Patriot League Announces Baseball Academic Honor Roll

61 student-athletes receive recognition

Center Valley, Pa. – Sixty-one student-athletes were named to the 2008 Patriot League Baseball Academic Honor Roll, Executive Director Carolyn Schlie Femovich announced on Wednesday.

The group includes one player that notched a grade-point average of 4.0 or better, as Army junior Tyler Anderegg posted a 4.021 GPA in the spring semester as a Life Science major. Six student-athletes received a spot on the Academic Honor Roll after also earning All-Patriot League status, including Navy senior Thomas Hamilton and Bucknell sophomore John Avanzino who earned First-Team All-League recognition.

Patriot League champion Bucknell led all schools with 19 selections to the Baseball Academic Honor Roll, while Lafayette placed 15 and Holy Cross also finished with double-digit selections with 10.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the spring semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's 16 winter or spring championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.
