FORDHAM CLAIMS FIRST OUTRIGHT PATRIOT LEAGUE TITLE

Fordham fell in its regular-season finale against Bucknell after clinching the Patriot League's automatic NCAA berth two weeks earlier against Holy Cross. But before the Bucknell game had concluded, the Rams learned that they would claim sole possession of the Patriot League crown as Holy Cross beat Colgate, 27-20. The Rams are the first Patriot League team to claim the title outright since Colgate in 2003. They fell to Massachusetts, 49-35, in the first round of the NCAA Division I Football Championship. The Rams finished in the top 20 in the FCS Coaches Poll (No. 19) and Sports Network poll (No. 20).

DEPTH IN THE STANDINGS

Three teams finished just one game behind Fordham in the Patriot League standings, and it gave the Patriot League one of its deepest pools of quality teams in its 22-year history. Holy Cross' victory over Colgate on the final day of the season gave both teams identical 4-2 marks in the League, and Lafayette joined them for a three-way tie after a 21-17 victory over archrival Lehigh. All three teams also finished with 7-4 overall marks, and combined with Fordham's final record gave the Patriot League a strong group at the top. It was just the second time in the League history that four teams finished at 4-2 or better in League play, and only the sixth time that four teams closed the year with seven overall wins or more. Both feats were most recently accomplished in 2004.

SEVEN PATRIOT LEAGUERS NAMED ALL-AMERICANS

Three Patriot Leaguers were named to multiple All-America teams, while seven student-athletes earned at least one All-America nod. Lafayette offensive lineman Jesse Padilla was named to the American Football Coaches Association All-America team and earned Second-Team honors from the Associated Press. Colgate linebacker Mike Gallihugh and Fordham punter Benjamin Dato earned Second-Team AP honors, while Dato was a first-team pick and Gallihugh a second-team selection by The Sports Network. Lehigh's Brian Jackson was also a second-team pick by TSN, while Colgate's Jordan Scott and Pat Nolan earned third-team honors. The AFCA named only one team, and Holy Cross wide receiver Ryan Maher joined Padilla on the list. It was the highest number of individual Patriot League student-athletes since nine were honored in 2003, and the 10 overall selections to the four major lists were the most since 2004.

FOUR PATRIOT LEAGUERS IN FINAL FCS AWARDS VOTING

The Patriot League had a representative on all three of the major FCS awards ballots for the first time since 2004. Fordham Head Coach Tom Masella placed seventh in the Eddie Robinson Award voting, and was tied for fifth in first-place votes with eight. Holy Cross' Dominic Randolph finished 12th and Colgate's Jordan Scott was 14th in the Walter Payton Award voting for most outstanding player in the FCS. Colgate linebacker Mike Gallihugh was on the Buck Buchanan Award ballot for defensive player of the year honors for the second year in a row, and placed 11th in the voting.

TWO OFFENSIVE LINEMEN NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-STARS

A pair of Patriot League offensive lineman received praise for their work in the classroom, as Holy Cross junior Chris Smith and Bucknell senior Nick Mozal were two of 51 student-athletes selected to the 2007 FCS Athletic Directors Association Academic All-Star Team. Both student-athletes carried a GPA above 3.5.

MASELLA EARNS AFCA REGIONAL CO-COACH OF YEAR HONOR

Fordham Head Coach Tom Masella was named the American Football Coaches Association's Region 1 Co-Coach of the Year. Masella was one of six Football Championship Subdivision coaches to earn regional honors. He shared the Region 1 Coach of the Year award with Richmond Head Coach Dave Clawson, a former head coach at Fordham.

SCOTT AND RANDOLPH LEAD WAY IN FINAL NCAA STATISTICS

Colgate running back Jordan Scott and Holy Cross quarterback Dominic Randolph went back and forth with huge efforts throughout the 2007 campaign, and it paid off with high finishes in the final NCAA statistics. Scott led the nation in rushing with 170.45 yards per game. He became the first Patriot Leaguer to lead the nation in rushing since former Raider Kenny Gamble did it in the inaugural season of 1986, and Scott also set the Patriot League record for rushing yards per game. Scott was third nationally in total rushing yards with 1,875, and seventh in all-purpose rushing and scoring. Randolph placed second in passing yards, total offense and completions per game, and in the top five in total passing yards and points responsible for. His 3,604-yard passing total was the third-best mark in League annals. Fordham punter Benjamin Dato had a solid finish in NCAA stats, as his 44.66 average was No. 3 in the nation.

PATRIOT LEAGUE TEAMS PLACE HIGH IN NCAA STATS, TOO

They flirted with the top spot all year, and in the end the Lafayette Leopards can claim the title as the No. 1 defense in the country. Lafayette led the nation with 260.91 yards allowed per game, which was nearly four yards per contest better than second-place Morgan State. The Leopards' average was the fourth-best mark in Patriot League history, and trailed only Bucknell in 2001 (260.1 ypg) for the top spot since 1988. Lafayette also placed eighth nationally in scoring defense and fourth against the rush. Holy Cross was on the other end of the spectrum, as the Crusaders placed in the top five nationally in total and passing offense, while putting up the best season for a Patriot League team since 1999 in both categories. They also finished first in the nation in fewest tackles for loss allowed. Fordham and Bucknell figured prominently in team statistics as well, as the Rams led the nation in net punting and punt return defense and the Bison led the way in fewest penalties per game.

FOOTBALL ACADEMIC HONORS

Georgetown's Kyle Van Fleet Named 2007 Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year

Georgetown senior Kyle Van Fleet was voted the 2007 Patriot League Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and was one of 124 student-athletes named to the football academic honor roll. The scholar-athlete of the year award is voted on by the Patriot League's football sports information directors.

Van Fleet carried a 3.65 cumulative grade-point average as a Business and Management major. A Georgetown captain in 2007, Van Fleet was a semifinalist for the Draddy Trophy, better known as football's "Academic Heisman". He was also selected to the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District first-team. Van Fleet had an excellent season on the field to earn Second-Team All-League honors at fullback/halfback. He had team-highs with 44 receptions, 478 yards and four receiving touchdowns.

Van Fleet is the first Georgetown student-athlete to earn the Football Scholar-Athlete Award, and just the second to earn one of the Patriot League's major awards. The Hoyas joined the League as an associate member in football in 2001.
