BUCKNELL GOES TO ARMY, HOLY CROSS VISITS NAVY IN PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT SEMIFINALS

The quest for the 2008 Patriot League Baseball Championship begins on Saturday, as the best-of-three semifinal round opens up with No. 4 Bucknell at No. 1 Army and No. 3 Holy Cross at No. 2 Navy. Both three-game series will feature a doubleheader on Saturday and a single game, if necessary, on Sunday, and all matchups will be scheduled for nine innings.

The winners of the semifinal series meet for the title in the best-of-three Patriot League Championship matchup beginning on May 17.

Army earned the No. 1 seed in the field after finishing in first place in the regular season with an 11-7 record. The Black Knights led all Patriot League teams with eight All-League selections earlier in the week, including four-time All-League pick senior Cole White. They will face a Bucknell team that earned the No. 4 seed in the Tournament with a 10-10 mark in League play. The Bison are led by Patriot League Player of the Year Jason Buursma. Bucknell won three of four games at Army when the teams met on March 29-30, but the Black Knights hold a 3-2 advantage in all-time Patriot League Tournament meetings.

No. 2 Navy earned the right to host in the semifinals by winning three of four games at home to end the season against No. 3 Holy Cross. The Mids feature five players that earned First-Team All-Patriot League status, and are in search of their League-best sixth title. Holy Cross boasts Patriot League Pitcher of the Year Matt Shapiro, and is in search of its first League crown. The Mids won the only Tournament meeting between the schools in 1999.

"TODAY'S SCHOLAR-ATHLETES, TOMORROW'S LEADERS"

The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.

PATRIOT LEAGUE NOTEBOOK

PATRIOT LEAGUE TOURNAMENT FEATURES NEW FORMAT

The 2008 Patriot League Baseball Tournament will feature best-of-three series for the semifinals and championship, which will be played May 17-18. Both rounds will have doubleheaders on Saturday, with a single game if necessary on Sunday. All games will be played at the site of the higher seed, and all will go nine innings. Both of this weekend's series will begin at Noon on Saturday, with Sunday's single games (if necessary) to start at Noon at Navy and 1 p.m. at Army. Previously, the Tournament included three teams playing at a single site on one weekend. The Patriot League has held 14 baseball tournaments, with the first taking place in 1993. There were three seasons that a postseason tournament was not conducted (1991, 1992 and 1995). In 1993 and 1994 the tournament consisted of just the top two teams and was expanded to a three-team field in 1996.

ARMY CLAIMS NO. 1 SEED

Army won 11 of its last League 13 games to clinch its Tournament berth and the top overall seed. The Black Knights earned their first regular-season title since 2005, which was also the last time they won the Patriot League Tournament. Army will host a postseason game for the first time since 2005 when they take on Bucknell. As the No. 2 seed, Navy will host a Patriot League Tournament game for the first time since winning the title in 2002.

PATRIOT LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

Navy leads all teams in Patriot League history with five all-time titles, while Army has four and Bucknell has three. Holy Cross is in search of its first-ever title. None of the teams in the Tournament have won the event since 2005, when Army claimed the second of back-to-back crowns. Bucknell's last title came in 2003, while Navy's was in 2002. Lafayette won last year's Patriot League Championship.

TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

Army is playing in its eighth Patriot League Tournament, and is back in the field for the second year in a row and fourth time in the last five seasons. Navy has qualified for its 12th tourney and second straight, while Bucknell is in the field for the 10th time and third in the last four campaigns. Holy Cross makes its third Tournament appearance, and first since 2001.

GOOD TO BE NO. 1

The No. 1 seed in the Patriot League Tournament has won the championship 10 times, while the No. 2 seed has captured three crowns. Only once has the No. 3 seed taken home the championship - Army in 2000. The No. 1 seed has won the last six League titles.

ALL-LEAGUE AND MAJOR AWARD WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Holy Cross claimed two of the four major Patriot League Baseball Major Awards on Thursday, while Bucknell and Army picked up the other honors. Patriot League Player of the Year honors went to Bucknell senior Jason Buursma, while Holy Cross sophomore Matt Shapiro earned Pitcher of the Year recognition, Army freshman Clint Moore garnered Rookie of the Year status and Holy Cross' Greg DiCenzo was named Patriot League Coach of the Year. The full lists of All-League winners is on the sidebar on page 2 of the Patriot League Baseball release.

CLOSEST RACE IN LEAGUE HISTORY

Only six games separated first-place Army from sixth-place Lehigh in the Patriot League standings, making the 2008 race the most competitive in League annals. It was the first time that all League teams were within six games of each other.

EVERYONE WINS 20

For the first time in League history, all Patriot League schools have recorded 20 victories for the season. Holy Cross has 20 victories for its first 20-win season since 1980. Every other team has at least 22 wins, including Navy with a League-high 30. The Mids are one of only 36 teams in the country with three consecutive 30-win seasons. Before this year, there was no season where every team won more than 16 games.
