Current as of January 11, 2007

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.

PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors 23 sports – 11 for men and 12 for women. Initially started as a NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members in football. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate report. In addition, the Patriot League finished as one of the nation's leaders in the NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid. The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including wins in men's basketball during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, a championship game appearance in both football and men's lacrosse, and a sixth-place individual finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2006-07 year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

- Fourteen Patriot League student-athletes were named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans including American's Heidi Hersberger (field hockey), Army's Nick Hill (baseball), Lindsey Gerheim (softball) and Patrick Beverly (golf), Bucknell's Shannon Curd (women's soccer), David Frisbey (football) and Melanie Buczko (women's cross country/track and field), Lafayette's James Conrad (baseball) and Navy's Lizzie Barnes (women's soccer), Kari Weniger (women's soccer), Chris Renninger (golf), Kelly Zahalka (women's swimming and diving), Michael Niemi (men's cross country/track and field) and Kirsten Andrews (women's cross country/track and field).

- A total of 54 Patriot League student-athletes earned ESPN The Magazine All-District Academic All-American honors.
- American field hockey spent the entire season ranked in the top-20 in the NFHCA national poll.
- Three Patriot League field hockey student-athletes were named NFHCA All-Americans including American's Camila Infante and Denise Infante on the Second-Team and American's Irene Schickhardt on the Third-Team.
- Colgate's Mike Gallihugh led the Football Championship Subdivision in tackles and was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award.
- Lehigh was the first team in Patriot League history to receive a first-round bye in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament and the second to advance to the third round.
- The Patriot League had two teams win a game in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament for the first time in its history (Bucknell and Lehigh), with 2006 being the second year it sent multiple teams to the postseason.
- Lehigh women's soccer student-athlete Daniela Molina was selected to play for the Colombian National Team at the World Cup.
- Navy women's soccer owned the longest winning streak among

NCAA Division I schools, posting 19-straight victories, and captured its first NCAA Tournament victory.

- Navy goalkeeper Lizzie Barnes posted the seventh-longest shutout streak in NCAA women's soccer history.
- American volleyball twin freshmen Ann and Clair Recht were featured on national morning shows for setting the record of being the tallest female twins in the Guinness Book of World Records.
- The Patriot League had two post-season participants in the sport of women's basketball for the first time since 2002 with Holy Cross playing in the NCAA Tournament and Bucknell in the WNIT.
- Holy Cross' Keith Simmons was named All-America Honorable Mention by the Associated Press in the sport of men's basketball.
- Navy's Paul Harris earned All-America status after finishing sixth in the 800 meters at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championship.
- Four different men's lacrosse teams spent time in the national polls, including Army, Bucknell, Colgate and Navy. Navy ended the year ranked a Patriot League-best eighth in the nation.
- Three Patriot League student-athletes were chosen in the Major League Lacrosse Draft including Navy's Billy Looney (first round, fifth pick), Colgate's Colin Hulme (second round, 16th pick) and Navy's Ian Dingman (third round, 30th pick). Looney became the highest drafted Patriot League student-athlete into MLL.
- Four Patriot League student-athletes were named USILA All-Americans including Navy's Billy Looney on the First-Team and Navy's Jordan DiNola and Colgate's Colin Hulme and Brandon Corp as Honorable Mentions.
- Bucknell's Nick Sciubba ended the year ranked first in the nation in goals against average and save percentage in the sport of men's lacrosse.
- Seventeen Patriot League rowers were named CRCA National Scholar-Athletes.
- Bucknell's Katherine Brewster-Duffy and Navy's Lindsey Spiese were named CRCA All-Americans.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE TENNIS NOTEBOOK

FOUR IN A ROW?

The Army women are on the cusp of Patriot League history, as they look to become the first team in League history to win four-consecutive championships. Three teams have won three-consecutive titles, but each has fallen in the fourth attempt.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE MEN'S PRESEASON POLL

	Points (First-Place Votes)
1. Navy	70 (10)
2. Army	64 (4)
3. Bucknell	48
4. Colgate	44
5. Lehigh	31
6. Lafayette	25
7. Holy Cross	12

The U.S. Naval Academy was chosen to win the Patriot League in a vote by the Patriot League head coaches and sports information directors in the Men's Preseason Tennis Poll.

The Midshipmen received 10 of the 14 first-place votes, and totaled 70 points overall to grab the top spot. The reigning Patriot League Tournament Champions won their first title since the 1999 season last spring, and return a solid nucleus from that group. 2007 Patriot League Coach of the Year John Officer welcomes back five letterwinners from a season ago, including the 2007 Patriot League Player of the Year and Joe Abrahamson Award (Tournament MVP) winner, junior Nate Nelms. Joining Nelms on the court will be 2007 Patriot League Rookie of the Year Ramsey Lemaich, as well as senior captain Alex James. The Mids also welcome five newcomers into the fold this year.

Coming in at the second spot in the poll was Army, who garnered the remaining four first-place votes, and 64 points overall. The Black Knights will look to get back to the top this season after falling in the Patriot League Tournament championship match last season. Head Coach Al Poling welcomes back six letterwinners from last season, including First-Team All-Patriot League selection Phil Muhawi and Second-Team All-Patriot League selection Eddie Kang.

The Bucknell Bison finished third in the voting, tallying 48 points. The Bison will once again be led by senior Ira Reibeisen this spring. Reibeisen was named the Patriot League Player of the Month in October 2007, and was a First-Team All-Patriot League selection a season ago.

The fourth spot in the poll went to Colgate, who racked up 44 total points. The Raiders will be led by junior Martin MacIntyre, a Second-Team All-Patriot League selection from a season ago. MacIntyre was also named the Patriot League Player of the Month for September 2007.

Lehigh (31 points), Lafayette (25) and Holy Cross (12) rounded out the preseason poll.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE WOMEN'S PRESEASON POLL

	Points (First-Place Votes)
1. Army	49 (9)
2. Bucknell	40 (2)
3. Colgate	35 (1)
4. Lehigh	27
5. Lafayette	17
6. Holy Cross	12

The U.S. Military Academy was chosen to win the Patriot League in a vote by Patriot League head coaches and sports information directors in the Men's Preseason Tennis Poll.

Army led the pack by earning nine of the 12 first-place votes, as well as 49 total points. The Black Knights are the three-time defending Patriot League champions, and will look to extend the streak to four in 2008. Eight-time Patriot League Coach of the Year Paul Peck will have a strong corps of returning student-athletes from last season's team, including 2007 Patriot League Player of the Year Niki Flach. Joining Flach will be 2007 First-Team All-Patriot League selection Brooke Jones, and Second-Team All-Patriot League selections Kristin Beehler and Sarah Giles-Madden. Beehler was named the Patriot League Player of the Month for October 2007.

Finishing second in the preseason poll is Bucknell, who earned two first-place votes, and 40 points overall. The Bison welcome back a strong contingent of underclassmen, including 2007 Patriot League Rookie of the Year Tania Varela. Varela is joined by 2007 All-Patriot League selections Paulina Gamboa and Ashley Globberman, as well as Patriot League Player of the Month for September 2007, Lauren Lucido.

Coming in third, and earning the final first-place vote was Colgate, which garnered 35 total points. The Raiders finished second in the regular season in 2007, and will look to build upon that success in 2008. They will have the experience of a pair of sophomores, as both Elise Derosé and Samantha Inacker were named Second-Team All-Patriot League a year ago.

Fourth place went to Lehigh, who earned 27 total points. The Mountain Hawks welcome back sophomore Julie Arthofer, who earned Second-Team All-Patriot League status in 2007.

Lafayette (17 points) and Holy Cross (12) round out the poll.

BACK-TO-BACK

Navy won its first Patriot League Championship since 1999 with its 4-0 victory over Army.

NCAA ACTION

The Midshipmen made just their second NCAA Tournament appearance when they faced off against Texas. The Mids have been defeated in both previous attempts, falling 4-1 at Mississippi in 1999 and 4-0 at Texas in 2007.

IN THE CLASSROOM

Bucknell's Ira Reibeisen was named the 2007 Patriot League Men's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year after a solid season in the classroom and on the court. The junior accounting major has a 3.64 cumulative GPA, and becomes just the second Bucknell tennis student-athlete to win this prestigious award.

FOUR ON THE FLOOR

Navy swept all four major awards during the 2007 season after finishing first in the League in the standings. Nate Nelms was recognized as both the Patriot League Player of the Year and the Joe Abramson award as the Patriot League Tournament MVP. Teammate Ramsey Lemaich was tabbed as the Patriot League Rookie of the Year, while John Officer received Coach of the Year honors.

THREE'S COMPANY

Army won its third-consecutive Patriot League title under Head Coach Paul Peck. Army's seven Patriot League championships are the most any squad has won.

ACADEMIC ACCOLADES

Lehigh's Gwen Dwyer was named the 2007 Patriot League Women's Tennis Scholar-Athlete of the Year as voted on by the Patriot League's sports information directors. Dwyer, an English major, owns a 3.55 cumulative grade-point average and is a four-time Patriot League Women's Tennis Academic Honor Roll selection. She was a member of this year's Lehigh women's tennis squad that posted the highest team grade-point average in program history.

TOP OF THE PECK-ING ORDER

Army Head Coach Paul Peck garnered his third-straight Patriot League Coach of the Year honors. He has been named to this honor eight times, the most of any Patriot League women's tennis head coach.

The format of the 1994 Patriot League Championship changed from a flighted, individual tournament to a team tournament to better align with the qualifying requirements of the NCAA Division I Championship. The League has contested an individual tournament in each of the past three seasons, crowning both flight champions and a team champion. Beginning this season, the team format will pit teams against each other in dual match play, with teams seeded by virtue of their performances during the regular season. Each team will be guaranteed at least two matches, as the first-round losers will participate in consolation round play.
