Forty-Three Named To Baseball Academic Honor Roll Bucknell Leads The Way With 17 Baseball Honorees

CENTER VALLEY, Pa. – Bucknell freshman Matt Belmont (West Harrison, N.Y.) posted a perfect 4.00 grade-point average (GPA) during the spring semester and is among 43 student-athletes named to the 2002 Patriot League Baseball Academic Honor Roll, announced today by Carolyn Schlie Femovich, Patriot League Executive Director.

To be eligible, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the spring semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the 13 League-sponsored championship sports in the winter or spring.

A total of 674 student-athletes were named to the League's Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll, including 28 with 4.00 GPAs. The Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll includes the sports of baseball, men's and women's basketball, golf, men's and women's lacrosse, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's track & field.

Bucknell led the way with 171 candidates on the League's Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll and Holy Cross finished second with 131 honorees. On the Baseball Academic Honor Roll, the Bison had 17 student-athletes that gained recognition, while the Crusaders earned nine berths on the academic squad.

The Patriot League, an NCAA Division I athletics conference founded on the principle of admitting athletes who are academically representative of their class, is in its second decade of academic and athletic excellence. Participation in intercollegiate athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of the undergraduate experience. A successful Division I-AA football conference since 1986 and an all-sport conference since 1990, membership includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy, while seven additional institutions hold associate membership. Patriot League member institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation, graduating alumni who are well prepared for life with the ability to make meaningful contributions to their community and society in general. In the most recent NCAA Graduation Rate Report of student-athletes, the Patriot League ranked FIRST among NCAA Division I conferences.

Sixty Named To Women's Lacrosse Academic Honor Roll

Villanova Senior Sarah DePeters Posts A 3.50 GPA During The Spring Semester

CENTER VALLEY, Pa. – Villanova senior midfielder Sarah DePeters (Rochester, N.Y.), the 2002 Women's Lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year, finished out her collegiate career with a 3.50 grade-point average (GPA) during the spring semester and is among the 60 student-athletes named to the 2002 Patriot League Women's Lacrosse Academic Honor Roll, announced today by Carolyn Schlie Femovich, Patriot League Executive Director.

To be eligible, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the spring semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the 13 League-sponsored championship sports in the winter or spring.

A total of 674 student-athletes were named to the League's Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll, including 28 with 4.00 GPAs. The Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll includes the sports of baseball, men's and women's basketball, golf, men's and women's lacrosse, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's track & field.

Bucknell led the way with 171 candidates on the League's Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll and Holy Cross finished second with 131 honorees. On the Women's Lacrosse Academic Honor Roll, the Bison lays claim to 16 student-athletes on the list, while Villanova had 11 student-athletes on the academic squad.

The Patriot League, an NCAA Division I athletics conference founded on the principle of admitting athletes who are academically representative of their class, is in its second decade of academic and athletic excellence. Participation in intercollegiate athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of the undergraduate experience. A successful Division I-AA football conference since 1986 and an all-sport conference since 1990, membership includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy, while seven additional institutions hold associate membership. Patriot League member institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation, graduating alumni who are well prepared for life with the ability to make meaningful contributions to their community and society in general. In the most recent NCAA Graduation Rate Report of student-athletes, the Patriot League ranked FIRST among NCAA Division I conferences.

Twenty-One Named To Men's Tennis Academic Honor Roll

American Sr. Bence Hamori Highlights The List With A 3.80 GPA In The Spring Semester

To be eligible, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the spring semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the 13 League-sponsored championship sports in the winter or spring.

A total of 674 student-athletes were named to the League's Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll, including 28 with 4.00 GPAs. The Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll includes the sports of baseball, men's and women's basketball, golf, men's and women's lacrosse, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis and men's and women's track & field.

Bucknell led the way with 171 candidates on the League's Winter/Spring Academic Honor Roll and Holy Cross finished second with 131 honorees. On the Men's Tennis Academic Honor Roll, American and Colgate shared top honors with each institution placing five student-athletes on the list.

The Patriot League, an NCAA Division I athletics conference founded on the principle of admitting athletes who are academically representative of their class, is in its second decade of academic and athletic excellence. Participation in intercollegiate athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of the undergraduate experience. A successful Division I-AA football conference since 1986 and an all-sport conference since 1990, membership includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy, while seven additional institutions hold associate membership. Patriot League member institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation, graduating alumni who are well prepared for life with the ability to make meaningful contributions to their community and society in general. In the most recent NCAA Graduation Rate Report of student-athletes, the Patriot League ranked FIRST among NCAA Division I conferences.
