Banham to become the Big Ten's all-time leading scorer for male or female players.
- Banham had scored 3,093 points in her career while Indiana's Calbert Cheaney holds the record on the men's side with 2,613 points.
- Mitchell finished her career at 3,402 career points which is second in NCAA history.

CHASING HISTORY

- In the game against Indiana on Jan. 13, 2018, Kelsey Mitchell became the 13th player in NCAA history to reach the 3,000-point milestone.
- She knocked-down a free throw line jumper early in the second quarter to eclipse the mark.
- Mitchell finished her career 2nd all-time in NCAA history with 3,402 points.
- For a complete list of players in the 3,000-point club, see page 4.

SCHOOL RECORD BOARDS

- Stephanie Mavunga was a monster all season on the glass and her 385 rebounds broke the school's single-season record.
- She topped Jantel Lavender's previous mark of 374 which she set during the 2008-09 season.
- Mavunga averaged 11.0 rebounds per game this season which was third-best in the Big Ten.
- She also had six games of 16 or more rebounds which is three more in a season than any other Buckeye since 2000.

BUCKEYE BASKETBALL

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING

- Linnae Harper did a little bit of everything in her senior season for the Buckeyes.
- She averaged 14.4 points, 8.4 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 2.2 steals per game.
- She was one of only three players in the country this season to average more than 14.4 points, 8.0 rebounds, two assists and two steals per game.

WHO YOU CALLING SHORT??

- Linnae Harper stands just 5-8 but she was one of the best rebounders in the country.
- Harper lead the country in rebounds per game by players 5-8 or shorter.
- She pulled down 8.4 rebounds per game this season.
- Harper's career average for rebounds per game entering her senior season was 4.9.

MAVUNGA AVERAGES A DOUBLE-DOUBLE

- Stephanie Mavunga averaged a double-double each of the last two seasons which is something that not many Buckeyes can say they've done.
- Last year, scored 11.4 points and grabbed 10.8 rebounds per game while this season she upped those totals to 16.6 points and 11.0 rebounds per contest.
- She is just one of three Buckeyes to average a double-double for an entire season and she's done it twice.
- Martha Baker averaged 14.6 points and 13.0 rebounds in the 1975-76 season and Jantel Lavender averaged a double-double in three-straight season from 2009 to 2011.
- For her career, Mavunga notched 57 double-doubles with 30 of them coming in a Buckeye uniform.

STARTERS CARRIED THE LOAD

- The Buckeye starting five of Mitchell, Doss, Calhoun, Harper and Mavunga combined for 74.8 ppg.
- That number led the country and was more than 306 DI teams combined.
- The starting quintet scored 88.1 percent of the team's points.

MAGIC NUMBER 70

- Head coach Kevin McGuff's style of fast paced offense leads to more possessions and hopefully more points.
- Since he took over at the start of the 2013-14 season, the Buckeyes are 88-11 when scoring at least 80 points and 112-23 when scoring at least 70 points.

Year	<70 pts	>70 pts	>80 pts	>90pts
2013-14	5-15	12-3	7-0	4-0
2014-15	3-4	21-7	17-3	9-1
2015-16	1-3	25-5	21-4	14-1
2016-17	1-3	27-4	22-2	10-0
2017-18	1-3	27-4	21-2	11-1
Totals	11-28	112-23	88-11	48-3

DOUBLING-UP

- Stephanie Mavunga recorded a team-high 19 double-doubles this year while Linnae Harper had 13.
- Mavunga had 57 double-doubles in her career and is averaged 16.6 points and 11.0 rebounds per game this season.
- Harper averaged 14.4 points and 8.4 rebounds per game.
- They were one of just three duos in the country with 13 or more double-doubles.

SHARING THE LOVE

- Under head coach Kevin McGuff, the Buckeyes have dished-out 20 or more assists in a game 30 times and are 29-1 in those games.
- Dating back to the 2009-10 season, the Buckeyes have won 58 of the last 61 games when sharing on 20 or more of their field goals.
- The Buckeyes hit the 20-assist mark 14 times last season and eight times this season.

HITTING THE GLASS

- When the Buckeyes win the battle on the boards, they usually end up winning the game.
- Ohio State is 66-5 under McGuff when out-rebounding the opponent.

179-STRAIGHT WITH A THREE

- Ohio State has made at least one three-point field goal in 179-straight games.
- The last time the Buckeyes failed to make a three-pointer in a game was on Feb. 10, 2013 at Northwestern. OSU was 0-of-6 from long range that game.
- Over the streak, the Buckeyes have made 10 or more threes in a game 40 times.
- Ohio State has made 34.9 percent (1,303-3,738) of its shots from beyond the arc and is averaging 7.3 threes per game during the streak.

1,000 WINS IN SCHOOL HISTORY

- Ohio State is the winningest program in the Big Ten and on Nov. 15 vs. Idaho, became the first team in the conference 1,000 wins.
- The Buckeyes are just the ninth program in NCAA history to notch 1,000 victories.
- Overall, Ohio State is 1,026-434 for a .703 winning percentage.

MAVUNGA 16 OR MORE BOARDS

- Six times this season, redshirt-senior Stephanie Mavunga grabbed 16 or more rebounds in a game.
- Since 2000, no Buckeye had grabbed 16 or more rebounds in a game more than three times in a season.
- That includes a career-high 26 rebounds in the season-opening win over Stanford as well as a Big Ten Tournament record 21 rebounds in the semifinal win over Minnesota.

1,500 / 1,000 / 300

- Stephanie Mavunga finished her career with 1,733 points, 1,263 rebounds and 316 blocked shots.
- She was one of only two active players in the country this year with more than 1,600 career points, 1,000 career rebounds and 300 career blocks.

- She grabbed her 1,000th rebound in the win over Maine on Dec. 3 of this season.
- Her 1,500th point came in the win vs. Penn State on Jan. 31, 2018.
- Mavunga swatted her 300th career shot in her record-setting game vs. Minnesota in the Big Ten Tournament Semifinals. She blocked seven shots in the game to go along with 26 points and 21 rebounds.

SHARE?? OR NOT SHARE??

- Against Penn State on Jan. 31, the Buckeyes chose wisely on how to share the basketball.
- OSU dished-out a season-high 23 assists as four different players recorded at least four helpers in the game.
- Conversely, the Buckeyes didn't share the ball well with Penn State, committing a then season-low seven turnovers.
- Those two stats went a long way in securing a 94-64 victory over the Lady Lions.
- That was the first 20-assist game for the Buckeyes since Dec. 15 and it game just two games after dishing a season-low five assists at Iowa.

HITTING TRIPLE DIGITS

- The Buckeyes scored 100 or more points four times this season which tied the OSU single-season record.
- OSU also notched four 100-point games during the 2015-16 season.
- The Buckeyes have hit the 100-point mark 33 times in school history and 14 of those instances have come in the last four years under McGuff.

FOUR WITH 1,000 POINTS

- Ohio State had four players on its roster with over 1,000 career points this season.
- Kelsey Mitchell became the fastest player in school history 1,000 career points and the fastest player in NCAA history (since 1981) to 2,000 career points. She finished her career second all-time in NCAA history with 3,402 points.
- Stephanie Mavunga reached 1,000 career points last season and finished with 1,733 points.
- Against FGCU on Nov. 24 of this year, Alexa Hart notched her 1,000th career point and finished her career with 1,135.
- Linnae Harper reached the 1,000-point milestone in an 18-point effort at Florida on Dec. 6 and capped her career with 1,338 points.

THREE AT 20+

- Against Michigan State on Jan. 27, three Buckeyes scored 20 or more points -- Kelsey Mitchell 23, Linnae Harper 22 and Stephanie Mavunga 20.
- Since 1999, that was just the sixth time three Buckeyes scored 20+ in a game.
- The most recent occurrence came on Feb. 24, 2016 when Shayla Cooper had 25 points, Mitchell had 21 points and Ameryst Alston had 20 points in an overtime game at Minnesota.

ROUGH WEEK

- The Buckeyes had a rough week in the middle of the January but have since rebounded nicely.
- OSU opened the week with a tough 99-69 setback at No. 14 Maryland on Jan. 22.
- Next was trip to No. 25 Iowa last Thursday in which the Buckeyes fell behind early and just weren't able to get over the hump in a 103-89 setback.
- The third game in five days was against Michigan State last Saturday. It was a two-point game with just over nine minutes remaining before the Buckeyes caught fire and pulled away down the stretch.
- OSU shot over 85 percent in the fourth quarter against Michigan State.

17 THREES TIES A RECORD

- Ohio State made 17 three-pointers in its game against No. 9 Louisville on Nov. 12, tying the school's single-game record.
- The Buckeyes also made 17 threes against Penn State on Feb. 7, 2010.
- Kelsey Mitchell made seven of the 17 three-pointers.
- Asia Doss (5) and Linnae Harper (3) each set career-highs for three-pointers made in the game.

MITCHELL NAMED POW FOUR TIMES

- Kelsey Mitchell has been named the Big Ten Player of the Week four times this season and was also named the National Player of the Week on Nov. 27.
- After helping lead Ohio State to a championship at the Play4Kay Showcase in Las Vegas, Kelsey Mitchell was named the national Player of the Week by ESPNW and CollegeSportsMadness.com as well as the Big Ten Player of the Week on Nov. 27.
- Mitchell averaged 30.3 points, 4.3 rebounds, 4.0 assists and shot over 53 percent from the floor and 48 percent from beyond the arc in the Buckeyes' three victories.
- She was also 27-of-30 from the free throw line which included a 19-of-20 performance in the championship game, setting an OSU single-game record with her 19 makes.
- Mitchell then scored 31 points, dished-out a career-high nine assists and grabbed a season-high seven rebounds in the win at Cincinnati on Dec. 17 and one day later, was named the Big Ten Player of the Week.
- In the overtime win at No. 22 Michigan on Jan. 7, Mitchell scored a season-high tying 37 points, which included 27 after halftime and nine of the team's 14 in overtime. Subsequently, she earned the weekly honor on Jan. 8.
- She then led the buckeyes to a pair of wins over Illinois and Purdue, averaging 27 points, 4.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 3.0 steals in those games to earn her fourth award.

SHOWING OFF FOR THE FAM

- Stephanie Mavunga enjoyed playing in her home state of Indiana.
- In two games in Bloomington, which is roughly 45 minutes from her hometown of Brownsburg, she notched a pair of monster double-doubles.
- Last season, she scored 14 points and grabbed a then season-high 17 rebounds.

- This season, she notched game-highs of 20 points and 18 rebounds.
- Mavunga also had a double-double at Purdue last season, scoring 11 points and grabbing 12 rebounds. She scored the final five points of the game for the Buckeyes to secure a 5-point victory.
- After missing the Big Ten Tournament last season with injury, she dominated this year en route to being named to the All-Tournament Team.
- Mavunga averaged 19.7 points and 13.0 rebounds per game while shooting 75 percent from the floor. She scored 26 points and grabbed a Big Ten Tournament record 26 rebounds to go along with seven blocks in the semifinal win over Minnesota.

MITCHELL PASSES SMITH & LAVENDER, BECOMES OSU ALL-TIME LEADING SCORER

- Anytime you move past a legend like Katie Smith and a WNBA All-Star Jantel Lavender on a career chart, you know you've accomplished something.
- Kelsey Mitchell scored 30 points in the season-opening win over No. 10 Stanford and passed Smith on the OSU scoring charts to move into No. 2.
- She then scored 30 points in a win at Florida on Dec. 6, 2017 to pass Lavender and become the school's all-time leading scorer.
- Smith scored 2,578 points in her four years (1992-96) while Lavender notched 2,818 points from 2007-11.

WHAT HAPPENED IN VEGAS

- Even though it happened in Vegas, we want to tell you about it.
- The Buckeyes won the Play4Kay Showcase over the Thanksgiving weekend behind a number of record and milestone performances.
- In the first game, Stephanie Mavunga dominated Memphis to the tune of a career-high 35 points and 16 rebounds. She was 15-of-20 shooting and played just 24 minutes.
- In round two vs. FGCU, Kelsey Mitchell was 11-of-15 from the floor and 7-of-11 from long range for a then season-high 34 points. In the process, she became the NCAA DI all-time career three-point leader, passing UConn's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis.
- Alexa Hart also hit a milestone vs. FGCU, scoring her 1,000th career point. She is the 34th Buckeye to reach that plateau.
- In the championship game vs. Stanford, Mitchell set a new season high by scoring 37 points, 31 of which came after halftime. She made a single-game school record 19 free throws on 20 attempts.
- The Buckeyes scored 100 or more points in each of the first two games of the tournament marking the first time in school history OSU has hit the century mark in back-to-back games.
- The win over Memphis in the opening round marked the 100th victory as OSU head coach for Kevin McGuff.

KEEPING THEIR HANDS TO THEMSELVES

- In the win over Dartmouth on Dec. 15, the Buckeyes were whistled for just two fouls in the game.
- That set the school record for fewest fouls in a

- game, breaking the old mark of four.
- As a result, the Big Green did not attempt a free throw which marked the third time in school history in which an OSU opponent didn't attempt a free throw.

26 REBOUNDS???

- Stephanie Mavunga set the OSU single-game record by grabbing 26 rebounds in the season-opening win over No. 10 Stanford on Nov. 10.
- She broke Mary Sivak's previous mark of 25 set way back on March 3, 1979.
- The 26 rebounds are the most by any player in the country this season.
- Mavunga's previous single-game high was 17.
- She also added 17 points in the game.

GET EM IN EARLY

- The Buckeyes opened the season by playing nine games in the first three weeks of the season.
- That was nearly a third of the team's 30 regular season games in the opening three weeks.
- The Buckeyes opened with two games against top-10 teams in the first three days of the year and went 1-1.
- They then played three games in a five-day stretch before heading to Las Vegas over Thanksgiving weekend for three games in three days.
- The game vs. Duke on Nov. 30 marked three weeks since the start of the season.

SO MUCH FOR WADING IN

- The Buckeyes didn't take it slow to start they season as they are played two top-10 teams right out of the gate.
- Ohio State opened with an 85-64 victory over No. 10/9 Stanford on Nov. 10 and then fell in an overtime battle with No. 9/10 Louisville 95-90 on Nov. 12.
- This was just the second time in school history Ohio State started a season with back-to-back games against top-10 teams.
- OSU also began the 2015-16 season at No. 2 South Carolina and at home against No. 1 UConn. The Buckeyes fell short in both of those contests.

THAT'S THE WAY TO START

- The Buckeyes opened the year with a re-sounding 85-64 victory over No. 10 Stanford on Nov. 10.
- The 21-point victory was the second largest win over a top-10 ranked team for the Buckeyes only behind an 88-58 win over No. 1 Texas on Jan. 2, 1988.

DOMINATING THE GLASS

- The Buckeyes dominated one of the taller rosters in the country in Stanford (average height of over 6'0") in their 85-64 victory on Nov. 10.
- OSU won the battle on the boards 64-41 and had 28 offensive rebounds compared to just nine for the Cardinal.
- The 28 offensive boards led to 32 points while Stanford mustered just two from its nine o-boards.
- Stephanie Mavunga grabbed a school-record 26 rebounds and had 14 offensive rebounds herself.
