PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors 23 sports – 11 for men and 12 for women. Initially started as a NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members in football. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate report. In addition, the Patriot League finished as one of the nation's leaders in the NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid. The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

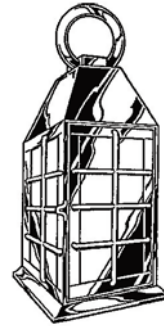

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including wins in men's basketball during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, a championship game appearance in both football and men's lacrosse, and a sixth-place individual finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2006-07 year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

- Fourteen Patriot League student-athletes were named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans including American's Heidi Hershberger (field hockey), Army's Nick Hill (baseball), Lindsey Gerheim (softball) and Patrick Beverly (golf), Bucknell's Shannon Curd (women's soccer), David Frisbey (football) and Melanie Buczko (women's cross country/track and field), Lafayette's James Conrad (baseball) and Navy's Lizzie Barnes (women's soccer), Kari Weniger (women's soccer), Chris Renninger (golf), Kelly Zahalka (women's swimming and diving), Michael Niemi (men's cross country/track and field) and Kirsten Andrews (women's cross country/track and field).
 - A total of 54 Patriot League student-athletes earned ESPN The Magazine All-District Academic All-American honors.
 - American field hockey spent the entire season ranked in the top-20 in the NFHCA national poll.
 - Three Patriot League field hockey student-athletes were named NFHCA All-Americans including American's Camila Infante and Denise Infante on the Second-Team and American's Irene Schickhardt on the Third-Team.

 - The Patriot League had two teams win a game in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament for the first time in its history (Bucknell and Lehigh), with 2006 being the second year it sent multiple teams to the postseason.
 - Lehigh women's soccer student-athlete Daniela Molina was selected to play for the Colombian National Team at the World Cup.
 - Navy women's soccer owned the longest winning streak among NCAA Division I schools, posting 19-straight victories, and cap-
- tured its first NCAA Tournament victory.
- Navy goalkeeper Lizzie Barnes posted the seventh-longest shutout streak in NCAA women's soccer history.
 - American volleyball twin freshmen Ann and Clair Recht were featured on national morning shows for setting the record of being the tallest female twins in the Guinness Book of World Records.
 - The Patriot League had two post-season participants in the sport of women's basketball for the first time since 2002 with Holy Cross playing in the NCAA Tournament and Bucknell in the WNIT.
 - Holy Cross' Keith Simmons was named All-America Honorable Mention by the Associated Press in the sport of men's basketball.
 - Navy's Paul Harris earned All-America status after finishing sixth in the 800 meters at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championship.
 - Four different men's lacrosse teams spent time in the national polls, including Army, Bucknell, Colgate and Navy. Navy ended the year ranked a Patriot League-best eighth in the nation.
 - Three Patriot League student-athletes were chosen in the Major League Lacrosse Draft including Navy's Billy Looney (first round, fifth pick), Colgate's Colin Hulme (second round, 16th pick) and Navy's Ian Dingman (third round, 30th pick). Looney became the highest drafted Patriot League student-athlete into MLL.
 - Four Patriot League student-athletes were named USILA All-Americans including Navy's Billy Looney on the First-Team and Navy's Jordan DiNola and Colgate's Colin Hulme and Brandon Corp as Honorable Mentions.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE OUTDOOR TRACK AND FIELD NOTEBOOK

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE MEN'S PRESEASON POLL

	Points (First-Place Votes)
1. Navy	95 (12)
2. Army	82 (2)
3. Bucknell	81 (2)
4. American	48
5. Colgate	45
6. Lehigh	44
7. Lafayette	37
8. Holy Cross	15

The Navy Midshipmen were selected to finish first by Patriot League head coaches and sports information directors in the Men's Outdoor Track and Field Preseason Poll. Coaches and sports information directors were not allowed to vote for their own teams.

The Mids received 12 of 16 first-place votes and had a total of 95 points. Navy has never won a Patriot League Outdoor Track and Field Championship, and finished third at the 2007 championship meet with 141 overall points. The Mids, however, will welcome back a strong group of seasoned veterans to attempt to build upon an indoor title earlier this year. Senior Paul Harris, who was named the Outstanding Track Athlete of the Meet in 2007, will return to the fold for Navy this spring. Joining the senior mid-distance runner will be Darryl Hunter (shot put), Dante Marshall (jumps), Ronald Belany (multis) and Lucas Burke (mid-distance).

Army finished a close second in the poll with two of the remaining first-place votes, and 82 points overall. The Black Knights have won every title since joining the League in 1992, and will look to stretch their streak to 17 in a row at this year's meet. Senior Brandon Lewis returns as one of the favorites in the decathlon, while fellow senior Steve Zhang returns as the defending champ in the triple jump.

The Bucknell Bison just missed out on second place to come in third in the poll, as they received the final two first-place votes and 81 points overall. The Bison finished second at last year's meet, and will be one of the contenders again in '08. Kevin MacLeod (400m hurdles) and David Mante (pole vault) return as event winners and First-Team All-Patriot League honorees from a year ago.

Fourth place in the preseason poll went to the Eagles of American, who tallied 48 overall points. The Eagles will once again be led by their strong contingent of distance runners, as 2007 First-Team All-Patriot League honorees Brendan Fennell, Brian McCabe and Steve Hallinan each will look to make a mark once again in 2008.

Colgate (45 points), Lehigh (44), Lafayette (38) and Holy Cross round out the '08 poll.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE WOMEN'S PRESEASON POLL

	Points (First-Place Votes)
1. Bucknell	96 (12)
2. Lafayette	86 (4)
3. Navy	74
4. Army	64
5. Lehigh	49
6. Holy Cross	34
7. Colgate	28
8. American	17

The Bucknell Bison were selected to finish first by the eight Patriot League head coaches and sports information directors in the Women's Outdoor Track and Field Preseason Poll. Coaches and sports information directors were not allowed to vote for their own teams.

The Bison received 12 of 16 first-place votes and had a total of 96 overall points. Bucknell, which has won nine outdoor titles, including four in a row, will look to accomplish the feat once again in 2008. 2007 Patriot League Coach of the Year Kevin Donner will have the benefit of a strong corps of upperclassmen returning to this year's team, including 2007 First-Team All-Patriot League members Erin Cranmer-Hart, Victoria Gilbert, Offeibia Hanson-Hall, Amy Mantush and Christy Totten.

Lafayette finished second in the preseason poll, as they collected the remaining four first-place votes and 86 points overall. The Leopards will return a trio of 2007 First-Team All-Patriot League performers from the field events a season ago. Senior Ashley Harbin (hammer throw), junior Osasumwen Izevbigie (shot put) and senior Kristen Kalinowski (heptathlon) each return in 2008. Freshman Janica Austin, who had an impressive indoor season, will be a strong contender in the sprint events.

The Midshipmen of Navy come in third in the poll with 74 points overall. The Mids will rely on the senior leadership of Captain Jacqui Charnigo, who returns as a contender in the pole vault. The Mids are coming off a second-place finish in last year's event, and will try and close the gap at the '08 meet.

Fourth place in the preseason poll went to the Black Knights of Army, who tallied 64 overall points. The Black Knights welcome five 2007 First-Team All-Patriot League performers back this season, as Lesa Boyd, Katelin Grant, Janelle Jones, Heather Owney and Ebony Thomas will all look to repeat as champions in their respective events.

Lehigh (49 points), Holy Cross (34), Colgate (28) and American (17) round out the '08 poll.

Bucknell won its fourth-consecutive Patriot League title under Head Coach Kevin Donner at the 2007 meet. The four-peat is the second in nine years for the Bison, who have won nine titles in program history.

ACADEMIC ACCOLADES

Bucknell senior track athlete Kirsten Andrews was named the Patriot League Women's Outdoor Track and Field Scholar-Athlete of the Year for the second-consecutive outdoor season as voted on by the Patriot League's sports information directors. A quantitative economics major, Andrews boasted a 3.90 GPA. Andrews was also named as an ESPN The Magazine First-Team Academic All-American, as well as the 2007 Patriot League Women's Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

NAVY SWEEPS THE FIELD (AND TRACK...)

The Navy duo of seniors Justine Whipple and Kirsten Andrews swept the Outstanding Track and Outstanding Field Athlete of the Meet Awards, respectively, at the 2007 meet. It is only the second time in League history that a school has won both of these awards.

HE'S GOT FOUR

Bucknell Head Coach Kevin Donner was awarded his fourth Patriot League Outdoor Coach of the Year award in 2007, joining Army's Ron Bazil as the only coach to win four awards.
