Patriot Leaguer Named ECAC Player of the Week

Lehigh's Sedale Threatt receives honor two days after being named Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week.

Centerville, Mass. – Helping Lehigh to its first win over Villanova University in 82 years, junior quarterback Sedale Threatt was named the ECAC Offensive Player of the Week.

Threatt, who was also tabbed the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Week for his role in the Mountain Hawks' victory, racked up 300 yards of total offense as Lehigh topped Villanova, 31-28, last weekend. The win was the Mountain Hawks first over the Wildcats since 1924 and first at Villanova Stadium, in what was Lehigh's first-ever visit.

Threatt put up 223 yards in the air on 18-of-29 passing (62.1 percent) and threw two touchdowns strikes – both 18 yard passes. In addition to his work in the air, Threatt also let his feet do the talking, rushing for a team-high 77 yards.

The win was also Lehigh's first over an Atlantic-10 opponent since the 2001 NCAA postseason when the Mountain Hawks defeated Hofstra in the first round.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.
