Cotterell Court (3,100)

Cotterell Court, located in the Wendt wing of the Reid Athletic Center, has been the home of the Colgate basketball for the past 35 seasons, and volleyball for 31 years. The arena was named for Wesley M. Cotterell, a two-time basketball letterman and member of the class of 1919, who was a trustee of the University until his death in 1965.

In May 2000, Phase I renovations of Cotterell Court were completed. The half million dollar project included fresh paint throughout the venue, new comfortable VIP chairback seats on the team bench side and colorful maroon and gray bleachers on the opposite side of the floor and a new state of the art sound system. The following year, the floor was resurfaced and painted and a new rectangular drop down center scoreboard was installed. The scoreboard is a gift from the Colgate Class of 1950 and completed Phase II renovations.

Cotterell Court most recently was the site of the 2004 Patriot League Women's Basketball Championship, which Colgate captured to win its first women's basketball title in program history. It also served as the host site of the 1995 and 1996 men's Patriot League Basketball Championship games, both of which Colgate won to advance to the NCAA Tournament.

Head Coach Emmett Davis enters his 12th season in Hamilton.

Junior guard Mike Venezia led Colgate with 10.8 points per game in 2008-09.

Senior Kyle Roemer returns to the court for Colgate in 2009-10.
