He threw a game-winning 40-yard touchdown pass to Thomas Harrison with 19 seconds left in the contest. Randolph completed 29-of-55 passes for 339 yards and rushed for 33 yards to earn the Johnny Turco Memorial Trophy as the MVP of Holy Cross' Homecoming game. Randolph earns his fifth career Offensive Player of the Week honor after winning four in a row last year.

He had nine solo tackles, with a game-saving stop in the fourth quarter. Gallihugh ranks in the top five nationally in tackles and solo tackles per game after leading each category a year ago. He earns his fourth career Defensive Player of the Week nod.

PATRIOT LEAGUE NOTEBOOK

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACTION, TAKE TWO

Georgetown visits Holy Cross in a Patriot League matchup Saturday, kicking off a stretch where at least one League game will be played in each of the final nine weeks of the season. Holy Cross is playing its League opener, while Georgetown is trying to avoid an 0-2 hole. Lafayette, which defeated Georgetown, 28-7, on Sept. 8, is the early League leader with a 1-0 mark.

BACK ON THE WINNING TRACK

Patriot League teams earned retribution for a bad week and a bad year in one fell swoop with a strong 5-2 showing in non-League action over the weekend. After an 0-4 mark in non-League action the previous week, the quality showing puts the Patriot League back over .500 with a 9-8 non-League mark this season. And playing all of the games against Ivy League opponents made things that much sweeter. Patriot League teams posted a 4-14 mark against the Ancient Eight last year, and have already surpassed that win total with 11 matchups still remaining in 2007.

COMEBACK KIDS

The Patriot League's impressive showing almost didn't happen, but three teams rallied to overcome deficits and win late in exciting finishes. Colgate had the most ground to make up when it fell behind Dartmouth, 28-0, in the third quarter, but the Raiders posted the biggest comeback in school history by winning, 31-28, when Mike Buck nailed a 36-yard field goal in overtime. Holy Cross spotted Harvard 14 points, but rallied to take a 24-14 lead. Harvard came back to make it 28-24, but the Crusaders notched a key defensive stop and got the winning points on a 40-yard pass from Dominic Randolph to Thomas Harrison with 19 seconds remaining in the game. Lafayette's game didn't have the same back-and-forth feel, but the Leopards used another strong defensive showing to stay close long enough for an 8-7 victory over Penn on Davis Rodriguez's 27-yard field goal with five seconds left in the game.

RANKED AND RATED

Three-time defending Patriot League champion Lafayette is off to its fastest start in two decades, and the Leopards are reaping the benefits. Lafayette has a 3-0 record for the first time since 1988, and has earned the No. 22 ranking in The Sports Network top 25 and the No. 23 spot in the FCS Coaches Poll for their early success. The Leopards have been ranked at some point in each of the last four seasons, and were ranked No. 22 last year before a loss to Penn knocked them out of the poll. A swarming defense has keyed the early success, and it shows up in the national rankings of FCS teams. Out of 116 teams, the Leopards rank first in total defense (171.67 yards per game), tied for second in scoring defense (8.0 points per game), seventh in rushing defense (54.3 ypg), and tied for ninth with nine turnovers gained.

MOVING UP THE CHARTS

Colgate running back Jordan Scott still has most of two seasons left to play, but he's already in elite company in the Patriot League record book. Scott went over the 3,000-yard mark for his career in his 211-yard effort against Dartmouth Saturday, becoming the 11th Patriot League player to reach the plateau. Scott currently sits in 11th place in League history with 3,092 rushing yards, 126 yards away from tying former Raider Randall Joseph (1997-00) for the 10th position. Scott also ranks fifth nationally in career rushing yards, and is third in all-purpose yardage per game.

PASSING FANCY

The Holy Cross offense has built a reputation for an explosive passing game, and the early returns on the 2007 season show that trend should continue. The Crusaders rank second in the nation with 330.0 passing yards per contest through the first two weeks, and are scoring 30.5 ppg. Quarterback Dominic Randolph is a big reason for the success, and he ranks in the top five in total offense, passing yards and completions per game through the Crusaders' first two games. In only 10 career starts, Randolph has 2,872 passing yards to go with 25 touchdowns and only seven interceptions.

LAST WEEK IN THE PATRIOT LEAGUE

Three dramatic comebacks and two convincing performances highlighted a successful Saturday where Patriot League teams posted a 5-2 record against their Ivy League counterparts.

Colgate had its biggest comeback in school history as it rallied from 28 points down in the second half to shock Dartmouth, 31-28, in overtime. Holy Cross overcame an early 14-point deficit and scored the game-winning touchdown with 19 seconds left to upend Harvard, 31-28. Lafayette hit a game-winning field goal with five seconds remaining for an 8-7 victory over Penn. Lehigh jumped out to a 23-0 halftime lead and cruised to a 32-21 victory at Princeton. Fordham racked up 323 rushing yards and led 27-3 before defeating Columbia, 27-10.

Georgetown played well in defeat, losing to Yale, 28-14. Bucknell fell at Cornell, 38-14.

The Raiders had the most unlikely heroics, rallying from 28-0 down in the second half to win at Dartmouth. The Raiders closed to within 28-20 when Alex Relph threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Pat Simonds with 10:21 to play in the game. Less than four minutes later, Scott's 33-yard touchdown run and a subsequent two-point conversion brought the Raiders all the way back to a tie score. Colgate still had to sweat it out in regulation. Dartmouth moved all the way to the Colgate five-yard line in the final minute, but Chris Ekpo forced a fumble that was recovered by Ted Marshall to send the game to overtime. Colgate stopped the Dartmouth offense on the opening possession of overtime, and then won it with a 36-yard field goal from Mike Buck.

Holy Cross had to rally from an early 14-0 hole. The Crusaders fought back to cut Harvard's lead to 14-10 by halftime, and built the lead to 24-14, but Harvard came right back to take a 28-24 advantage early in the fourth quarter. The Crusader defense held Harvard to a three-and-out and used all of their timeouts to get the ball back at their own 23 with 1:19 to play. Randolph completed three passes to move the ball into Harvard territory, and then found wide receiver Thomas Harrison with a 40-yard strike with 19 seconds remaining to give the Crusaders the victory.

Lafayette did not have an offensive outburst for a comeback, but used a strong defensive effort to stay close long enough to get the victory at Penn. The Quakers took a 7-0 lead early in the first quarter, but Lafayette responded when freshman Davis Rodriguez connected on his first collegiate field goal to cut it to 7-3 in the second quarter. An intentional Penn safety made it 7-5, and the Leopards took advantage of Penn's decision by marching on a 12-play, 44-yard drive to set up another field goal attempt for Rodriguez, who hit a 27-yard game-winner with just five seconds remaining in the game.

Lehigh and Fordham did not require late heroics in their victories because they took control right from the start. The Mountain Hawks quickly turned the game into a rout, as big plays on defense and special teams led to a 23-0 halftime advantage. Lehigh forced five turnovers and blocked a punt on the night as it evened its record to 1-1. Fordham took a 17-3 lead into halftime and pulled away to a 27-3 advantage in the third quarter against Columbia. The Rams had two 100-yard rushers in a dominant ground effort in the victory.

Georgetown dropped its third consecutive game to start the season, but the Hoyas were impressive in a 28-14 loss to preseason Ivy League favorite and No. 21-ranked Yale.
