Current as of February 7, 2007

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.

PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 23 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. In addition, the Patriot League finished first in the new NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid (combining with all eight of its full-time member institutions for an average of 984 out of 1,000). The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including consecutive wins in men's basketball, a final four appearance in men's lacrosse and a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

PATRIOT LEAGUE HISTORY

- 1986 The Colonial League is founded and begins full round-robin play in football only; Lafayette College Associate Professor Alan Childs is named Executive Director.
- 1989 Carl Ulrich is appointed as the first full-time Executive Director.
- 1990 Colonial League changes its name to Patriot League.
- 1990-91 Patriot League becomes an all-sport conference, sponsoring 22 - 11 for women and 11 for men; Membership includes Bucknell University, Colgate University, Fordham University, College of the Holy Cross, Lafayette College, Lehigh University and the United States Military Academy.
- 1991 The United States Naval Academy joins the Patriot League as a full member.
- 1993 Constance (Connie) H. Hurlbut is named Executive Director of the Patriot League, becoming the first woman and youngest person to be selected as the leader of an NCAA Division I conference.
- 1995 Fordham University resigns its full membership, but remains in the Patriot League as an associate member in football.
- 1996 Change in Patriot League policy allows basketball scholarships beginning with the class entering in the fall of 1998.
- 1997 Creation of the Patriot League television package, which grows to 12 games on DIRECTV and ESPN, beginning with the 2002-03 season.
- 1999 Carolyn Schlie Femovich is selected as the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League.
- 2000-01 Patriot League celebrates its 10th Anniversary; Patriot League policy regarding merit aid expanded to include all sports except football, beginning with the class entering in the fall of 2001.
- 2001 American University joins the Patriot League as a full member; Georgetown University joins as an associate member in football.
- 2003 United States Naval Academy increases participation from 12 sports to 18 by joining Patriot League in men's lacrosse, men's swimming and diving and men's and women's cross country and track and field.
- 2004 Women's Rowing is added as the Patriot League's 23rd championship sport.

During the 2005-06 year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following;

- Army's Julie Jorgensen (first-team soccer) and Bucknell's Matt Capece (third-team baseball) were named to ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America team
- 50 Patriot League student-athletes were named to ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District team
- In addition to automatic qualifiers, the Patriot League sent a second at-large team to the NCAA I-AA football playoffs for the second-straight season, and to the NCAA Men's Golf Championships for the first time in League history
- Bucknell's men's basketball program became the first Patriot League team to ever crack the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches Top 25 Poll
- American's Keira Carlstrom turned in the highest finish in Patriot League history at the NCAA Women's Cross Country Championships, placing sixth overall en route to earning her third-straight All-America nod
- Carlstrom also became the third Patriot League student-athlete to advance to the finals at the NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championships
- American's field hockey program ranked fourth in the National Field Hockey Coaches Association, the highest ever for a Patriot League team and reached the final eight in the NCAA Field Hockey Championships for the second-straight year
- Four Patriot League men's lacrosse teams (Navy, Army, Colgate, Bucknell) spent portions of the season ranked in the top 20 of the United States Intercollegiate Lacrosse Association Poll, with Navy spending the entire year in the top 15
- Holy Cross won the Patriot League's first-ever NCAA post season contest in women's lacrosse, defeating Le Moyne in the NCAA Play-In game to advance to the NCAA Women's Lacrosse Tournament
- Lehigh's softball program became the first Patriot League team to post two victories in the NCAA Regionals
- Three Patriot League football teams (Colgate, Lafayette, Lehigh) finished the season ranked in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 Coaches Poll
- Army's women's basketball program became the first female team from a service academy to advance to the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Tournament
- Lehigh's Matt McBride became the highest Patriot League student-athlete to be selected in the Major League Baseball College Draft, going in the second round (75th overall)
- Lafayette's Madalyn Booth became the first Patriot League women's lacrosse player to lead the nation in assists, averaging 2.94 per game
- Navy's Matt Russell set a NCAA single-season men's lacrosse goals against average record, allowing just 5.45 goals per game

2007 PATRIOT LEAGUE GOLF NOTEBOOK

RETURNING TO THE COURSE

Two-time Patriot League individual champion Charles Waddell of Bucknell returns to Patriot League competition for his senior year. Last season, he became the first-ever golf student-athlete to be crowned as individual champion two years in a row. The 2006 Patriot League Rookie of the Year, Navy's Ryan Wielgus, will be back as well.

FIRST YEAR AT THE HELM

The Patriot League welcomes a new head coach, but not a new face. Lehigh alum Henry D'Alberto takes over the Mountain Hawk squad this season after being an assistant coach last season. In his days on the Mountaintop campus, he was named the 1997 Patriot League individual champion and was a four-time All-Patriot League honoree.

2007 PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

	Points (First-Place Votes)
1. Bucknell	66 (8)
2. Army	64 (5)
3. Navy	52 (1)
4. Lehigh	45
5. Colgate	28
6. Holy Cross	22
7. Lafayette	17

Defending Patriot League champion Bucknell was chosen to win the Patriot League Championship in a vote by Patriot League head coaches and sports information directors in the 2007 Golf Preseason Poll.

The Bison received eight first-place votes and 66 points overall. Last year, Bucknell claimed its first-ever Patriot League golf title. Head Coach Jim Cotner, the 2006 Patriot League Coach of the Year, returns the two-time Patriot League Individual Champion Charles Waddell.

Army came in a close second, only two points behind Bucknell with 64 total points and five first-place votes. In the 2006 Patriot League Championship, the Black Knights fell to Bucknell by two points which was the closest decision since 1997. Eight letterwinners return to the course including co-captains Patrick Beverly and Joey Cave. Cave was a First-Team All-Patriot League selection, while Beverly was a Second-Team honoree.

With one first-place vote and 52 points, Navy came in third. The Mids' last championship came in 2003, its fourth title in five years. Six letterwinners are back in action this season with Second-Team All-Patriot League selections Chris Renninger and the 2006 Patriot League Rookie of the Year Ryan Wielgus.

Lehigh received the 45 total points for fourth place. The Mountain Hawks finished fourth at the Patriot League Championship last year, 18 points below third-place Navy. First-year Head Coach Henry D'Alberto welcomes four returning letterwinners back on the course including Alan Borowsky as captain.

Colgate (28), Holy Cross (22) and Lafayette (17) rounded out the poll.

PATRIOT LEAGUE BY-THE-NUMBERS

1 Army's Mike Sessa is the only Patriot Leaguer to have made a hole-in-one at the Patriot League Championship (1995)

3 Number of head coaches to coach their school in each year of existence of the Patriot League (Molt, Clevenger, Owen)

5 Number of years that Navy Head Coach Pat Owen has been named Patriot League Coach of the Year

8 Number of appearances Army has made in the NCAA Tournament

16 The highest placement of a Patriot League team at the NCAA Tournament (Army, 1992)

32 The lowest round score at the Patriot League Championship (Bucknell's Ben Pellicani, 2005; Army's Kevin Lee, 2002)

65 Number of Patriot League student-athletes named to the 2006 Patriot League Academic Honor Roll

209 Patriot League record for lowest individual score at the Patriot League Championship (Bucknell's Charles Waddell, 2005; Army's Scott Manley and Kevin Lee, 2002; Navy's Billy Hurley, 2002)

637 The lowest team score needed to win the Patriot League Championship in 1991 (Army)

2004 The year that Navy's Billy Hurley was named as a Ping GCAA All-American Honorable Mention, Byron Nelson Award Winner and invited to participate in the NCAA Tournament as an individual

TIEBREAKING PROCEDURES

In the case of ties in the Patriot League Championship, the following process will be used until all ties are broken:

In case of a tie by two (2) or more teams, the champion is decided by a sudden-death play-off. Weather and time permitting, all six golfers from each team tied for first place play an additional hole. The best four of the six scores are counted with the lowest total winning the playoff.

If a tie still remains, the second hole will be played, etc.

If weather and time do not permit, a match of cards will be conducted. It is the responsibility of the sport committee to rule on the feasibility of continuing with a playoff, but every attempt should be made to conduct one if possible. Final round fifth (5th) man scores will be compared. If a tie still exists, final round sixth (6th) man scores will be compared. If a tie still exists, second round fifth (5th) man scores will be compared, followed by second round sixth (6th) man scores. If a tie still exists, first round fifth (5th) man scores will be compared followed by first round sixth (6th) man scores. It is the responsibility of the sport committee to rule on the feasibility of continuing with a playoff, but every attempt should be made to conduct one if possible. If a playoff begins but cannot be completed, fifth (5th) man scores on the last hole completed will be compared. If a tie still exists, sixth (6th) man scores on the last hole completed will be compared.

MAKING HISTORY

Bucknell won its first-ever Patriot League Golf Championship. The Bison earned its title with a score of 896, two less than defending champion Army. Also, 2006 marked the first time the Patriot League had two teams (Army, Bucknell) selected to compete in the NCAA Regional competition.

TWICE AS NICE

Bucknell's Charles Waddell was named as the Patriot League Individual Champion, shooting three-under par for the Tournament. Waddell became the first-ever individual champion to take the honor two years in a row.

Bison Head Coach Jim Cotner was awarded Patriot League Coach of the Year for the second-straight year. In 2005, Cotner shared the honor with then-Colgate Head Coach Brad Houston.

IN THE CLASSROOM

Army's Pat Beverly was selected as the 2006 Patriot League Golf Scholar-Athlete of the Year in a vote by the Patriot League's Sports Information Directors. Beverly, an economics major from Humble, Texas, joined former Army teammate Pete Mangold as the only two Eagles to be named Patriot League Golf Scholar-Athlete of the Year. A two-time Patriot League Academic Honor Roll member, Beverly boasted a 3.59 grade point average while assisting Army to its third-straight NCAA Golf Championship appearance.

WHAT A PAIR

For the first time, two Patriot League teams earned a spot at the NCAA Golf Championship. Bucknell received an automatic bid after clinching the Patriot League Championship, while Army received a wild card bid into the tournament. It was Army's third-consecutive trip and eighth overall.

ON THE LIST

Bucknell's Charles Waddell is now on the Top 10 Individual Performances at the Patriot League Championship twice. His score of 210 tied him for fifth with another Bison Ben Pellicani. In 2005, he shot a 209, landing him in first along with three others.

FAREWELL

2006 marked American's last season in the Patriot League. They competed with two individuals at the Patriot League Championship.
