PATRIOT LEAGUE NOTEBOOK

EVERY GAME COUNTS ON WEDNESDAY

With just three games separating the entire League, every contest will be key as teams battle for position in the standings. The next step in the race comes on Wednesday, as Bucknell travels to first-place American in the headline of the four matchups. Lafayette can re-claim first place with an American loss and a win at home against Colgate, while Navy and Lehigh are both looking to get over .500 in the League when they play in Bethlehem. Army will also try to get above .500 in the League for the first time this year when it hosts Holy Cross.

HOME TEAMS PREVAIL OVER THE WEEKEND

The home team won every contest in this weekend's Patriot League men's basketball action, concluding with American knocking off Lehigh, 82-74, on Sunday to move into sole possession of first place in the League. While the Eagles swept the season series with the Mountain Hawks, all three of Saturday's winners earned splits of the season series against the opponent. Army defeated Colgate, 59-57, in overtime on a shot at the buzzer by Jarell Brown. Holy Cross routed Lafayette, 77-57, while Navy defeated Bucknell, 78-72. A close race became even tighter, as six teams are now within one game of first place in the loss column.

CLOSEST RACE IN THE NATION

The Patriot League standings are tighter than any other Division I conference in the country. The Patriot League boasts the only race where six teams are within a game of first place in the loss column, and the only one where the entire League is separated by just three games in the standings.

STREAK SNAPPERS

Two more long series win streaks were snapped on Saturday, as Army and Navy ended seven-game skids against Colgate and Bucknell, respectively. That makes 10 series win streaks of seven games or more that have been snapped this season, with nine of those coming against Holy Cross and Bucknell. Army ended three of its seven-game or more losing streaks, while Lafayette and Navy each snapped two. Another one could go down on Wednesday, as American tries to snap an eight-game losing streak against Bucknell.

A PATRIOT LEAGUE FIRST

For the first time in the 18-year history of the Patriot League, every team has recorded at least 10 victories in a season. Bucknell became the last team to reach the mark with a 91-85 win at Colgate on Wednesday. There were only three other instances where every team in the League scored nine wins. The Atlantic Coast Conference and Big East are the only other leagues in the country where every member has at least 10 wins against Division I opponents.

AN EVEN SPLIT

The home court finally paid off over the weekend, as wins by all four home teams made the home/road record an even 17-17 in Patriot League action this year. Five teams are still at or above .500 on the road, including first-place American at 4-1.

ADD ANOTHER SECOND-HALF COMEBACK

The continuing trend of coming back from a second-half deficit showed up again as well, with Holy Cross rallying from nine points down to beat Lafayette, 77-57. Army also overcame a slim second-half deficit in its 59-57 overtime win against Colgate. With those games, 21 of the 34 winners in Patriot League games have trailed in the second half, with 12 of those comebacks from six points or more down. Bucknell and Lehigh have both come back from six points or more in the second half in three of their wins.

BRACKET BUSTING AGAINST THE CAA

Bucknell and Holy Cross will both take on opponents from the Colonial Athletic Association in the sixth annual O'Reilly ESPNU BracketBusters event on Feb. 23. The Bison will visit Old Dominion at 7 p.m., while the Crusaders will host Northeastern at 4 p.m. The Patriot League has a 4-2 record against opponents from the CAA this season, including a 61-47 victory for Holy Cross against Hofstra and a 71-57 victory for Bucknell at Towson. The League has set a record with 60 non-League wins already this year, with three games still to play.

RISING RPI

The Patriot League is closing in on 16th place in the Collegiate Basketball News RPI rating. Through Sunday's games, the League has a .4823 weighted RPI, which puts the Patriot League in 17th place and just .0006 behind the Southern Conference. American leads all Patriot League teams at No. 130 in the RPI, followed closely by Holy Cross at No. 137 and Lafayette at No. 141. The Patriot League is one of three Mid-Major conferences with a winning overall mark on the season.

NON-LEAGUE SUCCESS

With a 60-54 record and three games remaining, the Patriot League is assured of its best-ever non-League mark in the regular season. Patriot League teams have tied the record for total non-League victories, which was set at 60 just last season when the League finished an even 60-60 (60-59 regular season). With three non-League games remaining, the eight teams will finish at least three games over .500 in the 2007-08 regular season, which would top the best overall mark of 54-53 set in 2001 (54-52 in regular season). Earlier in the year, the Patriot League became the first Division I conference to have every one of its teams record a road victory and the second to have all of its members beat a Division I opponent.

TIME TO GET SIRIUS

The February schedule of Patriot League games on SIRIUS Satellite Radio is out, and every team will make at least one appearance during the month. The League has three games remaining on its schedule, with Holy Cross at Bucknell on Saturday, Lehigh at Lafayette on Feb. 23 and Lafayette at American on March 1. All seven games of the 2008 Patriot League Men's Basketball Tournament will also be aired.
