THERESE HESSION

HEAD COACH

27TH SEASON
SOUTHERN METHODIST '79

Therese Hession has served as head women's golf coach at The Ohio State University for the past 26 seasons, crafting a storied legacy in Buckeye lore. The Indianapolis native has built the strong OSU golf tradition to even greater heights. Hession has led Ohio State to 10 Big Ten Championships, including back-to-back-to-back in 2014-16 and seven of the last 16 overall. Her success reaches a national level as well, advancing to the NCAA Regionals in 24 of the last 26 years (23 straight), and making 16 NCAA Championships appearances.

The most recent national spotlight stint extended into the NCAA Quarterfinals as Hession's 2017 Buckeyes advanced to match play as the No. 4 seed. Ohio State's fourth-place stroke play standing tied for the highest in school history at the NCAA Championships.

Hession's efforts and impressive results have not gone unnoticed. She was inducted into the Ohio State Athletics Hall of Fame in the Class of 2015 and has been named the National Coach of the Year twice (2014 by Golfweek and 1997 by the National Golf Coaches Association). She's been tabbed as Big Ten Coach of the Year on seven occasions (1993, 1997, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2014).

Student-athletes have earned many prestigious awards on the course and in the classroom under the tutelage of Hession. During her tenure, Buckeye golfers have been honored with 11 All-American and 63 All-Big Ten selections, six Big Ten Player of the Year and seven Big Ten Freshman of the Year laurels. A strong proponent of education, Hession's student-athletes have racked up academic awards as well. She has mentored 42 All-American Scholars, 163 OSU Scholar-Athletes and a total of 114 Academic All-Big Ten honorees.

Hession, a former president of the National Golf Coaches Association, was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2004. That organization also tabbed her as a Region Coach of the Year three straight seasons (1996-98), the 2010 Gladys Palmer Meritorious Service Award and 2005 Founders Award recipient.

The Scarlet & Gray rode a three-year winning streak at the Big Ten Championships (2014-16) under the watchful eye of Hession. The latest marked a conference-best 14th B1G title since 1982. The '15-16 Buckeyes also reached the NCAA Championships, paced by Rio Watanabe earning a share of 16th place overall on the individual leaderboard. Ohio State averaged 293.72 in 39 team rounds played, crushing the previous school record by nearly three strokes.

The 2014-15 Buckeyes were crowned champions of the Big Ten for the second straight season. The '15 crown was a monumental victory, marking the 100th tournament title in program history. Hession has been at the helm for 46 of the 101 all-time tournament triumphs by Ohio State.

In 2013-14, Hession directed Ohio State to a share of seventh place at the NCAA Championships (fourth-highest NCAA finish in school history) with a trio of freshmen atop the lineup. Her second career National Coach of the Year campaign also included a three-round total of 838 at the Westbrook Spring Invitational to shatter the program's 54-hole record previously set in May 2005 by 18 strokes. The '13-14 Buckeyes continued to rewrite the record books in the postseason as the team's 1,158-stroke total at the NCAA Championships is also an all-time OSU mark, the best 72-hole score ever posted by the Buckeyes. Hession's charges won three spring tournaments, including a co-Big Ten Championship. All this from a team ranked outside the top-30 in the Golfweek preseason rankings.

The Buckeyes enjoyed perhaps their best season in school history in 2002-03. Hession guided the team to fourth place at the NCAA championships, the highest finish in the program's history. In addition, Ohio State captured its eighth overall and second-consecutive Big Ten championship. Three Buckeyes were honored with First Team All-Big Ten selections and Hession was named the conference's coach of the year. The season also marked the first time in school history Ohio State boasted two All-Americans in one season in Lindsay Knowlton and Kristen White.

Hession, a former LPGA Tour professional, became the seventh head coach in the program's history in 1991. In her inaugural season, she led the Buckeyes to a fourth-place finish in the Big Ten championships--three places better than the previous year. In just her second season, Hession struck gold, winning five regular season tournaments and claiming the 1993 conference title, Ohio State's first championship since 1988. The Buckeyes would go on to place fifth at the NCAA East Regional, advancing them to their first NCAA Championship appearance in five years.

A full-time professional golfer for 11 years, Hession competed in more than 250 LPGA tournaments during her illustrious career. She was among the Top 150 in all-time LPGA career money-winners when she concluded her career in 1991. Hession also willingly gave her time to charity during her playing career, participating in more than 150 pro-celebrity charitable events.

As a collegiate player for Southern Methodist University, Hession led the Mustangs to a national championship in 1979 while earning All-America laurels. She graduated with honors, acquiring a bachelor's degree in business administration. In January of 1980, after just three months on the Women's Professional Golf Tour, she earned her LPGA tour card.

An Indianapolis native, Hession is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Golf Ministry advisory staff. An avid participant in charity programs, she was the recipient of the 1989 LPGA Tour Samaritan Award.

STACY SNIDER ASSISTANT COACH

SECOND SEASON
MICHIGAN STATE '03

Stacy Snider became a Buckeye in August 2016, donning the Scarlet & Gray as the program's assistant coach, and immediately enjoyed one of the greatest seasons in program history. In her first Ohio State campaign, the Buckeyes advanced to the NCAA Quarterfinals after placing fourth in stroke play at the NCAA Championships (tied for the best OSU finish ever).

Snider's player development acumen was quickly evident, resulting in a trio of Buckeyes earning 2017 All-Big Ten recognition.

Snider arrived in Columbus after spending the previous four seasons as the head coach at Western Michigan University (2014-16) and the University of Louisiana-Monroe (2012-14).

Snider brought a decade-worth of teaching and coaching experience to the OSU campus. She served as WMU head coach for two seasons and concluded her time with the Broncos by the leading her 2015-16 squad to the lowest season stroke average in school history, breaking the previous best mark by four strokes. The Grand Rapids, Mich., native preceded her time in Kalamazoo propelling ULM to new heights. Under Snider's tutelage, Alison Knowles earned 2014 Sun Belt Conference (SBC) Player of the Year distinction and the team registered its highest finish in the SBC Championships since joining the league in 2006.

Prior to coaching at ULM, Snider was the teaching pro at the Golf Club at Thornapple Point in Grand Rapids, Mich., following a two-year stint as the volunteer assistant coach for her alma mater Michigan State. She also made previous stops at the Blythefield Country Club (Belmont, Mich.) and SD Golf & Fitness LLC (Wyoming, Mich.) as a club pro and teaching professional, respectively.

Snider turned professional after a collegiate career which included a pair of All-Big Ten selections (2001, 2002). The Spartan (Stacy `Olson') played in all 51 events during college (1998-2002) before a three-year run competing on the Symetra and LPGA Tours (2004-06). Snider graduated from MSU in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in Family Community Ecology with a focus on Youth Emphasis.

WOMEN'S NATIONAL COLLEGIATE HISTORY MADE AT OHIO STATE

In 1940, Gladys Palmer was the head of the Health and Physical Education Department at The Ohio State University. She was a woman of tremendous vision for women's sports in general, but particularly for the game of golf. Meeting great resistance from many sides, she was determined to coordinate a women's national championship for golf. With the assistance of staff members, including Dr. Mary Yost, an outline for the formation of a national organization which would sponsor and control intercollegiate competition for women was compiled. The outcome of her efforts was the first national championship for all of women's collegiate sports, the 1941 Women's National Golf Championship on the OSU Scarlet Course.

Much credit for this first championship went to L.W. St. John, Director of Athletics, who completely supported Palmer and her staff. Each institution could be represented by a maximum of four players. Fees for the tournament were $5. This fee included transportation to and from the golf course and all green fees.

The national championship was held by various institutions until 1973 when the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) was formed. The AIAW conducted the National Championship through 1982 when dual championships were conducted. The final AIAW National Championship was hosted by Ohio State in 1982 and the first NCAA Championship was hosted that year at Stanford. The NCAA has conducted the annual championship since 1982.

OHIO STATE WOMEN'S NATIONAL COLLEGIATE TITLES: 1947, 1949, 1950, 1951, 1952

The teams consisted of two-person teams. The team winners were determined by the low two participant scores at the end of the first round of play.
