Patriot League Announces Men's Cross Country Academic Honor Roll

60 student-athletes receive Honor Roll recognition

Center Valley, Pa. – Navy's Bill Prom, the 2008 Patriot League Men's Cross Country Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is one of 60 men's cross country student-athletes named to this year's Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

Prom, a senior from New Berlin, Wis., earned a 3.80 fall term grade-point average in honors history. Prom was a member of the 2008 squad that shared the Patriot League title with Army. Two student-athletes from Lehigh both earned 4.0 grade-point averages for the fall term. Senior Leo Smith of East Rochester, N.Y., earned a 4.0 in computer science, while sophomore Steve Sample of Monmouth Junction, N.J., earned his 4.0 in engineering.

Holy Cross placed 14 student-athletes on the Academic Honor Roll, the most of any Patriot League institution. Bucknell and American each placed 11 students on the list this season.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.

Patriot League Announces Women's Cross Country Academic Honor Roll

Center Valley, Pa. – Navy's Erica Ziel, the 2008 Patriot League Women's Cross Country Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is one of 85 women's cross country student-athletes named to this year's Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

Ziel, a junior honors oceanography major, earned a 3.78 grade-point average for the fall term. Ziel helped Navy win the 2008 Patriot League Women's Cross Country title. Her teammate, junior Kayla Sax, is one of eight student-athletes who earned a 4.0 grade-point average for the fall term. Sax, a Richland, Wash., native, earned a 4.0 in honors systems engineering. Bucknell senior Ashley Behre also earned a 4.0 in psychology, while her teammate Colleen Gavigan, a sophomore, earned a 4.0 in cell biology and biochemistry. Colgate's Elise DeRoo, an undeclared freshman, and teammate Jessica Kielty, a senior economics and political science double major, both earned 4.0 grade-point averages for the Raiders. Holy Cross senior Colleen Spilka earned a 4.0 in psychology, while Lafayette's Erika Stasakova, a freshman majoring in government and law and foreign language, and Lehigh senior Katie McClermand, who is majoring in marketing, round out the list of student-athletes earning 4.0 grade-point averages in the fall term.

Bucknell paced all Patriot League schools with 28 student-athletes making the Academic Honor Roll. Holy Cross tallied 14 student-athletes for Honor Roll selection, while Lehigh placed 10 on the list.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

Patriot League Announces Field Hockey Academic Honor Roll

72 student-athletes receive Honor Roll recognition

Center Valley, Pa. – American's Irene Schickhardt, the 2008 Patriot League Field Hockey Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is one of 72 field hockey student-athletes named to this year's Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

A senior international studies/economics major from Ludwigsburg, Germany, Schickhardt posted a 3.4 grade-point average in the fall. She is one of 17 student-athletes from American on this year's list, the most of any Patriot League school.

Bucknell had 16 student-athletes on the list. Lafayette had 15 student-athletes honored. Lehigh placed 10 student-athletes on the list, followed by Colgate with nine and Holy Cross with five.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

Patriot League Announces Football Academic Honor Roll

131 student-athletes receive Honor Roll recognition

Center Valley, Pa. – A record 131 student-athletes, including 2008 Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year Ryan McGuire of Holy Cross, were named to the Patriot League Football Academic Honor Roll on Thursday.

McGuire has compiled a 3.42 grade point average as an Economics major at Holy Cross. He was named to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District I First Team by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) for the second year in a row. McGuire earns his third nomination to the Patriot League Academic Honor Roll after also receiving his second consecutive First-Team All-League nod at tight end in 2008.

Lafayette junior Chris Cosgrove made the honor roll with a 4.0 grade point average in the fall semester for the second consecutive year. A Beaver Falls, Pa., native, Cosgrove is a Biology major at Lafayette.

McGuire is one of 14 student-athletes on the Academic Honor Roll that also earned All-League honors for their play this season. The other First-Team All-League picks to make the Academic Honor Roll are: Colgate senior English major Jordan Scott and senior Sociology & Anthropology major Chris Ekpo, Lafayette senior Chemistry major Joe Russo and junior Engineering major Mark Leggiero, Holy Cross senior Economics major Matt Partain and Lehigh senior Social Psychology major Quadir Carter.

The mark of 131 honorees eclipses the previous high of 124 on the Football Academic Honor Roll last season. Georgetown led all schools with 32 student-athletes named to the Honor Roll, while Bucknell had 22, Fordham notched 20, Holy Cross recorded 19 and Lafayette had 18.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.

Patriot League Announces Men's Soccer Academic Honor Roll

Center Valley, Pa. – Army's A.J. Glubzinski, the 2008 Patriot League Men's Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is one of 87 men's soccer student-athletes named to this year's Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

Glubzinski heads up the list after posting a 4.11 grade-point average in the fall. The senior from Novi, Mich., was a Rhodes Scholar candidate and a finalist for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award for men's soccer. Glubzinski is one of four Patriot League men's soccer student-athletes to earn at least a 4.0 GPA in the fall. American's Jon Freimark, a sophomore international studies major, earned a 4.0, as well as teammate and 2008 Patriot League Rookie of the Year Matt Makowski, an undeclared freshman. Lafayette's Matthew Reichenbach also earned a 4.0 GPA for the fall term. The junior civil engineering major was honored late last year as a CoSIDA/ESPN the Magazine Third-Team Academic All-America selection.

American placed 20 student-athletes on this year's list, the most of any Patriot League school. Bucknell added 14 to the list and Colgate tallied 13 Honor Roll selections this season.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. Patriot League Announces Women's Soccer Academic Honor Roll

Center Valley, Pa. – Navy's Lizzie Barnes, the 2008 Patriot League Women's Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is one of 86 women's soccer student-athletes named to this year's Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

Barnes heads up the list after posting a 4.0 grade-point average in computer science and information technology in the fall term. The senior from New Orleans, La., was the 2008 Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year and a finalist for the 2008 Lowe's Senior CLASS Award in the women's soccer division. Barnes is one of nine student-athletes to earn a grade-point average of 4.0 or better in the fall term. Another Mid, junior Beth Reed earned a 4.0 in mechanical engineering, while American junior Kelly McLaughlin earned a 4.0 in international business. Army's Elizabeth Betterbed has the highest grade-point average of all women's soccer student-athletes; the junior earned a 4.28 grade-point average in mechanical engineering.

Bucknell had a trio of student-athletes earn a 4.0 grade-point average: junior biology major Chelsea Brinkman, junior psychology major Lauren Stoller and undeclared sophomore Rosemary Walker. Colgate senior Johanna Johnson earned a 4.0 in psychology, and Lehigh junior Natalie Hojnacki rounded out the list with a 4.0 in finance.

Bucknell placed 20 student-athletes on the Academic Honor Roll, the most of any Patriot League institution. American tallied 18 selections, while Lafayette added 17.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. Patriot League Announces Volleyball Academic Honor Roll

Center Valley, Pa. – Army's Briana Stremick, the 2008 Patriot League Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, is one of 44 volleyball student-athletes named to this year's Patriot League Academic Honor Roll.

A senior mechanical engineering major from Langdon, N.D., Stremick posted a 3.913 grade-point average in the fall. She was a candidate for a Rhodes Scholarship and was named to the CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America first team.

Five Patriot League volleyball student-athletes posted 4.0 GPAs in the fall. Deborah Frantz, a sophomore environmental studies major from American, Cassandra Ricketts, a sophomore biochemistry major from American, Sheena Czipri, a senior neuroscience major from Bucknell, Rachel Rodriguez, a sophomore accounting major from Bucknell, and Maxie McCoy, a junior journalism major from Lehigh, all recorded perfect GPAs in the fall semester.

American had 11 student-athletes on the list, the most of any Patriot League school. Bucknell placed eight student-athletes on the honor roll, followed by Colgate and Lafayette with six each.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the fall semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's seven fall championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.
