Linnae Harper

- 27 points from 1,000

Stephanie Mavunga

- 16 rebounds from 1,000

- 2 blocks from 250

Kelsey Mitchell

- 19 points from the OSU career record

DOUBLING-UP

- Stephanie Mavunga and Linnae Harper have been doubling-up this season
- Both players notched double-doubles in three of the first four games. Mavunga has five for the year and Harper has four.
- Those two are the only pair of teammates in the country with at least four double-doubles each.
- Mavunga has 43 double-doubles in her career and is averaging 14.8 points and 11.8 rebounds per game this season.
- Harper is averaging 15.6 points and 9.9 rebounds per games this year which tops her career averages coming into the season of 9.0 points and 4.9 rebounds.

WHAT HAPPENED IN VEGAS

- Even though it happened in Vegas, we want to tell you about it.
- The Buckeyes won the Play4Kay Showcase over the Thanksgiving weekend behind a number of record and milestone performances.
- In the first game, Stephanie Mavunga dominated Memphis to the tune of a career-high 35 points and 16 rebounds. She was 15-of-20 shooting and played just 24 minutes.
- In round two vs. FGCU, Kelsey Mitchell was 11-of-15 from the floor and 7-of-11 from long range for a then season-high 34 points. In the process, she became the NCAA DI all-time career three-point leader, passing UConn's Kaleena Mosqueda-Lewis.
- Alexa Hart also hit a milestone vs. FGCU, scoring her 1,000th career point. She is the 34th Buckeye to reach that plateau.
- In the championship game vs. Stanford, Mitchell set a new season high by scoring 37 points, 31 of which came after halftime. She made a single-game school record 19 free throws on 20 attempts.
- The Buckeyes scored 100 or more points in each of the first two games of the tournament marking the first time in school history OSU has hit the century mark in back-to-back games.
- The win over Memphis in the opening round marked the 100th victory as OSU head coach for Kevin McGuff.

RECAPPING THE DUKE GAME

- The Buckeyes trailed by as many as 17 points early in the third quarter and used a 17-5 run to end the quarter and scored the first five points of the fourth to erase the deficit and tie the game with 9:15 to go. But Duke would step-up defensively and held OSU to just three points the rest of the way.
- Kelsey Mitchell led the Buckeyes with 24 points and five assists.
- Linnae Harper had 12 points and a team-high eight rebounds.
- Asia Doss made a pair of threes, had three assists and four steals.
- Lexie Brown and Rebecca Greenwell led four Blue Devils in double-figures with 19 points each.
- For the game, OSU shot just 32.4 percent from the floor and 27.8 percent from long range.
- The other key stat that was in Duke's favor was the Blue Devils controlled the boards. Duke led 49-30 on the glass and scored 36 points in the paint compared to 18 for the Buckeyes.

MITCHELL NAMED NATIONAL POW

- After helping lead Ohio State to a championship at the Play4Kay Showcase in Las Vegas, Kelsey Mitchell was named the national Player of the Week by ESPNW and CollegeSportsMadness.com as well as the Big Ten Player of the Week on Nov. 27.
