TEAM NOTEBOOKS

AMERICAN The Eagles competed at the prestigious Penn Relays this past weekend. The women were led by seniors Kate Lilley and Cathleen Ford who finished fourth and 11th, respectively, in the 3,000m race. Both finished the race in under 10 minutes, a feat which neither runner had previously accomplished. The men were paced by a fifth-place finish in the 4x1 mile relay race, which ran in a time of 16:27.14, ahead of powerhouses such as Oregon, Arkansas and Tennessee.

ARMY The Black Knights sent athletes to both the Penn Relays and the Yale Springtime Invitational this past weekend, and were led by several NCAA Regional qualifying performances. Junior Jon Anderson placed 13th in the championship division of the 5,000m race, with a time of 14:11.08. Anderson also ran the mile leg of the fifth-place Distance Medley Relay team for Army. Freshman Domonick Sylve posted a time of 14.30 seconds in the 100m high hurdles for the second-consecutive week to reach the qualifying mark.

BUCKNELL The Bison competed in two events this past weekend, sending athletes to both the Penn Relays and the Saint Francis (Pa.) Red Flash Open. Freshman Sarah Moniz placed 18th in the championship division of the 3,000m run at the Penn Relays, while fellow freshman Alaina Chodoff placed first in the same event at the Red Flash Open. Sophomore Kyle Anthony led the field athletes for the Bison in Philadelphia, placing 15th in the Eastern College Division of the long jump at the Penn Relays. Senior Beverly Rogers once again hit the NCAA Regional mark in the Javelin, finishing eighth in the championship division at the Penn Relays.

COLGATE The Colgate women traveled to the Penn Relays and the Lehigh Games this past weekend. At the Penn Relays, senior Liz Kennedy was the lone individual runner, posting a career-best time in the 5,000m race, while the 4x800m team also posted a season-best time on the track at Franklin Field. Junior Curran Knox won the women's 100m and 100m hurdles at the Lehigh Games.

HOLY CROSS The Holy Cross men finished third of five teams at a home meet, while both the men and women competed at the non-scoring Brown Springtime Invitational last weekend. Senior Thomas Harrison led the men, winning the long and triple jump events at the home meet. At the Brown meet, John Meikle led the men with a first-place finish in the pole vault, while the women were led by sophomore Olivia Pruszek's second-place finish in the 400m hurdles.

LAFAYETTE The Leopards sent athletes to both the Penn Relays and the Lehigh Games last week. Senior Ashley Harbin once again led the way for the women, winning her second-consecutive hammer throw title in the championship division at the Penn Relays. Competing against some of the top competition in the country, Harbin reached a distance of 61.35m to win the event. The 4x400m relay team also ran well at the Relays, posting a school-record time and a 43rd place finish out of 83 teams in the event.

LEHIGH The Mountain Hawks were yet another Patriot League team to send athletes to both the Penn Relays and Lehigh Games last weekend. Sophomore Nick Ray placed fifth in his division of the shot put at the Penn Relays, reaching a season-best distance of 15.83m. Senior Emily Roth set a new school record in the pole vault (3.49m) to finish 20th in the event at the Relays.

NAVY The Midshipmen traveled north to Philadelphia to compete in the annual Penn Relays, and had several NCAA qualifying marks. Senior John Olsen finished eighth in the 3,000m steeplechase with an NCAA Regional time of 8:58.31, marking the first sub-nine minute time in his career. Sophomore Mark Van Orden also notched an NCAA Regional mark in the hammer throw, finishing second with a distance of 59.47m.
