PATRIOT LEAGUE NOTEBOOK

COLLEGESWIMMING.COM MID-MAJOR POLL

Several Patriot League swimming and diving teams have been recognized on the latest installment of the CollegeSwimming.com Mid-Major Poll. The Navy men's swimming and diving team is currently ranked No. 6 in the poll. While the Army men and Bucknell men were ranked Nos. 14 and 24, respectively. The Navy women found themselves ranked No. 2 in the poll, while the Bucknell women are currently No. 16. The poll has four release dates throughout the course of the season: November 14 (pre-Invite), December 20 (post-invite), February 6 (pre-Conference) and March 6 (post-Conference).

QUOTABLE

"Yale swam extremely well today. I was a little disappointed in some of our times. We need to step up better. We did have a number of good swims and had a lot of close races, but we need to race better and stronger throughout the meet."

Navy Women's Head Coach John Morrison

"We dug a hole for ourselves in the first relay, but to the credit of our guys they came back strong starting with the 800 free and carried that through to the end of the meet. The key to the win was the great swims we had in the first heat of every race. Veltmann's 200 IM swim was a perfect example of that effort."

Navy Men's Head Coach Bill Roberts

TEAM NOTEBOOKS

AMERICAN The Eagles will begin the second-half of their season on Friday when they host cross-town rival Georgetown.

ARMY The Black Knights will remain on land until Jan. 19 when they host Patriot League foe Bucknell for a dual meet.

BUCKNELL The Bison returned from a month-and-a-half layoff on Saturday when they traveled to Colgate for a dual meet. The teams split the meet, with the men emerging victorious and the women suffering a defeat. Top performances for the men were turned in by senior John Peterman, who won two individual events, and junior diver Jeffrey Manning, who swept the diving events. For the women, sophomore Abigail Atkinson placed first in the 200 Back, and sophomore Allison FitzPatrick finished first in the three-meter dive.

COLGATE The Raiders split a home dual meet against Bucknell this past weekend, marking their first competition in the New Year. The men were led by senior Zach Whitman, who swept the Fly events. On the women's side of the meet, freshman Caren Guyett won the 1000 Free and the 200 Fly events. Colgate returns to action on Saturday against Cornell.

HOLY CROSS The Holy Cross women's team returned to the pool last weekend, playing host to CCSU and Vermont. The Crusaders were swept by the visiting teams. Molly O'Brien, Lauren Tatro and Lauren Gousman each earned a first-place finish. The men will be back in action on Tuesday against Boston University.

LAFAYETTE The Leopards will return to the pool on Wednesday when they host Binghamton and Stony Brook.

LEHIGH The Mountain Hawks suffered a dual-meet sweep at the hands of Marist last week, falling 128-115 and 128-104. Dan Johnson led the men with two victories in the 100 and 200 Free events, while Melanie Rolish paced the women with multiple victories in the 400 IM and 200 Breast events.

NAVY The Midshipmen won three out of four meets this past weekend, with the men earning a sweep over Ivy League foes Cornell and Yale. As has been the case for most of the season, the men were led by sophomore Adam Meyer, who recorded five wins and one second-place finish in his three individual events. His finish in the 200 Butterfly just missed the NCAA 'B' Qualifying standard. Teammate Adam Niekras recorded one first place finish in the one-meter event. For the women, Thuy-Min Dinh turned in an outstanding performance with six wins in her three individual events. Her time in the 50 Free was 0.05 seconds away from an NCAA 'B' Qualifying mark. Junior diver Katie Griffin continued to dominate on the boards, winning both events.
